Perkins a lesson in persistence

Not much knocks the AFL men's competition off the front page of the paper, especially during the opening round of the season.

But the NAB AFL Women's Grand Final did just that on the weekend, with premier Adelaide – featuring Eastern Devils Swisse VFL Women's draftee Sarah Perkins – recognised on the front page of The Age with the headline 'Making HerStory'.

With close to 100 VFL Women's players drafted into the AFL this season, just one now has the title of premiership player, with Perkins to be congratulated on being part of the successful Crows outfit.

Perkins is a great example to up-and-coming female and male players, having been overlooked at the women's draft but making the most of the late lifeline thrown to her by Adelaide to live out her AFL dream.

The TAC Cup regularly provides over 50 per cent of the talent to the AFL at draft time, but it is only a small percentage of players from the competition that are drafted. Each weekend almost 300 players take to the field representing their region, with double that amount on TAC Cup lists. While it is the elite talent that is often focused on in the competition, we should also recognise the role our clubs play in developing future Peter Jackson VFL and local players. The skills learnt at this level are taken back into the community, as the players become leaders from the education and training provided in the TAC Cup.

Talking about leaders, it is pleasing to see 15 AFL captains this season having been drafted out of the TAC Cup. Gippsland is best represented with four former players leading their AFL team and having met in Round 1 – Leongatha duo Dyson Heppell (Essendon) and Jarryd Roughead (Hawthorn), and Robert Murphy (Western Bulldogs) and Scott Pendlebury (Collingwood).

Today we look at the TAC Cup captains that have been named for 2017 in the Record, with those names to possibly join the long list of former TAC Cup players who go on to become AFL captains in the future.

TAC Cup welcomes coaching quartet

Leigh Clarke’s strong sense of connectedness to the Oakleigh Chargers is something he hopes to instil in his players as the club’s new head coach.

Clarke is the first former player to take the reins at Oakleigh, having been part of the club’s inaugural TAC Cup season in 1995 as a 15-year-old. He replaces Michael Stinear, who coached Melbourne in the inaugural AFL Women’s season after guiding the Chargers to TAC Cup premierships in 2014-15 and being named the 2016 TAC Cup Coach of the Year.

Clarke left Oakleigh’s program as a 16-year-old with the onset of serious foot injuries but returned as a strength and conditioning coach in 2010 after a playing career at local level. He progressed to become a line coach at the Chargers and was set to become Stinear’s senior assistant coach for the 2016 season before being appointed as the Richmond VFL team’s forwards coach.

“I can see the charm in being back where I started,” Clarke said of his new role.

“What I love is the connection around here, and that’s what I’m trying to preach to the boys now. It’s not just my connection to the club, but there are team managers, property guys and helpers who were here on my first day and are still here now.

Clarke said Oakleigh’s issue of having to deal with the football commitments of private-school boys was another constant from the days of the club’s inception, but that sports science and an increasing focus on development had changed the way TAC Cup players were coached.

He said his own coaching style would borrow from the successful approach of Stinear.

“Mick and I were very close,” Clarke said. “I was appointed his senior assistant on a Thursday (before the 2016 season) and on the Monday I got the job at Richmond.

“Mick’s a very mindful coach. He’s got a real kindness and a care in the way he prepares people and treats people on-field and off-field, and that’s what I took away from him.

“My coaching philosophy is built around connecting with the players and engaging them. They’ve been in their own tribe and they’re coming to join our tribe now, and I want them to bring all their skills and characteristics to make our tribe better.”

The new head coach of the Northern Knights certainly isn't new to the TAC Cup – in fact, Justin Wenke knows exactly what it takes to reach the competition's pinnacle.

The 42-year-old takes over from three-year Northern coach Andrew Shakespeare after ending his premiership-winning stint as mentor of the Oakleigh Chargers early in the 2014 season.

Wenke guided the Chargers to the 2012 TAC Cup flag from sixth position after the home-and-away season in his first year as head coach. The Chargers then missed the finals in 2013 before Wenke left the club during the following season due to personal reasons.

After three consecutive years without making the finals, the Knights have appointed a coach with a pedigree of TAC Cup success – even if that success was achieved in rather unorthodox circumstances.

“The 2012 Grand Final (against the Gippsland Power) was quite unique because it was won by a golden point,” Wenke said.

“I have the memory of (now Western Bulldogs premiership player) Jackson Macrae kicking that point to put us in front and then the siren going. It was quite an amazing feeling.”

While he oversaw the top-age years of AFL draftees such as Jack Viney (Melbourne) and Jack Billings (St Kilda), Macrae's rapid progression to become the no.6 pick in the 2012 NAB AFL Draft was one of Wenke's most satisfying stories of player development at Oakleigh.

“Jackson was a boy who didn't make the list as a bottom-age player at the Chargers,” Wenke said. “I'd had a long association with him through the Yarra Junior Football League interleague teams I'd coached, so I knew what he was capable of. He had to work on his kicking a bit, but we put him on the list as a top-ager and he became a really high draft pick.

“The other one was (Macrae's fellow 2016 Bulldogs premiership player) Toby McLean, who was cut at the Dandenong Stingrays and then we brought him in. He was a different sort of character – most of the Chargers boys were private-school boys but Toby had left school.

