Big few weeks ahead in the race for a finals spot

Eleven doesn't fit into eight nor does twelve or for that matter, thirteen, but these are the current scenarios as the Peter Jackson VFL season enters the business end of the home and away season.

With four home and away rounds remaining in the 2014 season, no fewer than 13 clubs still have a mathematical chance of finishing in the eight and participating in the VFL Legendairy finals series.

It is not only a battle for clubs making the eight, but also those clubs within it that are jostling for a top four finish. A top four finish can bring the coveted double chance and the possibility of a home final in the opening week.

Selection of finals venues for the first week - outside of the two games at North Port Oval, Port Melbourne as per our agreement with ABC TV - have yet to be finalised.

In recent years, clubs who finish with a higher position are rewarded with a home final. No club can lay claim at this stage to finishing in a particular position and that certainly adds to the interest of the concluding rounds.

It reinforces what has been a highly competitive VFL season with just three games separating fifth through 12 on the ladder.

It underscores the depth of talent that plays each and every week as well as highlighting how just about any club on any given day can prevail regardless of their ladder position.

Such competitiveness is what strengthens and adds to the appeal of the Peter Jackson VFL.

Every match over the coming four weeks will be pivotal in not only whether a club makes the finals, but where they will sit within the eight to launch their bid for the 2014 Peter Jackson VFL premiership.

The fight for a finals berth will provide an additional incentive of the next few weeks for not only the players and their clubs, but also for members and supporters to attend games to lend their vocal support.

The race for the TAC Cup finals is also intense with all clubs mathematically still in the race to play finals.

What provides added interest to the final few rounds of the TAC Cup season and finals is the availability of the many talented players who have missed games during the year due to national championship duties or school football commitments.

Certainly, the full time return of: Reece McKenzie (Northern Knights), Ed Vickers-Willis (Sandringham Dragons), Jordan De Goey (Oakleigh Chargers), Corey Ellis (Western Jets), Jayden Laverde (Western Jets), Daniel McKenzie (Oakleigh Chargers), Hugh Goddard (Geelong Falcons), Charles Curnow (Geelong Falcons), Patrick McCartin (Geelong Falcons), Lukas Webb (Gippsland Power) along with Daniel Capiron and Jacob Weitering (Dandenong Stingrays) will be welcomed.

These emerging players will gain further opportunities to showcase their ability, push their club's claims to win the TAC Cup premiership and enhance their claims to impress AFL recruiting staffs ahead of the various forms of the AFL Draft later this year.

An exciting month for all concerned at the Peter Jackson VFL and TAC Cup awaits.

The run home

Port Melbourne heads the largest field of clubs for more than a decade into the home straight of the 2014 VFL home and away season.

The Borough is clearly the club the others have to beat, but they don't award any medallions or flags in early August.

Not only is there the scramble for clubs to make the eight - Frankston is still a mathematical chance after stringing three successive wins - but also the jostling for positions, particularly at the top end of the ladder.

It makes the final month of the home and away season very interesting.

Here's a snapshot of the race into the finals, club by club:

PORT MELBOURNE

Position: First

Win/Loss: 12-2

Percentage: 137.78

What's happened so far: After surging from the starting gates, Port Melbourne has retained the position as the clear front runner, the club others have to catch in this season's premiership race. The Borough won its first seven games, had its winning streak snapped by Geelong at the spacious Simonds Stadium then encountered a reality check when Footscray thumped them by six goals at the North Port Oval, a fortress during Gary Ayres reign as coach.

Port Melbourne has responded in stunning style winning its next five games in emphatic fashion with the match against Essendon - a three point win - the only match that wasn't won by 29-points or greater. Admittedly, they were against clubs not in the eight, but that's how good clubs roll.

Likely scenario: With a one and a half game break on its nearest rival Box Hill Hawks, and a favourable run home, it is hard to imagine Port Melbourne not finishing on top of the ladder. And, that brings with it a home final. While the venues for the first week of the finals haven't been locked away, the Borough's performance this season deserves a home final - and that's a daunting prospect for any would-be finalist. Port Melbourne is well poised for a 17th flag.

Who's ahead: Werribee (away), Casey (home), Northern Blues (away), North Ballarat (home)

BOX HILL HAWKS

Position: Second

Win/Loss: 10-3-1

Percentage: 135.6

What's happened so far: Box Hill Hawks have certainly given themselves every opportunity to post a club first - back-to-back premierships. The VFL Hawks could easily mount a case they could be undefeated this season. Inexplicably they drew with Sandringham and its three defeats have been two points (North Ballarat), three points (Essendon) and seven points (Port Melbourne).

