CITATION

2017 TAB/CANTERBURY SPORTS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP FOR JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT

JACK LOPAS

Jack is 18 years old and is an exceptional rowing talent.

In the 2016 he won the single sculls and double sculls at the Maadi Cup, the National School Championships.

He was selected for the New Zealand Junior double sculls at the World Junior Championships and partnered by Lenny Jenkins, won the World title.

Jack was awarded the Cheltenham Cup for school rowing excellence and has been awarded a High Performance scholarship to Lincoln University for 2017.

He has also been selected in the Southern Rowing Performance Centre, Rowing New Zealand's development squad for 2017

TAB and Canterbury Sports Foundation are proud to assist this very promising young rower.
