Handy advice for first home buyers

Buying a home is an important decision and purchasing your first home, even more so. It can be a tricky and somewhat daunting process which is why it is essential to do your homework, have a plan and budget, and seek expert advice before jumping in.

Here are some quick tips to help avoid some of the common traps when taking your first step onto the property ladder:

- Be clear on what you can afford to spend to avoid looking at properties that are out of your price range.
- Work of the best home loan for you and check the ongoing repayments taking into consideration interest rate increases over time.
- Get pre-approval for your loan so you know exactly what properties you can afford to be looking at.
- Understand all your costs such as stamp duty, pest and building inspections, insurance and legal fees.

KICKIN' IT WITH KRISTEN

DEDICATED ROUND A CHANCE TO SAY THANK YOU TO ALL UMPIRES

By KRISTEN ALEBAKIS

This weekend the AFL community will pay respect to those who some may say have the most critiqued job in the sport, the umpires.

Over the course of the weekend the AFL along with local footy leagues across the country, including the WRFL, will celebrate the work of all umpires as part of the AFL Community Umpiring Round.

This dedicated round is a chance for the wider community to say thank you to the umpires for the job they do week-in, week-out.

The devoted round aims to educate the footy world about the demands of umpires and the responsibilities they have on game day.

Umpires are often be easy targets for those in the outer. If they make a bad decision or someone from across the fence doesn't agree with what they have called, then they are usually the first person in the line of fire.

However, without umpires we wouldn't have a game, so when you go out to play over the weekend or if you are watching a game make sure you take a minute and remember the critical role they play.

Community Umpiring Round is also about encouraging male and females of all ages to become umpires.

If you are interested in becoming an umpire contact Mark Westgarth via email, his address is mwestgarth@mackillop.vic.edu.au

See you at the footy.

UMPIRES CORNER

POSITIONING IS KEY FOR UMPIRES

By GRAEME HODGART

The ball was kicked from half forward near the boundary line towards the forward pocket and one player ran and then dived to collect the low ball.

A whistle blew and the mark was awarded. Eventually the player kicked accurately for goal, but not before the crowd on that side of the ground greeted the umpire's decision to pay the mark with loud calls of derision and abuse. The crowd had a perfect view of the ball hitting the ground a split second before the player grabbed it. On the other hand, the umpire was on the opposite side and could not see the ball making contact with the turf before the mark was completed.

Usually it is the opposite throughout the course of a game. The umpires are mostly in the best position, and often closer, than the those in the crowd. Also, there are the various ways in which certain individuals interpret the rules. Even so, the umpires' coaches try to have everyone on the same page. Experience and positioning can also be major factors that influence umpires' decisions.

Next time that you find yourself disagreeing with an umpire's decision just take a moment to think about the circumstances surrounding the incident. Try to view it from the umpire's position and remember, most importantly, the umpire is completely neutral whereas some of the critical supporters in the crowd tend to be a little one eyed.

Last week the AFL umpires visited Hanmer Reserve and took the training session. Two field, two boundary and two goal umpires came along and were in charge of the WRFL umpires' training. It was a great opportunity for local umpires to interact, rub shoulders and have a conversation with those who have progressed to the highest level of umpiring.

Quiz

A player juggles a mark near the boundary line and both the field umpire and the boundary umpire blow their whistles simultaneously. What happens next?

- (a) The field umpire pays the mark.
- (b) The two umpires confer to establish whether the mark was completed before the ball crossed the boundary line.
- (c) The boundary umpire tosses the ball back into play.

The correct answer was (b).

NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH RAWFORM COMPRESSION

THE Western Region Football League is pleased to announce a new partnership with RAWFORM Seamless Compression for the 2017 season.

During training, game day and recovery, players will feel the benefits of RAWFORM Seamless Compression, with overall exceptional support and pressure focused on hips, thighs, groin and rear with improved endurance and recovery.

WRFL Marketing Consultant Peter Harley said he is excited by the partnership which will allow players to purchase compression shorts direct through RAWFORM at a competitive price.

“We think this particular arrangement will work well with this type of garment as it enables individual players and, in the case of juniors, their parents, to order compression shorts online, at a competitive price and have them delivered directly to the players’ home,” he said.

RAWFORM General Manager Simon Hosking said RAWFORM shorts were reliable compression shorts.

“The shorts are the realisation of sports performance apparel we wished existed in the market,” he said.

“We just wanted compression shorts that did what they said they were going to do. Our sales pitch is simply just get people to try the shorts. We’ve tested the shorts from AFL to grassroots level and the feedback is always that they are the best compression shorts they have worn.”

The deal includes discounted products to WRFL players, their families and friends.

“We are passionate about local football, developing future AFL stars and looking after seasoned player’s bodies” Hosking said.
