Rich history

This week we have a reflective look at some of the great players and coaches in the long history of the VFA and VFL competitions who have left an indelible mark.

ALONG the journey some of the game's greats like Bob Pratt, Ron Todd, Roy Cazaly, Des Fothergill, Peter McKenna, Kevin Murray, Kevin Sheedy, Barry Round, John Murphy, Trevor Barker and Sam Mitchell have all contributed to the competition's wonderful folklore.

Fothergill and Round remain the only players to have won a Brownlow Medal and a Liston Trophy, their names are perpetuated in the Fothergill Round Medal that is awarded each season for the best young Peter Jackson VFL player aged 23 or younger who has the potential to take his game to the next level.

Many players have used the competition as a launching pad to support their transition into the then VFL and now the AFL while others have contributed after completing their league careers. Regardless, they left a proud and lasting legacy. However, they are not the only ones that have added to the competitions rich history.

Legendary Port Melbourne ruckman Frank Johnson won five best and fairest awards at the Borough, represented the VFA in every year he played and twice was named as an All Australian before he moved to South Melbourne in the VFL back then. Johnson would win a best and fairest in his first season with South Melbourne and four years ago was inducted to the AFL Hall of Fame, a fitting recognition to a marvellous player.

While Johnson is the only VFA player in the AFL Hall of Fame there are a number of other Victorian players/coaches who have outstanding credentials and have served the game exceptionally well.

Bill Faul holds the VFA/VFL record for 313 games coached at Prahran, Northcote and Moorabbin. He won premierships with Prahran and Moorabbin.

And, this was on the back of a career at South Melbourne where he played 117 games, finished second in the 1932 Brownlow Medal, the same season he won the club's best and fairest and was a member of the Swans' 1933 flag and later coached the club for two seasons.

These days Billy Swan is known as the father of Brownlow

Medallist Dane, but his own football CV is remarkable. Swan is the VFA games record holder – he played 302 games with Port Melbourne and Williamstown – won two Liston Trophies, played in a bunch of premierships and won best and fairests at both clubs.

Gerry Callahan is a revered figure who captained Williamstown to three premierships, coached the club for 10 seasons, including two premierships, won a best and fairest and is honoured with the club's best and fairest named after him.

Norm Goss, for some the patriarch of Port Melbourne, let alone the father of Norm Jnr, Kevin and Paul, represented his club as a player, including a premiership, as well as being an outstanding administrator for decades.

History reflects very favourably on all the above servants of the game. There are many other great VFA/VFL identities whose achievements and contributions have enhanced the competition and game. We shouldn't forget history.

Finals Race

ASK anyone associated with clubs sitting one through nine on the VFL Bailey Ladders ladder and they will make a compelling case why their club can win the 2012 Peter Jackson VFL premiership.

It's not clubs blindly stumping up for themselves, but a genuine belief that with just four rounds of the home and away season remaining, the flag is not the domain of any one club.

Certainly, it's a far different landscape from last season when the Port Melbourne juggernaut was tearing a swathe through its rivals.

While the Borough is again premiership favourite there is a view that the Borough is far more vulnerable.

And, that's gained greater momentum given that all Port Melbourne's losses have been recorded on the road and three of the defeats have been against clubs sitting first, third and fifth.

Realistically with nine clubs left in the chase not only to make the eight, but to position themselves in such a manner to make a serious assault on the premiership, each game is heavily weighted.

And, as we witnessed just last round, every position from one through nine changed.

Such has been the volatility of the season, the only two clubs who appear certain of playing finals are Port Melbourne and Casey Scorpions.

With just two games plus percentage separating clubs currently sitting third through ninth the closing rounds of the home and away season become far more pivotal.

Perennial finalists North Ballarat and Williamstown are among the club's fighting for a place in what shapes as an enthralling final's series.

Just how one win, coupled with other results falling a particular way, can propel a club is evident as recent as last round when Williamstown's spirited win against Port Melbourne saw them jump from ninth to fifth.

Expect more fluctuations than the Dow Jones index over the next four rounds.

Here is an overview at what confronts each club.

BENDIGO

Position: 7th

Record: 8-7

Percentage: 103.6

Leading goalkickers: Little (46), Maddern (22), Dell'Olio (15), Stroobants (10)

Story so far: Bendigo's season seems to have swung as dramatically as any club. The Gold began well with two wins from its first three games, including a 71-point thrashing of Casey Scorpions then the wheels fell off. In a three week block, Bendigo lost to Northern Blues (100-points), Geelong (86) and Sandringham (38).

The bye coupled with some stinging home truths from coach Hayden Skipworth ignited Bendigo, which racked up five straight wins, including premiership aspirants Williamstown, Box Hill Hawks and Werribee. After its next bye Bendigo stretched its winning streak to six on the back of a comfortable win against North Ballarat. Bendigo was looking legitimately at a top four finish at the end of the home and away season, but those hopes were deflated after back-to-back narrow losses to Casey Scorpions (three points), Sandringham (11) and Geelong (67). What hurt most about the first two losses was that Bendigo was in a position to win both, they came against clubs also eying a top four finish and both were home games. Alarm bells started waiting however when the VFL Cats mauled them last week as it left Bendigo in the thick of a last-club-standing-stoush for the finals.

Who's ahead: Collingwood (home), BYE, Port Melbourne (away), Box Hill Hawks (home)

The equation: With another scheduled bye in the remaining rounds, Bendigo can ill afford any more slip-ups. Certainly, the Gold will start favourite against Collingwood and would fancy its chances against Box Hill Hawks at home, but they also face a trip to Port Melbourne and that doesn't fill any club with a warm and fuzzy feeling. Bendigo's season will go down to the wire, but it must regain the form it showed mid-season to cement a place in the finals. Victory against Collingwood is a non-negotiable while it will have to win one of its last two games to makes the finals.

BOX HILL HAWKS

Position: 6th

Record: 8-7

Percentage: 112

Leading goalkickers: Pratt (21), Frank (19), Lowden (11), Schneider (10)

Season so far: L B W L W L W L W B W L B W L W W L

Story so far: Apart from a couple of occasions, Box Hill Hawks has traded wins and losses on alternative rounds throughout the season. Only twice has Box Hill Hawks been able to put together back-to-back wins – against North Ballarat and Williamstown and then again when they defeated Frankston and Collingwood in back-to-back games in Rounds 16 & 17. While such a scenario has placed Box Hill Hawks inside the eight, that inability to string together a bunch of games has left the club with still plenty of work to do in the remaining rounds. At times, as evident against North Ballarat and Williamstown at Point Gellibrand, Box Hill Hawks has looked a definite contender, but its inconsistency is the aspect that must be most troubling for coach Damian Carroll. The VFL Hawks inaccuracy against Werribee last week when it had seven more scoring shots, but still lost by 18-points could come back to haunt them.

