FRED'S FOOTY FEED

J.L. "Fred" Smith

TANTANOOLA will take full advantage of an exhausted Mount Burr and advance to the grand final by 5pm today.

It won't be a huge victory but the fresh and keen Tigers will prevail against the ageing and weary Mossies.

With just one match in the space of 28 days, the extra zip of the Tigers will be decisive on the most southern footy ground in South Australia.

The 2009-2011 premiers had looked set to take the direct route to the 2014 season decider last Saturday as they were within striking distance of the young Kalangadoo line-up at the last change.

However, the Magpies were far from spent and stormed home in the last quarter with two big goals from "Killa" Kilsby and one from ex-skipper Michael Durbidge.

Mount Burr players ran out of steam as a slick Kalangadoo outfit swept to a deserved 14 point victory.

The sun shone, the ground was in tip-top condition and it was a credit to the Hatherleigh sporting community.

There was the occasional bit of rough play but field umpires Neil Webber, Paul Cavanagh and Michael Pink did a good job.

The large oval and temperatures in the mid-twenties would have really sapped the energy of the Mount Burr players and especially the eight aged over 30.

It will take plenty of ice and rub-downs to get the Mozzies onto the seaside oval today.

Last Saturday was also significant as Mount Burr was again without any top tier players due to injury, suspension or work commitments.

It has been repeatedly stated that the Mossies have secured their past three flags from 2009-2011 with all their top rank players on the oval.

By any yardstick, Mount Burr had been lucky when it came to injuries in that hat-trick of premierships.

Are there some clues which point to a result today?

2014 RESULTS

MOUNT Burr have had Tantanoola's measure on both occasions this season with a 33 point win at "Mick" and Jean Walker Oval on May 3.

The return match at Tigerland on July 19 was a ripper with the Mozzies booting two late goals and winning by just 17 points.

SURPRISE PACKET

EVERY finals series turns up a surprise packet and it is sometimes a player who does not get much attention from the umpires when dishing out Mail Medal votes.

In the case of Tantanoola, the X-factor player today might be Jordan Williams.

He polled a best-on-ground vote in the opening round against Kongorong way back on March but did not get another during the minor round.

However, if the utility player can repeat his first semi-final efforts, then the Tigers are well on the way to victory.

The three goals of Williams in the last term sealed their victory.

BEST TEEN

I RATE Jack Dawe as one of the best teens in the Mid SE.

At the age of 18, he might get a chance to play in his first senior grand final.

I reckon his dad Jason Dawe will assign him the job of running down the flanks today.

THE LAST WORD

TANTANOOLA will advance to the grand final but Kalangadoo will be the Premiers.

More of that next week.

COACHES FOR 2015

I RECKON most of the current Mid SE coaches will be back on deck in 2015 and Robe will have Jim Jess as head coach with Fabian Bigmore as his assistant.

There might be a few vacancies and who might fill them?

There are a number of former

X-FACTOR? Tantanoola will be hoping Jordan Williams can repeat his match winning performance from the first semi-final today against the Mozzies. Williams sealed the victory for the Tigers against the Eagles with three goals in the last quarter. Photo: J.L. "Fred" Smith.

MSEFL identities who might not be staying with their Western Border and KNTFL clubs next season.

Will former Nangwarry junior Jon Copping be on the move again after two seasons back at Penola?

However, the KNTFL Eagles could be on the cusp of a hat-trick of premierships next year and the club is celebrating its 150th anniversary.

These are powerful reasons for staying at the club and would also rule out the likes of KNTFL playing coach and dynamo Adam "Hoggett" Merrett.

Ex-Kalangadoo and Tarpeena playing coach Keith "Hooker" Ransom has had four seasons at West Gambier from 2010-13.

He spent most of 2014 as assistant coach with Casterton/Sandford until he parted company with the Cats in July.

Will he stay involved with the WBFL in 2015?

Let's have a look at some of the other coaching possibilities in the Mid SE for next season.

Justin McConnell, formerly of the Glenelg Football Club, has been a stand-out player and goalkicker in his four seasons as North Gambier coach.

He has won the Western Border medal voting, won two flags, coached the Murray South East zone team for three seasons and had his jaw broken in 2012.

With SANFL zone club Glenelg in the doldrums, there is often speculation McConnell may return to the Bays in some role.

I can see McConnell coaching at SANFL level after his days as a player are over.

Classy on-baller Richard O'Grady, assistant to McConnell, has been one of the best players in the WBFL in the past three seasons.

He won the Brian Hennessy Memorial Medal in 2012 as the competition's best and fairest player and is a highly-regarded underage coach at interleague level.

The WBFL Tigers are again WBFL flag favourites due to the input of McConnell and O'Grady.

has many representative honours to his credit and is as good as any other player in the WBFL.