“Integrating him into the system was a real feather in the cap of the Chargers, to take in a boy that had talent and develop him a little bit, and then he was the best-on-ground medallist on Grand Final day (in 2014) and got drafted really highly.

“They're the success stories you look at, and it's probably why you coach – to pick up the ones that may slide through and give them another chance.”

New Bendigo Pioneers head coach Rick Coburn knows the challenges of being a player for the region's TAC Cup club well.

Coburn played in Bendigo's inaugural TAC Cup match in Round 1 of the 1993 season and is the first former Pioneers player to return to coach the club. He replaces Brett Henderson, who coached Bendigo in 2015-16 and oversaw the development of AFL draftees such as Tom Cole (West Coast) in 2015 and Joseph Atley (Port Adelaide), Kobe Mutch (Essendon) and Kayle Kirby (Collingwood) in 2016.

The Nyah native used to travel almost 100 kilometres to attend Pioneers training sessions and said understanding the “tyranny of distance” faced by some of his players would be central to his new role.

“It was an exciting period when the competition first started (in 1992),” Coburn said.

“Everything was just coming together almost as a bit of a trial, really. We did a lot of our training at that stage at a place called Nullawil which was pretty much in the middle of the region – it was just a country footy ground with pretty limited resources.

“Boys were coming from left, right and centre to play a series of trial games, with training run out of our regional centres by our football development managers. In some ways, some of those structures are still in place.

“It’s come a long way in terms of the professionalism of the program and its delivery, but some of the issues we’ll face are still there – the tyranny of distance and being able to manage our boys who are sometimes spread five hours from each other.”

Coburn said he’d be a “players’ coach”, one who’ll aim to build strong relationships with players and their families to help them manage the often demanding commitments of the club’s program in terms of time and distance travelled.

But he also boasts a strong record in getting the best out of teams on the field, coaching South Bendigo to six Bendigo FNL finals series (including two Grand Finals) in seven years at the club’s helm from 2007-13.

“It was a great experience to have my own side for a long period of time,” Coburn said.

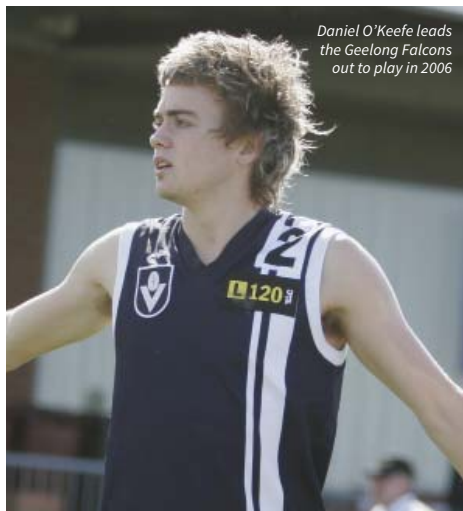

“I coached there for seven years and played for eight, and to have a long stint at a club you have to constantly reinvent yourself and the list. That probably correlates really well to the Pioneers with new players coming through each year.”

Daniel O’Keefe admits there was some romance to his appointment as Geelong Falcons head coach.

O’Keefe, only 28 years of age, captained the Falcons to a TAC Cup semi final and won their best-and-fairest award just 10 years ago in 2006.

His love for the club drove O’Keefe to keep in contact with key Geelong figures through the following years – including his three ill-fated seasons on Sydney’s AFL list from 2007-09. He did some U16 assistant coaching with the Falcons four years ago before returning in a leadership and development coaching role in 2016.

Daniel O’Keefe leads the Geelong Falcons out to play in 2006

So when five-year head coach Andrew Allthorpe decided to move on from his role at the end of the last season due to family and work commitments, Talent Manager Michael Turner simply looked within the club’s inner sanctum for a suitable replacement.

“To say I’m excited and proud is an understatement,” O’Keefe said of his new position.

“I’ve always held this club dearly to my heart and always followed up with Mick Turner and (my coach in 2006) Garry Hocking when I went up to Sydney. I always wanted to make sure that everything was running smoothly even though I’d left the club.

“My passion for the club is very high – it always has been and always will be. I’ve always wanted to do something like this, and it’s probably happened a little bit sooner than I thought it would but it’s very exciting.”

O’Keefe’s AFL career was ruined by injury and he failed to make his senior debut in three seasons on Sydney’s list after being selected at pick no.15 in 2006 AFL Draft. He said the lessons learned as a youngster from Warrnambool struggling to make it at the elite level in another state would help him guide a new generation of AFL aspirants, despite his relatively tender coaching years.

“While it didn’t work out how I wanted it to, the three years I had in Sydney taught me a lot in terms of, firstly, growing up, but more importantly about not taking things for granted,” O’Keefe said.

“The same goes for the kids at the Falcons – they’ve only got one, two or three years maximum here. You’ve really got to make the most of your opportunities because you never know when your last game could be or when you might finish up.”

Bolting from the footy blues

An under-16 grand final set Calder Cannons key forward Noah Balta on the path towards joining the NAB AFL Academy and becoming one of the TAC Cup's top 2017 AFL Draft prospects.

Balta's 2015 season with Essendon Douatta Stars in the Essendon District FL broke him out of a football funk that could have seen the 194cm 17-year-old lost to the game.

