Mooroolbark boys
do us proud!

MoozaB played for the Big V at the Junction Oval last Sunday 13th of July in the annual Police V's MFB Charity Match.

Police won by 13pts in a hard game and John Chivers reports that our Mooroolbark boys - Luke Chivers, Braeden Chivers and Matt Ford, played very well.

Thanks for sharing John!

Vets news . . .

The boys played Scoresby on Sunday and unfortunately lost the game. Well Done to Graeme Campbell though - kicking 6 goals.

A nasty injury to Troy McCarten a few weeks ago has left him facing several knee operations.

We're all sending good wishes and lots of luck to him and Tammy - hope you are on the mend soon.

Scoresby: 14. 8. 92
Mooroolbark: 8. 4. 52

Keep an eye out for the Vets, as their final 2 games are home @ Heights.

Thanks to the Polkinghorne family, who donated this 1967 enamel Membership 'tag (keyring) badge. They received it from neighbours and we are pleased to have it in the trophy cabinet.

The '67' represents the Membership Year (1967) which has a split pin through to the rear. Every year, members would get a new insert. In this case, the Member No is 19, as engraved on the back.

Leslie Neuparth also recently donated her member No 1 badge which is also in the cabinet - much appreciated!
