AROUND THE GROUNDS

This weekend is Community Umpiring Round, a national initiative, which will see umpiring highlighted in a positive way from the National competition right through to grass roots football. This round gives the opportunity for all clubs to celebrate the involvement of not only appointed umpires, but also club appointed umpires, umpiring volunteers and parents and supporters that help out their club through boundary and goal umpiring the occasional match.

Each weekend NSW/ACT requires over 3800 people to Field, Boundary and Goal umpire matches across all levels of football. This requires the dedication of both local umpiring volunteers and club volunteers in coordinating the smooth running of football.

In the AFL Sydney competition itself a total 229 individual umpires appointment are required each weekend. Broke down the League appoints (at a minimum) 44 Field Umpires and 52 Boundary/Goal umpires while the clubs appoint 49 Field Umpires and 84 Boundary/Goal Umpires. Each person whether they are League or Club appointed play an important role in ensuring a fair and safe game for all players.

All players, officials and umpires are being strongly encouraged to wear green armbands to signify their support of umpires and the role they play within the AFL Sydney competition.

All umpires start their journey somewhere. The majority of all umpires started their journey at a club, and therefore I would encourage all clubs to not only recognise the success of players on their journey, but also players and volunteers that have gone on to take up the whistle or the flags in supporting your community competition.

This weekend there are a range of ways that your club can recognise the umpires, some of these ideas include:

- Prior to each match, both teams (including coaching staff) line up and shake the umpires hands,
- At the conclusion of the match, the coaches from both teams go onto the ground to shake the umpires hands,
- During breaks the home club to offer umpires a drink and at the end of the game invite the umpires to have a drink at the after match presentation
- Where clubs have a PA system, the announcer to advise of the details of Umpiring Round
- Recognition of current umpires, club volunteers that support your game day through the club website, newsletter or at the ground

Have a great weekend at the footy!

GIANTS lead Club Championship race

Five weeks into season 2014 and Manly-Warringah sit atop the Club Championship ladder, looking for their 3rd straight title. They sit 6 points clear of Sydney University with Pennant Hills a further 2 points back. Randwick City are the highest lower division club, 10 points behind the GIANTS.

CODE OF CONDUCT

PARENTS & SUPPORTERS

- Remember that you are there for the participants to enjoy the game.
- Encourage participation, but don't force it.
- Teach that enjoyment is more important than winning.
- Never ridicule mistakes or losses. Supporters are there to support not downgrade.
- Lead by example and respect all players, coaches, umpires, administrators and spectators. Physical or verbal abuse will not be tolerated.
- Recognise all volunteers who give up their valuable time.
- Never publicly criticise umpires, rather raise personal concerns with club officials in private
- Do not use remarks based on race, religion, gender or ability as many such comments are politically incorrect and it is your coach, team-mates, Club and family that are let down with such remarks.
- Respect the facilities and equipment of their own and opposing Clubs.
- Do not engage in physical and/or verbal intimidation, abuse or conduct toward any player, official, umpire or supporter. Such actions are totally unacceptable.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form, whether it is by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Abusive language is unacceptable.
- Do not use information technology to make or post inappropriate comments against players, clubs, club officials, match officials or the League which is discriminatory or offensive. Information technology includes, but is not limited to, email, instant messaging, text messages, phone mes-

ROUND 4 REVIEW

After a week off over Easter, we were back in action; and the round began with an ANZAC Day clash at Picken Oval. Before the match, an ANZAC commemoration took place on the field. The ANZAC ode was read, wreaths were laid before the flag, which was lowered to half mast. The Last Post was played, and a minute's silence. A well-run ceremony, appropriate for the day. Lest we forget.

And then it was footy time, and the match was Wests hosting Pennant Hills. A match that promised plenty and delivered. The Magpies have high hopes of returning to finals action this year after an absence of several years, and have looked impressive early in the season. The visitors, Pennant Hills, can be relied on to be around when we get to the business end of the season. Although the Demons were favourites, there was plenty of support for the Magpies.

At quarter time, there was every hope that the Magpies could pull off the result. The Demons landed an early goal, but for much of the quarter they were forced on the defensive as the Magpies surged forward. The Demons were missing chances, while the Magpies made better use of theirs. A double from Joshua Zoppo spear-headed the Wests charge, as they kicked four goals to one to lead by 14 points at the first change.