His performance in the Stars' under-16 premiership triumph provided the foundation for an impressive 2016 campaign at Calder in which he booted 18 goals in eight games.

Balta's form was recognised late last year with elevation to the AFL Academy alongside junior teammate and good friend Cameron Rayner of the Western Jets.

"It was that game (that changed things) – when something's on the line, I realise how well I can play," Balta said of the under-16 grand final. "Cam got named best-on-ground but all the other boys were saying I should have got it!

"I thought: 'Why can't I play like that all the time?' and then I just started going for it.

"In under-12 football I was a good player, but everyone started to catch up to me and I think it kind of got my head down. I started to become an average player and talked myself down, but I started lifting again and realised what I could do.

"It was that whole under-16 season. I worked with (former Essendon and Geelong ruckman) John Barnes that pre-season – he helped me with my skills and he's very honest with me."

Balta named Barnes as one of the most significant influences on his football career to date, but his addition to an AFL Academy Level Two squad including 22 other TAC Cup players should see a few more influential names added to that list.

Balta attended the Academy's annual high-performance training camp in the United States in January, spending a week training at the IMG Academy in Florida before a further week in Los Angeles under the eyes of former AFL champions such as head coach Luke Power and assistants Brad Johnson, Peter Sumich and Nick Dal Santo.

"They've had the AFL experience and I want to be like them and do what they've done," Balta said of his Academy coaches. "To do that, I've got to listen to what they say and really take it in.

"I learnt I could push harder than I thought I could (on the US camp). You think you've got a certain level of potential but then once you think you've reached it, you just blast right past it with an experience like that.

"On one of the big days we had a 3km time trial and then sprints, and a couple of boys – myself included – were really fatigued and we kind of slowed down before the line and had to re-do it.

"Everyone got behind you. From a group that was nothing together (before the camp) to how we've bonded now, it's really something special."

Cannons Talent Manager Ian Kyte has seen Balta fully invest himself in his football during his time at the club, with the resolution of eyesight problems also a key factor in his rise to prominence.

"He's dramatically improved his footy over the last seven or eight months," Kyte said.

"That's been helped by getting contact lenses, so he actually sees the game and what's going on down the other end a lot better than he used to. We've found that's really helped his marking and his depth perception of where the ball is."

Balta only wears the contact lenses while playing football but has noticed he's running under the ball less often and that marks had "started clunking a bit more".

Kyte said Balta would likely be used mostly as a power forward in 2017, but would also pinch-hit in the ruck and "could nearly play as an on-baller, which we did with him a couple of times last year".

No matter where he plays on the field this season, Balta wants to throw everything into making it work. His main goal for 2017 is to be selected by an AFL club come November, but he won't let his head drop if that dream doesn't come to fruition.

"I just want to know I've done the best I could and that I couldn't push any harder," Balta said.

It's a mindset far from the one he was in just a couple of years ago.

TAC Cup Round 1 Review

Highly-rated goalkicker Jaidyn Stephenson helped the Eastern Ranges record their first victory for 2017 when the TAC Cup season kicked off last Friday night under lights at Rams Arena.

Stephenson kicked four goals in the first term as the Ranges opened up a match-defining 25-point lead over the Calder Cannons by quarter time. The Cannons worked to within 13 points of Eastern during the second stanza but wasted several chances to put the pressure on their opponents in the third, managing only four behinds as the Ranges responded with three majors of their own.

While Stephenson finished with five goals, over-ager Jordan Lynch (two goals) and 2016 All Australian ruckman Sam Hayes were also influential as Eastern ran away to a 54-point win.

On Saturday, the Geelong Falcons posted their 11th straight opening-round win in defeating the GWV Rebels by 82 points at Simonds Stadium.

After an even first quarter, the Falcons exploded with 13 unanswered goals from late in the second term until early in the last to put the Rebels away. David Handley was the biggest star inside 50 for Geelong – booting six majors – while five other Falcons chipped in with two apiece.

Meanwhile, the Murray Bushrangers kept a streak of their own alive, winning a 23rd consecutive match against the Bendigo Pioneers by 51 points at Punt Road Oval.

The streak dates back to 2004 and was continued on Saturday thanks to Murray's seven-goal-to-one final quarter, which ended Bendigo's hopes after the Pioneers were within 12 points of the lead at the last change. The experience of over-agers Nick Richards (27 disposals) and Ben Paton (23) was crucial for the victors.

Also on Saturday, the Dandenong Stingrays held off a fast-finishing Gippsland Power outfit to record a 16-point win at Morwell Recreation Reserve.

Led by 30 disposals from AFL Academy midfielder Luke Davies-Uniacke and four goals to Dylan Morris, the Stingrays built a 43-point lead by early in the third quarter. The Power wouldn't be denied though, pushing their opponents until the final siren.

In the first leg of a Sunday double-header at Ikon Park, 2016 TAC Cup premiers the Sandringham Dragons started the new season as they ended the last, accounting for the Oakleigh Chargers by 55 points.

Bottom-age AFL Academy key-position player Max King was a colossus up forward for the victors – clunking four contested marks and booting four goals – while Andrew Brayshaw (25 disposals), Charlie Constable (24) and Alfie Jarnestrom (22) were Sandringham's chief ball-winners.

