Community Umpiring Round chance to celebrate

At grounds right across Victoria this weekend we pause to celebrate Community Umpiring Round.

This important initiative is designed to recognise those patrolling the boundary, manning the goal line and controlling the action out in the middle each week and the huge role they play in our game.

There are more than 7,000 registered umpires in Victoria at community and state-league level, who, along with thousands of club-based umpires, commit their time and energy to allow those chasing the sherrin the chance to do so.

To mark the occasion, the AFL Umpire Squad will forgo their usual training session and instead disband and travel to regional centres to join in sessions with local umpiring groups.

In another fantastic initiative, selected Victorian umpires will lead out their AFL counterparts at AFL matches in Round 7 and enjoy a taste of the atmosphere created at the MCG, Etihad Stadium and Simonds Stadium.

AFL Victoria's Umpire Talent Pathway continues to strengthen and our state squad, managed by Cameron Nash, is now regarded as the best breeding ground for future AFL umpires.

All three field umpires who officiated last year's VFL Grand Final graduated to the AFL Squad at season's end and are now making their mark at the elite level.

It is essential to provide opportunities for young umpires to develop and there are a number of community programs in place underpinning the pathway to ensure they receive the training and guidance to reach their potential.

Community Umpire Round is also another opportunity to encourage those who want to be involved in the greatest game in the world to take up umpiring. If you are new to the game, or you're playing days are over, than umpiring is a great way to contribute to community football.

Huge efforts are being made to attract young umpires across Victoria with AFL CEO Gillon McLachlan earlier this month officially launching a Multicultural Umpire Academy in Shepparton. Another Multicultural Academy is also operating at the Australian International Academy in Coburg and offers students a chance to learn about umpiring in a safe and inclusive environment.

One of the most exciting trends in umpiring is the growing number of females who are flocking to take up umpiring. Earlier this month, a TAC Cup match was officiated by an all-female umpiring panel, illustrating their growing prominence in the game and marking another step on the quest to have females umpiring at the elite level.

It's important to respect all umpires and recognise how important they are to the game each and every week, but this Round in particular we ask players, coaches and supporters to stop and think about those out in the middle with whistles and flags in hand and appreciate the role they play.

Bonnici leads Vic Metro's Youth Girls triumph

One year to the day after the most gut-wrenching of defeats, Vic Metro has the sweet revenge it so desperately craved.

Every day for 12 long months Brittany Bonnici thought about the moment it all went wrong.

Brittany Bonnici

Overpowered by Western Australia in the 2014 AFL Youth Girls National Champions decider, Bonnici and her teammates were sentenced to a year of painful memories and sleepless nights.

But what doesn't kill you only makes you stronger.

On a quest for redemption, Vic Metro crossed the Nullarbor into enemy territory for the 2015 Championships in Mandurah, WA, determined to return only after securing the coveted title.

Under the captaincy of Bonnici, a star midfielder with the hard-running and ball winning qualities of Joel Selwood, Metro emerged undefeated, vanquishing their demons with a seven-point grand final win over Queensland.

"We knew how it felt to lose and just wanted to do anything we could to make sure we never felt it again," Bonnici said on her return to Victoria.

"All week, even though it wasn't always spoken about it, you could tell girls were thinking about it and using it as motivation."

Metro's squad included 16 girls who were part of the unsuccessful 2014 campaign but Bonnici said the loss was the driving force for every one of her teammates.

"Even the younger girls who weren't in Cairns last year knew how much it meant to those who were and were determined to help us reclaim the title for Victoria," she said.

Day 1 of the championships and Bonnici and her Vic

Metro teammates faced their first test, trailing WA by 12 points at half time of the opening match.

But a fighting third quarter, and brilliant fourth, saw the girls in blue claw their way to a 10-point win and Bonnici named best-on-ground.

Victories over Vic Country and Queensland followed, with the latter upsetting the hosts to book a rematch on Grand Final Day.