A goal apiece to start the second quarter, and the Demons were getting frustrated; and they would have even more cause to feel that way when an off the ball free kick was paid against them when a mark had lined up a shot for a certain goal. But while the free kick may have killed Ranga Ediriwickrama's shot at goal, it gave the Demons a spur to settle down and work their way back into the contest. A free kick to Theo Moraitis moments later saw a goal, the first of three in a row that saw the Demons overtake the Magpies and take a ten-point lead into the long break.

But if the Demons thought they would run away in the third term, they were in for a shock. Kyall Walford landed an early major for the Magpies. And had the home side made the most of the numerous chances they had early in the premiership quarter, the final outcome may have been different. Instead, they landed four behinds in a row before the Demons lifted; and when Ediriwickrama landed a shot at goal, the momentum shifted. It was the first of three in a row for the Demons, and even with a late Magpie goal, the Demons were 16 points ahead at the last change.

The Magpies didn't give up, throwing caution to the wind in the final quarter. It was a high-scoring shootout, as the Magpies attacked relentlessly, but in doing so left themselves exposed in defence. But for every challenge the Magpies made, the Demons had the answers. And with seven goals to five in the final term, the Demons ran out 29-point winners.

An entertaining, hard-fought game was played in front of an appreciative audience. The Magpie faithful on the eastern side were vocal all afternoon, and a healthy crowd were sprinkled around the ground. Both sides would have been happy with the standard of play, particularly the Demons who maintained their ladder position with a well-earned win. Lloyd Shepherd, Damian Dell'Aquila and James Dunn had worked relentlessly for the Demons; while Brenton Mumme, Yannick Milligan-Saville and Matt Round had been Wests' best.

At Village Green on Saturday, St George moved into the top five with a hard-earned 20-point win over UNSW-ES. The Dragons made the early front-running around the ground, but would find themselves frustrated on the forward line. Several behinds went through that should have been goals, but the Dragons did manage to find the big sticks three times while the Bulldogs could just once; and at quarter time the Dragons led by 15 points. The second quarter was more evenly contested, as the Bulldogs lifted their work rate around the ground and attempted to work their way back into the contest. But the Dragons were able to repel the Bulldog challenge; and after three goals apiece were scored in the quarter, the 15 point margin remained intact at half time. The third quarter was similar to the second, as the Bulldogs threw everything at the Dragons; but every time they looked like getting back into the game, the Dragons had the answers. Four goals apiece in an entertaining quarter saw the margin at 18 points at the last change. It was another four goals to each side in the last term; and in the end, it was only the Dragons' superior start that proved to be the difference between two sides that had matched it with each other for much of the day.

Karl Merson, Jesse Mudge and Chris Windle had been best for the Dragons. For the Bulldogs, the evergreen Troy Luff proved that even after all these years he still has what it takes to compete at the top level in Sydney with a six-goal haul in a losing side. Around the ground, Tom Heath, Jeremy Kiel and Ryan Plant picked up plenty of the ball for the Bulldogs.

ROUND 4 REVIEW

Manly haven't put a foot wrong in their title defence this season, and the Giant juggernaut was unstoppable at Weldon Oval as they raced their way to a whopping 137-point win over a disappointing UTS side on Saturday afternoon.

The Giants were looking the better side early, and with four goals to one in the first term they led by 20 points at the first change. The Bats were barely hanging on, but they did manage two goals in the second term to briefly hold up the Giants' charge. But the Giants had the answers every time, and with a run of five goals in the second term, it was a Manly lead of 41 points at half time.

But as one-sided as the first half was, it was nothing compared to the irresistible force that would emerge from the rooms for the second half. As the premiership quarter developed, the Giants were finding the goals with regularity, running rings around the Bats who were unable to do anything to stop the Manly charge. Nine unanswered goals in the third term blew the margin out to 100 points at three quarter time. And the Giants weren't finished yet, with a run of seven goals to two blowing the final margin out to 137 points and the undefeated Giants' percentage to astronomical levels.

Eleven Manly players drew twin flags from the goal umpires, but the focal point up forward was Brayden Fowler, who finished with seven goals. The Giants had winners all around the ground, but Connor Petterson, Gareth Benbow and Wills Brassil were the best of the lot. For the Bats, Joshua Maddox, Frank Boland and Rawson Kirkhope kept trying hard; but the Bats were badly beaten. With no wins from four games and this game giving the Bats a major hit to their percentage, a season that promised much is already in serious danger of slipping away.