Wrapping up Round 1 in the second leg of the double-header, the Northern Knights denied a gallant Western Jets outfit by 16 points in an entertaining contest.

After conceding the first five goals of the game, the Jets drew level by three-quarter time only for Knights captain and regular half-back Nick Coffield to go forward and bag three final-term majors (four for the game) to secure the win for his team.

TAC Cup club captains

The best young leaders in the TAC Cup have been named their clubs' captains for 2017.

The Bendigo Pioneers will be led by Balranald product Laine Fitzgerald, who finished equal-second in the club's best-and-fairest award as a bottom-ager last year.

Tough midfielder Brad Bernacki will skipper the Calder Cannons. The East Sunbury junior finished third in the club's best-and-fairest count behind subsequent AFL Rookie Draft picks Ben Ronke and Zach Guthrie.

Langwarrin product Josh Bateman and Berwick junior Oscar Clavarino will jointly captain the Dandenong Stingrays, while Clavarino's fellow AFL Academy member Joel Garner – a mid-forward from Wandin – will lead the Eastern Ranges.

The Geelong Falcons have named three captains: Queenscliff over-ager Charlie Francis, Colac defender/midfielder Cooper Stephens and AFL Academy on-baller James Worpel from Bell Park.

The AFL Academy's Aidan Quigley – a Yinnar product – will skipper the Gippsland Power, over-ager Callan Wellings (Trentham) will take the reins at the GWV Rebels and the Murray Bushrangers have named a four-player leadership group consisting of Will Donaghey (Wodonga Bulldogs), Daniel Johnston (Barooga), Harrison Jones (Wodonga Bulldogs) and Alex Paech (North Albury).

The Northern Knights will be led by skilful defender Nicholas Coffield from Eltham, with the Oakleigh Chargers to be captained by key forward Toby Wooller of Old Scotch.

AFL Academy key forward Hayden McLean (Beaumaris) will skipper the Sandringham Dragons, while the Western Jets will have joint-captains for 2017 in Luke Hitch (Keilor) and Nicholas Stuhldreier (Bacchus Marsh).

TAC Cup players in U18 Academy Series

Several TAC Cup players are playing for the GWS Academy team in the new AFL U18 Academy Series, which launched last weekend.

The Academy Series has replaced Division 2 of the NAB AFL U18 Championships, with NSW-ACT replaced by the GWS and Sydney Academy teams and Queensland replaced by the Brisbane and Gold Coast Academy teams. The Northern Territory and Tasmania will remain as participants in the five-round competition.

The Allies team to play against Vic Country, Vic

Metro, South Australia and Western Australia in Division 1 of the U18 Championships will be made up of the best players from the Academy Series.

The GWS Academy kicked off its campaign with a four-point loss to the Sydney Academy, 12.14 (86) to 12.10 (82), in Blacktown on Sunday. Highly-rated Murray Bushrangers midfielder/forward Charlie Spargo was named among the GWS Academy's best players after racking up a game-high 24 disposals and kicking a goal.

The GWS Academy will now face the Gold Coast Academy in Blacktown on Saturday, then Tasmania in Hobart on Saturday April 8, NT in NSW on Saturday April 29 and the Brisbane Academy in Broadbeach on Saturday May 6.

TAC Cup Girls

Mitchell vaults into TAC Cup Girls

For someone boasting a rich football bloodline, it could be said Chelsea Mitchell has embraced the game surprisingly late in life.

The 18-year-old Oakleigh Chargers TAC Cup Girls player is the daughter of former Sydney, Collingwood and Carlton ball-winner Barry Mitchell and the sister of current Hawthorn midfielder Tom Mitchell.

But instead of following her famous family members onto the football field, Chelsea pursued elite-level gymnastics for most of her early life.

After eight years in the sport – and at times training up to 30 hours per week – Mitchell decided it was time for a change. Having only started playing school football last year, she's now on Oakleigh's inaugural TAC Cup Girls list and has played in the club's first two matches for 2017.

"I did elite gymnastics for about eight years," Mitchell said. "I never really did a ball sport until about Year 9 when I started netball, and now I'm playing footy."

"I injured my elbow (while doing gymnastics) and I just hadn't been doing anything on it for about a year. I was a bit behind everyone else and it was just getting a bit tough mentally to try and keep up. I did love it but I just started to lose love for the sport."

"Australia isn't really up there with the big countries in gymnastics like America, China and Russia, but it was still hard work. It's really helped me to be determined and I think it's really helped me learn how to work hard and be disciplined."

Mitchell's determined nature comes out on the football field, with her competitiveness her biggest strength – "I'll always go for the ball," she says.

The 170cm midfielder has also been used by Chargers coach Luke O'Shannessy in the back line but said that wherever she played, her immediate focus was on improving her skills.

To that end, it helps having a father who played 221 AFL games from 1984-96 and a brother who last year starred in his 65th and final game for Sydney – the club's 22-point AFL Grand Final loss to the Western Bulldogs.

Having Tom back in Victoria after he was traded to the Hawks over the off-season helped Chelsea prepare for her TAC Cup Girls debut.

*Chelsea Mitchell representing the Oakleigh Chargers

"All summer I was doing work with my brother and dad, trying to improve," she said. "It was really good to have them around, teaching me the ways of how to play."