Certainly, Box Hill Hawks have capitalised on the remarkable depth of affiliate Hawthorn - Hawthorn premiership player David Hale has played a couple of games, so too Brian Lake, while Kyle Cheyney, Ben Ross, Mitch Hallahan and Billy Hartung are staples of Box Hill Hawks success.

Likely scenario: With a favorable run home it is hard to imagine Box Hill Hawks dropping out of the top four, but just where the VFL Hawks will launch its premiership defence from remains uncertain. It's unlikely that Box Hill Hawks will reel in Port Melbourne, which holds a one and a half game buffer over them. Conversely, Box Hill Hawks can ill afford to take its foot off the accelerator as Footscray and Williamstown are just a half game behind them.

Who's ahead: Collingwood (away), Frankston (away), Bendigo (home), Northern Blues (home)

FOOTSCRAY

Position: Third

Win/Loss: 10-4

Percentage: 151.3

What's happened so far: Footscray will definitely play finals in its first season as a standalone club and, barring an unforeseen collapse, should occupy a top four position. Apart from a couple of aberrations - a two point loss to North Ballarat and a 41-point drubbing by Williamstown - Footscray has been an impressive a team as any of the top four clubs.

The VFL Dogs belted ladder Port Melbourne away by six goals and not too many, if any club has done that to the Borough during the Gary Ayres reign. Footscray, superbly led by Nick Lower, Brent Prismall and Jordan Russell, also toyed with Essendon (53), Geelong (52) and Collingwood (45) and that was after thrashing Bendigo (166) and Richmond (117) earlier in the season. The Dogs continually apply scoreboard pressure, they've kicked a century score line eight times while only conceding the one.

Likely scenario: Just how far Footscray travels in the finals will depend on the eligibility and availability of its AFL listed players. For much of the season it's been a revolving door between the AFL and VFL as the Western Bulldogs have searched repeatedly for a mix of players that not only will make them competitive, but also a group that will finally take the club forward.

Consequently, many of the players that have helped the Dogs become such a strong combination may find themselves not having played enough games to qualify in the finals. Also, with the Bulldogs not in the AFL finals the temptation is always there for the coaching staff to decide to close some players down for the season.

Who's ahead: Bendigo (home), Werribee (away), Casey (HG), Richmond (away)

WILLIAMSTOWN

Position: Fourth

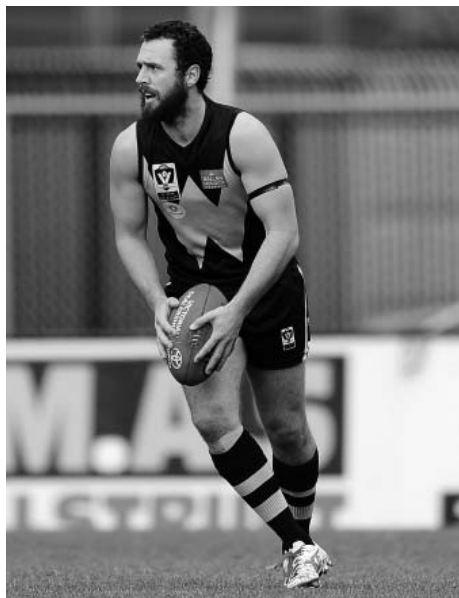

Win/Loss: 10-4

Percentage: 132.3

What's happened so far: Williamstown has dispelled any queries over its ability to be competitive in its first season as a standalone club. The Seagulls, in its first season under Andy Collins, will not only play finals, but will play a meaningful role in who will win the premiership. It could quite easily be the Seagulls.

Arch rival Port Melbourne defeated them as did reigning premiers Box Hill Hawks twice, but both games were in the balance in the last term.

Williamstown smashed Footscray earlier in the season and they've defeated all the other clubs in the eight they've played. Williamstown's 150th anniversary has already been a memorable year, but who's to say the biggest celebration is yet to come.

Likely scenario: Williamstown should seal a top four finish given they only play one other top eight club (North Ballarat) in the run into the finals. It's hard to imagine they would drop any of their last four games. And, if that scenario plays out they could easily climb as high as second, as current second-placed Box Hill Hawks is only a half-game ahead of them.

Who's ahead: Essendon (away), Northern Blues (home), North Ballarat (away), Sandringham (away)

WERRIBEE

Position: Fifth

Win/Loss: 9-5

Percentage: 130.9

What's happened: John Lamont will take Werribee into the finals in his first year as coach and the club will make its fourth successive finals appearance. Werribee's record could easily be better. With a slice of luck they could have already nailed down a top four spot, but for a one point loss to Essendon and a nine-point loss to Williamstown.

