Community Umpiring Round

This weekend we celebrate Community Umpiring Round in our three state-league competitions and across Victoria in local football.

On the weekend when we recognise the role umpires play in our great game, we will see the senior debut of the first VFL-listed female field umpire - Annie Mirabile - as she officiates the Collingwood versus Northern Blues clash at Victoria Park. She follows in the footsteps of AFL-listed umpire Eleni Glouftsis who made her VFL senior debut in 2015 and is now a regular feature in senior games in our competition. Best of luck to Annie in her debut game.

While we regularly promote the growth in female football participation across the state, we have also seen major growth in our female umpiring numbers.

In 2014 there were only two female umpires in the AFL Victoria state league squad, and this has now grown to 13 in a relatively short period of time. A lot of credit has to go to the local umpire groups for giving these girls an opportunity and to our own staff who run a number of umpiring programs, including the very successful Female Umpire Academy of which Annie was a member.

Our competitions continue to develop the next generation of AFL umpires, with another four – field umpire Hayden Gavine, boundary umpire Ben Macdonald, and goal umpires Matt Maclure and Dylan Benwell - living out their childhood dreams of umpiring at the elite level in 2017 as part of the AFL National Umpiring Panel. Best of luck to these umpires in the next step in their journey.

Finally, VFL football returns to Frankston Oval this weekend, with the clash between Essendon and Port Melbourne at the peninsula venue. Frankston will be hosting two VFL games this year - the Round 4 clash and Round 13 Werribee versus Richmond clash – as well as a number of TAC Cup games and local football matches. The club has signed over 400 members and continues to work with AFL Victoria on its licence application for possible re-entry into the competition in 2018.

Mirabile is quick to clarify that she is only first on a technicality, with Eleni Glouftsis – an AFL rookie-listed umpire as part of a Female Pathway scholarship – making her VFL senior debut in June 2015.

"I don't think too much about that, I just see myself as one of the other umpires," Mirabile said. "Doing my senior debut, I don't think too much about the female side of things."

Despite her modesty, it is the next major step in the umpire pathway for the 23-year-old former Southern Football Netball League senior field umpire.

Mirabile – one of 13 female umpires on the AFL Victoria umpiring squad for 2017 – started her umpiring career nine years ago "to keep fit and earn a bit of pocket money" after being introduced to the profession through an AFL Victoria basic umpiring course at her school. Her quick journey through the ranks saw her umpire two SFNL Division 1 Grand Finals across five years in the competition, before being selected to join the AFL Victoria state league development squad.

Earlier this year, Mirabile was bestowed the honour of the first ball-up in the inaugural NAB AFL Women's game between Collingwood and Carlton at a packed Ikon Park. Coincidentally, her VFL senior debut will involve the same teams, as she officiates in the Round 4 VFL clash between Collingwood and the Northern Blues at Victoria Park.

Mirabile is looking forward to the challenge of her first senior match, with her hard work in the pre-season now paying off.

"I am a fair bit fitter this year than I was last year; I think that has helped to not be fatigued when making decisions," Mirabile said. "It makes a big difference and has got me to where I am now.

"It was a big change coming from local football into state-league football, especially the expectations of where you need to be with your fitness, which I knew was something I would need to improve.

"I guess I did not realise (last year) how much I needed to improve, and while I had a good year, I still wasn't quite where I needed to be fitness wise.

"Having a year on the squad allowed me time to see where everyone was at and the level I needed to be at, providing me a benchmark. I then had a better idea of how hard I had to work over summer."

AFL Victoria Head Coach – Umpiring Cameron Nash said it is great reward for effort for Mirabile.

"Annie's is a story of hard work to reach this point," Nash said. "She deserves this and has worked hard to earn it.

"Annie has had a fantastic pre-season and has taken her fitness to another level, also umpiring in the AFLW competition.

"Annie has come through the pathway from umpiring Grand Finals at local level to joining our Development Squad in 2016, last year umpiring in the TAC Cup and VFL Development League before being appointed as the emergency field umpire for the TAC Cup Grand Final.

"She really epitomises the opportunities provided by the AFL Victoria umpiring pathway."

The indigenous West Preston product is zoned to Carlton's Next Generation Academy (NGA) and was invited to attend the Blues' training camp on the Gold Coast in December.

Penrith impressed as a 179cm defender for the Knights in 2016, averaging 13 disposals and four tackles per game in 17 TAC Cup matches. He also won the club's Best Defensive Player Award before being included in its leadership group for 2017.

