

COACH'S CORNER

Well the last game for 2013 is upon us and even though it has been a tough year our efforts over the past two weeks have been fantastic! Another great game from the boys with our first three & a half qtrs being some of the best footy I have seen!

Finishing with only 15 fit players meant we had to hold on but true to the boys renewed belief they did and even kicked the last two goals to seal an important win. So now we face the Magpies in what promises to be another big game for the club. We would love to celebrate Cade Mills 200th in style and I am sure the boys will lift for one more big effort.

I would like to pay enormous credit to our players, support staff and volunteers as it would have been easy to roll over and give up after some floggings but this is a proud club & they all have continued to work hard to get better!!! I hope you all can get down and support the boys for one more game and help us get over the line!! Cheers Pav.

“CADE MILLS”

“200 First Grade Games”

Cade Mills will run out this week against the Wang Magpies for his 200th and possibly last game for his beloved Roos!

Cade has had a brilliant career, winning a Senior Premiership with the club in 2003 and finishing 3rd in the club Best & Fairest on three occasions being some of his highlights. Cade credits Peter Tossol as the best coach he has played under as he felt Tossol could get the best out of him on most occasions.

Cade continues to play quality footy with a recent career high 8 goals vs. Nth Albury showing he still has plenty of tricks left. Over the last few years the club hasn't been as successful as it has wanted however Cade has continued to be one of the leaders, helping the younger players as they forge their own O&M careers by providing guidance and knowledge from his early days as a senior player.

There will be no doubt regarding the legacy Cade will leave at the Roos when he decides to call it a day? He firmly believes that all up and coming young players should all be striving to play O&M football and or the highest level they can!

A great career and everyone at the Roos congratulate and thank you for your years of loyalty and service you have given this great club!!