Despite the girls from the Sunshine State boasting the Nation's best Youth Girls player in Tayla Harris, Vic Metro's superior depth saw them enter deserved favourites.

And with confidence they started.

Two quick goals in the opening minutes had Queensland on the back foot as Bonnici's prolific ball-winning ability came to the fore.

With gun utility Deanna Berry doing the job on Harris, Vic Metro grabbed control of the match and raced to an early advantage.

But national titles aren't won easily.

After a goalless first half, Queensland rallied in the second, drawing within one straight kick in a pulsating final term.

Under siege, Vic Metro turned to their training, playing tempo football in the final minutes of the match to hold on to the football and ultimately the lead.

After playing the perfect captain's match, Bonnici was named best on ground, narrowly ahead of explosive midfielder Monique Conti.

The duo were both named in the Youth Girls All-

Vic Country earns respect

They may not have won a game at the 2015 AFL Youth Girls Championships but Vic Country returned to Victoria with absolute respect.

Playing in the top division alongside Vic Metro, grand finalists Queensland and reigning champions WA, Vic Country punched above its weight time after time.

Against Queensland in Game 1 and WA in the 3v4 play-off, the VC girls trailed by just two points at the last change, but succumbed to the strength of their opposition on both occasions.

Coach Shaun O'Loughlin said he and his support staff were thrilled by the way the girls competed and came together throughout the week.

"We were really competitive and credit to the girls, because they just didn't give up," he said.

"More than once we thought we were going to pinch a win but didn't quite have the firepower to kick enough goals in the final quarters."

Despite finishing winless, O'Loughlin said the girls could walk away with their heads held high.

"Ultimately this experience is about developing these girls and we are rapt with the way so many of them improved throughout the week and how much they were able to learn.

"They a put in a really professional environment with recovery sessions and game reviews where we go through the vision for each match and you can just see them grow as footballers throughout the week.

"Hopefully they can take back what they have learned to their local clubs and help their teammates improve."

O'Loughlin said captain Lily Mithen was a standout both on and off the field.

"Lily was terrific with the way she led the girls but also just her performance on the field was first class. "She is an inside midfielder so does a lot of the grunt work probably doesn't get the praise she deserves but internally we rated her week very highly."

Dynamic forward Ainslie Kemp was another standout, becoming a focal point at half forward and was said to be almost unbeatable in a one-on-one contest. Kemp and Reni Hicks were the only Vic County representatives named in the All-Australian team, with O'Loughlin describing Hicks as a resolute defender.

"Reni was someone who really came on leaps and bounds at the Championships and played often on our opposition's most dangerous player."

"She really committed herself to the week in terms of recovery and preparing well and she go the results."

Georgia Walker and Amy McDonald were other singled out by their coach for high praise after consistent weeks.

Australian, alongside Berry, small forward Madison Prespakis and gun defender Katherine Smith, all of whom stood out over the week-long carnival.

Despite the individual honours, Bonnici said holding the Youth Girls cup aloft was the only reward she needed.

"It's always been a dream of mine to captain Victoria and after the pain of losing last year it's something I thought about doing a thousand times.

"Words can't explain the moment when it finally happened and it still feels very surreal."

Senior shot for Hayes

Max Hayes (right) against Matt Scharenberg (SA) in action during the 2013 NAB AFL U18 Championships

It has been a long road to senior VFL football for Sandringham's Max Hayes.

The former Sandringham Dragon spent last year at Williamstown in his first year out of the TAC Cup system, but was unable to break into the strong Seagulls line up despite kicking 28 goals in the Development league.Time constraints with work and university led to a move closer to home during the summer, and Hayes could not be happier after making his senior debut for Sandringham as 23rd player last weekend against Casey Scorpions.

And what debut it was.

The Zebras recorded a stirring win, with Hayes kicking his first senior goal in a forward line boasting the likes of former Geelong AFL player Mitch Brown, St Kilda No.1 draft pick Paddy McCartin and small forward Ahmed Saad.