North Shore went into their match against Sydney Hills Eagles at Gore Hill on Saturday afternoon with one win from their first three games, and even that win hadn't been convincing. The Bombers, a side with hopes of playing a prominent role in this year's finals, needed a spark to kick their season into gear. And they got it in style with a comfortable 73-point victory over the winless Eagles.

Getting off to a flying start, the Bombers looked in control through the early exchanges as they kept the ball camped on their forward line for much of the first term. Five goals to one in the first quarter saw the Bombers 27 points clear at quarter time. But the Eagles weren't going to go down without a fight, and they lifted their game in the second term. Eagle players who had been quiet in the first quarter began to make an impact as the visitors fought back. The Hills team scored four goals to three in the second term, pegging the margin back to 21 points at the long break and with some hope of getting back into the contest.

But the home side steadied during the break, and came out running harder and faster in the third term, leaving the Eagles chasing them as the North Shore side rose up to premiership contender status for the first time this season. Five goals to two in the third term extended the margin to 44 points at the last change; and the Bombers' victory was assured. And as the sun set and the lights took over in the final quarter, the Bombers put on their best football of the season to date with six goals to two to blow the final margin out to 73 points. Matthew Clarke stood tall on the North Shore forward line to finish with four goals in a best-on-ground performance, while Lachlan Hayres and Jack Campbell also featured prominently. Jake Famularo kicked four goals for the Eagles, and along with Aaron Drinkwater and Josh Cutting was among the Eagles' best.

Sydney Uni took their home game against Campbelltown to Blacktown International Sportspark on Saturday afternoon; and the Students had a win in the west, their third for the season. But the Students were made to work hard for the win, as the Blues put up plenty of solid resistance.

An even contest around the ground in the first quarter saw both sides create plenty of opportunities; with the Students scoring three goals to two for a four-point lead at quarter time. The second quarter was an arm-wrestle, as two sides vied for supremacy around the ground but found their best efforts thwarted by their equally-matched opponent. There were three goals apiece scored in the second term, with the Student clinging to a one-point lead as the teams returned to the rooms at half time.

But the premiership quarter was pivotal to the outcome of the game, and it was the Students who stood and were counted when the game was there to be won. Lifting their work rate around the ground, and finding room to move up forward, the Students kicked away with six goals to two; extending their lead to 25 points at the last change. The Blues attempted to fight back in the final term, but the damage was done, and with four goals apiece in the final term, the three quarter time margin remained intact when the final siren sounded.

Adam Campbell contributed five goals to the Students and Evan Smith four; while around the ground, Campbell, Jack Caspersonn and Joshua Smith were among their best. Taran Etto, Nathan Lomas and Josh Bottin-Noonan worked tirelessly all afternoon for the Blues.

UMPIRE PROFILES

JED WESLEY-SMITH — Club Umpire

AFL Sydney Club: Wests Magpies

Nickname: Jed

Favourite AFL Team: Sydney Swans

Favourite AFL Player: Barry Hall, for my son's 8th birthday we took him to the SCG museum and met Bazza on the way in, he went out of his way to be lovely to him.

Best AFL Sydney Player Seen: Steve Hudson, playing for NSW Police against Victoria Police, despite there being several ex AFL and VFL players for the Vics, Steve was one of the best on ground and got votes.

Why did you commence umpiring for your club? I've umpired cricket for years. My sons were both juniors there, I umpired Auskick, then the annual Golden Oldies vs. U16s matches and the canny president suggested I give it a go.

What do you enjoy most being a club appointed Field Umpire? Helping out, and being part of the club. My family is from Adelaide, but I lived in Sydney all my life. I watched but never played Australian Rules, and always loved the game. It is great to be part of it.

What is the least enjoyable part being a club appointed Field Umpire? Not being considered a "real" umpire. Most clubbies take the job very seriously, and in my experience I've come across very few who favour their own team with their decisions.

Most Embarrassing Football Moment: After watching a player run 25 metres with the ball I called him up for it, only for it to be immediately obvious by everyone's reaction that I'd got it wrong. Somehow, even though I'd swear blind I'd been watching the whole time I'd managed to miss him bounce it. Still have no idea how I missed that. I balled it up, but needed a convenient hole to hide in.