I think he has had some "nibbles" from the Mid SE in recent years.

Luke Duncan has coached Penola in the past and is currently coach of South Gambier and the championship-winning Murray South East zone team.

At 34, he would still dominate in the Mid SE playing arena but he has missed much of the past two seasons with some serious injuries.

Any other options?

Bay boy Ben McGregor has been back home at Port Mac with his two brothers for the past four seasons.

He was appointed as vice-captain of the WBFL interleague team in 2010 and is a top-quality player and a top-quality bloke.

If you look to McLaughlin Park, Steve Duldig and Andrew Nitschke are highly decorated players and former Millicent coaches.

Duldig would still be a stand-out player in the MSEFL while 41-year-old Nitschke has long hung up his boots.

Nitschke would be an excellent non-playing coach given his background and his excellent work with juniors at the SE academy.

Former Glencoe underage mentor Matt Sinkunas would be a good choice for an A Grade coach as he has played in the SANFL at South Adelaide and Port Adelaide and has won the 2008 and 2009 Walker Medals in our competition.

I reckon ex-Mossie Ryan Gamble might come back home to coach one day but it probably won't be in 2015 for the veteran of 35 AFL games with Geelong and Saint Kilda.

Likewise, current and recent SANFL players Nick Pearce and Luke Panozzo (ex-Tantanoola), Brad Agnew (Mount Burr) and Warrick McGinty (Kongorong) might come back home within the next five years.

Perhaps one or more Mid SE clubs might follow the example of the KNTFL and the WBFL and import a new coach direct from Adelaide where there are literally hundreds of teams.

The days of getting a quality coach/player to come to this region on a work transfer with a bank or a stock firm are rarer and rarer these days.

The top three in the Mail Medal (Clint Gallio, Will Macdonald and Jonny Agnew) are unlikely to go anywhere next season but I reckon the fourth-placegetter would make an ideal coach in the not-too-distant future.

The winner of the 2014 Bill Hanel Memorial Award as the best player under 21 years of age, Zacc Cocks was vice-captain of Glencoe and the Mid SE team this season.

MORT'S BOOK

IT was great to catch up with league identity Peter Ey and about 40 others at the Glencoe clubrooms on Sunday afternoon for the launch of Mort Frost's excellent book about the post-war history of the mighty Mid SE.

This is yet another example where the Mid SE has blazed the trail for country leagues across the State.

I have seen club history books and an excellent account of the Mortlock Shields at Port Lincoln but not of associations and leagues like ours.

Mind you, the Mid SE has sailed serenely along for almost half-a-century with the withdrawal of Tarpeena being our only change since 1966.

The speeches by master of ceremonies Les Edwards, league president Peter Mitchell and Peter Ey due attention to the success of the Mid SE and the fine manner it has been recorded in Mort's book.

WELCOME to Port MacDonnell for the big preliminary final in the mighty Family League and what a day of football and netball is ahead of us. The long range forecast (18 and partly cloudy at the time of writing) is pretty good so fingers crossed we get another good day. Last week we all ventured to Hatherleigh where Mother Nature was in a very good mood and gave us the best weather seen since Adam introduced Eve to the joys of yoga under the apple tree. Well done to the Hatherleigh crew on a very successful day. It was certainly helped by the weather but from all reports the catering was first class and things seemingly ran smoothly throughout the day.

Last week I was joined by Webbs and Michael Pink for the blockbuster game between the Mozzies and the Magpies. Before the game it was very difficult to confidently predict a winner and with a very warm day greeting the sides it was always going to be a ripper. Fortunately the big crowd was not let down and both sides threw everything into a brilliant first half. A couple of undisciplined acts were penalised but generally it was a very quick and skilful contest. As always happens in finals there was a very big step up from minor round games and some top quality football was on display. The second half was a little more open than the first but both sides continued to put enormous pressure on the opposition. In the end the Kalangadoo lads had enough petrol in the tank to run out winners by 13 points.

I thought Frazer Scanlon and Clint Gallio played particularly good games for the Mozzies whilst the experience of Benny Mules and Brian Casey kept the Magpies in the contest particularly when the Mozzies threatened to get their noses in front. One young Mozzie who had a very good game was youngster Josh Wallis. Josh always impresses me as you never hear a complaint from him and he certainly plays very good football for someone of his size. It was a very good game to umpire and whilst not everyone will agree with every decision we simply go out there to umpire to the best of our ability and pay them as we see them.

Thanks to the boundary umpires last week and particularly to the five guys who ran in the heat for the A Grade. Chris Long was so quick at one stage that he had the ball back in the centre before the goal umpire even waved the flags (slight exaggeration there Gladys but he was bloody quick!). Cav was ready to recall a Clarrie throw in but the teacher was on his best behaviour and got an "A" for his throw in exam! An apology to young Carly Knaggs who had her first name spelt incorrectly last week by yours truly (Gladys we must get spell check on this typewriter!). Well done to all umpires in all grades as once again things went pretty smoothly.