Who's ahead: Coburg Tigers (home), Port Melbourne (away), BYE, Bendigo (away)

The equation: Box Hill Hawks must win at least two of its remaining games to lock away a place in the finals. Firstly, it must avenge its 13-point loss against Coburg Tigers from back in Round 6. If the VFL Hawks can't defeat the struggling Coburg Tigers then the equation looks daunting in the extreme as they have away games at Port Melbourne and Bendigo. With the congestion within the eight, especially at the bottom end, Box Hill Hawks season could rest on its trip to the QE Oval in the final home and away round.

CASEY SCORPIONS

Position: 1st

Record: 12-2

Percentage: 106.5

Leading goalkickers: Fitzpatrick (16), Cook (13), Smith (11), Couch (10)

Season so far: W W W L B W
W W B W W B W L W W B W

Story so far: Clearly, the Scorpions have provided the biggest surprise of the season. With the well documented pre-season departure of Messrs Fevola, Mohr, Stockdale and Wall and no apparent 'big name' recruits, Casey didn't figure in many or any premiership discussions. Just as he repeatedly did at Frankston, new coach Brett Lovett has filled his players with confidence, belief and unity and that's translated into a season result that few predicted. The Scorpions spirit has been evident when games are on the line as evident from the fact that they are 8-0 in games decided by 13-points or less. Normally, wins and losses in close games balance out over the course of a season, but it takes a good club to boast a record that Casey does. Sure, there's been times, as evident when they lost by 71-points against Bendigo and 78-points against Werribee, Casey has been smashed, but what has been impressive is how they've responded the following match. And, even when Port Melbourne led by six goals at half time, Casey didn't meekly surrender, but fought back to register a stirring nine point win. Casey has been helped unquestionably with all the Melbourne players buying into Lovett's program, but also many of its unheralded VFL players have stepped up.

Who's ahead: Northern (home), Geelong (home), Collingwood (away), Sandringham (home)

The equation: While it sits perched above Port

Geelong and Casey both sit in the top four, and in the double chance positions.

Melbourne on the ladder, Casey's low percentage – its smaller than most clubs in the eight – means it must win at least two of its remaining games to secure a double chance and possibly even a home final in the first week. Certainly, the draw and three home games at Casey Fields are in its favour. Casey would start overwhelming favourites against both Northern Blues and Collingwood, but Geelong and Sandringham definitely shape as danger games. Geelong is a vastly different club that the Scorpions defeated by 46-points at Simonds Stadium back in Round 7 while the Zebras squandered a kick for goal on the siren that would have given them victory in Round 13. What the season has told us so far is not to underestimate the Scorpions.

GEELONG

Position: 3rd

Record: 10-4

Percentage: 126.7

Leading goalkickers: Brown (26), Kersten (23), Walker (20), Schroder (14), Simpkin (11)

Season so far: B W W W L W L B L L W B W W W B W

Story so far: Geelong's season can be broken into two sections – pre and post Round 10. The VFL Cats in the pre-section were a mid-placed team with a 4-4 record, but post Round 10, Geelong is 6-0. And, while the second half draw has been favourable, Geelong defeated Port Melbourne by 21-points, belted Box Hill Hawks (51-points), trounced Bendigo (67-points) and generally have the look of a club that is building momentum at the right time of the season. What also can't be ignored is that Geelong's winning streak has come with an average winning margin of 45-points. Certainly, it helps to have such elder statesmen as Troy Selwood, Dom Gleeson and Andrew McLean to guide an emerging pool of young talent.

Who's ahead: North Ballarat (away), Casey (away), Coburg Tigers (home), Williamstown (home)

The equation: Tough run home for the VFL Cats, but that's no different for a bunch of clubs. What Geelong has in its favour is that its percentage equates to a game for all those trying to leap-frog them. With the AFL Cats injury list declining it means its VFL ranks will be strengthened by players who have performed well at the game's elite level just as we recently saw when James Podsiadly made his first appearance last round in the VFL for a couple of seasons.

NORTH BALLARAT

Position: 9th

Record: 8-6

Percentage: 95

Leading goalkickers: Driscoll (30), Black (19), George (16), McMahon (15), Austin (10)

Season so far: L L W L L L B W L W B W W W L W W B

Story so far: After a woeful start to the season, North Ballarat is showing signs of the club that has been a dominant force for the past five years. But, the Roosters' 2-6 start to the season, which included thumping losses to Sandringham (55-points), Williamstown (52), Port Melbourne (84) and Box Hill Hawks (81) has meant that its percentage is clearly the worst of any of those clubs vying for a place in the finals. And, it has forced North Ballarat to play catch-up footy with every match taking on an elimination final atmosphere. Certainly, North Ballarat has managed to get its season back on track from the mid-way mark where it owns a 6-1 mark with pivotal wins against Geelong (21-points), Williamstown (seven) and Sandringham (32). There is a far more menacing look about North Ballarat and that usually translates to trouble for opposition clubs

Who's ahead: Geelong

BYE, Port Melbourne (home)

The equation: While North Ballarat has regained its mojo its dreadful opening means that the Rooster's still face a herculean battle to extend to seven its consecutive final's appearances. North Ballarat faces as tough a run as any club into the finals with games against three clubs sitting in the top five and to compound the situation the Rooster's have a bye. Apart from this round's opponent Geelong, North Ballarat were on the receiving end of some frightful hidings by Werribee and Port Melbourne earlier in the season and they have to travel to Chirnside Park and then host Port Melbourne to avenge them. It's a challenging assignment for North Ballarat, which realistically must win two of its remaining games to play finals and even then that may not be enough.

PORT MELBOURNE

Position: 2nd

Record: 11-4

Percentage: 154

Leading goalkickers: Galea (58), Cain (36), Burstin (24), Dwyer (19), Pitt (14), Valenti (12), Bonaddio (11), O'Farrell (11)

Season so far: W W W W W W

Story so far: Port Melbourne

began the season where they finished – taking all before them. The Borough marched past Preston's recent record of consecutive wins (23) set in the 1984-85 seasons to takes its winning streak to an incredible 28 games. Significantly, Port Melbourne's first seven wins came at an average winning margin of 64-points. No one could see the Collingwood 21-point upset win coming in Round 8. It appeared an aberration as Port Melbourne immediately demolished its Foxtel Cup opponent, NT Thunder and Frankston in successive weeks, but when Geelong defeated the Borough by 21-points in Round 11 more began to question whether Port Melbourne was as invincible as last season. Such a forum gained further momentum when Casey Scorpions overcame a 34-point deficit at half time to defeat Port Melbourne by nine points and then Williamstown over ran them by 11-points last round. Interestingly, all four losses came away from the North Port Oval where the Borough has been impregnable for much of coach Gary Ayres' reign. For all the naysayers, the inescapable fact is that Port Melbourne will finish either first or second after the home and away season and with home finals in the first and third weeks of the finals the Borough will again be hard to topple.

