Weekly Wrap

With Div 5 taking the chocolates after their opposition defaulted, the Saints reinforced their Div 2 and 4 line-ups in what was the umpire-appreciation round. In a hard-fought battle Div 4 couldn't pull back the first-quarter deficit mounted by North Shore, meaning it was up to Div 2 to ensure that the Saints song bellowed out of Pioneers Park on what was a fine Saturday for footy.

Strong performances by midfielders, Mick Garstin and Mark Dragicevic, instigated what was a reassuring victory for the team, who have had a steep learning curve after being promoted to Division 2 this season.

Bus to Norwest this Saturday – Div 5

Please book your seat on the bus with Coach Karl – 0419 166 684.

$10 per head; will be departing Pioneers Park at 9:45am sharp.

This is a great initiative by the club and an ideal team-building opportunity for the team on the ride home.

Players not available to play this week

As mentioned last week, our three teams are widely spread this weekend and all players who are unavailable are expected to assist with game day team help.

The Fine Master will be keen to top up the end of year trip away funds with the hard earned cash of any no-shows.

Inferno Grill Sainthood of the Week

Trystan “Johnny” Holmes

Johnny, as he’s known around the club was Round 6’s Sainthood recipient for his display of selflessness and service.

Johnny made his way all the way out to Blacktown to run water for the Div 2 team in barefeet. He has also put his hand up to drive the team bus for Div 5 for Saturday’s game out at Norwest.

Finally, he has also offered a bunch of much sought-after SCG corporate box tickets to the Sydney Swans vs. Carlton Blues match on Friday 29th May.

Other winners of the Inferno Sainthood will be given first priority to go to the game.
