

Premier League Volunteer Media Officers

Basketball SA is seeking the services of multiple Volunteer Media Officers to assist in the coverage of the 2015 Premier League.

The role of a Volunteer Media Officer would include a subset of the following:

- Writing game reviews
- Writing articles relating to player/coach signings, awards, milestones and other items of interest, for the Premier League website, game day program and other Basketball SA publications
- Interviewing coaches and players
- Taking action photographs at games

Media officers report to the Basketball SA Communications and Marketing Manager and liaise with the Premier League Media Coordinator.

Successful applicants would be required to work on weekends and occasional Wednesday nights across the course of the season which runs March-August 2015, particularly on Saturday nights when most Premier League games are scheduled.

These roles would suit people studying journalism, or with experience or qualifications in journalism, though these are not prerequisites.

Please submit applications via the contact details below, and include any relevant experience and qualifications.

Applications close at 5pm Wednesday 11 February, 2015.