The senior selection was just reward for the former Vic Metro U18 key forward, who just over 12 months ago was recovering from hip surgery that hampered his first VFL preseason, and restricted his final U18 year at the Dragons.

"It has been a long road since U18s," Hayes said.

"This year the aim was to have a good preseason and get fit - I wanted to play the 23rd role as soon as I possibly could.

"I had to reshuffle what I was doing and work out how to get the best out of my life and football, creating more time to do other things, not just footy."

Hayes had to wait till Round 4 for the senior opportunity, with his former Dragons teammate Matthew Hooy starting the year in the 23rd role.

Sandringham coach Paul Hudson said it was balance rather than form that delayed Hayes' senior debut.

"It was more to do with team balance that we went with Matty (Hoy) first, as we probably needed a defender during those early games," Hudson said.

"Hayes trained hard over the preseason, and got himself extremely fit which has got him to the level of being given an opportunity. through the Dragons ranks, and are now trying to play at the highest level of football possible like myself.

"It has made it easy that I have grown up with them and played footy with them my whole life since under 9s and 10s."

Ironically Hayes' debut was against his former Dragons coach, Justin Plapp, who is now in charge of the Casey Scorpions.

"I had a good chat with him after the game, and he put the captain (Evan Panozza) on me when I first lined up," he said.

"I don't think he did it purposefully, but he said after the game he told everyone to look out for me."

Plapp had a major influence developing his role as forward at TAC Cup level.

"He was one of the better coaches I have had growing up," Hayes said.

"He was great in developing my game, especially as a forward as it related well to him as I played a similar position to what he did when he was at St Kilda and Richmond. "

Looking back at his first season in the VFL last year, Hayes says there were areas of his game he had to develop before he was ready for his senior debut.

While disappointed his did not receive a senior opportunity with the Seagulls, he realised he was competing for a forward position against the likes of Scott Clouston, Ryan Ferguson and even Dylan Conway.

"Last year I thought I was a chance (for a senior debut) when I was playing, I strung a couple of good games together mid-season having a few games were I kicked five or six goals.

"Looking back on it I was playing a different game style, and was not very defensive in terms of my work rate, which is something I have tried to lift this year."

Hayes hopes to gain another 23rd player opportunity this week against Frankston, and then earn senior selection in his own right as the season progresses.

"He has worked hard on his low penetrating kicking, so he has taken on board everything we have spoken about and at least tried to fix it."

The transition to Sandringham has been easy for Hayes, knowing a number of players from his TAC Cup days.

"It is like going to a club I had already been to before, and has been a seamless transfer with the former Sandringham Dragon players," Hayes said.

"Elliott Le Grice, Matt Hooy, Alex Spencer just to name a few – they have come

VFL umpire draftees

It was not just 64 TAC Cup and Peter Jackson VFL players that were drafted into the ranks of the AFL at the end of the 2014 season.

Last year's VFL Legendairy Grand Final field umpires Jack Edwards, Nick Brown and Brent Wallace were added to the 2015 AFL Field Umpires Panel after impressing AFL umpire scouts throughout the season and finals in 2014.

The trio were shortlisted to attend the inaugural AFL Umpire Combine last October with three other umpires from around Australia.

Following the Combine all three VFL field umpires were added to the 2015 AFL panel along with South Australian Curtis Deboy.

AFL Victoria State League Umpiring Head Coach Cameron Nash said the hard work has payed off for these umpires, with each receiving an early opportunity to officiate an AFL game in the NAB Challenge before season start.

"All three have been progressing well since being in the AFL system since November last year," Nash said.

"They have now been umpiring in state league competitions as they prepare for their AFL debuts in the coming weeks."

The early taste of AFL action in the preseason was good to get out of the way for the three field umpires.

"It was great to see the three guys umpire in the first couple of weeks of the NAB Challenge," Nash said. "It would have been a relief to get that first game under their belts and give them the confidence of knowing they belong at the top level.

