DAVID WOJCINSKI
SENIOR FOOTBALL COACH

Welcome to the latest edition of Eagles Nest for 2014, I hope everyone has had a great break from football and were able to get away for the weekend. For me it was great to get away with my kids for the week and take time out to recharge the batteries for the last six games of the home and away season.

The senior boys trained on under the guidance of the leadership group and Orry in my absence.

A big congratulations to Oscar Doyle who represented Vic Country in the Under 19s on the weekend. Oscar played really well slotting 4 goals in their big win over Vic Metro carrying on his top form from the Colts and Seniors in recent weeks.

Two weeks ago we had a really solid win over Grovedale at home which was very pleasing as everyone involved with the senior groups was disappointed with our performance last time we played them. We learnt a lot from that game so it was great to come away with a win against a finals contender and produce a really even contribution from everyone on the day.

This week sees us travel past the Milk Bar on the way to St Joeys where we'll be in for a really tough game against a quality opposition. We will welcome back a few senior players from injury and travel this week which again makes it very difficult to pick the teams but like last week it's a great position to be in. There is no doubt it will be a huge game against one of our fiercest rivals but I know that our boys are really looking forward to it.

I hope to see you all over at Joeys barracking and making heaps of noise for our boys and girls.

Cheers Woj

Go Town!!

Colts Football Report

COACH

Firstly I'd like to Congratulate Oscar Doyle on his performance with the Vic Country U/19 team on Saturday booting 4 goals and probably could have had another couple!!! The side's assistant coach is none other than our very own Matty Bruhn. Great work Matthew!

The Div 1 side enjoyed a week away following a quality 86 point win over Grovedale. Oscar Doyle again led the way in front of goal with 6 and Jordan Flaccavento slotted 3. Cam Fowler, Brandon Efthimiou and Jacob Ngawati were all standout performers on the day. The next 6 weeks are huge for us as we fine tune our game leading into the finals beginning with St Joseph's this week.

The Div 4 side have had a mixed fortnight thrashing Corio by 96 points, with Levi Jones kicking 7, and then going down to St Joseph's in their second loss for the season in what might be wake up call for the boys. The boys didn't seem to handle the pressure early and were soon trailing by 5 goals at quarter time. Hopefully this week the lads can bounce out of the blocks and be super competitive against league leaders Torquay.

U14, U16 & Youth Girls Football News

The last two weeks has been busy for some of our junior footballers despite the school holiday break. Lily Mithen, Eliza Shannon and Tanner Bruhn have been training with the Victorian School's football team for their respective age groups. They will go to Sydney on Saturday to play in a week long carnival. From all your team mates and members of the club we wish you well and look forward to hearing of your experience.

As noted in the previous addition of the Eagles Nest our club also had a number of players representing Geelong against Ballarat in the battle for the Bob Davis Shield. Our club was well represented and Geelong managed to retain the Shield for 2014. For those who ventured to the carnival at Ballarat the conditions could not have been worse... overcast, wet and very, very cold! Well done to all.

Under 13 – Chas Karpala, Charlie Harris, Brad Jepson, Jordy Muhor

Under 14 – Baxter Mensch, Nick Pratt

Under 15 – Jack Hodgson

Under 16 – Mitch Diamond, Nathan McDonald

Youth Girls – Tioni Hamer, Sophie Barker, Denby Taylor, Isabel Thompson, Arabella O'Neill

There are only 4 rounds of football for our juniors for the remainder of the season. For some the season will be a little longer as they prepare for finals.

We will have team photos next Thursday in the clubrooms. Further details will be provided to players from their team managers.

U9 - U12 Football News

I hope everyone had a lovely break over the school holidays and are ready for the final 4 rounds of football. We have a lot to fit in over the next four weeks.

Pie nights have been confirmed for the following teams. The players will go into the clubrooms at the end of training for a pie supplied by the club. Families are welcome to come along and have a club meal.

Thursday 17th July- Under 12's and Under 9's Red

Thursday 24th July- Under 11's Red and Black

Thursday 31st July- Under 10's Red and Black

The date for photos and presentation nights will be confirmed and team managers will let you know when they are on.

The disco that was scheduled for the 19th of July has been cancelled.

We have some great photos sent in by Eagles Under 11's Red. Thanks Leeanne.

Hello to all Auskickers and families.

We trust you have all had a great school holidays and you haven't driven your parents batty over the past two weeks!!

