

ROSS FAULKNER COACH OF THE MONTH

April 2014 – Kayne Taylor (Caroline Springs Football Club)

The Ross Faulkner AFCA Western Region "Coach of the Month" for April 2014 is Kayne Taylor from the Caroline Springs Football Club. This award recognises some of the great work being done by coaches in the western region community and reinforces the importance of good coaching in local football, schools and Auskick.

Although his team has not been getting great results on the field, Kayne has made an effort to make each player achieve mini goals each game. He has remained positive when the team was getting beaten badly, and maintained discipline and team rules no matter the score.

Kayne, together with his co-coach and assistant coaches has taught the team that you can't take things for granted and you need to stick together through the good times and bad. He has focussed on maintaining what they needed to do to improve as individual players and as a team.

He works to ensure every player plays to their full potential and keeps a positive mindset. He has been fantastic in making sure the team knows what is expected from each of them irrespective of the score line.