Who's ahead: BYE, Box Hill Hawks (home), Bendigo (home), North Ballarat (away)

proportions for Port Melbourne not to finish on top or at worst in second place. While the Borough has a bye and plays three clubs in contention for finals, the bottom line is that two of those games – Box Hill Hawks and Bendigo - are at home. Port Melbourne comfortably defeated both clubs earlier in the season and while the trip to North Ballarat can be daunting, especially with the Rooster's having so much at stake, the Borough play the ground as well as anyone. And, as previously mentioned a first or second place finish will not only provide Port Melbourne a double chance, but with it the knowledge finals will be played at North Port Oval. More cracks may be beginning to appear in the arsenal, but not enough to send shock waves through its fans.

SANDRINGHAM

Position: 8th

Record: 8-6

Percentage: 103.1

Leading goalkickers: Archer (23), Wilkes (20), Dunnell (13), Curren (11)

Season so far: W W L B L W W

Story so far: After charging out of the blocks to own a 6-2 record – and both its defeats were by 19-points or less - heading into its second bye in Round 10, Sandringham has scuffled in the second half of the season. The Zebras 2-4 mark after Round 10 has left its return to the finals for the first time since 2007 questionable. What would be particularly concerning to coach Simon McPhee is that included in the Zebras' four losses since Round 10 are clubs – Werribee (79-points), Casey Scorpions (four), Port Melbourne (30) and North Ballarat (30) - that are in the heart of the final's race. Apart from its Round 17 victory over Bendigo, Sandringham has not defeated a top eight team since its four-point win against Geelong in Round 9. The Zebras' ability to post big scores has also dried up in the second half. They kicked 15 goals or more six times up to round 10, but haven't managed one 15-goal game since.

Who's ahead: Frankston (home), Collingwood (home), Williamstown (away), Casey (away)

The equation: Sandringham can take giant steps to ensuring it plays finals in the next two games against Frankston and Collingwood, both at the Trevor Barker Oval. The Zebras were pushed to one goal by Frankston back in Round 11 while the vagaries of the draw mean that the Round 20 match against Collingwood will be the club's first encounter this season. Sandringham must win both games as they face a challenging trip to Williamstown, who defeated them by 19-points back in Round 5, and to Casey in the final game of the home and away season. The Zebras will fancy its chances against Casey as they had many chances to defeat the Scorpions in Round 13, but fell four-points short. If the Zebras can defeat Frankston and Collingwood then claim another win from the last two games they will make the eight and can even push for a top four spot depending on other results.

WERRIBEE TIGERS

Position: 4th

Record: 10-5

Percentage: 125

Leading goalkickers: Warren (40), McKinley (32), Castello (24), Hansen (16), Tarrant (13)

Season so far: W L L B W L W
W W W B W L W B W L W

Story so far: After dropping two of its first three games of the season and one of those was against Port Melbourne, Werribee has emerged as a legitimate premiership contender. The Tigers have inflicted some massive wins against clubs sitting inside and outside the eight. They've defeated Geelong (37-points), Coburg Tigers (51), Collingwood (109), Sandringham (79) and Casey Scorpions (78). If they had been able to convert one of the two narrow losses against Williamstown and North Ballarat are amongst five teams battling for just four spots left in the top eight.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Position: 5th

Record: 8-6-1

Percentage: 107

Leading goalkickers: Panos (18), Hill (16), Hooper (13), Redpath (13)

Season so far: L W L W W W L

Story so far: It's largely been a peculiar season for Williamstown, which at times has struggled mightily to gain any momentum and then sustain it, but the Seagulls have displayed in the past two rounds the character that it is renowned. What anchored Williamstown for much of the season and left them in a precarious position is its inability to win close games. Whilst they have twice defeated Werribee by single digit points and also defeated Northern Blues by 14-points, the Seagulls have dropped five games decided by 19-points or less and inexplicably drew with Frankston. But, Williamstown's fighting spirit returned as it defeated Werribee and Port Melbourne in the past two weeks by two and 11-points respectively. For all that Williamstown is still precariously poised with no wriggle room. One area that has really hurt the Seagulls is its ability to apply scoreboard pressure. They've managed just six century scorelines and its leading goal kicker is Matthew Panos with just 18 goals. Another telling fact is that Williamstown dropped two of its five games since returning to its Point Gellibrand home.

Who's ahead: BYE, Northern Blues (home), Sandringham (home), Geelong (away)

The equation: With a bye scheduled this round, Williamstown has just three games to force its way into the finals, something that is viewed as a given at the club. The Seagulls will start warm favourites when they host Northern Blues, but it's the last two games of the home and away season that will determine if Williamstown makes the finals for the seventh consecutive season. The Seagulls must win against both Sandringham, which they defeated by 19-points in Round 5, and Geelong, which they lost to by seven points at Torquay in Round 3, to guarantee its place in September. The trip to Simonds Stadium to play Geelong in the final home and away round could prove defining in more ways than one for Williamstown.

Ford Coaches Player of the Year Award

THE voting for the 2012 Peter Jackson VFL Ford Coaches Player of the Year Award has now gone in camera, with any of the top 10 still able to take out this year's inaugural award.

Northern Blues's Adam Marcon has joined Port captain John Baird at the top of the votes, with four rounds to go in the season.

The Blues youngster is well placed against his more experienced opponent, as the Northern Blues have four matches left to play this season, whilst Port Melbourne have their final bye this weekend, before playing their final three games.

After each round coaches vote on players from the opposition team that they believe to have been the most influential on the match and on their team's performance.

All votes – on a three, two and one basis – are submitted to AFL Victoria after each match.

The voting tally will remain in camera until the Liston Trophy night on Monday September 3 when the winner will be revealed.

The player awarded the VFL Ford Coaches Player of the Year Award will win the use of a Ford vehicle for six months.

Roosters & Cats battle for $50,000

THERE will be more than just the four points on offer this Sunday in the Round 19 Peter Jackson VFL clash between North Ballarat and Geelong.

The sides will be playing for $50,000 and the Cotton On Foundation Children's Ward Cup.

The Cotton On Foundation has donated the prize money, which will be taken home by the Children's Ward in the town of the winning team. Representatives from Geelong Hospital and Ballarat Base Hospital will be attending the game in the hope of taking home the cheque that will kick start the fundraising for their respective 2012 Run Geelong and Run Ballarat events.

This year will see the inaugural Run Ballarat event, which is based on the Run Geelong concept, now is in its fourth year. There is a 6km run / walk or a 12km run and 100% of participants' registration fee goes directly to the children's ward at the hospital. Run Geelong has already raised $750,000 for the children's ward at the Geelong Hospital, which has resulted in a full redevelopment that will be complete at the end of this year.

This game will bring the two communities together and give people another opportunity to register for the Run's, while also watching a great game of footy.