Penrith's speed and ability to run and carry the ball from the back line has caught the eye already this season – he was instrumental in Northern's victories over the Eastern Ranges in Round 3 (17 disposals, 13 tackles and a goal) and the Bendigo Pioneers in Round 5 (22 disposals and seven rebound-50s).

Carlton, however, would probably prefer he stayed under the radar. The NGA rules give AFL clubs the ability to automatically sign their nominated Academy players as Category B rookies if they slip through the NAB AFL and Rookie drafts.

Last year, Eastern Ranges forward Tristan Tweedie was added to the Western Bulldogs' rookie list when Hawthorn elected not to exercise its right to sign him under the rules, while Essendon signed its NGA nomination Ben McNiece – a recent AFL debutant in the ANZAC Day game against Collingwood – from its Peter Jackson VFL team.

"During the off-season I trained with Carlton for a couple of weeks and then I went to the Gold Coast with them on their pre-season camp," Penrith said. "It was hot and pretty tiring – long days waking up at 6am and then by the time you get into bed at 8pm, you're straight asleep.

"It was an eye-opener and good exposure, because I've got to prepare myself for if I hopefully make it (to the AFL). I was with the first-year Blues players and they had to manage their load a bit so they didn't do full sessions, but the intensity was right up. As soon as I got home, I just slept!

"It made me think it's important to know what to expect, but then also that I could actually live that lifestyle."

Among Penrith's goals for 2017 is to be part of a Northern team that improves on its 12th placing (4-14 record) from last year – and with a 3-2 record after five rounds, the Knights are already over halfway there.

But on an individual level, Northern Talent Manager Rhy Gieschen suggested earlier this year that Penrith is likely to be watched by plenty of AFL recruiters.

"Ethan had a really good season last year predominantly as a rebounding, running small backman," Gieschen said. "He possesses an elite sidestep and burst from the contest, and really good run-and-carry ability. He's an exciting type of player and will definitely catch the eye throughout the course of the year."

That's probably not exactly what the Blues would want to hear.

SANFL premiership defender Michael Chippendale might be just what Collingwood's Peter Jackson VFL team needs following an inglorious exit from the 2016 finals.

The Magpies succumbed to a rampaging Footscray outfit to the tune of 119 points in a preliminary final, conceding 27.19 (181) to the eventual premier.

24-year-old Chippendale played 70 senior SANFL games for Norwood from 2012-16 – including the Reglegs' 2012 flag victory – primarily as a 190cm intercepting backman.

Having relocated from Adelaide to Melbourne over the off-season, Chippendale will add extra height to a defence that couldn't weather the Bulldogs' 73 inside-50 entries in September.

"I would describe myself as a pretty strong one-onone defender that reads the play quite well, and I hope to get a few intercept marks throughout the game that can benefit my side," Chippendale said earlier this year.

"Reading the game is one of my biggest strengths. Especially with how the game's played these days, intercept marks are highly valued. I think that's what made me attractive to Collingwood."

Chippendale was playing as a forward in 2012 before then-coach of Norwood Nathan Bassett saw him perform well in a match in defence upon return from injury. He was called into the Reglegs' senior line-up mid-season and wasn't budged for the remainder of the premiership campaign.

Chippendale said good personal form on the field in 2016 made the decision to follow his girlfriend – who had moved across the border earlier in the year for work opportunities – "a little bit harder".

But the promise of AFL-standard facilities and access to some of football's best human resources were too much of a drawcard for someone still holding out hope of making the elite level.

"As much as you want to be playing with good footballers, you want to be playing with good people and be surrounded by good people," Chippendale said. "That helped with the decision (to choose Collingwood), as well the club's facilities.

"I've been at Norwood – including juniors – for years. It's a special place to me and I didn't necessarily want to go searching for a place that would recreate the experience I had there."

Chippendale graduated with a Masters of Teaching midway through last year, but can see a potential teacher for himself in new Collingwood VFL senior coach Jared Rivers.

32-year-old Rivers only retired from a 13-year, 194-game AFL career at the end of 2015 and has quickly graduated from a development coaching role with the Magpies in 2016. He made his AFL living as a reliable one-on-one defender capable of thwarting and repelling opposition attacks – not unlike the role Chippendale has fulfilled in two VFL games so far in 2017.

"Michael plays a third tall defender role," Rivers said. "He's going to help us down back and is a natural footballer who reads the ball really well."