"From all reports they have had a tough preseason so it would have been good for them to put all of that hard work into practice in those matches."

For a number of years the VFL competition has been a breeding ground for AFL umpires, with 27 umpires recruited from the competition since 2011 - 10 field, 13 boundary and 4 goal.

"It is was great result for the VFL competition and for the umpiring program we ran last year at AFL Victoria that three of the four spots available on the 2015 AFL Field Umpires Panel went to VFL umpires," Nash said.

"All three umpires had very consistent seasons which continued into the finals series and ultimately saw them appointed to the VFL Grand Final."

All three umpires progressed to the AFL from different backgrounds.

Originally from the Northern Football League, Edwards officiated his 50th game in 2014, umpired the State game and was announced the VFL Field Umpire of the Year.

Brown also umpired the State game in 2014, returning to Victoria after two years in the WAF and was originally from the VAFA.

Wallace progressed through the AFL player to umpire program after playing football with the Northern Knights and Box Hill Hawks. He commenced his umpiring in the VAFA and 2014 was only his second season at the VFL.

Henriksen new Vic Country coach

The coaching journey for Paul Henriksen will take its next big step, as he leads Vic Country into the NAB AFL U18 Championships which start next weekend.

Henriksen was appointed AFL Victoria's Vic Country Under 18 Head Coach for 2015, having spent over a decade as a coach in the U18 system in a variety of roles with Geelong Falcons and Victorian State Country Academy.

He is no stranger to the NAB AFL U18 and U16 Championship program, serving three years (2009-2011) as an U18 assistant coach under Robert Hyde, before taking on the role of U16 Vic Country coach from 2012.

In both roles he experienced Championship success, with the U18 team claiming the title in 2010 and the U16 team the 2013 champions.

AFL Victoria High Performance Manager Leon Harris said the role is just reward for Henriksen's long term apprenticeship in the Academy program.

"His location has restricted him coaching at TAC Cup level, but he has been an invaluable part of our Academy program over a number of years, Harris said.

"This role fits in well with his skills set so we are looking forward to exciting times ahead."

Henriksen is excited by his next challenge, with the opportunity to coach the best players in country Victoria.

"There is a lot of talent throughout Victoria both in Country and Metro, so to be coaching within an Under 18 State Academy will be provide both its challenges and rewards," Henriksen said.

"It is an exciting opportunity that I'm looking forward to as the Nationals are a fantastic showcase of AFL talent."

The new role will reacquaint him with some of his 2013 U16 title team, with the likes of Rhys Mathieson, Josh Dunkley, Sam Skinner, Darcy Parish, Darcy Tucker and Gach Nyoun just a few of the players that progressed to gain selection at U18 Vic Country level in 2014.

"It will be good to work with some of them again, but two years is a long time in age based footy," Henriksen said "Young players grow, mature and change at such a dramatic rate during that U16 to U18 age period.

"After being in the professional environments of their local TAC Cup clubs for a year, no doubt players have made changes to their game.

"Nevertheless, the added excitement of 2015 is the search for new or even unsighted talent that has not yet appeared on TAC Cup stage or in previous Championships."

A prime example of discovering talent is former Geelong Falcon now Sydney Swan Gary Rohan, who as a17 year old was not on a TAC Cup list.

Henriksen was an assistant coach both at the Geelong Falcons and Vic Country U18 in 2009 when Rohan joined the Falcons as a top age player and not only won the 2009 Vic Country MVP, but was then drafted to the Swans at pick six in the NAB AFL Draft.

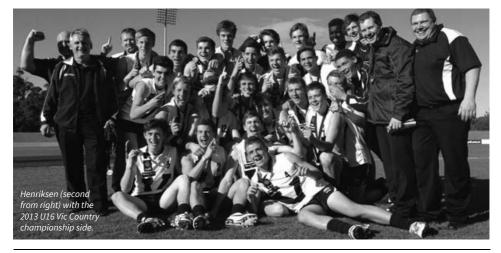

Rohan was just one of many talented players Henriksen has seen and been involved with during his coaching journey at TAC Cup and National level.