"Tom tells me about proper ways of kicking and good strategies like the switch and how to defend. I love having him home."

"I honestly thought the Swans were going to win (the Grand Final). I had it in my head that they were going to win so it was a bit of a shock when they didn't, but Tom was so good about it. He knows he did his best so that's all we can really ask from him."

As she continues her rapid transition to a new sport though, Chelsea might find herself asking a bit more from her accomplished football sibling.

Dragons keep flame burning

The 2016 TAC Cup premiers have started the new season as they finished the last.

Having claimed their third flag in September and produced five of the first 11 picks at the 2016 NAB AFL Draft in November, the Sandringham Dragons began 2017 with a comprehensive 54-point victory over the Oakleigh Chargers at Ikon Park in Round 1.

During last year's run to the premiership from fifth on the ladder after the home-and-away season, it was the work of talented midfielders such as Andrew McGrath (AFL Draft pick no.1 to Essendon), Tim Taranto (no.2 to GWS), Will Setterfield (no.5 to GWS), Oliver Florent (no.11 to Sydney) and Corey Lyons (no.71 to Brisbane) who drove the Dragons forward to success.

And on the evidence so far this year, it seems Sandringham has assembled a similarly broad range of on-ball threats.

The Chargers had more disposals and took more marks than the Dragons on Sunday, but the reigning premiers booted nine more goals than their opponents thanks to dominance in the contests.

Sandringham won the clearance count 40-28 on the back of eight players having three or more clearances. In fact, only five of 23 Dragons players didn't record a clearance.

Pocket rockets Lucas Barrett and Lachlan Harris (four clearances each) led the way, while Andrew Brayshaw, Charlie Constable, Alfie Jarnestrom, Kai Owens, Will Walker and Sebastian Williams all recorded three.

Their work in winning the ball and driving it forward created opportunities for big men Max King (four contested marks, four goals), Isaac Morrisby (two goals) and Hayden McLean (one goal) to use their height to advantage and capitalise inside 50.

A midfield topped with star talent will take a team a long way – look at Geelong's 2016 AFL preliminary-final campaign with Joel Selwood and Patrick Dangerfield leading the way.

But midfield depth underneath the top tier will invariably take a team further. Last year's AFL premiers the Western Bulldogs and their army of quick, brave and skilful on-ballers are evidence of that.

Murray Bushrangers over-ager and North Albury junior Ben Paton was a constant thorn in the side of the Bendigo Pioneers during his team's 51-point victory in Round 1. Paton had a round-high 11 rebound-50s among his 23 disposals, which equated to him personally repelling almost a third of Bendigo's 36 inside-50 entries for the match.

33

The boot of Jackson Ross (an Old Haileybury junior) was a big reason for the Eastern Ranges recording a +33 advantage in inside-50s (62-29) in a 54-point triumph over the Calder Cannons. The athletic 192cm former elite tennis player unleashed 18 kicks against the Cannons, seven of which drove the Ranges inside 50 – a team high.

The tall timber of the Geelong Falcons stood strong in an 82-point win over the GWV Rebels. Adam Garner (194cm), Tom McCartin (192cm), Rick Read (192cm) and Jordon Reid (194cm) all took three or more contested marks against the Rebels, while 181cm David Handley (a Geelong West Giants junior) took three himself and also booted six goals.

Victoria finalises AFL National Diversity rep squads

Victoria has finalised its Kickstart and All Nations representative squads ahead of the 2017 AFL National Diversity Championships this month.

Following a successful state leadership camp in Halls Gap, 41 of Victoria's best U15 Indigenous and Multicultural players will pull on the Big-V jumper and travel to Blacktown, Sydney for the National Diversity Championships from April 8-13.

Held annually, the National Diversity Championships provide a unique opportunity for 213 participants from culturally diverse backgrounds to represent their state and compete for the coveted Kickstart and All Nations titles.

For the first time, Victoria will enter standalone representative state sides in the competition following AFL Tasmania's decision to submit its inaugural state teams.

A host of talented young indigenous stars from across regional Victoria form the final 22-player Kickstart squad, with AFL South East (five), AFL Goldfields (four) and AFL Goulburn Murray (four) leading the way with the most representatives.

10 different AFL Victoria regions are included in the final 19-player All Nations squad, with five players selected from Northern Victoria, followed by AFL South East, south west and AFL Goldfields with two players each.

Nine different nationalities are represented in the All Nations squad with players from India, Vietnam, Lebanon, Japan, South Sudan, Philippines, Mauritius, New Zealand and Nigeria making up the list.

Leading Victoria's representative squads for the first time are coaches Jamie Pi (All Nations) and Peter Dye (Kickstart).

While being new to the roles this season, AFL Victoria Indigenous Programs Manager Aaron Davey said both men were the right fit to lead the next generation of Victorian Indigenous and Multicultural talent.

"Both Peter and Jamie bring a wealth of experience to the group, having been involved in football for a number of years," Davey said.

"Participation in our Kickstart and All Nation squads is an important step for the development of more Indigenous and Multicultural talent seen at the elite level and we are proud to provide our players with the tools to tackle any challenge life throws at them, both on and off the field.

"All our coaches understand the importance of embracing our cultural heritage and Jamie and Peter's guidance will help players return to their respective communities as young leaders and role models for their peers.

