We approached the game against Portland as a make or break game for our season, we felt we had been playing some good footy and were capable but we weren't getting the results. We started the game really well with our pressure and we controlled the first quarter but were unable to put the game away with inaccurate kicking at goal. But I felt we had to come to play and I was confident we could get the job done. We worked really hard to be accountable to their strong midfield and I thought we stuck to the task well. When the game got tight at the start of the last we were able to find a bit extra and kick the last 3 goals to seal the win. Jason McIntosh was excellent around the ground against a quality ruckman, Brad Thomas worked tirelessly to find the ball all over the ground, Mat Lowe played a great game on the wing, winning lots of possession and using the footy well. Ben Ballinger was excellent down back and saved us a couple of times when they looked certain to score goals. Big effort from all players. We had no passengers and it shows on the results. Next step is to back up the good win, which we haven't been able to do yet.

Best Players: J. McIntosh, M. Lowe, B. Thomas, G. Crawford, B. Ballinger, J. Watson

Like the Subaru Brumby parked in my shed, a week off doesn't seem to do a lot for the early performance of the Kangaroos Reserves. About 50 minutes is the time it takes the Brumby to warm up, and it was the same with the football team, however once we got going in the third quarter our peak performance was more like a V8 supercar, not limited to 90kms/hour like the Ute. We knew Portland would come to play, and in reality they probably had the best of 2 and a half quarters of the match, but 5 goals 5 point third quarter, managed to win us the game, and put two games between us on top and Portland in second. This week's highlight was the return of Kane Quinn after 2 years out with a knee injury, he managed 3 third quarter goals, while our Team Manager was pretty close to BOG on Saturday night. The lowlight was the lacklustre ball use for much of the game, which can be improved with training, while there is nothing we can do about our full back being in cahoots with the magician and his 'magic banana'.

The under 18.5 have now slipped to 6th on the ladder and are 2 games out of the finals. With an expire melt good start to the year the boys have found themselves in a bit of a rut.

After another loss on the weekend against a stronger more determined/physical side in Portland it was hard to grab positives. They weren't stronger/harder for longer and our boys just couldn't match it with them.

With a number of players out due to unavailabilities it is imperative that the boys stay focused and keep working hard too keep their spot. They're a young group and for many haven't played a lot of football at this level. If anything I hope they learn from these losses and put it into practice to better themselves as footballers and as team players. Team football is the key too success!

Best Players: J. Nield, D. McIntosh, T. Morris, L. Barnes, S. Quinn, J. Cullinane,

Well it was nice for the sun to shine but the chill factor was rather unpleasant.

The girls started rather strongly moving the ball well down the court and scoring. We had some great defensive pressure enabling players to pick passes off, but as the quarter went on we started making some silly decisions which allowed Portland back into the game. After a stern talking to by the coach we played a better attacking style of play with the second half of the quarter finally clicking and doing some nice things.

Some changes were made at half time and the girls took a little time to adjust to them in the attack end but the court started to open up and our movement better. The changes in defence made no difference to their wonderful reading of play and the many intercepts they took. It was our worst quarter for the game but it also was when the rain came and the cold getting worse so they did well to keep it even. The last quarter was the best one for me. They were patient in attack and the defence was great and we were able to push our lead out which was pleasing to finish the game so strongly. I was also happy that we all walked away with no injuries as it was a very physical game.

Well done girls.

In this round vs Portland, unfortunately we had our first loss for the season, going down by just 3 goals. Having Molly Neeson out due to illness we knew was going to make it a tough day for the attacking girls as it forced a few changes to happen. Having to take Chloe Uebergang out of centre court and put her into goals was going to prove a test to her, but she definitely stood up and did her job brilliantly. After the first and best quarter for the day we were up 14 to 9 and shooting at 100% for the quarter. And I couldn't fault it at all. But then suddenly in the second quarter Portland stepped up and we were drawn at half time. Our conversion and turnovers were quite good in the first half. The second half showed a different story though. Most of the second half of the game we were chasing them, our conversion rate dropped, as we were still getting good turnovers but weren't rewarding the defence for it. We also stopped doing everything we had done in the first half of our game, like reoffering down court, encouragement and talk. Although we had most of the possession of the ball we lost by just 3 goals, which I think is still a fantastic effort considering we were missing our main goalie and focal point. The good news is that we are still on too of our ladder and are still 2 games clear of Portland. We wish Molly a speedy recovery back and hope to get back on the winners board next Sunday against Port Fairy.

The top of the table clash against Portland was always going to be a tough encounter. Unfortunately the tone of the game was established early with Portland scoring the first 4 goals. From there we were playing catch up netball. In the second and third quarter we pegged the margin back to six goals and had some lovely passages of play. In the last quarter we had no answers for Portland who demonstrated why they are top of the ladder. We look forward to meeting them in the finals and amending Saturdays result.

Roos started slow against Portland taking a while to settle. Up the first quarter by one. Second quarter Roos played some great defence creating lots of turnovers and restricted Portland to one goal. 3rd and 4th went Roos way. Running out winners 37-19.

A hard day at the office for the girls today. Portland have improved out of sight since we last played them and showed why they deserve second position on the ladder.

We fought hard the whole game and never dropped our heads, and it's a real credit to this group that they can keep fighting even when we are down by a fair margin.