North Ballarat coach Gerard FitzGerald said his side is looking forward to the weekend's match, and the added incentive for winning.

"It is great for the competition that an organisation would hold the VFL in such regard to be associated with it.

North Ballarat defeated Geelong by 24 points in round 10.

"There has been a lot of press about the Cotton On Foundation Children's Ward Cup so the players definitely know about it. This game is very important because the boys are not only looking to win the Cup for their community but also get a victory leading into the finals," FitzGerald said.

"We really appreciate the sponsorship that the Cotton On Foundation has provided and the opportunity that it presents."

North Ballarat dropped out of the eight last week due to Williamstown defeating Port Melbourne and the Roosters having the bye. Luckily for the Roosters, the likes of Bendigo and Box Hill Hawks, who are on even points with them (32), lost last week which means North Ballarat has not dropped behind the pack.

The earlier Round 10 clash between Geelong and North Ballarat was a turning point in the season for each. For Geelong, they have since won six games in a row, by an average winning margin of 45 points. The Roosters have won five of their next six games to get right back into finals contention.

With the draw the way it is, North Ballarat have a prime opportunity to jump back into the top eight with Williamstown – two points ahead in fifth – having the bye this round.

However a defeat for the Roosters could be damaging as Box Hill Hawks, Bendigo and Sandringham all play bottom four sides this round, and would be favoured to record wins. North Ballarat are already hampered by being 8% outside of the top eight, so to possibly go a game and percentage behind those sides would make the Roosters final two games of the season (they have one bye left) almost elimination finals against Werribee Tigers and Port Melbourne.

A victory for Geelong this weekend would see them well placed to cement a top four spot, with a two game gap on sixth placed Box Hill, as well as a healthy percentage.

North Ballarat and Geelong go head to head at Eureka Stadium in Ballarat this Sunday August 5.

Seagulls jump to fifth

WILLIAMSTOWN have jumped four spots on the Peter Jackson VFL Ladder after causing an upset win against top of the table rival Port Melbourne as Brendan Lucas reports.

The Seagulls have moved from ninth to fifth, and are continuing their late season push into the top eight.

It was captain Ben Jolley's 150th game for the Seagulls who put in a solid performance (with 32 disposals), whilst Borough coach Gary Ayres was also celebrating his 100th game as a VFL coach at Port.

Both sides managed only four goals for the first term and five goals for the half, as muddy and wet conditions made it difficult in the scrappy, low-scoring affair.

James Wall set the scene early with a big bump on Sam Fleming causing the Borough backman to leave the field early under the blood rule.

Matt Panos and Tom Hill provided the key targets up forward for the Seagulls, but from the opening bounce it was clear it would not be their day to shine.

As the game wore on, jumpers were fading and fatigue began to set in as crucial moments changed the game.

Justin Sherman's goal at the 23-minute mark of the second term brought the margin to just three-points at half time.

Sherman was proving a key to the Seagulls' hopes with a goal from the boundary line in the opening minutes of the third term putting his side in front.

As the sun peeked out from the clouds, Tom Langford gained a spark of energy to turn the tide back in the Boroughs' favour at the 7-minute mark.

He then followed up with another only minutes later to stretch the Borough lead to 14-points.

At three quarter time, everything was on the line, as both coaches fired up their sides.

The Borough had their nose in front in key areas leading inside 50 entries 10-7 and the clearances 7-6. Both would prove crucial to the outcome of the game.

The Seagulls were desperate to launch themselves into the eight, as Andrew Hooper dealt the first blow to the Borough with a goal to start the final term.

Hunger and determination continued to show as one goal became two-in-a-row through Dylan Addison.

At the 20-minute mark, a kick off the deck from Justin Sherman tipped the margin in the Seagulls' favour as Dylan Addison marked and kicked his second.

Sherman capped off the 11-point win and a near best on ground performance with his third at the 27-minute mark to put the game beyond reach from the Borough who had no answers.

Coach Peter German said crucial moments won it for his side, but admitted the game could have gone either way.

"Everyone stuck to their task. We went into it with a mindset of looking at four or five of their key players," he said.

"One of the main messages I told our players in the last quarter is to drive in hard at the ball and gather forward momentum with the ball, and they did that."

"In the end the boys just dug deep, and I thought for the first time for a while the footy God's actually smiled at us, but you make your own luck."

He said Justin Sherman played a key role creating some of their good fortune.

"Shermo [Sherman] was outstanding. It was just some of his simple things like his ability just to soccer the ball forward in key moments and control the ball that was terrific."

Blues Tame Tigers

IN what was undoubtedly their best performance for season 2012, the Northern Blues comprehensively defeated the Coburg Tigers by 99 points in wintry conditions at Preston City Oval on Sunday as Damian Tardio reports.

The win moves the Northern Blues to eleventh on the Peter Jackson VFL ladder and keeps the Blues' away from bottom spot.

It was a whirlwind display in the first term, as the Northern Blues set up their big win with a flurry of eight unanswered goals to leave the Tigers 51 points behind and scoreless heading into the first break.

Tyson Thomas led the way with 2 goals in the opening term and caused major problems for the Coburg defence.

In comparison to the first term, the second was much more even, with both sides managing 2 goals apiece. Defender Pat McCarthy booted the only Blues goals for the quarter as he was a surprise starter up forward.

After half time, the Northern Blues continued along their merry way as they slammed home another 5 goals for the quarter to extend their lead to 72 points come the final break. The major highlight of the third term coming from Rohan Kerr, who on his left boot, from the left forward pocket boundary, snuck in one of the more incredible goals seen this year.

Relishing the big lead, the Blues were not prepared to put the cue in the rack as they continued to pressure the Tigers and cause turnovers and mistakes. Come the final siren the Blues would fall 1-point short of a three figure win though Assistant Coach Matthew Capuano was pleased none the less with the team's performance.

"Our ability to pressure the opposition when they had the footy was a real highlight for us, and I am really pleased with our boys intent and willingness to do the hard things."

Instrumental in the win were Adam Marcon who finished the afternoon with 33 disposals, Jordan Russell who in his 50th VFL match finished with 22 disposals and Tom Wilson who was a revelation in the forward half, booting 4 goals.

Capuano praised the 'unsung heroes' of the team, "Marcon's been really consistent for us, you see Tom Wilson come in and kick 4 goals for us and Kane Lambert does a job for us every week, those guys are a really vital part of our team and have all had really good years."

A major positive for the Blues both at VFL and AFL level was the return of key forward Jarrad Waite from injury. Capuano was pleased with Waite's output in his comeback game.

"He got through, he probably needed the run and it was great that he didn't encounter any problems during the game."

With four games left for the season, Capuano is hoping the Blues can finish 2012 off on a high note.

"We lost to Port Melbourne last week, so by no means do we think we have fully turned the wheel around, though we are really hoping in the final games we have left to play that we can finish the year off as good as we can."