"There has been so much talent and so many stories.

"Players that I do reflect upon when they were going through the Geelong Falcons or the Nationals would include Pat Dangerfield, Dyson Heppell, Luke Parker, Ben Cunnington, Travis Boak, Allen Christensen, Jack Ziebell, Steele Sidebottom, Dustin Martin, Tom Rockliff, Devon Smith, Lachie Whitfield and Jordie McKenzie to name a select group.

"They were all different, and all similar in many ways."

Henriksen takes over the U18 coaching role from Mark Ellis, who has taken on an assistant High Performance Manager role under Leon Harris over the course of the year.

The final siren sounded at Burbank Oval in Round 4

Unmatched rivalry

One thing's for sure; people would never walk away from a Williamstown and Port Melbourne match and say that they were not entertained.

The 244th edition of the longest VFL rivalry last weekend was one of the best, with Port claiming a thrilling two-point win over the Seagulls at Burbank Oval.

With the breeze heading to the city end, both clubs added nine goals apiece in the first half, before Port Melbourne held on in the second half for the epic victory away from home.

The win was a fitting reward for milestone men Gary Ayres and Chris Cain, both in game 150.

The next chapter of this rivalry will be played out in Round 15, with the match to be broadcast on Channel 7.

Milestones

- Congratulations to boundary umpire Nick Laurence who officiated his 150th game last week in the Geelong vs Collingwood game at QEO.
- Field umpire Michael Curtis will record his 100th VFL game this weekend in the Northern Blues vs North Ballarat at Etihad Stadium
- Williamstown captain Ben Jolley will next weekend play his 200th VFL game

Top of the ladder clash

Western neighbours Werribee and Williamstown will clash this Sunday for top spot on the Peter Jackson VFL ladder.

Despite suffering their first defeat of the season, Williamstown held top spot at the end of Round 4, but face a challenge from the inform Tigers who have won their last three games in a row.

Werribee has claimed the impressive scalps of Box Hill Hawks and Port Melbourne in the last fortnight, and will look to try and break their 13 game losing streak against Williamstown – the most recent defeat in the 2014 VFL Semi Final.

Round 20, 2008 was the last time Werribee defeated Williamstown – can they break the drought and claim top spot on the ladder after Round 5?

Knights / Rebels drive to the game

Last weekend the Northern Knights and North Ballarat Rebels players joined forces to take part in their TAC annual driving activity.

The activity, part of the TAC program for clubs, saw Learner Drivers from both teams asked to drive to the Rd 7 TAC Cup clash at Eureka Stadium, North Ballarat. This initiative provided an opportunity for all 'L' Plate drivers from both teams, to gain over an hour's driving experience in a range driving conditions.

In the Knights case, drivers experienced both city streets and country highways, as they embark on their journey from metropolitan Melbourne to North Ballarat.

For the Rebels' drivers, they gained valuable experience and encountered different factors such as sealed and unsealed roads in rural Western Victoria.

As TAC Cup players are seen as community leaders both Knights Talent Manager Peter Kennedy and North

Ballarat Talent Manager Phil Partington believe gaining valuable experience behind the wheel is important.

"Both clubs care about the safety and well being of our squad members and are committed to conveying TAC's 'Speed Hurts' message to our players, their parents and the wider football community," Kennedy said.

Road crashes are the biggest killer of young people aged 16 to 25.

In their first year of driving, young people are about three times more likely to be killed or injured than older more experienced drivers.

However, extensive research has shown that by gaining valuable driving practice in a range of different driving conditions, young drivers can reduce their risk of crashing by up to a third.

While the two rival teams were united in this 'drive to the game' initiative, the battle lines were drawn on the field as the Rebels claimed the win by 75 points.