But narrow defeats have been traded off with close wins against Casey (five points) and Geelong (nine). Werribee has won all its games its ladder position suggest it should have won, but it has lost to the three clubs ahead of it that it's played - Port Melbourne, Box Hill Hawks and Williamstown (Footscray awaits in the run home).

Likely scenario: While Werribee boasts a two game percentage buffer over those clubs scrambling to make the eight, the Tigers do face a tough couple of games - Port Melbourne and Footscray - before the finals. It would be hard to imagine either Sandringham and/or Frankston defeating them. But, for Werribee to have a realistic chance of winning its first premiership since Lamont was a member of the 1991 flag, the Tigers need to finish with a top four position.

For that to happen, several things need to occur. First and foremost, Werribee needs to post a win against the Borough or Dogs and defeat, as expected Sandringham and Frankston. If that doesn't play out then it would need Box Hill Hawks and/or Williamstown to implode and that looks highly unlikely.

Who's ahead: Port Melbourne (home), Footscray (home), Sandringham (home), Frankston (away)

NORTH BALLARAT

Position: Sixth

Win/Loss: 8-6

Percentage: 116.5

The Roosters

What's happened: one of, if not, the biggest surprise of the season has been the Roosters. Once again it underlines the extraordinary coaching skills of Gerard FitzGerald, who has taken a modestly talented list into the finals. Yes, the vagaries of the draw have helped and seemingly they've bumped into AFL standalone or aligned AFL clubs when they're at their most vulnerable, but, that's the rub of the green. Sometimes it works for you, other times it doesn't.

While North Ballarat doesn't play an attractive brand of football and rarely kicks a 100-point score line, that's doesn't concern FitzGerald or for that matter the players. They've kept the win column ticking over and that's the bottom line.

Likely scenario: While it's highly unlikely North Ballarat will play a meaningful role in the premiership they will definitely play finals for the first time in three years. That's an undeniable positive given no-one would have imagined the club to have been as successful without Messrs, Clifton, Driscoll and Sewell.

North Ballarat face a tough run home. They play competition power houses Port Melbourne and Williamstown for the first time in the last two rounds and they also host Geelong, who if they get close to full strength will cause the Roosters problems.

Who's ahead: Coburg (away), Geelong (home), Williamstown (home), Port Melbourne (home)

COLLINGWOOD

Position: Seventh

Win/Loss: 8-6

Percentage: 109.6

What's happened so far: After setting up its season with six first half wins, Collingwood has struggled to gain any momentum in the second half and that's a direct result of the injury woes endured by its AFL list. Collingwood's only two second half wins have come against Richmond and Werribee.

Certainly, losses to Northern Blues and Frankston in its past three games have snuffed out their aspirations for a double chance. While Collingwood has always appeared likely to play finals, it has only beaten two clubs in the eight - Werribee and North Ballarat - and now it faces a fight to remain in the eight.

Likely scenario: Collingwood faces a testing next three weeks as it comes up against Box Hill Hawks, Essendon and Geelong. The VFL Pies must win at least two of them to secure a finals berth. Although they finish off the season against Bendigo, Collingwood must bank wins before they play Bendigo or the last game of the season could well be a meaningless exercise.

Who's ahead: Box Hill Hawks (home), Essendon (home), Geelong (away), Bendigo (away)

GEELONG

Position: Eighth

Win/Loss: 7-7

Percentage: 113

What's happened so far: Just as dominant as Geelong was last season, the Cats have been as inconsistent this season. Retirements and injuries to its seasoned, experienced VFL players coupled with injuries to its AFL list has left Geelong vulnerable.

It's been a season that has ebbed and flowed - three wins from its first four games followed by three successive losses and then three more wins from its next four games. At its height, Geelong has inflicted wins over Port Melbourne, North Ballarat and a massive 129-point win against Sandringham in its most recent match. Frustratingly, the Cats have twice lost to 12-placed Richmond and such inconsistency has consigned them to a club that is playing .500 football.

Likely scenario: Can Geelong rally to lock in a place in the finals? Certainly, the Cats have a favorable run home with its games against clubs all in close proximity to them on the ladder. Also, three of its remaining games are at Simonds Stadium with North Ballarat their only road trip. If Geelong can find some consistency and is able to field its best team it would surprise no one if they won all four games to make a late push for a top four finish. Geelong won't be looking that far ahead. It needs to find enough consistency to win enough games to make the finals.

Who's ahead: Frankston (home), North Ballarat (away), Collingwood (home), Essendon (home)

NORTHERN BLUES

Position: Ninth

Win/Loss: 7-7

Percentage: 81

What's happened so far: Several factors have defined Northern Blues season. Firstly, they have played in bursts - the VFL Blues won its first three games then dropped four in succession before again winning three in a row. They've won just one of its past four.

