

Business at Breakfast with Ian Smythe, CEO with the Townsville McDonalds Crocodiles

Basketball Boardroom—Building a winning team culture

Ian Smythe

Dear TCCI members and friends

I am pleased to invite you to a very special Business at Breakfast event at the City Golf Club, 6.30am on Thursday, 13 September 2012.

In the world of basketball, Townsville McDonald's Crocodiles CEO Ian Smythe is legendary.

His topic "Basketball Boardroom – Building a Winning Team Culture" is designed to contrast strategic successes in sport and business - it promises to be both informative and motivational to small business owners.

And, Ian is a "local" lad! He was born in Toowoomba in 1959, attended Toowoomba State High School and graduated from Kelvin Grove Teacher's College (Queensland University of Technology) in 1980.

In 2006 he was appointed to the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Townsville McDonald's Crocodiles where he remains to date.

His involvement with professional basketball commenced in 1992 when in conjunction with the Townsville Sun's he established a specialist development program in basketball at Townsville State High School titled the 'Tropics'. The "Tropics" are still part of the Crocodiles program today and have won a number of state and national Champion School's tournaments.

Regards, Greg Johnson, CEO