Round 7 Highlights

Western Jets recorded their first win of the season against Bendigo Pioneers in Round 7 TAC Cup action.

Eastern Ranges' stay on top of the TAC Cup ladder lasted just one week after Dandenong Stingrays restricted the Ranges to just two goals in the second half. North Ballarat Rebels moved to top spot with a comfortable win over Northern Knights, while Gippsland Power returned home from Queensland with thrilling one-point win.

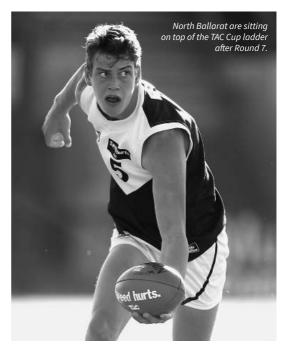

Geelong Falcons won three in a row defeating Calder Cannons under lights at Simonds Stadium, as Murray Bushrangers defeated their over the border neighbours NSW/ACT Rams – the Rams first defeat of their 2015 TAC Cup campaign.

Brayden Fiorini had a day out last week for the Northern Knights against North Ballarat with 37 disposals. While it was not enough to help his side avoid a 75-point defeat to the Rebels, Fiorini impressed with 29 kicks, 8 handballs, 6 tackles, 9 clearances and 6 inside 50s. He was not alone in racking up the disposals for the knights, with ball magnet Jade Gresham and James El Moussalli both picking up 36 disposals for the game.

The number of times Geelong has beaten Calder in the battle of the 'footy factories' in their 35 meetings.

Just one game separates first to seventh on the TAC Cup ladder as we enter Round 8 action. North Ballarat Rebels and Geelong Falcons have just the one loss each this season, and are followed by five teams with just two defeats. Of the top seven teams, five are country regions leaving just Eastern Ranges and Oakleigh Chargers to fly the flag for metro in the early stages of the season. The Rebels hold the lead not only on top of the premiership ladder, but also the goal kicking ladder with Ezekiel Frank leading the way with 17 goals for the season.

Country Football Netball Program extended

AFL Victoria welcomes the news that the Victorian Government has committed to an extension of the Country Football Netball Program in the 2015/16 Victorian Budget.

AFL Victoria Chief Executive Officer Steven Reaper said the CFNP had proved to be an unmitigated success for community football and netball clubs and lauded by leagues, local government and other key stakeholders.

"The Victorian Government's support of this funding program is a significant result for community football and netball clubs.

"AFL Victoria, Netball Victoria and the Victorian Government have worked collaboratively together to extend the CFNP and provide grass roots clubs an incentive to improve their facilities and maximise on and off-field participation opportunities."

Reaper said a recent landmark research project conducted by Latrobe University also illustrated the importance of supporting community clubs.

"The research concluded that for every dollar invested in football clubs a return of $4.40 in social value is delivered in the form of improved physical and mental health, increased social connectedness, and improved employment and economic outcomes.

"Over the past nine years more than 400 projects with a combined total project value of almost $60 million have been completed thanks to funding of almost $20 million through the CFNP."

Football is for everyone

Footballers with a disability in Northern Victoria will be given the opportunity to play in their very own competition this year with the launch of the CVGT Australia Northern Conference.

Football Integration Development Association (FIDA) have for the first time formed a Northern Victoria conference that includes the Echuca Moama Rockets, GV Stars (Shepparton), Wodonga Jets and Wangaratta Magpies in an initiative designed to increase participation opportunities for footballers with a disability.

The four clubs have traditionally played-one off matches that often involved travelling to Melbourne but will now compete in their very own competition, with each club to host a round-robin carnival this year.

In another coup, employment services company CVGT Australia has come on board as a major sponsor to support the competition through their Disability Employment Services arm.

FIDA General Manager Logan Whitaker said there was huge excitement in the camps of the four teams.

"These guys and girls just love their football and they are extremely proud to have their own regular competition," Whitaker said.