Northern Blues has been aided by winning five games by 12-points or less, but conversely they have copped four defeats by 40-points or more. And, they've been helped some telling cameos - Chris Judd and Jarrad Waite have played in winning Northern Blues teams, but it only helped the club to play .500 football.

Likely scenario: While Northern Blues boast the same number of wins as eighth-placed Geelong and are outside on percentage (a massive 30 percentage points), they face an Everest-like climb to get into the eight. Apart from its coming match against the tame Scorpions, Northern Blues face three of the top four clubs in the competition - Port Melbourne, Box Hill Hawks and Williamstown. And, to compound the equation for Northern Blues its only game at home is against ladder-leader Port Melbourne. It shapes as a mountain too steep to climb.

ESSENDON

Position: Tenth

Win/Loss: 6-7-1

Percentage: 98

What's happened so far: It's been the proverbial roller coaster ride for Essendon, which has savored dizzy heights then just as suddenly endured ocean depths. Wins against Box Hill Hawks and Werribee have suggested the VFL Bombers are in fact not only legitimate finalists, but also worthy of a top four finish. Such discussion has been bolstered by running Port Melbourne to three goals and four points in its two meetings.

Inexplicably, such performances have been washed over by losses to Richmond and Sandringham and a draw against Frankston. The end result being that Essendon outside the eight, but still close enough to make a run for a final's berth. It's been that type of season.

Likely scenario: Apart from Williamstown, Essendon meets clubs - Collingwood, Richmond and Geelong - that are clustered around them. If the Bombers reproduce the form that saw them defeat Box Hill Hawks and Werribee then they will win the necessary three games they require to take them back to the finals for a second consecutive season. It's a big if, but with Essendon you just never know what to expect.

Who's ahead: Williamstown (HG), Collingwood (away), Richmond (HG), Geelong (away)

SANDRINGHAM

Position: 11th

Win/Loss: 6-7-1

Percentage: 92

What's happened so far: What started out positively appears destined to fizzle out into yet another disappointing season for Sandringham. The Zebras charged from the gates winning four of its first five games with its other match ending in a draw against Box Hill Hawks.

Such a frenetic start gave rise to much optimism that Sandringham would play a significant role in the finals. Unfortunately for Zebras' fans there has only been two subsequent wins - and one of those was against the hapless Bendigo Gold - in the following nine matches.

Likely scenario: While finals are still within its grasp, Sandringham must somehow turn around its recent fortunes, most noticeably its latest performance which saw Geelong inflict a crushing 129-point win at the Trevor Barker Oval. If the Zebras can regain form, playing finals could still happen. The next two games against Richmond and Coburg are pivotal. Wins against both these clubs, situated below them on the ladder, are non-negotiable. If Sandringham doesn't post victories in those matches, the games against Werribee and Williamstown will be redundant.

Who's ahead: Richmond (away), Coburg (home), Werribee (away), Williamstown (home)

Position: Twelveth

Win/Loss: 5-8-1

Percentage: 81.8

What's happened: After recruiting extensively to provide a solid VFL foundation, Richmond's return as a standalone AFL club has been disappointing to put it mildly. While the Tigers can mathematically still make the eight - they are one and a half games out - the truth of the matter is that they haven't looked like a finals team at any point so far.

Apart from back-to-back wins against Casey and Geelong, Richmond has been unable to gain any momentum. And, what's hard to fathom is that they've had the services for much of the season of plenty of Richmond listed players whose experience should have resulted in a far better score line.

Likely scenario: For Richmond it is as simple as it is straight forward - they have to go on a four game winning streak and then get some help from other teams. Richmond can only control their side of that equation and while their run home is favourable from what we've seen so far playing finals is not going to happen this season.

Who's ahead:

Sandringham (home), Bendigo (away), Essendon (HG), Footscray (home).

FRANKSTON

Position: Thirteenth

Win/Loss: 4-8-2

Percentage: 85.2

What's happened: Frankston has given itself the faintest of hopes of playing finals after a dreadful start to the season, which saw them lose its first eight games. But, the Dolphins revived their season with a draw - remarkably it's second of the season - followed by three successive wins.

Likely scenario: As unlikely as it would have seemed a month ago, Frankston can still mathematically make the finals. Unlike other teams above them there is no wriggle room. They have to win its last four games and then rely on other results falling their way, but they will embrace that challenge with their confidence riding high after three successive wins.

Who's ahead: Geelong (away), Box Hill Hawks (home), Coburg (away), Werribee (home)

VFL clubs support Alcohol Charter

Peter Jackson VFL clubs have joined together to sign an AFL Victoria Alcohol Charter to encourage responsible consumption of alcohol across the competition.

