2016 Coaching EOI

Following a successful 2015 season on and off the field, the Camden Cats are currently recruiting coaches and team managers for next season.

Camden will field four men's sides in the AFL Sydney competition in season 2016 (currently division two, four and five) and an Under 19's side for the first time next season, playing in division one.

Chris Hughes will continue as Camden Head Coach for season 2016, after guiding the first grade side to a minor premiership and grand final berth.

Successful applicants will work closely with Chris next season to continue the development of our talented playing group across all divisions.

We are seeking passionate and committed people who will 'buy in' to our club culture; are great communicators, strong leaders, role models and advocates for our coaching philosophies, game plans and structure.

Successful applicants will demonstrate a proven ability to develop AFL players with varied levels of sporting ability and experience.

Prospective coaching expressions of interest (EOI) should be provided in writing with an accompanying CV to Josh Leys jleys@tvhs.com.au or Chris Hughes christopher.hughes@fire.nsw.gov.au by Tuesday 10th November.

All coaches should have a minimum Level 1 coaching accreditation or be willing to complete their accreditation by the start of the 2016 season.