On a bleak day for Coburg, Jeromey Webberley was the leading stat-getter with 26 disposals, while Angus Graham held his head up high in the ruck with 47 hit outs.

Round 19 sees the Northern Blues travelling to Casey Fields to take on the enormous task of the Casey Scorpions while Coburg will travel to Box Hill City Oval where they will meet the 6th placed Box Hill Hawks.

Around the grounds

EACH week we will take a look at some of the news and views from around the Peter Jackson VFL.

JUMBLED LADDER

What a round it was in the Peter Jackson VFL last week with all but two positions on the 13 team Bailey Ladders ladder changing. How close it will be for top eight spots at the end of the season was highlighted with every position in the top eight changing, and percentage becoming a key area to watch in coming weeks. Werribee showed just how important percentage will become, as they defeated Box Hill Hawks for the first time this season, but dropped from third to fourth on the ladder.

OCtober

The month of October will again be a month away from alcohol for the Box Hill Hawks players as they take part in Ocsober. This weekend's game against Werribee Tigers is partnered by Ocsober, which is a fundraising initiative of Life Education and it encourages people to give up alcohol for the month of October. All Box Hill Hawks players will be participating and the club encourages VFL supporters to get behind their favourite player to see who can raise the most money. For information on how to get involved head to their website www.ocsober.com.au.

BAILEY LADDERS COIN TOSS

As part of their support for the Peter Jackson VFL, Bailey Ladders has been offering their local stockists the opportunity to toss the coin at selected VFL matches this season. Last weekend local Mitre 10 owner Stuart Womersley was given the chance to toss the coin at the Frankston versus Casey Scorpions game, and another store owner will be given the chance to toss the coin this weekend at the Casey Scorpions versus Northern Blues clash.

AYRES NEW PRESIDENT

It certainly was a big week for Port Melbourne coach Gary Ayres leading up to his round 18 match against Williamstown. As reported here last week, Ayres signed a two year contract extension leading up to his 100th game as Port coach. But also during that week he was announced as the new President of the Victorian branch of the Australian Football Coaches Association (AFCA). Ayres takes over from former St Kilda coach Stan Alves, who has stepped down from the role after 10 years in the position. The Port coach was honoured to be asked to take over the President's role from Alves. "It's very much a privilege and an honour. I am very keen to work alongside Steve (Teakel, AFL Victoria's Coaching Development Manager) and the rest of the executive committee. You have to have a passion for the job that you do, and I am very passionate about coaching, and the development of coaching."

VIDEO TRIAL

The Sandringham versus Collingwood round 20 VFL game could be used as part of a two game video streaming trial to be done by AFL Victoria. If approvals for the broadcast are received in time, the match from Trevor Barker Oval will be broadcast live via vfl.com.au on Sunday August 12 from 2pm.

Echuca Inclusion Day

THE Echuca community highlighted their forward thinking and inclusive nature by recently holding a community football day.

The day was successful in reaching its aims to raise awareness, improve mutual respect, confidence and physical development of all participants.

The concept dates back three years ago when AFL Victoria helped develop a Special Needs Auskick group aligned with the Echuca United Auskick Centre.

The initiative was developed to give children with a disability the opportunity to cultivate their skills and confidence to participate in football games and socialise with others successfully.

Years on, the Echuca 'Rockets' and 'Rockettes' Special Needs Football and Netball teams have been created to cater for the ongoing participation of these children.

Due to the success of this initiative, numerous trusts including Helen McPherson Smith, ANZ, YMCA and CLUBgrants became involved by funding a full time position for a Coordinator to organise and manage a 'One and All Inclusion Project'.

The project originally began in July 2010 covering Echuca and southern New South Wales. It aims to work with local schools and the wider community to provide children with a disability greater opportunity to integrate with their able bodied peers, through organised sports and activity days.

With the expertise of the 'One and All Inclusion Project' and sponsorship by the Shire of Campaspe, on Sunday July 22 the Rockets took part in their third inclusion game for the season, with the support of 'buddies' from the Under 14 Echuca United side.

The day also included an Under 12 Goulburn Campaspe

Junior Football League game between Echuca United and Kyabram Black as well as an Over 47's match comprising of players from Geelong, Ballarat, Gisborne, Melton and Echuca. The festivities concluded with an exhibition game played between the Echuca Masters Football Team and the "All Stars" which consisted of such personalities as a local Golf Pro, Tennis Pro, Radio personality, Shire representative and two special needs adults.

AFL Victoria Regional Development Manager for Central Murray and North Central, Trevor Mellington has been involved in the initiative from day dot and has been happy to see how it has flourished with the assistance it has gained.

"AFL Victoria is pleased to be able to support such a wonderful community initiative. The strong focus on inclusion parallels the commitment of our own organisation in ensuring that Australian Rules Football is accessible to everyone. The organisers are to be congratulated on the way that they have expanded on an existing concept to broaden the depth and breadth of participation across all age groups, genders and abilities. It is fantastic to know that this day is to become an annual event on the local sporting calendar."

The Rockets next adventure comes on August 12 when the team travels to the MCG to play at half time of the Richmond vs Western Bulldogs AFL match.

Around the Grounds - TAC Cup

EACH week we will take a look at some of the news and views from around the TAC Cup competition.

GIPPSLAND POWERS CELEBRATIONS

The Gippsland Power held a Club Ball last weekend to celebrate 20 years of involvement in the TAC Cup competition.

Current and past players, coaches, officials, parents and supporters attended the event at Lardner Park Function Centre. Festivities included the announcement of the Gippsland Power All-Star Team 1993-2012.

Past players that were present on the night to accept their award included the likes of Dyson Heppel, Jarryd Roughead, Leigh Brown, David Wojcinski and Troy Makepeace.

AFL RISING STAR NOMINEE'S

Adam Treloar from the Greater Western Sydney Giants is the Round 18 NAB AFL Rising Star nominee.

Adam played his TAC Cup football at the Dandenong Stingrays and was a 17-year-old access selection in 2011 for GWS.

In what was a disappointing match for GWS, Adam provided a shining light against the Magpies, accumulating 37 touches (18 kicks and 19 handpasses), nine marks and a goal against a tough opponent in Scott Pendlebury.

The talented midfielder is the fifth former TAC Cup player to be nominated from the Giants for the NAB AFL Rising Star in 2012. The Giants' nominations include Jeremy Cameron (Round Two), Tomas Bugg (Round Five), Dylan Shiel (Round 10) and Toby Greene (Round 14).

AFL DEBUT'S

Former Western Jet, Elliott Kavanagh made his official AFL debut for the Essendon Football Club in Round 18 against the Hawks.

The classy midfielder was picked with selection 19 in the 2011 NAB AFL Draft, but due to consecutive hamstring issues the bombers did not feel the need to rush his initiation into senior football.