AFL Vic News

"All Nations team manager David Rodan and I are extremely pleased with the final squads and we are looking forward to producing another competitive performance at this year's carnival."

Victoria will take on representative sides from South Australia, Queensland, NSW/ACT, Tasmania, Western Australia and Northern Territory for the coveted National U15 Kickstart and U15 All Nations Cups when the competition kicks off on April 8.

Club Notes

BENDIGO PIONEERS

It was great to experience using the facilities at Richmond Football Club's headquarters at Punt Road last week when we enjoyed our neighbours in the Murray Bushrangers. Thanks to Richmond for the support and opportunity provided to play this game. The Under 18 team played well for three quarters but fell away in the last quarter. Good learning for our group to understand the importance of playing a full four quarters. Better players were; Tom Campbell, Jacob Atley, Jose Miliado, Paddy Dow, Darby Henderson. I would like to acknowledge players who made their debut with the Pioneers last week: No. 7 - Matt Harvey (Strathfieldsaye), No. 16 - Jacob Atley (Rochester), No. 28 - Zach Denahy (Castlemaine), No. 34 - Cooper Barber (Moama), No. 35 - Jobee Warde (Moama), No. 39 - Lachlan Gill (Strathfieldsaye), No. 41 - Daine Grace (Golden Square/South Mildura), No. 49 - Jose Miliado (Woorineen), No. 52 - Rourke Turner (Golden Square/Merbein/Centrals Broken Hill), No. 57 - Kobe Hommelhoff (Eaglehawk). The Under 16 team played some very good football particularly in the second half where they really teamed together. Better players and goalkickers were - Best: Thompson Dow, Liam Radcliffe, Brodie Kemp, Zach Shelton, Lucas Cacciavelli, Mitch Rovers / Goals: Liam Radcliffe 5, Brodie Kemp 3, Luke Padgham, Mitch Rovers, Riley Ironside. The girls team under the coaching guidance of Shawn McCormick will be looking to show signs of improvement after adding some girls to the squad recently. The girls team is still very young and quite inexperienced but will be keen to be more competitive against GWV this week. The Pioneers have now moved into their new administration centre at La Trobe University in Bendigo. This move will be the start of offering our athletes the opportunity to work in a truly elite facility with access to a new gymnasium, lecture theatres and other indoor training facilities. We positively look forward to meeting the GWV Rebels this Sunday at Alfredton after hosting Phil's boys and girls in Bendigo earlier in the year for practice games.

CALDER CANNONS

After a tough night against the Ranges in Round 1, the U18 TAC Cup boys look forward to hosting the Western Jets this week 1st April at RAMS Arena at 10am. The Cannons U18 TAC girls will then be teaming up with the Western Jets girls and taking on Tasmania at RAMS Arena at 12.30pm. The Calder Cannons encourage everyone to come down to support the Calder and Western girls as they represent the TAC Cup competition. The Cannons would like to thank Vas Nikolovski and Gary Nicholls from Rams Home Loans for the support of the Calder Cannons Football Club and RAMS Arena in Craigieburn. It has been fantastic to see so many people here supporting their respective teams and engaging in the AFL sporting community so far this season. Last Friday against Eastern saw over 1200 supporters visit RAMS Arena for the first game of the year. Tune in on twitter @CalderCannonsFC, Facebook at Calder Cannons, and Instagram @caldercannonsfc to ensure you get the latest news, events, photos and stories. The Cannons are also in the news every Wednesday night on 98.9 North West FM's Pathway to the Top from 5pm-6pm. Go the mighty Cannons!

DANDENONG SOUTHERN STINGRAYS

Last weekend we had kicked off the season with a solid win against Gippsland Power at Morwell, it didn't go all our way with the Power mounting a late charge showing the evenness of the competition. The Under 16's kicked off the day, with many lead changes and boys from both sides popping up through the game showcasing their talents. Gippy took the honours on the day with our boys dropping off late in the game to lose by 13 points. The TAC CUP Girls finished off the day with a strong win against the newly formed Power Girls- big test for the girls this week when we take on the Geelong Falcons who are also undefeated. Thank you to those who drove to the game last week, in all 3 grades. As part of our TAC agreement the first 3 weeks of the TAC CUP are travel games and we encourage all players who are on their learners and P's to drive to or from the game. This week, a huge test for the boys as we head down the highway and play on an AFL ground, against one of the hardest running teams in the TAC Cup. The Falcons are always hard to beat, even more so on Simonds Stadium. Lastly, a huge thank you to our staff for doing an amazing job last week...it becomes an 8-10 hour day for many of our support staff in the first three rounds and the club along with the players are very appreciative of your efforts. #Rayscave17 #OneClubThreeTeams