"FIDA competitions are about giving people with a disability an opportunity to be physical active, build friendships, improve their confidence and experience that feeling of belonging that comes with all football clubs.

"The carnival format, with four days scheduled this year in the different cities, is designed to minimise the travel needed to be involved."

BOX HILL HAWKS

Mother's Day at Box Hill City oval was a wet and winter day, the development boys showed their grit in the wet with a good 68 point win against Werribee Tigers. Another good win and some great signs with a number of players knocking on the door into the senior team. Not so lucky with the senior team, Werribee out played the boys in the wet conditions, Box Hill hit the front late in the last quarter, but credit to Werribee they hit back again, a kick after the siren to tie the game pushed wide and Werribee took the 4 points. Our next home game is May 31st against Northern Blues, our presidents luncheon invites all life members down at half price. Don't forget to book your tickets in early for our Mid-Season Event "A night of sports entertainment" a great line up consisting of, Lehmo, Simon Marshall, Joe Ingles, Jeff Kennett and Alastair Clarkson as well as many great Auction Items, tickets can be purchased via the www.boxhillhawks.com.au

The game also has the AFL Victoria Country Championships game being played as a curtain raiser, with the South East FNL playing the Sunraysia FNL starting at 2pm. bus ride home from Bendigo all the more sweeter with the 4 points in the bag. We hope today's curtain raiser to the AFL game will bring in a big contingent of the Magpie Army and drown out the Richmond supporters. Let's make it 3 in a row. PORT MELBOURNE

Well, what an extraordinary game of football on Mother's Day against our previously undefeated arch rivals Williamstown. Our boys led by 1 point at ³/₄ time and, kicking against a gale-force wind in the last guarter, pulled off a massive effort to get up and win by 2 points in another epic chapter of our oldest rivalry. This week, as well as welcoming the Casey Scorpions to North Port, we also welcome back captain Toby Pinwill for his first game of season 2015 following suspension. Best of luck to Toby and the whole team once again. A reminder to everyone attending the game this week to join us in our new social facility following the game for our after-match function with players and coaches from both sides. We also look forward to being a part of our first Channel 7 TV coverage next week when we travel to play Geelong.

NORTH BALLARAT

The Selkirk Roosters are hopeful that the perfect conditions under the roof at Etihad Stadium will serve as the landscape for a great game of VFL football. The Roosters have now lost their past three clashes after defeating Collingwood in the season opener, but are still pleased by a number of key signs within the group. This week, the Roosters take on the Northern Blues, and they will be hoping to come away with the four points in what is sure to be a tough contest. On Thursday May 28th, the Club will be hosting a Biggest Morning Tea event at the Club to raise money for the Cancer Council. Tickets are just $15 with $5 donated directly back to the cause. Draft Watch

We follow TAC Cup and VFL players on their AFL football journey as they attempt to make it in the big league.

Round 1 draft selection Jake Lever made his AFL debut last weekend for Adelaide, in their 41-point win over Gold Coast Suns. Lever played no part in the Calder Cannons 2014 TAC Cup season due to knee surgery at the end of 2013. His 2013 season showcased his potential, named Vic Metro captain and touted as a top 10 draft pick.

Despite not taking to the football field in 2014, Adelaide used its first selection in the NAB AFL Draft to pick the athletic backman. The Crows took a risk, giving up pick 10 in the draft to improve their standing in further rounds of the draft, but will be happy to see him start his AFL career on the weekend.

Jack attack

When St Kilda staged the fifth best comeback in AFL/VFL history last weekend against Western Bulldogs, the name Jack featured prominently in the best players for the club. Not the surname Jack, but the first name of Billings (Oakleigh Chargers), Sinclair (Oakleigh), Newnes (Northern Knights) and Steven (Geelong Falcons)– all products of the TAC Cup competition. Add to that list former Stingray Jack Lonie and it was no wonder the Bulldogs were a bit Jacked about giving up a 55-point lead in the third term, to suffer a seven-point loss.