Kavanagh was a late inclusion for Essendon on the weekend replacing Cale Hooker in the Dons line-up. The 19 year old amassed 8 kicks, 5 handballs and 4 marks during the 77 percent of game time his was involved in.

BUSINESS END OF THE SEASON

Entering the business end of the season, five teams are vying for 3rd & 4th place on the TAC Cup ladder. Calder, Sandringham, Dandenong, Murray and Oakleigh each sit on eight wins and six losses with varied percentage. North Ballarat and Gippsland both have a commanding four win lead over other sides; therefore only two spots remain to secure a double chance with a handful of teams throwing their name in the hat.

FACEBOOK COMMENTS OF THE WEEK

Highlights from Round 14:

Peter Lausch - Gippsland's impressive win vs Oakleigh.

The Chargers have been up and down all season. Cmon boys lift. :-)

Joel Smith - Gippsland got out to a 51 point lead at HT, and won by 51. Fair to say it was against Oakleigh's B-Team Peter. It's hard to maintain consistency when you have 17 changes to your last side. Now this week, some private schools are finished their football and we'll get 12 boys back

Ben Norris - Lachlan Ronaldson

Karen Cashman - Gippsland Power's 20 Year Celebration Ball. An awesome night was had by all who attended. On a down side though, Josh Cashman breaking his right Scaphoid, taken to one hospital for an X-Ray, taken to the next hospital and put into a cast, THEN to Lardner Park. He got on stage with his Right Hand Men, performed like the "trooper" he is. Great music! Great crowd! Great fellowship! GREAT CLUB!

TAC Cup Coaches Award - Nick Rippon

NO player, regardless of what competition or grade he's playing, likes being dropped, but it's how a player responds that provides the greatest insight into his game and character.

Nick Rippon is no exception. The North Ballarat Rebel defender represented Vic Country in their match against NSW/ACT in the opening NAB AFL Under 18 Championship game.

But, it was the last time Vic Country selectors called upon his services.

It was a stinging rebuke, but Rippon answered the disappointment in a manner that underlined his maturity, determination and desire to gain the maximum from his football.

Rippon was called upon to play for aligned VFL club North Ballarat Roosters against Frankston, an experience he thoroughly enjoyed, but it's been back with the Rebels where the 18-year-old has really stepped up.

"It (playing in the VFL) was a really good experience playing against the bigger bodies, it really was a worthwhile experience," Rippon said

There has been ample evidence. He was among North Ballarat's best against Geelong and Northern as he racked up prolific possessions and impacted the game.

But, those games just set the table for Rippon's game against Eastern, which was off the charts. He collected 33 possessions, 14 hand balls receives, took six marks and affected four tackles.

Such a dominant performance was rewarded with three votes in the TAC Cup Coaches Award.

Rippon said Rebels' coach David Loader has given him roles in defence as well as in the mid-field.

"I'm just enjoying where-ever I'm asked to play. I just want to do my bit to help the team," he said.

Rippon admitted he was stung by the fact that he didn't gain another game with Vic Country, but said there was little to be gained in feeling sorry for himself.

He said he learned much from the AFL Under 18 Championship experience and it strengthened his resolve to finish off the season positively.

Rippon decided the only way he could extinguish such inner angst was to play consistently well and help in whatever way he could North Ballarat consolidate its position in the eight.

"I went back to North Ballarat, put my head down and tried to do my best so I might get selected again," Rippon said.

"I didn't, but I just wanted to keep playing well."

With North Ballarat certain to finish in the top four, the opportunity arises again for Rippon to showcase his talent before a wider football scouting audience.

Rippon is not concerned about that aspect. He's more interested in North Ballarat finishing off the season with a premiership.

"We have a really good depth around the club, which is good because everyone is striving hard to keep their position in the team," he said.

"I think that's one of the reasons why we are going so well this year."

Modesty prevents Rippon adding what anyone else at the club will tell you: Nick Rippon has played a telling role in the Rebels surge.

NORTHERN Knights was the first TAC Cup dynasty whose legacy is still being felt in the AFL.

The Knights, circa 1993-96, were the dominant force in the TAC Cup winning four successive premierships under the guidance of legendary development coach Keith Burns.

Quite apart from posting an achievement that still remains unrivalled, the Knights proved a nursery to some of the finest AFL footballers in the past two decades.

Certainly, North Melbourne, for one, has much to thank the Knights who provided the Kangaroos two of its captains, multiple best and fairest winners and all-time greats.

Adam Simpson, a member of Northern's first premiership, played 306 games for the 'Roos, captained the club for five seasons, is the club's third longest serving skipper, and won a best and fairest.

Simpson also played in the club's 1999 premiership as did Brent Harvey, a member of the Knights' 1995 premiership.

Harvey has forged a career at North Melbourne that few, if any, Shinboners can match.

It's quite extraordinary that Harvey, the club's game record holder at 340 and counting, remains as dangerous a player as when he first burst onto the AFL.

He captained the club for three seasons and his five best and fairests is the most in the club's history.

Harvey and Simpson are not the only premiership players the Knights produced: Chris Johnson was a member each year of Brisbane's threepeat while Blake Caracella was a teammate of Johnson 10 years after they played at the Knights when the Lions won the 2003 flag.

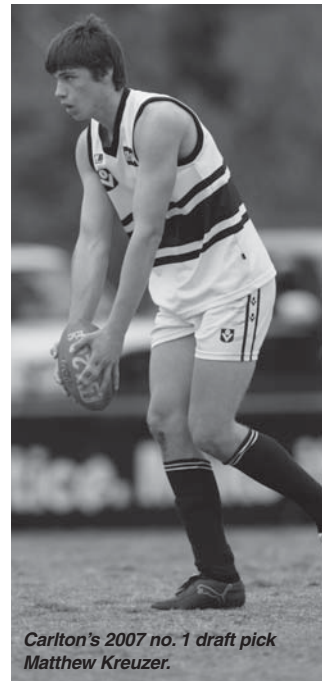

Ben Johnson and Heath Shaw were teammates in Collingwood's 2010 flag and both players have won the Anzac Day Medal.

Northern's propensity to produce AFL captains doesn't end with Harvey and Simpson. Lance Whitnall, who played in the last of the Knights' four flags, captained Carlton in 2007, and Jack Grimes, one of four brothers to play for the club, is one of Melbourne's co-captains.

Richmond's Trent Cotchin joins Harvey, Simpson and Whitnall as best and fairest winners.

The Knights also have the distinction of providing another first, the first two selections – Matthew Kreuzer and Trent Cotchin – in the 2007 AFL National Draft.

All up, the Knights have dealt 11 top 10 AFL Draft selections – Kreuzer (1, '07), Cotchin (2, '07), Anthony Rocca (2, '94), Tim Walsh (4, '02), Michael Hurley (5, '08), Chris Johnson (7, '93), Josh Caddy (7, '10), Daniel Harford (8, '94), Billy Longer (8, '10), Black Caracella (10, '94), Simon Prestigiacomo (10, '95).