The aim of the AFL Victoria Alcohol Charter is to develop a consistent framework for clubs to use to help minimise the harm from alcohol through education and awareness programs encouraging responsible consumption.

Developed in conjunction with VicHealth, AFL Victoria General Manager Grant Williams says the Charter highlights the role football plays in providing leadership regarding this important social issue.

"Many VFL clubs are already engaged in initiatives aimed at encouraging the appropriate consumption and serving of alcohol, so the AFL Victoria Alcohol Charter will help facilitate a consistent approach across all clubs as we collectively strive to provide a safe, secure and family friendly atmosphere at VFL matches.

"The Charter's framework provides flexibility for clubs to develop relevant strategies to address their own issues and highlights the key areas relating to alcohol that need to be addressed at all levels such as policy, training, improvement and awareness," Williams said.

"The AFL Victoria Alcohol Charter and our strategies regarding alcohol are not focussed on the removal of alcohol, but the responsible approach to serving and consumption of alcohol.

"The Charter compliments the significant work already being done to promote responsible alcohol consumption throughout the community and elite levels of the game."

AFL Victoria Cultural Strategy Manager John Strachan said the Charter – also signed by all metropolitan community leagues and the majority of country commissions - ensures that alcohol education is on the agenda at VFL clubs.

"Most VFL clubs are already part of programs such as the Good Sports Program which reflects a responsible attitude towards alcohol, with the aim to provide a safe environment for players, families and supporters.

"The harm from alcohol related incidents in the community can be helped by VFL clubs demonstrating leadership in how to deal with alcohol responsibly," Strachan said.

Program partner VicHealth strongly supports this initiative at all levels of football.

"Having a drink at the footy is fine, but poor boozy behaviour has no place in a family sport," VicHealth CEO Jerril Rechter said.

"Unfortunately, alcohol consumption can get out of hand and incidents occur, which means it no fun for anyone. So, it is important AFL Victoria has created this Charter to proactively address these issues.

"We are pleased to work together with AFL Victoria to promote responsible alcohol-use on and off the footy field, so we can focus on celebrating everything that makes this sport so great."

Last Round Wrap: Round 16

The ladder has settled after Round 16 in the Peter Jackson VFL, with all byes complete and each team with four games remaining for season 2014.

The positions in the top four changed again this weekend, with Williamstown moving ahead of Werribee, and Box Hill Hawks moving to second spot as it hots up in the battle for the second chance.

Let's take a look at how the Round 16 games unfolded:

Port win for Baird

Port Melbourne has recognised captain John Baird's 200 game milestone in style, with a 42-point win over Richmond at Punt Road Oval.

The Borough took control of the game after quarter time, with inaccuracy costing the visitors a bigger win at they dominated their opposition.

Trailing by a goal at quarter time, Port Melbourne kicked the first two majors of the second term to hit the front as Dan Connors added his second against his old club. Port had 12 scoring shots to one for the term, but could only manage three goals as they took a 15-point lead into the second half.

The back six were controlling the game for the Borough, with Sam Fleming setting up play from the half back line. Through the middle the likes of Baird, James Magner (31 disposals), Toby Pinwill, Mitch Wooffindin and Shane Valenti were getting plenty of the ball, and helped their side lead all the key disposal areas.

Port Melbourne put the game beyond doubt in the third term, kicking five unanswered goals to race out to a 50-point lead. Richmond clawed back late with two late goals to trail by 39-points at three quarter time.

Port finished off the game strong, winning the final term to run out 42-point winners.

Baird showed he still has plenty of football left in him to be named best for Port, and was joined by the usual suspects in Pinwill (30 disposals), Wooffindin (29), Valenti (27), Fleming and Sandy Robinson in the ruck. Connors finished with three goals, and Adrian Bonaddio kicked two.

John Baird led by example in his 200th VFL game

For Richmond Liam McBean led the way up forward with two goals along with Mat McDonough, with Shaun Grigg named the best in his return from injury, along with Ben Griffiths, Shaun Hampson and James Wall.

Winning ways continue for Seagulls

Williamstown has continued its winning form from the FOXTTEL Cup Grand Final with a 61-point win over Bendigo.

The tall timber up forward for the Seagulls proved the difference, with Ben Casley and Scott Clouston combining up forward for nine of the home sides' 21 goals for the game.

Despite trailing at every chance, Bendigo showed a spirited fight back in the third term to ensure the Seagulls did not kick away with the game. Tyrone Downie led the way up forward for them with four goals.

