Season 2013

Presidents Message

2013 President
Ian Spolding

I remind members to check our Social calendar as we have many important upcoming events and as and as always we encourage everyone to support them.

Welcome to all Newtown & Chilwell Members & Supporters to this edition of the Eagles Nest.

I look forward to seeing you at the club Tonight for some light refreshments and a meal.

Ian Spolding

Last Saturday we traveled to Bell Park and the Senior side put in a disappointing performance. This has been out of character with the brand of Football we have been producing this season and this Saturday we face Grovedale whom have improved immensely in a very important fixture.

The Junior representative teams were announced during the week and it is pleasing to see so many of our young talent selected in the squads to represent us in the Bob Davis shield. This follows on from the strong performances our Senior players, Colts against Netballers against the Goulburn Valley

Our Netball girls after a slow start won convincingly against Bell Park. This continues A + B grades strong start to the season. I urge Members to go watch the D grade this Saturday to help them secure their first win.

The Eagle Rock Ball was held last Saturday and a big thank you to those whom attended and the Volunteers who worked during the evening in making it successful.

Senior Football Reports

Senior Coach
Jacob Spolding

U18 Coach
Jono Holt

Firstly I would like to congratulate everyone who represented our Football and Netball club in interleague duties a fortnight ago, it is a real honor to play in games such as that and the way you all played and conducted yourselves was a credit to you.

After a week off we headed over the road to take on a Bell Park side that was looking to get back on the winners list after a loss to Lara before the bye. After what was a positive start and a tight tussle we fell away in what was a carbon copy of the round 6 game last year at the same venue.

Bell Park managed to get the game played on their terms and we were unable to wrestle back any momentum in what was a disappointing day for the senior side.

The reserves once again started well, but once gain had 20 minutes where we fell asleep and Bell Park managed to get some momentum and get a break that we couldn't close. It was pleasing to see some players get back on the field after injury and we would like to think that these players can get some continuity of games into them.

This week we find ourselves back at home for what is sure to be a high quality game against a much improved Grovedale side that is sitting in 2nd spot on the ladder. The boys really want to come out and play well and get back on the winners list and regain touch with the top sides in the competition.

Lastly I would like to congratulate Michael Stanley on playing his 100th senior game last week. Michael is a revered figure of our football club and the way he has worked to get back from injury last year is a credit to him.

I look forward to see all our members and loyal supporters at the game on Saturday.

Jacob Spolding

The Colts bounced back on the weekend in a come from behind victory against Bell Park. Again we allowed the opposition to get to away on us in the first quarter which is becoming quite a concern. However, to the boys credit they were able to turn the game around back in our favour and we were able to sneak over the line by 2 goals. Nic Clarke played his best game for the year at centre half forward in Darcy Troop's absence and he was helped along the way by Jacob Ngawati in his first game back for several weeks and Jacob Nicholson who was excellent across half back.

I'd like to congratulate our 6 boys that represented Newtown in the Colts Interleague team. Alex Hyslop was judged best afield on the day, Brad Spicer and Oscar Doyle were also named in the best players for the game.

We now turn our attention to the next fortnight which sees us come up against Grovedale and St Mary's both at home. We went down to both of these sides not too long ago and hopefully we can turn the tables this time round. The boys are back training with the senior group on a Tuesday night which is great for all concerned

MIDDY'S

Junior Football

Kevin Dalton Junior Coordinator U14 + U16

Well the season is flying by now and we are fast approaching the mid season holidays. The teams are all doing well with wins and losses being had by all. We have a large number of our boys selected to try out for the interleague squads. Congratulations to the following boys and best of luck over the next couple of weeks:

Ned Harris, Nicholas Milne, Mitch Diamond, Darcy Kiss, Lachlan Morwood, Lachlan Milne, Jack Verstraten, Fraser Bath, Beau Fincham, Nicholas Morwood, Lachlan McCartney, Slade Gilmore, Luke Bowdern, Jack Hodgson, Jack Brogden, Rory Cogan, Fraser Bath, Nicholas Pratt, Baxter Mensch

Last week the under 14 and 16 boys had Joel Selwood and Dawson Simpson come along to their training session. It was great to have such talent come and share with our young boys. A big thanks you was passed on to the Geelong Cats for sending us two great players.

Under 9 to 12

Hi everyone,

Recently some of our coaches and their assistants attended coaching training. Thanks to Nick, Steve, Alistair, Ian, Craig and Tim who went along and now have an AFL Level 1 Junior coaching qualification. This means our whole coaching team at the Under 9-12 level have this qualification

We are now well into the Junior NLL football season. You may have noticed the fixture for the remainder of the NLL season is on the sporting pulse website. Please note that the fixture is still being worked on and is not final. So, treat it as a guide only at this stage. Your Team Manager/Coach will let you know when the draw is completed. It's a great idea to check the draw on the sporting pulse website prior to each game to avoid any confusion.

Should you have any questions or concerns please speak with your team manager.

