Dr Greg Wood - Chair

Greg's love of sport was evident when he became a primary school teacher in the 1970s and spent 3 years as a Physical Education specialist teacher in South Australia. During the 1970s, he played football and cricket and soccer at A grade level at his College of Advanced Education and he also played country A grade football in South Australia before injury cut his playing career short at the age of 22. He played A1 Adelaide Turf cricket in South Australia and in 1983 he was named in the Darwin Cricket Association team of the year. He is a past president and a life member of the Deakin University Football Netball Club.

During the 1980s, he worked for a multinational energy and resources company in commercial marketing, management and management education in Adelaide, Darwin and Melbourne and he opened up a green field site for the company in the Northern Pacific.

He moved to Warrnambool in 1989.

Greg is currently a Professor in the School of Management and Marketing at Deakin University and a former Head of the Warrnambool Campus.
