

2013 "ALL-STAR SEVEN" & REFEREE AWARDS

CRITERIA

The "All-Star Seven" awards are for the seven most valuable players, including a setter and libero, for each senior division of the men's and women's competitions.

The selection panel comprises the Technical Delegate, Referee Delegate and the Tournament Manager. Coaches of teams are invited to provide nominations for these awards.

The Referee of the Tournament and Referee Encouragement Awards are selected by the Referee Delegate, with coaches of teams also invited to submit nominations.

Men's Division 1

Todd Broadbent (Bendigo)
James Winzar (Bendigo)
Tony Cassis (Latrobe Valley)
Chris Grigg (Horsham)
Matthew Hallowell (Horsham)
Best Setter Matthew Berry (Horsham)
Best Libero Josh Gordon (Bendigo)

Women's Division 1

Danielle Stott (Lakes Entrance)
Jess Perry (Geelong)
Stephanie Paul (Latrobe Valley)
Jessica Lloyd (Latrobe Valley)
Georgia Hassell (Geelong)
Best Setter Jess Radford (Horsham)
Best Libero Phoebe Trembath (Latrobe Valley)

Men's Division 2

Alek Ryan (Korumburra)
Cam Robinson (Horsham)
Max Astafiev (Geelong)
Tom Murnane (Ballarat)
Mitch Watson (Latrobe Valley)
Best Setter Dustin Freckelton (Sunraysia)
Best Libero Tim Carter (Horsham)

Women's Division 2

Cheryl Moore (Bellarine)
Jessica Kuklych (Bellarine)
Breanna Doorne (Sunraysia)
Alice Shaw (Latrobe Valley)
Meg McIntosh (Latrobe Valley)
Best Setter Chelsea Hunt (Warrnambool)
Best Libero Jessica Killingbeck (Sunraysia)

Referee of the Tournament: Willie Cornelis

Referee Encouragement Award: Andrew Adamson (Horsham)