Greatest Football Achievement: Umpiring SA vs Vic in the Australian Police Football Championships. Fantastic game, many ex AFL, VFL and SANFL players on each side.

Best Umpiring Advice Given to You: I met Billy Bowden in Kochi, India after an India-Pakistan game. He told me the most important rule in cricket is rule 43, Common Sense. Applies outside of cricket as well.

Danielle Reynolds-Collins—Club Umpire

AFL Sydney Club: UNSW & UTS, but previously Balmain, Newtown and Macquarie Uni

Nickname: I'm sure the girls have given me plenty, but not one I know of!

Favourite AFL Team: Essendon

Favourite AFL Player: Matthew Lloyd

Best AFL Sydney Player Seen: Courtney Gum (UNSW) impresses me every time she's on the field.

Why did you commence umpiring for your club? I was considering signing up for womens footy, but at the start of the season I had an ankle injury that I wasn't sure would hold up in tackles.

What do you enjoy most being a club appointed Field Umpire? Supporting the growth of Womens AFL.

What is the least enjoyable part being a club appointed Field Umpire? The assumption of bias, especially when I have no affiliation to the clubs I umpire for.

Most Embarrassing Football Moment: I've copped a football to the head twice now, and broken a finger attempting to mark a ball that was being returned.

Greatest Football Achievement: Before women's youth football was available I was the only female to continue playing with the boys beyond the age of 15 in Perth, WA at the time.

Best Umpiring Advice Given to You: Take the game seriously. I started umpiring a girls AFL school competition because previous umpires wanted to "let the girls go" and ignore throwing etc. as girls "weren't raised to play footy". Respect and protect the players and they'll do the same for you.

Why did you commence umpiring for your club?
Coming back from knee reconstruction, needed to stay fit and club needed an umpire.

What do you enjoy most being a club appointed Field Umpire?
You get to see all the action close up. You feel part of the game.

What is the least enjoyable part being a club appointed Field Umpire?
The abuse from some players.

Most Embarrassing Football Moment:
Turning up to the wrong ground in Wollongong, then not being able to find the right ground.

Greatest Football Achievement:
Apart from winning two premierships 30 years ago with Campbelltown, my greatest achievement was captaining the Camden Reserve Grade side in 2005/2006 aged 44 and still being able to contribute to their success on the field.

Best Umpiring Advice Given to You:
Stay mentally cool, and blow the whistle hard.

Most Embarrassing Football Moment:
From my playing days was running into goal from the boundary line, trying to kick a banana and managing it to kick it straight Out on the Full. Of recent times, just falling over constantly, including during an AFL Sydney Grand Final.

Greatest Football Achievement:
Winning an Under 16 premiership as club captain and umpiring a senior Grand Final with my younger brother.

Best Football Advice Given to You:
Being told once or twice to give up playing and take up umpiring...

GROUNDS

You might be surprised where Australian Football was played in Sydney last century.

In 1905 games were played on Redfern Oval – and attracted large crowds. Before a match between Newtown and North Shore – who wore maroon jumpers – a rather unique event took place for football of the day.

The lady supporters of the Newtown team handed each man on that side a very neat cap in the club's colours and a special one for the captain. The caps were the handiwork of the ladies concerned and were much admired.

More games were played on SCG No. 2 Oval – who can remember that venue? Also Rushcutters Bay Oval and North Sydney Park. We are reasonably sure this was the outer ground, not North Sydney Oval.

In May 1909 a crowd estimated at 4,000 lined the boundary of the ground at Moore Park, situated on the south east corner of South Dowling and Cleveland Streets, to see a game between Newtown and Paddington. A few observations:

- That is a big crowd for a park;
- How did the people at the back see the game?
- The league really had issues with playing on parks because crowds of this magnitude would severely encroach onto the playing arena.
- The ground is still used now for Australian football, being the home ground of the junior club, the Moore Park Tigers.

We have come up with a list of grounds used in Sydney football over the years. Some still are.

Email us if you know of more. The History Society wants to compile a complete list of grounds used for Australian football in Sydney and environs.

2014 RISING STAR

CALLUM MILLS— NORTH SHORE

Last year Callum was one of the stars of the NSW/ACT Rams' winning Under-16 Div 2 National Championships. Callum who captained the Rams to their first carnival win since 2002, was awarded the NSW/ACT Most Valuable Player and was also named the Best Player in Division Two.