However Williamstown showed no tired legs from two games in six days to restrict the Gold to just one goal in the final term while adding five of their own to run out 10-goal winners.

Casley (5 goals) and Clouston (4) were part of six multiple goal scorers for Williamstown, with Sean Tighe (3 goals), Sean Hetherington and Willie Wheeler in his return from injury among the best.

For the Gold, Sam Heaveyside, Matt Farrelly and Jake Aart were among the best.

Three in a row for Dolphins

Frankston has won three on the trot, with a come from behind win against Collingwood.

Trailing by 18-points at three quarter time, Frankston doubled its goal tally with six final term majors, keeping Collingwood goalless to win by 17-points.

After an even first half which saw Frankston turn a 12-point deficit into a seven point half time lead, the Magpies took control of the game with a four goal to nil third term.

But as they had the previous round against Casey Scorpions, Frankston saved its best football till the final term to race home and deny the Magpies a chance to move within a game of the top four, and two games ahead of the team below them trying to enter the eight.

Tim Harper kicked three for the winners, along with Scott Simpson and Michael Lourey with two each.

Nic Newman continued his good form for the Dolphins to be among the best, along with Russ Gabirel in the ruck, Jordan Pollard, Shane Hockey and Josh Tynan.

Brodie Grundy was the only multiple goal kicker for the Magpies, with Sam Dwyer, Jack Hellier and 23rd player Callum Matheson among the best.

Hawks fade but still claim win

Box Hill Hawks jumped back within a game and a half of top placed Port Melbourne with a 22-point win over Coburg. The win pushed the Hawks into second spot but the final term fade out late cost them a bigger result.

David Hale was the key early for Box Hill with three first quarter goals, to help the home side to an 18-point quarter time lead.

Josh Tynan was among the best for Frankston

The Hawks set up their win in the second term with three goals to one, but the inaccuracy of the home side meant at half time they only had eight goals to show from 20 scoring attempts.

Box Hill led by as much as 56-points midway through the third term, before Coburg kicked three of the last four goals of the term to trail by 44-points at three quarter time.

Despite the Hawks looking home early in the final quarter, Coburg stormed back to get within three goals, before Box Hill settle to record their 10th win of the season.

Hale led the way with five goals, while Liam Tobin, Ben Ross and Jordan Kelly had two each. Kyle Cheney dominated off half back to be among the best, along with Hale, Marc Lock in the middle and Ben Ross.

Coburg captain Nick Carnell (19 disposals) was the best for the Lions in his 150th game, along with Nathan Blair, Ben Clifton and Dan Younan who helped lead the Coburg revival. Younan finished with 4 goals, with Carnell, Dan Venditti and Zak Saad kicking two each.

BENDIGO: Two short patches of play where Williamstown got away were the low points of last Sunday's match. But overall it was a really excellent team effort where the whole team matched it all over the ground with one of the VFL's best teams. The margin on the board didn't do justice to the way the players attacked the ball and worked it forward and once again the team was far from disgraced. Round 17 sponsorship partners include Subway, Westmain Australia Pty Ltd, Bendigo Mortgage Brokers, Bendigo Modern Press and Villis Pies. Each sponsor has strongly supported the club and their commitment to strong, effective partnerships and high level, dedicated co-operation to VFL footy in Bendigo is immensely appreciated. Today's match against Footscray offers another huge challenge for the team to demonstrate just how far they've come since early in the season. These players won't shirk the issue and they're keen to run the season out so Go Gold!

BOX HILL HAWKS: With both teams having wins last week against Coburg, our seniors turn their attention to Collingwood and our development team to Sandringham respectively. In what will be a thrilling encounter between both clubs, we look forward to seeing all our loyal Box Hill Hawks supporters at Vic Park, to cheer on the lads. Our development team takes on Sandringham at the Trevor Barker Beach Oval on Sunday, starting at 12:45pm. Our final President's Luncheon for 2014 will take place on the 23rd August v Northern Blues starting at 11:30am (ABCTV Fixture). Tickets are $70 p/head (includes: two course meal, guest speaker, beer wine and soft drink and entry to ground) Tickets can be purchased by contacting the office on 9890 9442. As is always the case, please check for regular updates on the official club website www.boxhillhawks.com.au or via social media @BoxHillHawks

CASEY SCORPIONS: After a week off we are at home again for today's game against the Blues. With a loss against the Dolphins a couple of weeks ago we will be keen to get another win against the Blues, as we knocked them off the first time around earlier in the season. Next week we are away to the Borough, in the first of two away games, before returning home for our last home game at Casey Fields for 2014. Our annual golf day is fast approaching on Friday August 22 at the Sandhurst Club. Last year's event was a huge success so we are looking to bigger things this year. Friday 19th September is the date the Gardner Clark Medal where we recognise all of this year's player achievements and crown our best player for the year. Pencil in this date and come and celebrate 2014 with us. For all bookings, the latest news and events from the club head to our website www.scorpions.com.au or you can call the club on 5996 1111. Don't forget also you can get up to the minute news on the Scorp on Twitter and Facebook. Go Scorp!

