It's all going to Footy Trip, so let's see 6's!!

Stuff you should probably know:

- * Seniors to meet at "Clockwork Café" in Clifton Hill (same place as last time) for pre game breakfast @ 930am.
- * Cocktail Night on the 6th of August.
- * Friday Night Rugby 22nd of July. Expressions of interest required.

There's no need to punch on over a push up.

We came into Saturday knowing we were playing the bottom placed, winless Chadstone. With many possibly thinking "This'll be a walk over, we don't even need to turn up." For the first time this year, I'm going to credit the opposition (in the seniors) for showing up and taking the lead at quarter time, much to the surprise of everyone. (Just quietly, I think Brad sh*t himself) Thankfully though, No Neck Geary upped the ante and tagged their best midfielder and gave him an absolute bath. Dougy was in everything across half back, as per usual and Fizzy Bubbly was able to pick up the footy this week (although he still hasn't learnt how to kick on the run) Two recently promoted players Olly (who slotted 2 goals) and Scotty Rymer (in his first senior game) put forward strong cases for reselection in the Seniors, and it was good to see Burnsy back. Thankfully after 3 quarters of decent footy we managed to come away with the chocolates.

In the reserves we had a slightly unorthodox pre game rev up, with Ox declaring "I want to try and get everyone a goal today" That almost happened. With a 100 point lead at half time, turning into a 207 point margin by full time, the goals were flowing thick and fast (even though Pizzari was plucking them on the line instead of shepherding them through!!) Doug Hill was strong up forward in his first game for a while, AMak tore it to shreds in his 50th game (he had about 80 touches) and Fingers couldn't get a break from the footy, finishing with 4 goals. Steve (Fags) impressed on debut, while Azza showed glimpses of a young Ben Cousins, in a stellar return from injury. Harry Spano continued his brilliant season, with another game most likely finishing with a vote or two. Pizzari and Moose finished with 5 goals a piece...Sadly, Axe, Dancer and Stokesy were the only 3 blokes in the team who missed out on kicking a sausage. (Although with Axe's kicking style, it's no wonder!!)
