- These are EDJBA DIRECTIONS:
 - There is no right to the "I Have A Different Philosophy" approach

Why have Directions

- To ensure consistency across the EDJBA
- To ensure consistency with VBRA Policy
- It's very hard to gain respect and expect respect when wildly out of uniform
- Does the EDJBA have the authority to issue these directives:
 - Of course it does, as long as it does not contravene VBRA/BV policy
 - Where the policy is silent, EDJBA may make its own directives
- Part of a referee's payment is designed to ensuring that they are in proper uniform
- These Directives conform to VBRA/BV policy