While Collingwood's frailties were laid bare by Footscray last September, the combined defensive pedigree of Rivers and Chippendale should go some way to addressing the problem.

State team chaches

Casey Demons senior coach Justin Plapp will lead the Peter Jackson VFL coaching panel for the upcoming state game against the WAFL at North Port Oval on Saturday May 27.

Plapp led Casey to the 2016 VFL Grand Final and will now follow in the footsteps of the likes of VFL premiership coaches Andy Collins (Williamstown), Gary Ayres (Port Melbourne) and Gerard FitzGerald (North Ballarat) as state coach.

Plapp is in his third year as a senior VFL coach after leading the TAC Cup's Sandringham Dragons from 2012-14 and will be joined on the state coaching panel by former Dragons assistant and now Demons midfield coach Danny Ryan.

The other members of the panel are North Ballarat midfield coach Nick Daffy, Werribee back line coach Ben Patrick and Box Hill Hawks back line coach Ricky Petterd. Former Casey champion and co-host of Channel 7's VFL coverage Nigel Carmody will act as chairman of selectors.

The initial state squad was released this week, featuring players that have performed well in the opening rounds of the VFL season and are available to play in the state game. Visit vfl.com.au to see the squad.

Stats Central

Borough's new ball game

Port Melbourne has completely transformed the way it plays and has reaped the rewards with an undefeated start to 2017.

The Borough was defeated in an elimination final by Sandringham last year after being one of the Peter Jackson VFL's top teams for doing the hard stuff.

But senior coach Gary Ayres has this year looked to rectify his team's scoring difficulties by creating more opportunities for his players to use the ball in space, thus providing a dynamic forward line with plenty of chances to impact the scoreboard.

Port Melbourne was easily the lowest-scoring side to make the 2016 finals, averaging 77 points per game during the H&A season. While only three rounds into 2017, that number has jumped to 94 points per game.

Key forward Jordan Lisle led the Borough's goalkicking with 21 majors in 13 matches last year but already has nine in three games this year. Veteran Chris Cain looks rejuvenated with six goals, Blake Pearson has snagged four and recruited Williamstown forward Dylan Conway has contributed five.

The addition of Conway and former Richmond and North Melbourne forward Robin Nahas was part of Ayres' plan to boost Port Melbourne's scoring, but the addition of ex-AFL midfielders such as Eli Templeton (from St Kilda), Brodie Murdoch (St Kilda) and Dillon Viojo-Rainbow (Carlton) has been equally important. All have the ability to find space and run with the ball before disposing of it with skill going forward.

They're part of the reason why the Borough is averaging 36 more uncontested marks (from VFL no.8 in 2016 to no.1 in 2017) and 53 more uncontested possessions (no.8 to no.2) than last year, leading to easier scoring opportunities in wins against the Northern Blues, Geelong and Richmond.

And while Port Melbourne may have dropped from third in the competition for contested possessions per game in 2016 to 11th this year and from third to 13th for clearances per game, that doesn't means the likes of Tom O'Sullivan and Toby Pinwill aren't doing their thing at the coalface.

It just means they're surrounded by a more versatile midfield – which is even keeping big bodies like Matt Arnot and Shane Valenti in the Development League.

2017's king of hitouts (so far) has been dethroned. Williamstown big man Nick Meese had recorded 67 and 64 hitouts to dominate that statistical table in Rounds 1 and 2 respectively, but 206cm Werribee giant Braydon Preuss pipped Meese with 49 hitouts to 45 in Round 3.

Geelong beat the Casey Demons at their own game – in the contests – in its 36-point victory.

The Cats won 14 more contested possessions (led by Sam McLachlan with 13) and 10 more clearances (led by Jordan Cunico with six), while Ben Moloney laid a match-high 12 tackles.

The Box Hill Hawks defeated Williamstown by 28 points despite conceding more contested possessions, clearances and inside-50s. The difference was the ability of Hawks such as Dallas Willsmore (19 uncontested possessions), Harry Morrison (18) and captain David Mirra (17) to control the ball in space.

The 2017 Swisse Wellness VFL Women's season begins this weekend, featuring 10 teams across a 14-round season.

VFL Women's

The teams have revealed lists of 40 for the upcoming season, with the Box Hill Hawks and Geelong taking over the licenses of Knox and North Geelong in the competition.

110 NAB AFL Women's players have been listed for the 2017 VFL Women's season, with a host of players returning to their home clubs and a number of interstate recruits choosing to stay in Victoria between AFLW seasons.

