INSURANCE

The North Brunswick Junior Football Club strongly recommends that all Players, Coaches, and Team Officials who participate in training and match day duties, be members of a Medical Benefit Association, and be covered by Insurance for their own protection. The North Brunswick Junior Football Club does not cover any medical expenses or any costs due to Insurance Gaps, however very limited Insurance cover is provided through our cover. This may be of some benefit to you in the event of an injury sustained whilst performing your duties at training or on match days. Refer to website for coverage details.

It is hereby acknowledged that the North Brunswick Junior Football Club Inc. is not in any way responsible for any liability or expense whatsoever and that we will make no claim against the club or its members as a result of any injury to playing members while participating in any activity nominated by the club.