Congratulations to those who have achieved 50 and 100 game milestones in junior football over the last few weeks. It's a timely reminder for us all to stop and think of the people who have helped achieve these milestones. To the parents of all players, thanks for making sure the players are able to participate. The list is endless...transport to and from games and training, providing clean footy gear, locating misplaced footy boots, replacing the mouth guard that is always not where it should be, goal umpiring, cutting up oranges, the list goes on. So thank you again to all parents, we greatly appreciate your efforts.

Heather still has some long sleeve tops available for $10 (with $5 going back to the club). These fit well under training and game tops now the weather is getting cooler.

For another fundraiser for the year we are planning a cake stall for the Saturday 20th July home game. More details will come out before the school holidays.

Go Eagles!

Under 9-12 Junior Co-ordinators.

Netball News

Jason Woolley Senior Netball Coach Senior netball report:

After 7 weeks of competition, the netball division finds itself well placed, as we head towards the half way mark of the competition.

A grade worked hard to secure a tough win over a top 5 contender in Bell Park, which was a good result. Maddi Taylor continued her great recent form with a strong performance in the defensive circle, although it was the teams full court defensive pressure that was most pleasing.

Congratulations to our two A grade netballers, Casey Price and Amy Wirth, who both represented the club well as part of the winning GFL Interleague team, with Casey also being awarded best on court for the GFL side. Well done to both girls! B grade continued their good recent form, with an important win over last year's B grade premier. The win should act as evidence to all of the girls that they can compete with anyone in their division, and are very much in with a chance to go deep into B grade finals. The exciting aspect of the win was that all players were able to take the court and make a strong contribution to the win.

C grade put up a fighting performance this week, leading deep into the game, but unfortunately could not come away with the win. Despite the loss, the girls remain well in contention for a top 5 position, and with the group growing together with every game, I look forward to watching them hit their straps in coming weeks. Jayde Gray was excellent in the midcourt on the weekend, whilst the goaling combination of Brittany Dietrich and Liz O'Brien continues to develop and could be tough to stop in future weeks. Our D grade girls continue to work hard to get that first win on the board, and despite being well in the game at half time, were not able to keep that momentum for the full 4 quarters. With every game the girls continue to show improvement, and signs that our first win is not too far away. Once again the team was well led by Prue Clissold and Kelly Arthur, who continue to build a strong defensive presence together in the circle. The Under 19 girls went down in a tight tussle against Bell Park. Scores were tied at half-time, but unfortunately, like fake tan in the rain, the team faded during the second half, eventually losing 29-22.

Alicia Grozdanovski and Shari Stillman both played their best games for the year, and we'll be hoping to see that level of performance more regularly in the coming weeks. The 19's will look to get back on the winners list at home to Grovedale this week.

Junior netball report:

After a week off for the Saturday teams everyone came out on a wet cold first day of winter. We started with a narrow loss for the U/13 Div 1 girls and a hard fought draw for the Div 2 girls. Millie and Katie teamed well in the attack, with able support in the midcourt from Grace B for the Div 1 girls. Charlotte starred in defence, with Emma supporting her for the first half of the game before swinging to shooting to end up with 9 goals, and Laura running hard all day through the midcourt. Fortunately by the time the U/15 girls took the field the rain had vanished for the day, and the Div 2 girls ran away with a good win, congratulations to Paris, Zelda and Lucinda for their best on court games. The Div 1 girls just fell away in the last quarter after being neck and neck all day, Jess, Paige and Millie being the best for the day. Our U/17 girls have still yet to get a win to their games, but continue working hard. Hopefully a win is not too far away.

The Friday night girls had to play in torrential rain, but worked hard all night. Even in one week we can see the benefit of the work our coaches have done for the U/11's, with improved movement and coming forward to the ball. The more senior teams have settled into routine and are starting to work well together, and we can expect further improvement over the season. Keep up the good work everyone.

A special thank-you to the girls who umpire, the game could not go on without you, and it may not be shown but the work is appreciated and the juniors really benefit from your efforts on game days. Without you they would not learn what it is really like to play netball. So from all of us (players, coaches, officials, parents and spectators) to the umpires – THANK-YOU so very much.

Getting to know our junior girls.

For so many of the seniors and officials these are the future of our club, so taking a leaf from Bav's book (but in no way trying to usurp him) let me introduce you to the U/13 Div 2 girls. We will continue along the football theme – but I am not porter so the team line up will be a little different.

Starting at the front end we have (and parents you may have to explain some of this to your girls – I suggest You Tube for some more infamous events):

Hannah Hall – not related to Barry, not likely to be suspended for knocking out opponents, but works very hard in front of goals.

Laura Kelly – runs out at half forward into the centre, marks well and works tirelessly all day, the blond hair reminds us of a Nick Reiwoldt.

Emma Castle – starts in the forward and swings to defence or is it the other way around – definitely not a Cats supporter, maybe a Jarryd Roughead rather than Harry Taylor.

Lilli Gard – a very vocal player, small fast and never gives up, luckily she has more hair than Gary Ablett Jnr.

Georgia Kelly – not related to our Nick, tall, athletic but not a shooter – lets hope she doesn't join Sth Barwon like Matthew Scarlett.