The opening round will feature 2016's top four VFL Women's teams going head to head, with the Grand Final rematch between Darebin and Melbourne Uni a highlight.

In a major change for the 2017 season, the Grand Final will be played at Etihad Stadium on September 24 as part of a triple-header with the Peter Jackson VFL and TAC Cup competitions. The change of Grand Final date has led to some minor fixture changes, with the original Round 3 fixture moving to the end of the season on August 26/27, the weekend of May 20/21 now being a fixtured bye, and the 2017 VFL Women's finals to begin on September 9/10.

There will be four new coaches in 2017. Sein Clearihan will take over from Kris Smith at Cranbourne and Scott Gowans from Tanya Hetherington at Diamond Creek. New clubs Box Hill and Geelong will be coached by former Peter Jackson VFL coaches, Patrick Hill and Paul Hood respectively.

See below the Round 1 fixture and details for all the 2017 Swisse Wellness VFL Women's clubs:

TAC Cup Round 5 Review

The Geelong Falcons are the last remaining undefeated team in the TAC Cup following Round 5.

'The ladder-leaders notched their fifth victory in a hard-fought clash with the Oakleigh Chargers (4th, 3-2) at Warrawee Park. The Chargers led by six points at quarter time, but the Falcons built a nine-point advantage by the main break and then accelerated away with five goals to two in the second half to prevail by 31 points.

'Geelong half forward Mitch Chafer was a standout in the win with 24 disposals and one goal, Harry Benson was tough in the clinches with 20 disposals, 10 tackles and seven clearances, and Gryan Miers moved to the top of the TAC Cup goalkicking table with three majors (15 for the year).

'The Murray Bushrangers (4-1) moved past the Sandringham Dragons into second spot on the ladder following a 62-point defeat of the Western Jets (9th, 2-3) at Norm Minns Oval.

'The Jets were within 15 points at half time before the Bushrangers exploded with nine goals to two in the third quarter. 196cm key forward Daniel Johnston kicked three of his six majors in the term and also racked up 21 disposals, five marks and seven clearances for the match.

'Third-placed Sandringham, meanwhile, suffered its first loss of 2017, going down by 69 points to the Gippsland Power (7th, 2-3) at Trevor Barker Oval.

'Gippsland kept the Dragons at arm's length for three quarters – going into the final term with a 20-point lead – before booting eight unanswered goals to close out the game. Will Stephenson kicked two of them (four for the match), while NAB AFL Academy midfielder Aidan Quigley starred with 24 disposals, 13 tackles and a major for the victors.

'A late go-ahead goal to Jack Petruccelle sealed a thrilling triumph for the Northern Knights (5th, 3-2) over the Bendigo Pioneers (11th, 1-4) at Queen Elizabeth Oval.

'Bendigo's inefficiency in front of goal proved telling, the Pioneers losing by three points despite having seven more scoring shots. Northern's defence held up well though, with backmen Mitchell Andrews (32 disposals, 12 marks and 11 rebound-50s) and Ethan Penrith (22 disposals, seven marks and seven rebound-50s) among the best players for the Knights.

'The sixth-placed Dandenong Stingrays also recorded their third win for the year, consigning the Calder Cannons to a fifth straight defeat to the tune of 38 points at Shepley Oval.

'Five unanswered goals in the first quarter – three of them to Riley D'Arcy – proved match-defining for the Stingrays, with the defensive work of 19-year-old Mason De Wit (24 disposals, seven marks and six rebound-50s) influential as well.

'Also in Round 5, the GWV Rebels (8th, 2-3) produced a big second half to down the Eastern Ranges (10th, 1-4) by 53 points at Box Hill City Oval.

'Leading by just one point at the main break, the Rebels reeled off 10 goals to two in the second half with Jordan Johnston (six goals) and captain Callan Wellings (four) instrumental in front of goal.

GWV Rebels captain Callan Wellings led by example in his team's 53-point defeat of the Eastern Ranges, the Trentham product enjoying a monster statistical game of 22 disposals (19 kicks), 13 contested possessions, 10 tackles, seven inside-50s, six clearances, four goals and three score assists.

The Northern Knights conceded 19 more inside-50s to the Bendigo Pioneers but still managed to prevail by three points thanks to a stout defence. South Morang junior Mitch Andrews was the round's leading rebounder with 11 rebound-50s for the Knights, to go with his 32 disposals and 12 marks.