AFL clubs collectively have drafted 87 players from the Knights with 59 having progressed to play at least one AFL game. Two – Harvey and Simpson – have played 300 plus while Chris Johnson, Rocca, Prestigiacomo, Whitnall and Ben Johnson have all played 200 AFL games.

There's a host of others – Rhyce Shaw, Heath Shaw, Leigh Montagna and Brent Stanton heading in that direction.

Nick Stevens, ironically now coaching Gippsland Power, won the 2002 and '07 Michael Tuck Medal for best on ground in the NAB Cup.

And, the Knights can also boast providing a Mark of The Year winner – Gary Moorcroft's screamer in 2001.

the above is the AFL Victoria Record's 'Dream Team' – visit taccup.com.au for Murray's recent announcement of their 20 Year Platinum Team*

WHEN it comes to producing goal kickers Murray Bushrangers has done it as well if not better than most.

The Bushrangers have produced renowned AFL goal kickers in Fraser Gehrig, Barry Hall and Stevie Johnson, a triumvirate who boast a collective 1671 AFL goals when this edition went to press.

It's a head-spinning number of goals, but Gehrig, Hall and Johnson will be long remembered for their ability to kick goals.

Gehrig claimed two John Coleman Medals – 2004 & '05 – and he topped the goal-kicking at St Kilda five times and once at West Coast Eagles. Not a bad feat for someone who started out as a defender.

Hall topped the goal kicking for all three clubs he played for – seven at Sydney, a club record he shares with Len Mortimer from 100 years earlier, and twice at St Kilda and Western Bulldogs. While he didn't win a Coleman, Hall twice finished on top of the goal kicking after the finals.

Johnson, seemingly a magician at being able to conjure up a goal, has twice led Geelong's goal kicking.

Johnson and Hall also have a further link – they've played in a premiership. Johnson is a three-time premiership player with the Cats while Hall was a member of Sydney's 2005 flag.

Another Bushranger Shannon Byrnes was a teammate of Johnson's in 2007 & '09.

While the Bushrangers haven't produced a Brownlow Medallist, they've twice supplied the Rising Star winner.

Justin Koschitzke won the Rising Star in 2001 and Brett Deledio claimed it in '05 while Mark McGough won the Anzac Day Medal in 2002.

Deledio, Hall and Tom Rockcliff are also best and fairest winners. Deledio has twice won the Jack Dyer Medal at Richmond while Hall won Sydney's highest individual honour in 2004 and Rockcliff took the honour with Brisbane last year.

Hall also won the Michael Tuck Medal when he was playing with the Western Bulldogs. He is also the Bushranger who has played the most AFL games – 289, just ahead of Adem Yze who played 271.

Murray has provided two No 1 selections in the AFL National Draft – Josh Fraser in 1999 and Deledio five years later.

Richmond's Brett Deledio.

The Bushrangers have seen 15 players – Fraser (1, 1999), Deledio (1, '04), Koschitzke (2, '00), Rory Hilton (3, '96), Joel Smith (4, '94), Michael Steven (5, '98), Murray Vance (6, '98), Kane Tenace (7, '03), Ben Reid (8, '06), Kayne Pettifer (9, '00), Hamish McIntosh (9, '02) Ben McEvoy (9, '07) and Jack Ziebell (9, '08) – who have been selected in the top 10 in the AFL Draft.

Since it joined the TAC in 1993, Murray has had 102 players selected in an AFL Draft with 64 graduating to play at least one AFL game.

The Bushrangers have won two flags – 1998 and 2008 – with the latter featuring Steele Sidebottom putting on a clinic to finish with 10 goals.

Steele Sidebottom in Murray's 2008 premiership win.

TAC Cup Coaches Award - Will Maginness

ALL Australians Jack Billings and Luke McDonald along with Vic Metro teammates Kristian Jaksch, Jackson MacRae and James Stewart returned to Oakleigh Chargers for the crucial match against Geelong Falcons in Round 13.

For all the quintet's undoubted talent, Billings, McDonald and co were upstaged this match by a bottom age, first gamer – Will Maginness. Maginness, a member of the Vic Metro Under 16 team last year and a member of the Metro Futures Academy, made one of the more impressive TAC Cup debuts.

The Scotch College Year 11 student, playing on a wing early then moving to a forward flank and pushing up as a midfielder, racked up 31 possessions, including 18 contested, gathered seven hand ball receives, laid seven tackles and took five marks. Not surprisingly, Maginness received the maximum TAC Cup Coaches Award votes.

Chargers' Regional Manager Mark Smart noted that while Maginness' performance may have surprised some the club had always rated him highly. Smart said Maginness had the ability to play in and outside, possessed a repeat effort capacity from contest to contest and skills were good.

"Will certainly showed his qualities in conditions that were quite slippery, but his ball handling and his work in close and on the outside were a real highlight," Smart said.

"He understood his role and is prepared to play a number of roles."

For Maginness it was just pleasing to finally play for Oakleigh after a season that has continually been interrupted by injury. Maginness' season start was delayed per courtesy of a broken wrist suffered during a training session. That injury set him back six weeks and then he was required to play for Scotch for a 10-week block and when he was available to play with the Chargers he endured a "little niggle" in a hip flexor, which saw his Oakleigh debut pushed back another couple of weeks. Modestly, Maginness doubted whether his game warranted a best-on-ground billing. He said he was just pleased to finally play in the TAC Cup and for the Chargers to post a five-point win against Geelong.

"I really enjoyed it," said Maginness who added the skill and ball movement at TAC Cup level is considerable better and faster than in school football.

He encountered a similar eye-opening experience when he played for Vic Metro in the NAB AFL Under 16 Championships. "It was just amazing to see how many good footballers there is out there, all over Australia," Maginness said.

"That was a massive step up from just playing school football, but it helped me out coming into my first TAC Cup game in that you always have to give off the first option and not hold on to the ball too long or you will be wrapped up."

Maginness missed the last round with school commitments, but will return to the Chargers for this weekend's match against Bendigo Pioneers. He can't wait nor can the Chargers as every game is so important in determining the TAC Cup ladder finishing positions.

TAC Cup Club Notes

All the latest news, events and match information from inside each TAC Cup club.

CALDER: Today we welcome the Geelong Falcons up the highway to Highgate Rec Reserve for what promises to be a great game. The Cannons would like to thank Hume City Council for their continuous support of our program. Along with the Craigieburn Sporting Club, they have been dedicated to assisting us in establishing our club in Craigieburn and the wider Hume community. Be sure to follow the Cannons on Twitter for all the latest info @CalderCannonsFC !