Over in the AFL, and what a finish to the minor round last week! The Tigers did their best to lose to the millionaire Swans in the dying seconds and even yours truly had goose bumps listening to the call on the car radio. As we now know the Tigers will take on my Port boys and I have been very fortunate to have secured a ticket to see the game live tomorrow. I have been to many finals during my life but I get the feeling this one will be a beauty. In true Victorian style the AFL clowns announced that Port would have to wear their away strip during the game. After a verbal bashing from Port officials and thousands of supporters it was decided to let Port wear the old "prison bar" jumper. The whole fiasco reached epic proportions on Monday afternoon when AFL officials sent a Pentagon Plane to the home of Eddie Everywhere to get him to give the ok for the use of the "prison bar" jumper! Pardon? On a positive note it is great to see the Tigers win nine on the trot to get to the finals. Love them or not they have certainly earned their right to a final and I'm sure the ten thousand or so Tiger fans will make for a great atmosphere at Pine Forest Oval tomorrow.

Not content with the world wide embarrassment of having a very old Meatloaf make an absolute meal of the job a few years ago, the AFL brains trust (not sure if I should use the word "brain" in the same sentence as the AFL officials Gladys) have announced that dear old Tom Jones will be singing up a storm at the AFL grand final. Young fans will be ecstatic with the announcement that young Tom will sing "The Green Green Grass Of Home" (MCG turf...green grass. Get it Gladys?). The League have decided that if Geelong make the big one Tom will sing one of his all time hits "What's New Pussycat?" as the Cats run on to the oval. Is there no young talent in Australia who could be given the chance to sing in front of one hundred thousand fans on grand final day?

In umpiring news and Scott triplet Chris survived a week long motor bike ride in the Simpson Desert to take his place in the Senior Colts last week. Stumpy threw a scare into the camp when he ran off the oval at three quarter time of the reserves game. Yours truly did the right thing by the lad and asked if he needed a hand with anything. Thankfully Stump didn't take up the offer as he was on his way to the men's to (ahem) relieve himself! Which seasoned umpire and former Grand Prix driver forgot his arm bands last week Kathy? Which umpire will pay dearly for giving Cav the "ice bucket" treatment in the showers after the game? I swear that I can run faster than you Clarrie so watch out! This Wednesday night the League will hold a BBQ after training for the umpires at Glencoe. All umpires are invited to attend.

So that's it for another week. Next week we once again head to Port MacDonnell for the Big One. Good luck to the Demon team for a successful day today. Good luck to all sides in footy and netball. Go you Robe netballers. I expect to see you in the Big One next week. Happy Father's Day to all the dads tomorrow. Cheers, Cav.

FOOTBALL & NETBALL CLUB NOTES

MOUNT BURR FOOTBALL

LAST Saturday was a disappointment in going down to Kalangadoo by a couple of goals, however that is why you strive to finish in the top 2 to earn the double chance. I'm sure Frazer will have the guys up and firing for the prelim at Port Mac and get another chance at the Magpies the following week. Best of luck to Armando and his guys today against the Magpies where a win will secure a grand final against Kongorong, also best of luck to the 13 & Under netballers today as they strive to make the grand final as well.

Senior Colts: Firstly congrats to the boys for making it to a prelim final. It's been a tough year for the side on and off the ground and the players have had to endure some tough times during the season. But as the year has worn on the playing group have formed a very strong bond and are playing good footy at the right time of year. Everyone has expected the Hawks and Doo sides to compete in the grand final but our lads have other ideas. The pressure is on Kalangadoo not to fail again but we know how good a side they are and they will be bolstered by the return of some key players. Never the less the Burr boys will come into the game with confidence of beating them in the last round of the year on their home ground. We have been training hard for quite a while and with having last weekend off the group is fresh and raring to go. If we play four quarters of footy, stick to our structures and focus on our roles we can push any side. We might not be seen as a premiership contender by many but within the playing group they will be out to prove otherwise.

A Grade: Last weekend we travelled down the road to face the most improved side in the competition in what was set to be a thriller of a contest. Conditions were perfect for an open brand of highly skilled football which is exactly what unfolded from the opening bounce. Throughout the four quarters the Burr boys made a few costly turnovers and missed some opportunities in front of goal. With respect to opportunities, it is a well-known fact that you have to take every chance you get especially in finals football. Unfortunately, we could not peg back the two goal deficit which our opponents had developed in the third term which saw them run away with a narrow win. Better players for the day included Brodie Hennick, Clint Gallio and Jamie Little. Today we face Tantanoola in the preliminary final and I am confident that the boys will bounce back and play an extremely competitive brand of football.