EASTERN RANGES

Our season got off to a flyer last week against the Calder Cannons at RAMS Arena, with the U18 TAC Cup Squad resounding 54-point winners, Jaidyn Stephenson kicking 5 goals. The TAC Cup Girls team were narrow losers to a strong Cannons outfit in a great game. This week sees us take on the Oakleigh Chargers at IKON Park. We'll be looking to continue our Round 1 form, while Oakleigh will be seeking to turn their form around in what should be an entertaining Sunday morning game. The club would like to take this opportunity to welcome all of our sponsors on board for another year with the Ranges! Thank you to BAYSWATER JAYCO, ROWVILLE SECONDARY COLLEGE, KNOX CLUB, EVERPERFORM, MT. EVELYN/MONTRORSE/MOOROOLBARK BENDIGO BANK COMMUNITY* BRANCHES, BOUNCE HEALTH, MUSASHI, RED ONION, AKT TROPHIES, NORTH RINGWOOD FRUIT MARKET, BAKERS DELIGHT KILSYTH, KILSYTH CENTENARY POOL. ## GEELONG FALCONS

Last Saturday saw a successful day for the Club, with three wins from three games. Our Under-16 Boys and TAC Cup Girls sides started the day on the right note with strong wins at Bell Post Hill. The girls were again well led by captain Lucy McEvoy, with a solid game also from Olivia Purcell, whilst a great team performance from the Under-16 Boys gave rise to a positive start to their carnival. Across town at Simonds Stadium, the TAC Cup side had an 82-point win against Greater Western Victoria Rebels, with a run of 13 unanswered goals between the midpoint of the second term and the start of the last term setting up the game. Played in warm conditions, there was plenty of heat in the contest early, with the margin only four points at the first break. In a positive sign for the group moving forwards, the side was able to respond to the early challenge and come away with the win. David Handley was excellent up forward, with six goals capping a strong all-round performance, whilst Rick Read, Sam Walsh and Ned McHenry all had solid debut games for the Club. This Saturday 1 April, we are again at Simonds Stadium as we play host to the Dandenong Stingrays. Coming off a 16-point win over Gippsland, Dandenong promises to be another great challenge for our group. For all updates, please visit the Geelong Falcons Facebook page, our Instagram account (@geelongfalcons) or our twitter account (@geelongfalcons).

GIPPSLAND POWER

A huge crowd witnessed a cracking TAC Cup season opener between Gippsland and Dandenong in ideal weather on a tip-top surface at Morwell. Although Power didn't get the 4 points, the players endeavour throughout was excellent. In the wash-up it was Dandenong's ability to make better use of their opportunities that gave them the win. In the Under 16 Championships Rd.1 game, Gippsland Power got off to a good start with a 13 point win. They now take on the Murray Bushrangers in Rd.2 at Ikon Park this Saturday at 12.00noon. Our Under 18 Youth Girls battled really hard against the very strong Dandenong Stingray unit and will this week take on the Murray Bushrangers Girls at Ikon Park at 5.00pm.

MURRAY BUSHRANGERS

A blast of Melbourne summer saw a tight contest for our TAC Cup team against the Bendigo Pioneers at Punt Road Oval. It wasn't until late in the last quarter when the Bushies finally broke away from a determined Pioneers team. Most pleasingly for the Bushrangers was the debut of twelve players. The under 16 match also mirrored the evenness of the later game with Bendigo Pioneers drawing away from the Bushies to win by four goals. This week all three teams play at Princes Park against Gippsland Power in what promises to be another great display of quality football. The MBFC TAC Cup Girls team has recorded two strong wins and will be looking for their third win on Saturday. The coaching staff led by Sam Ahmet have done a wonderful job in bringing together a committed group of players from a vast geographic region. The amazing support from our players families has reflected the girls development as a team and the MBFC is grateful to everyone involved. We would like to introduce our quality medical team for 2017. Martin Hogan heads the physiotherapy team supported by Mick Bowler, Brenton Kiel, Aaron Plant and Chris Oats. Supporting this team are our trainee physiotherapists in Emily Ryan and Tekarie Albert. The Sports Trainers are a group of committed and experienced people with Mal Robinson attempting to control Rob Ryan, Ebony Sullivan, Cam Eason and trainee Grace McIntyre. Fiona Pyke is our head trainer for the girls team. Dr Paul O'Dwyer and Dr Sean Warfe are once again our match day Doctors. The club is extremely fortunate to have such a professional and quality group supporting the players in all grades. The Murray Bushrangers Football Club would like to take this opportunity to thank our 2017 Sponsors. The ongoing support of - YARRAWONGA MULWALA GOLF CLUB RESORT, AFL SPORTSREADY, DYSONS, DUNSTANS CONSTRUCTION GROUP, RELIANCE PARTNERS, SEYMOUR McDONALDS, BYRNE REMOVALISTS AND STORAGE AND THALES is greatly appreciated. Please support these local businesses when the opportunity presents. Good luck to all teams this weekend.

SANDRINGHAM DRAGONS

Congratulations to our TAC Girls team who recorded their first win of the season, defeating Oakleigh 3.7.25 to 1.3.9. Congratulations to Chairis Ulu-Peniata who received the Best On Ground award from the coaches, while Molly Denahy Maloney received the coaches award for her manic pressure in the forward line. The TAC Boys made it two from two over Oakleigh for the weekend, in hot conditions we were able to run out 55 point winners. Congratulations to Quintin Montanaro who took out the Sportsmart Best Player award while the Captain Hayden McLean took out the Fin-fite$$ coaches award. A reminder that if any players are still yet to purchase a mouthguard to contact Sheli at Melbourne Smiles Denture Clinic – info@melbournesmilesdentureclinic.com.au