In a stellar year where the AIS squad member also claimed the Carbine Club AFL Scholarship it was therefore not surprising to see Callum in his 1st senior game for the Bombers Star with a 30+ disposal game, 17 of which came in the last quarter.

Coach Jon Hayres: "I wasn't surprised to see such a performance from Cal, I've known Cal since he was playing under 12's for Mosman and he has always been a really level headed kid, he trains hard, looks after himself and loves to absorb any football information. What is really striking for me he is strong team orientation in the way he plays footy"

Previous nominees:

Round 1— Taylor Preece (UNSW/ES)

Round 2— Abe Davis (UNSW/ES)

Round 3—Theo Moraitis (Pennant Hills)

JASMINE SMITH— UNSW-ES STINGRAYS

Jasmine Smith played her first game of AFL for the UNSW/ES Stingrays on Sunday in the torrential rain at the Village Green against the Moorebank Magpies.

A basketballer by background, Jasmine took the field at Centre Half Forward and dominated from the outset. Her ability to get her hands clear when tackled and get her foot to the ball quickly in the wet really helped the team cement the ball in the forward 50 throughout the first half. Jasmine was also thrown into the ruck on occasions and used her body strongly to deliver the ball to her team mates.

A natural athlete, she revelled in the wet conditions – sliding, tackling and diving around the field and took out the team's Best on Ground post game.

Previous nominees:

Round 1— Kate Stanton (Wollongong)

2014 AFL SYDNEY TEAM OF THE WEEK

BATS AIM TO IMPRESS

By Caitlin Arnold

Undoubtedly one of the biggest events on the AFL Sydney calendar outside the finals, this week marks the annual Audi Centre Sydney UTS Bats Ladies Day at Waverly Oval.

Expecting a crowd of 500 plus, UTS Club President Nick Haslam implores family, friends and even foes to join the Bats in celebrating the contribution of women to the game of AFL.

Coming up against fellow University side, Sydney University, the cross-town rivalry is set to provide a spectacle despite the Bats' recent form.

"Our players have historically risen for the occasion on Ladies Day, and I expect this year to be no different," says Haslam.

"We have enjoyed a long history against Sydney Uni, and it's great to be competing against them on this day."

Apart from playing three games on Saturday with Premier Division, Division One and Division Two all on display, UTS will also provide a fully licensed bar, a Pimms Marquee and gourmet BBQ, prizes, competitions and free gift bags to the first 150 ladies present. Following the game, there will be a shuttle bus to take supporters to The Light Brigade Hotel, which is sponsoring the day alongside Eakin McCaffery Cox Lawyers and Corporate Edge.

Other than family, wives and girlfriends, the UTS Bats welcome Ladies Day as a way to commemorate their sister side The UTS Shamrocks (who will be in attendance) and female members of the club such as Katie Hume, who Haslam says has been instrumental on the Bats Committee.

"It's always great to have the support of family and friends and this is also a great day to encourage ladies who would not otherwise come to the football, to get involved."

Haslam also takes the opportunity of the Audi Centre Sydney UTS Bats Ladies Day event to spruik his clubmen on the love front.

"It's worth noting that the single guys who are looking for love at the moment, in particular Frank Boland, Luke Trimboli, Nicky Barrett and James Caica, will be doing everything they can to impress in front of the ladies marquee."

"We also expect our vanity trio - Damon Collina, Justin Kenna and Tom Zilm - to put in that extra one or two percent given the opportunity to impress."

Away from this Saturday's major occasion, the Bats admit that they were hoping for a better start to their 2014 Premier Division campaign.

"It has been a frustrating start to the year for our Premier Division team. We have put good patches of football together and have been in a winning position at different stages of each game before missing out."

The focus now moves to playing consistent, four-quarter football and maintaining the positive spirit that Haslam says remains at the club despite their early losses.

In an attempt to build for the future of UTS, the Bats are looking into fielding an Under 19s team in the near future. Recognising the strength of the competition, Haslam says that increasing the number of development players coming through for the Bats is the way forward for the club.

"We are focusing on our ties with the University to develop this team."

Also coming up for UTS is the Inaugural Bats Ball, which will take place at Doltone House Hyde Park on 31 May 2014. Haslam encourages all supporters to come along, and to contact Justin Kenna (0438 422 156) for tickets.