DANDENONG: The Dandenong Southern Stingrays are celebrating their 21st Birthday, along with the TAC in the TAC Cup this year. The club is holding a business lunch where past and present players will be attending, along with key staff and long time supporters and sponsors. On the day the Dandenong Southern Stingrays 21st Team of the century will be announced and the unveiling of the 21st team photo. Enjoy a three course luncheon, beer and wine and listen to Essendon great Scott Lucas and 2011 TAC Cup Coach of the Graeme Yeats talk about sport, business and the club. A panel of current ex Stingrays and current AFL players will be in attendance where you can ask the hard questions. Seats are selling fast and are limited. Single seats $90 or table of ten for $80 each. For tickets or bookings please log onto the Dandenong Stingrays web site <http://dandenongstingrays.aflvic.com.au> and download the flyer. All money raised on the day will go towards the new $80,000

Electronic scoreboard for Shepley Oval. The Dandenong Southern Stingrays are now on Twitter, please follow us at Dandenong Stingrays@DandyStingrays

EASTERN: The Eastern Ranges, in conjunction with Connect East are proud to introduce the Connect East Scholarship Program. The Ranges & Connect East have developed this program in an effort to help support talented footballers in the Eastern Regions of Melbourne that may not be able to afford the costs associated with being a part of the Eastern Ranges development pathway. Connect East invest heavily in the community and frequently engage in programs such as this one and others like road safety courses that help promote their core values. More details of the scholarship program will be on the Eastern Ranges website in the coming days.

GIPPSLAND: Gippsland Power celebrated twenty years of participation in the TAC Cup last weekend. In an evening of many highlights, the club announced an All-Star team consisting of 25 of the clubs most valued players in its first 20 years. As well as the All-Star team, the function saw Regional Manager and former Power coach, Peter Francis and his wife Robyn awarded life membership to the club for their contribution to the Power's progress for 18 seasons both on and off the field. Former Power premiership coach, AFL star and current St Kilda development coach, Paul Hudson was named as the coach of the All-Stars team. Paul made a moving speech that highlighted the vital importance of his time with Power and its staff and players. Paul made special comment on one of his premiership players, Beau Vernon and spoke of seeing him recently. Beau suffered a severe spinal injury while playing with Leongatha. The Power held a silent auction on the night that raised over $10,000 to go towards a fund set up to support Beau as he comes to terms with the life changing consequences of his injury. A special thank you to everyone that contributed to making the night so special and to those that assisted the Beau Vernon Fund.

MURRAY: This week we head back down the Hume Highway for this important clash against the Northern Knights. This game is also our designated drive to the game day for all of our TAC Cup and Local players, giving them the opportunity to gain great experience driving in a range of conditions. The Bushrangers would also like to introduce another one of our partners for season 2012, Dunstan's Construction Group, and we thank them for their ongoing support. Dunstans Construction Group Pty Ltd is a family-owned earthmoving business operating from Wangaratta, Victoria since 1951. Dunstans have worked throughout Australia within the telecommunication, construction and mining industries. Projects have included laying fibre optic cable across all states, Horizontal Directional Drilling, Equipment Hire, Cable Ploughing, Laying gas pipe lines in the far Pilbara of Western Australia and Mining Contracts. Ian & Murray Dunstan are the Company Directors. Check out www.dunstans.com.au for further information. Go Bushies!

NORTH BALLARAT: Well done to the Rebels on their hard fought win last week in trying conditions. This week we take on the strong Dandenong Stingrays who defeated us earlier in the year. The team are keen to turn that result around this week. Well done to our players that represented Ballarat & Clarendon College in the Herald Sun Country Cup Grand Final. A fantastic result. Our Presentation Day date has been set for Sunday 7th of October and bookings for places and tables is now open. All bookings must be made by logging on to <http://www.easybookings.com.au/event/rebelspresentation2012> Tickets are $35 each which include a 2 Course Meals and Drinks are at Bar Prices. Grab a table of 10 ASAP as bookings for this fantastic day will be limited to 250 people maximum. For more information please contact Phil Partington on 5339 0915 or grab your Weekly Memo off the Rebels website www.therebels.com.au A big thank you to Blue Gum Clothing for their continued support of the Rebels Talented Player Pathway Programs. Not only are the Rebels looking good on the field but also looking sharp off the field in their Blue Gum Rebels uniform. Go Rebels.

NORTHERN: Today we welcome the Murray Bushrangers to Preston City Oval and invite both players and their parents to join us in our Aftermatch, in the Function Room, after the game. As part of the 21st year celebrations of the TAC Cup Competition, the Knights are holding a Footy Trivia night next Friday, 10th August at the Preston City Oval Function Room, commencing at 7.00pm. A fun filled night with games & prize giveaways, hosted by Pete Lazer. We invite all players, parents & supporters to attend. See further details on the Club Website or contact the Club on Tel: 9478 5796. Special thanks to our major Sponsor Technika for their donation of prizes for the night. Congratulations to 2011 Knights player Tim Currie on making his debut with the Northern Blues team that defeated Coburg by 99 points last Sunday. We wish Cameron Conlan (Shoulder) & Joe Vaccaro (Ankle) a speedy recovery from their recent surgeries and look forward to seeing them both on the track, next Pre Season. Go to the Knights website at www.knights.sportingpulse.net for your latest Club news.

OAKLEIGH: Today we travel to Bendigo to take on the Pioneers who beat us in round 3 at home so we are very keen at giving a strong account of ourselves to try and reverse the result and cement a place in the finals in what is shaping as an even competition. Congratulations to our boys involved in last week's AGSV Grand Final win for Trinity Grammar. Premierships are always a great to be a part of and you should be proud of your efforts. We welcome back both the players from Trinity and Scotch College this week. A big thank-you to all the staff of the Oakleigh Chargers who continue to be very generous with their time and efforts in helping to get our boys onto the park each week. All your work is greatly appreciated. We would like to acknowledge and thank our Major Sponsors for the 2012 season, the Bendigo Bank – Murrumbidgee and IS MY CV. Other partner sponsors are: Mulgrave Country Club, Active Lifestyle, Telstra, Diadora and Woodards Real Estate.

SANDRINGHAM: The Sandringham Dragons would like to thank all parents, supporters and friends who made the trip to Lavington on Sunday. Although the result didn't go the way we had hoped, the support was fantastic. The boys and coaching staff really appreciate the effort made by everyone who attended. The Dragons major fundraiser will be held on Saturday August 25th after our game against Oakleigh. Like previous years it will be a Reverse Raffle with plenty of cash and prizes on offer. Each player has 3 tickets to sell, which includes dinner and an entry into the draw. Please keep that date free so we can all have a good night launching into the finals! Go Dragons!

WESTERN: The Western Jets would like to thank all players that participated in the 'drive to a round' last weekend to Ballarat. It was a great experience for players to drive in a range of conditions. We will be starting our U16 Legend's and U15 Winter Development program next week and would like to thank all staff who will be involved again in this program. We would like to wish all players the best in the final rounds of the home and away season, school football and upcoming draft combine and state screening.