Best of luck to all teams in the footy and netball today. Let's play as we know we can and get the grand final appearance we are all after. Don't forget senior presentation is Friday night 19th of September from 7pm with junior presentation on Sunday 21st

September from 1pm.

PORT MACDONNELL NETBALL

LAST week all roads led to Hatherleigh in what was warm playing conditions. Unfortunately the results didn't go our way in both the B Res netball and B Grade footy, but luckily enough they get the 2nd chance this week.

Today Port Mac is hosting Preliminary Final day and also the Grand Final next week. We'd like to wish our 17s, B Res, B Grade netball and Junior Colts and B Grade footy all the best of luck and success in advancing into the grand final. Good luck!

Since we are hosting both preliminary and grand final day, anyone who can lend a hand grand final day will be much appreciated and can contact Narelle Lewis on 0418 939 712. Also just a friendly reminder the netball committee will be holding a working bee Sunday 7th September at 10am in preparation for grand final day. Many hands make light work and we'd love to see as many faces as possible in preparing for a successful grand final day. Stick around afterwards for a sausage sizzle too.

In finishing, we would like to congratulate those recognised at the league presentation last week. Ady Neshoda won 17&U runner-up best and fairest, Kelly Millard B Res runner-up best and fairest and Marie Lewis and Toni Gilmore were named in the A Grade Top 11. Well done, you have done our club proud. Go Demons!

B Reserve: Bad luck girls, I know you all tried hard and it was a hot day, at least we get another chance to prove ourselves this week. We know what we need to work on now and hopefully we can cross Tant again in the grand final! Best players: Kelly Cawthorne and Paige Cawthorne.

ROBE FOOTBALL

Junior Colts: Robe lost to Hatherleigh. Goal: T Wilfred. Best: A. Weir, G. Dutton, J. McMartin, E. Dutton, H. Bigmore, B. Legoe. Very tough 2nd semi-final for the boys against the red hot premiership favourites Hatherleigh. We didn't work hard enough in the first half, but after half time we really put the pressure on them and in the third quarter Hatherleigh only scored one goal which was very pleasing. Our double chance is gone and this week will be do or die against Port Mac in the prelim final today. Don't forget boys the harder you work the easier the game becomes. Langers.

ROBE NETBALL

BOTH Robe teams were playing their first final for the season, and although both teams recorded losses, they have a second chance this week at Port MacDonnell. Robe supporters were out in full force and it was so wonderful to see so many make the trip to Hatherleigh to support our junior girls. Please continue this support for the 13s, 15s and A Grade as it gives the girls such a lift. Best of luck to all teams as well as the Junior Colts.

It will be a special day for A Grade captain Felicity Carter as she hits the court in her 250th game for the Robe Netball Club. Such a fantastic achievement for a great all round club person. Over the years she has been an integral part of our senior line-up, has coached both senior and junior grades, and is a valued committee member. We will have more on Felicity's achievements in next week's paper and Budget and we hope to celebrate her special milestone with a win on Saturday. Once again, we wish the coaches Keryn More, Michelle Everett and Kim Ross and their respective teams all the very best for today to earn their place in the grand final. We look forward to seeing a sea of red and white on the sideline cheering on the Roosters!

13 & Under: Robe vs Kalangadoo. Proudly sponsored by Hilton Rural. Bad luck girls! With the majority of the team never having played in a final nerves played a big role in the game. It was the little things like passing into opposition's hands and not cutting front which caused us to lose. We failed to convert on our centre passes and turnovers by defence which made the task at hand even harder. We can take this game as a learning curve and head into the preliminary final knowing what to expect of finals pressure. You are all a talented bunch of girls and must head into the next game with confidence. Keep your heads up girls, I know you can do it! Best players: Johanna Nunan and Asha Pettit.

15 & Under: Robe 27 lost to Hatherleigh 35. Proudly sponsored by Integrity Homes. We started the game against Hatherleigh at a fast pace in unusually warm weather. It took us some time to settle in a low scoring first quarter. Hatherleigh 9 to Robe 4. In the second quarter we allowed the game to be played on Hatherleigh's terms. We turned the ball over consistently through poor passing and not being a front option which saw Robe trail by 10 at half time. Our second half was outstanding - we lifted our work rate and started to believe in ourselves. Our defence applied more pressure and was rewarded with turnovers and rebounds. In attack the timing of our leads improved as did our passing. Robe outscored Hatherleigh in the second half to go down by 8 goals at full time. You should all be proud of your effort, and you all need to know, you are as good as any team. All played well. Best players: Maddie Nunan and Ciarne Tomlinson.
