GO YOU ROO BOYS

Under 13

Training is improving slowly skills wise which shows on game day. If we can keep up the excellent work rate I'm sure the second half of our season is going to be a ripper.

Snowy

We're back home this week after a disappointing loss to Ramblers.

After a strong start we let Ramblers back into the game in the second quarter and at half time held a narrow lead. The second half was very tight but we made too many mistakes, letting Ramblers kick easy goals while we failed to take advantage of some good individual efforts. We had many players down on form and we will be working hard to get a much better effort and result today.

Tonight we have our Quiz night and in keeping with that theme I would like to start today with a question for you all, to see how well you know your players.

Who in today's A Grade side has left his once flamboyant bachelor life well and truly in the rear vision mirror.

This smooth talking Rooster has just taken his relationship to the next level by purchasing for his girlfriend a "commitment dog". YEP I couldn't believe either. It's not just a little carry dog either it is in fact some sort of Great Dane cross.

Practically a HORSE!! Knowing this glamour man as I do, I would suggest it won't be long before he follows up with a HUGE ROCK "ring" and their own CASTLE "house".

Reserves

I'd like to welcome the Jervois football and netball club to the home of the Roos. Last week proved we have a bit of work to do to compete against the best team in the league.

As a group we need to work at our fitness and with that our skills will improve too. We have had a great start to the season so as long as the boys believe in themselves, they can achieve big things as a team and success will follow. Good luck to all other Mannum teams today, go you Roos.

Cheers Goges

From the President

The last couple of weeks had mixed fortunes for our senior teams as they had convincing victories in both grades against Tailem and then brought back down to earth by a very good Ramblers senior squad. The juniors are flying at the moment and between both grades have only lost one game all year. So in general the club is position itself well for a successful year.

The League team better players over the last couple of weeks have been Kells who is leading from the front, likewise with M O'Malley who puts his body on the line week in week out, Willow is showing that he has settled in to the Mannum way. The Ressies old gun in B Klose is playing great football as is young ruckman in waiting B Webster.

It was disappointing to see the amount of senior players that went into the Ramblers club after the game, we need to support all teams and going into their club is part of responsibilities to being a Mannum football Club Player, our locals are the ones letting us down here so we will be asking a big improvement especially as we got Meningie next week.

So back to today's game, we host Jervois who always find something extra against Mannum so we will have to be on top of our game if we want to return to the winners circle.

The best thing you can give your club is time, not all your time but some here and there makes such a difference.

You don't need to be president to have an impact!

What you need for a great game

- Footy shorts (green or white if a senior and playing away)
 - Footy socks
 - Footy boots (especially B Wibs)
- Guernsey (if you take yours home)
- Mouthguard (if you wear one)
- Positive team orientated attitude!