GWV REBELS

Super Sunday of TAC CUP football this week at the Alfredton Oval in Ballarat. A big thank you to the Ballarat Swans and the City Of Ballarat for the outstanding presentation/condition and the use of the facility whilst the new exciting Eureka Stadium is under construction. It won't be long until Eureka Stadium is completed which will see AFL Home & Away Games being played of out Ballarat for the 1st time. Exciting times for the City Of Ballarat and all across Western Victoria. Today we welcome our Country neighbours in the Bendigo Pioneers. Our games are always tough encounters and this week will be similar across our 3 grades of teams. Unfortunately not the way we would have liked to start the season last week with our TAC CUP Girls, U16 Boys Squad and TAC CUP Boys teams all going down to the strong Geelong Falcons programs. All teams will have to regroup and put last week's efforts behind them as we strive to improve this week. After today's TAC CUP Girls Game our girls will be partaking in our TAC Reach Leadership Program. This program held by the Reach Foundation will give our girls great insights into Leadership as well prepare them for future life decisions. Thanks to the TAC for arranging these important Personal Development Programs across the competition. Don't forget to put in your schedules SUNDAY 14th May for our annual Ronald McDonald Charity Day and Sponsors/Parents Day. This is a great day for the Rebels community and one we look forward to every year. Have you seen the latest edition of REBELS TV?? If not jump onto our website www.therebels.com.au and view our popular weekly TV show with all the latest news and player interviews. The program is uploaded to our website every Wednesday night at 6pm. Go Rebels.

OAKLEIGH CHARGERS

The group will be looking to bounce back this weekend after a dismal first up effort against the Sandringham Dragons outfit. The group were outclassed by a well drilled unit, and have been busy this week reviewing the match, and learning from our errors. Training has been solid this week with the group keen to make amends versus the Ranges today. Congratulations to the following players who made their Charger debut in Round 1: Oliver Smart, Ed Richards, Matthew Bennett, Nathan White, Matthew Day, Charlie Whitehead, Ben Rekiec, James Rowbottom and Jake Sticca. A big thank to our 2017 sponsors, our major partner, Bendigo Bank Murrumbene, Camp Australia, Camberwell Toyota, Mulgrave Country Club and Concept Logistics.

WESTERN JETS

The Western Jets take on our neighbours the Calder Cannons this weekend at RAMS Arena in Craigieburn. The two clubs compete for the McDonalds Cup, McDonalds are wonderful supporters of both clubs and this match marks the fourth occasion that the two sides compete for the Cup. Currently the Cannons hold the Cup but it is 2-1 the Jets way overall. It has been a big week for both Calder and Western with the two regions playing off in the TAC Cup Girls on Wednesday night also at RAMS Arena. Calder and Western will also field a combined side to take on Tasmania today in the TAC Girls competition. It is great exposure for the girls playing in a double header today following the boys and also the chance to take on a state team; we hope you enjoy the opportunity. Please remember to check our website (westernjets.afvic.com.au), Facebook page (Western Jets FC), Twitter page (@WesternJetsFC) and Instagram (@westernjetsfc) for up to date vision, information and scores.

Quiz

Test your knowledge of former TAC Cup captains in this week's AFL Victoria Record quiz.

1. Dyson Heppell (Essendon), Robert Murphy (Western Bulldogs), Scott Pendlebury (Collingwood) and Jarryd Roughead (Hawthorn) are all AFL captains that played for the Gippsland Power, but who was the only one to also skipper the TAC Cup team?
2. Which pair of brothers – one a current Melbourne AFL player – were Sandringham Dragons captains in 2014 and 2016 respectively?
3. Which two Geelong AFL triple-premiership players captained the Geelong Falcons?
4. Which current AFL captain and no.1 AFL Draft pick captained the Oakleigh Chargers in 2005?
5. Which second-year St Kilda player was the Northern Knights' first indigenous captain in 2015?
6. Which former GVV Rebels captain and ex-Essendon AFL player has recently been named as Essendon's VFL skipper?
7. Which current Adelaide AFL key defender had the rare distinction of captaining the Western Jets for two years in both 2008 and 2009?
8. Which hulking no.1 AFL Draft pick captained the Eastern Ranges in 2011?
9. Which Oakleigh Chargers premiership coach captained the Dandenong Stingrays in 2002?
10. Who is the current long-time Williamstown VFL captain that also skippered the Calder Cannons in 2004?

Answers: 1. Dyson Heppell / 2. Angus (2014) and Hamish (2016) Brayshaw / 3. Cameron Ling (in 1998) and Jimmy Bartel (in 2001) / 4. Marc Murphy (now Carlton captain) / 5. Jade Gresham / 6. Nick O'Brien / 7. Kyle Hartigan / 8. Jonathon Patton (now at GWS) / 9. Michael Steiner (Oakleigh premiership coach in 2014 and 2015) / 10. Ben Jolley

Zero is the only acceptable number

Towards Zero is a vision for a future free of deaths and serious injuries on our roads.

It acknowledges that as humans, we make mistakes. But when those mistakes happen on our roads we come off second best, because our bodies aren't designed to absorb forces from impacts at high speeds. They never have been and never will be.

That's why we need to ensure we have a safe road system in place. Road safety has come a long way and together we are building a system that protects us from our own mistakes and those of others. A system that will change road safety for good.
