Hi all welcome to Mannum. The under 17's are looking good so far this year proving that a hard pre-season is paying off. Really want to make sure complacency isn't creeping in. Look forward to the challenge this week and every week. Thanks, Micky O

Under 13

Hello you Roos u13 supporters, our team has worked hard since the start of the year and I hope will reap the rewards soon. We are currently 7 losses and 1 win but the last few games have been very close. Who knows what the next few weeks will bring but what I do know is I'm so proud of the whole teams efforts 'Go the Roos'. Snowy

It's been 3 matches since we last talked and in that time we have had 2 solid performances and 1 bad loss. At this point in the season there is a big gap between our best and worst performances. We are currently working hard on the track to eliminate our lapses in concentration and effort. Today our efforts will be focussed on delivering a more Mannum like 4 quarter effort.

During the past 3 weeks we have brought in Jackson Adams and Tim Prince for their first Mannum A Grade games and welcomed back Jack Woollard. These boys have provided us with a bit of spark and we will be looking for bigger things today.

Quick shout out to Jake Weibrich who injured himself representing us in the Interleague last weekend. He is an outstanding talent and we hope to see him back soon.

Now they say a week is a long time in football but it appears to have nothing on 3 weeks in a relationship. In our last edition of ROOs News I reported a flamboyant A Grade bachelor was off the market, had purchased the "princess" a commitment dog and was building the castle.

WELL ITS OFF! Yep over.

Reports are sketchy as to what actually took place but ROOs News can report the "princess" has kept the dog and our flamboyant bachelor is in a rebound relationship while trying to deal with the grief. The boys are rallying around him but he is spending a lot, and I mean a lot of time in the arms of the new "darl". Give him a caring hug when you see him today.

Finally football clubs are great for helping mates and making lifetime friends. Recent examples are Bowey building Kells a fence and gate, Levis sourcing help for Duck and his new home and Wibs organizing the arrival of some lush lawn.

One of our A graders took it to the extreme recently when he answered the call from a distressed teammate very late one evening. Apparently the big fella had found himself in a situation that required a certain skill set and our A grader climbed from the couch to answer the call. What appeared at first to be a simple job for this highly skilled individual in fact turned into a job that he will forever carry with him. With a minimum of fuss this team man rolled up the sleeves and stuck at the task until it was completed. Well done young man.

Reserves

Welcome to Mypo footy and netball teams to the home of the Roos. The boys are working really hard on game days and at trainings and are reaping the rewards which is awesome to see as a coach. They are realising if they do the simple things right and work as a team they can go a long way in achieving success this season. Keep up the great effort boys. Good luck to all Roos teams today. Cheers Goges

From the President

A fortnight ago the we travelled to Imps to play a strong all round club, we were expecting to come out with at least two wins but the club did better than that and took 3 home only losing the under 15s game to a very fluent and disciplined team.

The A Grade had another victory over arch rivals Imperials again but it was not as easy as what the 8 goal victory showed. The better players were Coach Kells with 44 disposals and Levi Krause with 5 goals along with Mickey O playing his normal dominating role across half Back.

The B Grade went into this game with a few players out either going up to play As or just not playing but our boys youth took control of another hard fought game in the last quarter to win by 4 goals. Better players were Josh Boylan and Khye Amber.

The Under 17.5s was a great game with Imps leading at the first change only to have Mannum hit back and lead by a narrow margin at half time, the third quarter was a evenly played tussle. But Mannum took the advantage in the last quarter and eventually ran out 10 goal victors. Best players were Tom Worthley and Isaac Hampel.

The under 15s game was all Imperials as they are a very structured team and the bigger bodies were just too good for Mannum . Mitch Heward played a great game as did Daniel Laubsch.

Congratulations got to the RMFL teams who played at Mt Lofty especially our boys in the 15s being Mitch Heward, Angus Bormann and Daniel Laubsch with Mitchell being named Captain and In the 17.5s Tom Worthley, Josh Dodd, Blake Tabe, Isaac Hampel, Jake Wiebrecht and Jack Woollard with Josh Dodd being named Captain.

Tonight we have our clubs Goods and service auction, bound to be plenty of bargains along with a fun night, so don't miss out and we will see ya there.

After a well rested week off the boys are finally back home to play Mypo this week.
