

True Sport Lives Here

Code of Ethics for Officials

As a True Sport, I am a positive role model for all participants and spectators in the competition and I will set an example for others by:

- promoting the values of sport, good sportsmanship and respect for all persons above winning and losing
- honouring and respecting the spirit of the sport
- prioritising the safety and welfare of participants
- respecting the rights, dignity and worth of all persons involved in the game regardless of their gender, ability, ethnicity or religion

I am committed to providing a quality service through:

- striving for personal excellence in officiating and seeking continual self-improvement
- keeping up to date with the latest 'laws of the game', trends and principles of their application
- being consistent, objective, courteous and timely in my decision-making
- acting with fairness and integrity in the pursuit of sport excellence, condemning the abuse of alcohol and use of performance enhancing and illegal drugs
- accepting responsibility for all my decisions and actions
- clearly communicating expectations of behaviour and outlining the rules and penalties before the game begins
- refraining from comments and actions which are abusive, offensive, racist, sexist or demeaning to others

I, _____ accept Football Wide Bay's rules, policies and procedures governing events and competitions in which I participate. I comply with the reasonable requests of Football Wide Bay and accept I am an ambassador for football and Football Wide Bay. I will refrain from any action which might bring the football or Football Wide Bay into disrepute.

I agree to abide by the True Sport Lives Here Code of Ethics for Officials provided above. I acknowledge that Football Wide Bay may notify Football Queensland and take action if I breach the Code of Ethics.

If under 18 years of age, parent/guardian
