MoozaB Ladies Night 2013

As mentioned during the week—WELL DONE to all players, choreographers, helpers and volunteers for a terrific night last Saturday night. Thanks to Wadsy, Fordy and Kylie for co-ordinating!
(see Facebook for some video footage)

CLUB NOTES – MOOROOLBARK R 14

Last week we hosted Bayswater in what turned out to be a very successful day for the club. The Colts had a real percentage booster with a 113 point win and now sit 2nd on the ladder. There's some real talent in this side and it's worth getting to the footy early to watch them perform. Plunky was amongst the goals with 5 while best players were Clavant, L.Sutherland, Plunkett, Neil, Taylor & Miles.

The Reserves recorded their best win for some time against 2nd placed Baysie. Our 11 point win meant that we had a 138 point turn around from the result earlier in the season. Robbie Johns top scored with 4 goals and best in a very solid team effort were A.Jackson, Brumby, R.Johns, Hands, Kelton & Verhoef.

The Seniors jumped out of the blocks with a 7 goals to nil first term and went in at the main break with a commanding 9 goal buffer. To Baysie's credit they managed to match us in the 2nd half but we still recorded a 54 point victory. Wadsy was on fire early and finished with 6 goals. Best players were Preston, Wadsworth, Charge, Rowe, Muratore & Martin. Well done to all those involved in last week's "Mr Mooroolbark" night, both the organisers and the performers. I'm sure all the ladies will agree that it was a sensational night.

This week we travel to Donny East, which is never an east task, but we need to keep winning in all 3 grades to fight for or maintain final four positions. GO MUSTANGS!!!