COBURG: Congratulations to Nick Carnell on his 150th game last week. We were so proud to celebrate it with him and it was unfortunate that we couldn't quite get it done against a quality Box Hill outfit. The Coburg FC Golf Day is coming up on the 15th of August, and there are still spots available. The major raffle for the year is also out, with a $33,000 caravan, a Queensland escape, a V8 hot lap, VISA gift cards and many other great prizes up for grabs! Tickets are $10 and proceeds are going towards the construction of a new gym. For information on these items, contact the club on 9354 8228, or email us at info@coburgfc.com.au We hope to see you all at our final home game of the season on Sunday, August 17 against Frankston for the ETU Cup. Bookings for the luncheon are now being taken. Go Lions!

COLLINGWOOD: A disappointing result in Frankston last week saw the boys surrender an 18 point lead at 3/4 time to go down by 17-points. A strong performance and important win against Werribee that was again plagued by inaccuracy, puts us in a great position for the run home to the finals. We are back on our home deck this week against a strong Box Hill Hawks unit with plenty on the line for both clubs as the 8 starts to take shape. Congratulations to Kyle Martin on his elevation to the senior list. Collingwood fans can follow the live blog of all VFL games as well as find plenty of content by heading to collingwoodfc.com.au Follow us at twitter.com/collingwoodfc CollingwoodFC. ESSENDON: This week sees the club play against Williamstown at Highgate Recreation Reserve in what is a must win game for the Bombers if we are to keep our final aspirations alive. Next week we play Collingwood in another ABC TV game and will be another important game in the context of our season. We will also be playing for the Bluestar Cup who sponsor both sides. For all other information on Essendon's VFL side please visit www.essendonfc.com.au or follow us on twitter @EssendonVFL.

FOOTSCRAY: The Footscray Bulldogs will look to continue their charge towards finals this Sunday as they prepare to face a winless Bendigo Gold outfit. Last time the two sides met in round four the Bulldogs ran out 166-point winners but Footscray are sure to give their opponent due respect in Sunday's return bout. Footscray have been enjoying a competitive inaugural season, winning eight of their past nine games and sitting comfortably at third place on the ladder. The Bulldogs are giving members and fans the chance to win a host of prizes in their annual Bonanza Raffle in 2014. With all proceeds going towards the improvement of facilities at VU Whitten Oval – including the upgrade of opposition change rooms – you will also be contributing to the VFL side. Purchase tickets to the Bonanza Raffle now via the Bulldogs official website. Follow @FootscrayVFL on Twitter for the latest breaking match day news and quarter-by-quarter scores; Follow @FootscrayBulldogs on Instagram for all the behind the scenes photos from match day. Also keep an eye on westernbulldogs.com.au throughout the week for the latest VFL news, videos, player profiles, fixtures, updates and match day information.

FRANKSTON: Well it's finally happening; the builders have started demolition in preparation for our brand new Function Centre! It is due for completion early 2015. The club is currently looking for a Head Trainer for the 2014 Season. Time involved is approx. 8 hours per match day (2 games) plus training nights – Mon, Wed & Thurs or Fri. Remuneration discussed upon application. Call Bryan Mace on 9783 7888 or email bryan@frankstonfc.com.au Every Friday night is Karaoke Night at the Club. From 8pm til 12 pm – with free drink voucher for all contestants. Become a proud Frankston Dolphins Member. Membership entitles you to entry in our Weekly Members Draw - Prize drawn every Fri night at 6.15pm Cash prize jackpots if not claimed. Winner must be present to claim prize. Please note that due to building works on our new Function Centre the Club Bistro will not be in operation for the last two home games. Our kiosk will operate from in front of the players rooms with pies, sausage rolls, hotdogs, drinks, donuts and chocolates. We also have a sausage sizzle under the time clock on the Grandstand. Remember to keep up with everything happening at the club & on the ground at www.frankstonfc.com.au or download our new app through the app store – install "Team App" & follow the prompts.

