Round 7 - Ladies Day

We're back at home on Saturday, with four games back to back at Gore Hill Oval.

It's Ladies Day, and we've got plenty of glamour and activities to celebrate the day.

Just festivities, with bottomless champagne and wine with a plate of cheese and biscuits. We'll have a raffle and so much more.

Proceeds will be donated to the National Breast Cancer Network, so come along and be a part of supporting this important cause.

Women have an important part to play in our game. Vice-President, Physio, canteen, team manager and many more roles in our club are performed by women. And there's many parents, partners, sisters etc who come along to support our players. Your support is muchly appreciated and is an important part of our club.

On the field, we have four important matches. Thirds are on first, taking on Blacktown. Our third grade team had a strong win last week, maintaining their position in the top five; and they'll be keen to keep their winning momentum going this week.

Reserves are up against Moorebank for the second time this season. The twos had a win a couple of weeks ago, and have been competitive against some strong senior teams in recent weeks. This will be a test, but the reserves will be up for the challenge.

Our senior team take on St George, a team we beat at Gore Hill last year. It's been a tough couple of weeks for the seniors, with the last two games being against Manly and East Coast; who will be likely Grand Final teams this year. A big and vocal crowd will go a long way to getting our seniors over the line, so get around them

And finishing off the day, under the Gore Hill lights, the Under 19s take on Pennant Hills; with top spot on the ladder up for grabs. Our young Bombers had an impressive performance against East Coast last week.

The phrase that good kicking is good footy may be a cliché in some circles, but the accurate kicking in the first half when the Bombers kicked ten goals before the first behind built up a lead that was way too big for the Eagles to chase down.

So it's a massive day of footy at Gore Hill; with plenty on the line for all of our teams. Once again, we thank our sponsors and volunteers for everything they do to make our club happen. We couldn't do it without you.

Representative Honours

Playing for North Shore gives the opportunity to take on higher honours and test oneself against the best local players.

We've had plenty of North Shore players who have played rep footy or been selected for squads. This year's Bombers to date to have done so include:

- Teddy Strudwick - Sydney AFL representative team
- Doug Hadden - Swans Reserves and Sydney University NEAFL
- Will Taylor - Swans Reserves
- James Cubis - Swans Reserves
- Nick Foster - Swans Reserves and Sydney University NEAFL
- Jake Veale - NSW Rams
- Mitch Wright - NSW Rams and Swans Reserves
- Ryan Hebron - NSW Rams and Swans

- Reserves
- Matt Wilson - Swans Reserves and NSW Rams
- Anthony Treacy - Swans Reserves and NSW Rams

Congratulations to all our rep players; and we look forward to hearing of more Bombers taking the opportunity to play at higher levels.

From the Vault

After winning the 19 would prove elusive between the wars. There was a losing Grand Final in 19 even finals appearances were rare for North Shore; which by then had become known as the Bears.

David Elliman won a Phelan Medal in 193 and Jack Guthrie in 1939; but through the depression years the club struggled for on-field success.

World War II broke out in the late 193 attitude towards football during the war effort had changed, and the game continued. As servicemen around the country were posted to Sydney, the game went through a strong period. The armed forces were a significant source of players; even at times fielding their own teams.

But not for North Shore, who went into recess in 19 opportunities available. As Japanese submarines entered Sydney Harbour, many thought that it could be the end of North Shore. But the club would return in 19 after the war was over.

North Shore acknowledges with thanks our sponsors for 2015.