Emily Tresize – another midfield player, works tirelessly and creates many turnovers, does not hesitate to put her body on the line – but no concussion yet – Joel Selwood.

Charlotte Elsworth – another blond wonder, this time in defence, maybe Jimmy Bartel in disguise.

Tameka Stewart – finally some height in our team, this is what would happen if Tom Hawkins took up defending Georgia Colt – has been off sick for most of the season, and will be welcomed back with enthusiasm, maybe she will find the form of a Tom Lonergan after his injury – because she has the skills and height.

Kyle Dohnt (Bav) / C Grade Profiles

Welcome to Week 4 in our epic 5 week journey to meet the netballers; from the Under 19's team through to the old ladies that they will surely replace in the next year or two. This week, the lovely ladies of C Grade take their turn in the spotlight. And special thanks to Aimee Mellington who has been sending through copious suggestions while she has been away travelling. Most of her material was obscene, offensive and borderline defamatory, so here it is...

Aimee Mellington – part-time model, full-time...alright Smellington, no one gets to write their own profile, you sit there and wait your turn...Aimee is an accomplished international traveller and has been published 3 times in the Green Guide letters section of The Age. As a seven year-old she organised campaigns to make Humphrey B. Bear wear pants and to put Fat Cat on a diet. Back to you Aimee, sorry about calling you Smellington...

Britt Dietrich – Marlene Dietrich famously said, "I want to be alone" (that's my terrible German accent). I saw Britt at Eagle Rock, and she couldn't be alone even if she wanted to, because she was being chased relentlessly, and occasionally caught, if my reading of The Fines Register is accurate. Also, I never got a tattoo because I never could find a picture I wanted to see every day, and then I saw the photo of Britt in a bikini doing a beer bong, and in only 12 more extremely painful sessions, that will fully cover my back.

Hannah Coulter – Hannah Coulter is the name of a Christian romance novel written from the perspective of a seventy year-old woman, by an author named Wendell Berry. The book is renowned for being so dull, that reading the first three chapters is the prescribed cure for anyone who has overdosed on Viagra. Sorry Hannah, when you click I'm Feeling Lucky on Google, you have to take the good with the bad.

Hayley Womersley – owner of the most English name this side of Benedict Cumberbatch. Womers is also the Big C of the C, and the first to offer her house for pre-drinks. Pre-function drinks = Womers place. Pre-training drinks = Womers place. Drinks at half-time on match day = Womers car. You may have a drinking problem Womers...

Heidi Sutcliffe – her full name is of course Heidi Marie Antoinette Sutcliffe, and she likes to take new friends on fishing trips along the coast and when giant navy aircraft carriers like the HMAS Chilwell steam past, she says, "That's my boat"! Her brother Xavier Mark Antony Sutcliffe thinks he owns Christmas.

Jayde Gray and then you scroll through quite a few pages looking for something funny, you finally get to a website titled, Jade Should Be Green, How You Can Tell That Your Husband Is Giving You Fake Jewellery. There are also hundreds of websites about Jayde Gray, C grade netballer extraordinaire. Literally hundreds, I think you might have a stalker Jayde.

Karli Hinkley – this is exciting, it's time to award on of the most highly coveted prizes at any netball club, Smoothest Ponytail. It was a very tight contest, but with her consistent performances, complete lack of flyaways and impressive length, Karli was a clear winner. And let's be honest ladies, you are always talking about how important length is, in relation to ponytails probably. Ha, didn't mention Ken Hinkley once!

Kayla di Pasquale – do you guys like Pascall Clinkers? I use them to make all of my major life decisions. I was once a green clinker away from auditioning for Australian Idol. Anyway, did you know that the Italian translation for the Pascall Company is di Pasquale Azienda? That can't be a coincidence, stop holding out on the clinkers Kayla.

Liz Moore – she's originally from Perth; she plays down back but is also sneakily effective when she moves up forward. I think it is fairly safe to assume that Liz is either married to Harry Taylor, or secretly is Harry Taylor. They have never been seen in the same room at the same time. So if you are a Cats fan and you want Harry to stay in Geelong, please buy Liz a drink whenever she looks thirsty.

Liz O'Brien – I've known Lizzy Parker for years, and the one thing you need to know about her, more than the whole red-hair, no soul thing (which is totally true). The one thing you need to know about her is that she is a complete tail-gater when she drives. She has cracked her windshield so many times when a stone has flicked up while she was tail-gating, that in the end she married the owner of O'Brien Glass. Also their doorbell plays the ad jingle, Oh, Oh, Oh...O'Brien!

Lou Ilett – So the little bit of plastic at each end of a shoelace is called an Aglet (who said Eagles Nest wasn't educational), and as a result of inventing it, the Aglet family are super-Billionaires. The little hole in the shoe that the shoelace goes through is called an Eyelet, but it used to be called an Ilett, and if their lawyer wasn't incompetent, Lou would be a super-Billionaire. They say money changes friendships, but I would totally still be friends with Lou if she was a super-Billionaire.