NORTH BALLARAT: The Selkirk Roosters will be looking to shake off any rust after the bye as they take on the Coburg Lions for the first time in season 2014. In their last outing, the Roosters managed to fight off a brave and determined Bendigo Gold outfit and solidified their spot within the top 8. In such a close competition though, the Selkirk Roosters will have to work extremely hard to stay there and play finals football. The North Ballarat Football Club is hosting their annual AFL Grand Final Eve Preview at the North Ballarat Sports Club. This wonderful event will feature two terrific guest speakers – Nathan Thompson and David Schwartz. Information on this event can be found at www.theroosters.com.au or by contacting Mark Bruty on 5339 0907 or via markbruty@theroosters.com.au. Places are strictly limited, so get in early to be a part of this terrific event.

NORTHERN BLUES: The boys are looking forward to taking on Casey this week after having last weekend off with the bye. We would like to encourage all supporters to come along and support the boys next weekend at Burbank Oval for a big clash against Williamstown. The club also has some great upcoming events that we wish to invite all supporters to; a Business Breakfast on 8th of August held at Bell City, between 7:15am-9am, tickets are $50 and include breakfast with special guest speakers Heath Scotland and Geoffrey Poulter and our Ladies Day on Saturday August 16th at The Grandstand, Preston City Oval from 12pm, tickets are $60 and include a two course meal, a beverage package (12pm-half time) entertainment and much more. WERRIBEE TIGERS: Welcome to Avalon Airport Oval for our clash with Port Melbourne. Today is Ladies Day with the annual Women's Football Circle High tea taking place where the President's Lunch would normally be happening. The ladies only function is always a sell out and the theme this year is 'High Tea at Tiffany's'. The club thanks the Women's Football Circle for their dedication and commitment to running this function and raising money for the club which has been used to upgrade the Sports Club. Today a significant and exciting announcement will be made at the high tea in regards to the future of the Sport Club. Our match day sponsors today for the High Tea are CS Consulting, Fifth Element Day Spa and Werribee Party Hire.

Today is the first of three home games in a row. Next Sunday (August 10th) we will host the Footscray Bulldogs for the first time. That is our Past Players and Officials Day as well as our Multicultural Day. There has been a change to arrangements for the game against Sandringham on Saturday August 16th. The seniors game is now the ABC TV game and will start at 1.10pm with the development game to follow at around 4.15pm. Another date to put in your diary is Thursday September 25th for our presentation night at Moonee Valley Racing Club

WILLIAMSTOWN: Well done to the playing group who successfully negotiated winning two games of football in 5 days with the Foxtel Cup win and the win over Bendigo on Sunday. It was great to see the professionalism of the group in recovering so quickly and putting in an impressive performance at home. Our final home game for the season is next week against the Northern Blues at Burbank Oval. It would be great to see a big home crowd at Williamstown to cheer on the boys at home for what could be the last time in 2014. Our President's Luncheon for the day is all booked out, but to get on the waiting list please email Norhana at nstpic@williamstownfc.com.au. In exciting news we can announce that our 2014 Presentation Night will be held at the Williamstown Town Hall on Friday the 3rd of October. Please call the office on 9391 0309 to book in for what will be a memorable evening. Take action for healthy bones

You're never too young – or old – to get into Healthy Bones Action Week, which runs from August 3 – 10, 2014.

Start by upping your daily intake of milk, cheese and yogurt for a calcium boost that helps develop and maintain strong bones. Then, add regular weight bearing exercise and safe sun exposure for vitamin D.

An initiative of Dairy Australia, the week's theme of "Stronger Together" calls on women of all ages to incorporate these three simple actions into their everyday lives to build and maintain healthy bones.

Two in three Australians over the age of 50 have osteoporosis or osteopenia (thinning bones), but many Australians do not know they suffer from poor bone health until they sustain their first fracture.

This year Healthy Bones Action Week is encouraging women around Australia to help spread awareness about the very real risk of osteoporosis and the three easy steps that most people can take to keep it at bay – calcium rich dairy foods, exercise and sunshine.

Just jump online www.healthybones.com.au and send a Stronger Together message to your girlfriends, mum and sister to raise awareness of the very real risks associated with osteoporosis. You'll even go into the daily draw to win a $100 supermarket voucher every time you share the message.

And while you're on the website, check out a range of family-friendly dairy recipe ideas, resources for schools and lots more information about building and maintaining healthy bones.

This Healthy Bones Action Week, help spread the good health message:

Share: Send a Stronger Together message

Talk: Remind your loved ones that osteoporosis is preventable

Act: Take three key actions for strong bones:

1. Milk, cheese and yogurt for calcium;
2. Weight bearing exercise; and
3. Safe sunshine for vitamin D.

To celebrate Healthy Bones Action Week, Dairy Australia is giving away 70 x $100 supermarket vouchers (that's 10 vouchers every day from 4-10 August!). To enter, for recipe ideas and more information visit www.healthybones.com.au