Wow, what a great day was had by all at the Superclinic. We hope you all had as much fun as we did! The weather was kind to us (albeit a little brisk), and it was so nice seeing all of our Auskickers having such a great time. Firstly, thank you to our fabulous helpers who ensured we did not lose any of our kids walking between the cricket ground and the main stadium and back again! You all did a great job. I was so proud of our Auskickers, following our directions, looking after each other and behaving so well during the various hold points and stoppages throughout the morning.

Now it is incredibly difficult for a Hawks supporter to praise the Geelong Football Club and their playing group, but I have to put my allegiances to one side (just this once anyway) and recognise how fantastic the Cats players were today. Each of the players who came our way spent plenty of time with our group helping out, chatting, posing for photos and signing lots of autographs. It was great watching our Auskickers interact with them and hopefully take away some fantastic memories. Maybe one of our Auskickers will be the one signing autographs and having their photo taken in 20 years' time you never know; just make sure you remember your old Auskick coaches when you hit the big time ok!!.

Congratulations to the following Auskickers who have received awards in Weeks 9:

In two weeks' time we are going to be holding the annual Dad's Kicking Competition. This is always a hotly contested event, so I like to give the Dads plenty of warning so they can get some practice in and make sure they are stretched up and ready to go. We will have a broad selection of physios ready just in case old man's curse strikes (hammies and calves). This year we are going back to the seventies and looking for the best Torp (length and form key criteria by our expert judges), along with closest to the pin. Get those kicking boots on gentlemen & don't hold back!!!!

We are back to our normal time next week. Keep up the practice and we look forward to seeing you all next Sunday at Elderslie Reserve at 8.45am.

Many Thanks Greg

NETBALL REVIEW – THE BYE EDITION

Hello Sports Fans, I was really looking forward to taking the fortnight off and enjoying the bye, but everywhere I went people were asking, “What are the netballers doing on the bye?”, “What’s going on with the bye?”, “Can I have Becky Rau’s phone number?”, “How’s the bye going?”

Who knew that Newtown supporters were so bye-curious? Anyway, here’s what is going on with some of the girls...

Aimee Mellington – being tagged in the background of nightclub photos on Facebook

Britt Dietrich – sun, sand and sangria on a tropical beach somewhere

Casey Price – on a world tour

Dani Stewart – drinking Casey under the table on the same world tour

Elise Hultgren – left at the mock altar when her mock wedding was cancelled

Ferguson, Tash – getting taut and tanned in Thailand, also learning to play ping-pong

Groz-Dog – rehearsing her very own Bunnings Warehouse ad, she’s going to be a star one day

Heidi Sutcliffe – scouring the school teacher calendar hoping to find some public holidays in Term 3

Ilett, Lou – possibly in another country, it’s always tough to tell with Lou

Jacqui Ball – was meant to be practising her shooting, but spent the whole time playing Wii

Bowling...and hey, good for me for not making a Bowling Ball joke...

Kate Jeanes – running half marathons, but then realising she parked back at the start line and then having to run back

Liz Braddock – she gives the opposition greasy looks on court, and now she has gone to Greece to perfect that look

Mel Felton – She’s the fill-in weather girl on Channel 31

Nattalini Tommasini – celebrating her 29th birthday and then feeling hungover for 3 days

O’Dwyer, Bridget – she’s been working on the secret recipe for O’Dwyer Cider, I hear that it is delicious

Pilkington, Renee – she moved to Inverloch where she instantly became the hottest woman in town and tied down the most eligible bachelor, she must have heaps of new girlfriends...

Quick check-in with 2014 VNL Champion Amy Wirth – WOOOOOOO WOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rachel Womersley – it’s not a fake tan if you believe it...

Smith, Caro – she spent the break cleaning a stretch of highway in an orange jumpsuit because she loves the environment and orange is the hit colour of the season, or because she is doing community service for her third public nudity conviction, you be the judge.

Taylor Sharp – has been pretending to be a butler for her now one-legged sister Paige. Don’t worry Paige, legs sometimes grow back.

U – Yeah what have you been up to?

Van Someren, Abbey – competing in the 19 and under world thumb wrestling championship. So when she asks you to hold hands, look out, she’s very aggressive.

Watson, Lyndell – helping great blokes land jobs at local Geelong workplaces. Thanks Dell!

X-Men Days Of Future Past – I hear it’s pretty good, and who doesn’t love J-Law?

Y – are you still reading this? We’ve definitely run out of letters...

Zette Jones – technically it is Lezette Jones, but I was too close to give up now. Lezette, or as she is known in France, The Zette, coached her junior team to their maiden win of the season. Good work ZJ...
