

Devils E- News

Dare to be a Devil!

Week 4, April 21 2005

Anzac Day Tribute

This week sees the Tasmanian Devils take on the Frankston Dolphins for the Alec Campbell Cup as part of the Anzac Day festivities. During the game the best player for both teams will be awarded the Frank McDonald Medal, struck in honour of Tasmania's last bravery award recipient from World War 1.

This year also sees the tradition continue with Lauderdale and Glenorchy to compete for the Tasmanian State RSL Branch Perpetual Trophy keeping alive the Bombers versus Magpies tradition made famous as part of the Anzac Day activities.

Why not bring come to the day to show your support not only of the Devils but the brave men and women who fought for our country.

Show your support!

You can watch the Devils train and support the club every Thursday night at North Hobart Oval in the Plaister Stand.

Members are welcome. Bring a mate and sign them up to the Devils.

Members Caps arrive

Bring your Merchandise Voucher to the game on Sunday and collect your merchandise from the stall located between the Southern Stand and the Stuart Spencer Stand.

Bellerive Oval
Sunday 24th April 2005

B: B.Geappen, Jovanovic, Street
HB: Atkin, Britton, Grima
C: Shackleton, M.Geappen, Beams
HF: Setchell, Peterson, Ronison
F: Millhouse, Plapp, Wager
R: Johnson, Hall, Callinan
Int from : Henley, Savage, Walker,
T. Geappen, McVilly, Ronaldson,
Heazlewood, Paine

Devils Team to play Frankston

Coach Mathew Armstrong has named a strong team to take on the Dolphins at Bellerive Oval on Sunday. The final team to be finalised tomorrow being a Sunday game.

Ben Atkin played a blinder last week as is looking forward to playing his first 'home game' of 2005. Into the side comes Justin Plapp, who should play subject to a fitness test.

Put these dates in your diary

14 May 2005
Players Mock Wedding

11th June 2005
An evening with Kerry O'Keeffe

29th July 2005
Ladies Lunch

16th September 2005
Bill Sorell's Sportmans Lunch

1st October 2005
Alastair Lynch Medal

These functions are available to all members and to get more information or to make a booking call Jaimes on 62301802

First real routine

The Wrest Point Tasmanian Devils She Devils will complete 2 full routines at this week's Devils game against Frankston at Bellerive Oval.

The routines will be done before the main game and at the half time break.

Free Ticket Offer!

MBF, the game sponsor of the Tasmanian Devils versus Sandringham game on May 7th 2005 are offering two adult pass gate entry tickets to all MBF members who show their membership card to the staff in the Merchandise stall, located next to the Southern Stand between the Stuart Spencer Stand.

The first 250 MBF members to show their card will receive 2 tickets to the game in two weeks.

hell bent on success