The Dandenong Stingrays'
38-point victory over the Calder
Cannons was built on stoppage wins, with a +10 clearance advantage stemming from dominating the hitout count by 40. Bailey Williams (24 hitouts), Tom De Koning (18), Angus Paterson (14) and Tom Hogan (11) all contributed in this regard.

Stats Central

Gippsland's power football

The Gippsland Power is carrying momentum generated late last year into the 2017 TAC Cup season.

They may have only won two games this year, but the Power served the Sandringham Dragons their first loss in comprehensive fashion in Round 5 and have only been defeated by 16, 24 and five points in Rounds 1, 2 and 4 respectively.

This follows a 2016 season in which Gippsland missed the finals but finished with wins in four of its last five matches.

Many of the club's bottom-agers from last year played plenty of football together and it seems the benefits are being seen now. Against the Dragons and in Round 3 when the Power beat the Bendigo Pioneers by 26 points, several of those now top-agers drove their teammates to victory.

Gippsland recorded fewer disposals and marks than their opponent in both wins, but its effort to win the crucial contests that decide games of football has shone through.

The Power managed only 265 disposals against Sandringham but won 140 contested possessions (12 more than the Dragons) and laid 104 tackles (15 more).

NAB AFL Academy midfielder Aidan Quigley led the way with team-highs of 24 disposals, 12 contested possessions and 13 tackles, while he also won five clearances and kicked a goal. 169cm hard-nut Will Stephenson booted four majors to go with 21 disposals, 11 contested possessions and eight tackles, while Callum Porter and Matt McGannon were also among Gippsland's best at the coalface.

All appeared at least eight times as bottom-agers in 2016 along with the likes of Nick Hogan, who starred with 32 disposals, 16 contested possessions and nine clearances against Bendigo.

Power head coach Leigh Brown could see his young players had gelled through 2016 when he spoke of them earlier this year.

"We had a good group of bottom-agers last year who all came through together and we hope they can lead the way this year," Brown said. "The boys will take a lot of confidence out of finishing last year well and we've seen in previous years that can hold the next season's group in really good stead."

Marchbank's star rises

Former Murray Bushrangers and now Carlton defender Caleb Marchbank is the NAB AFL Rising Star award nominee for Round 6.

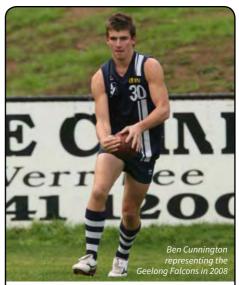

A Benalla junior, 193cm Marchbank had 21 disposals (16 kicks) at 81 per cent efficiency, 10 marks, four inside-50s and three rebound-50s in the Blues' 19-point victory over Sydney at the MCG on Saturday.

He has played all six matches for Carlton in 2017 – averaging 16 disposals and seven marks per game as a tall intercepting backman – having been traded from GWS after the 2016 season.

Marchbank was originally selected by the Giants with pick no.6 in the 2014 NAB AFL Draft and played seven AFL games in two years at the club.

In his junior career, he earned All Australian honours after representing Vic Country at the NAB AFL U18 Championships.

Today was a tough day.

The news of needing to go through another knee reconstruction all over again is exhausting in so may ways for me and my loved ones. Coming to terms with what has happened will not be easy and quite painful for a while. Sometimes the only way to start again is to accept defeat no matter how difficult that may be.

My priority will not be returning to play football but will be what is best for me and my body in the long run. I pride myself on my resilience and I know I will be ok and overcome this one way or another.

School football returns in 2017

Victorian students will welcome back another exciting year of Australian Football, following the launch of the 2017 AFL Victoria Schools Program on Wednesday.

Over 100 students and coaches from schools across the state gathered at IKON Park to open a new season of football with the help of a handful of AFL stars.

Carlton Football Club AFL Women's marquee player Darcy Vescio and North Melbourne Football Operations Manager Laura Kane were on hand to share their knowledge about their journey in the sport, while Carlton AFL Women's captain Lauren Arnell took the group on a tour of the IKON Park facilities.

AFL Victoria's School Football Programs play a significant part in the total participation opportunities offered in Victoria with more than 80,000 students engaged during 2016 alone, while more than 2,000 Woolworths AFL School Ambassadors continue to work closely with students to encourage them to take up opportunities and play Australia's indigenous game.

Catering for students of all ages, AFL Victoria School Programs include initiatives such as Umpire Academies, AFL 9s in School, Access All Abilities clinics and a specially designed curriculum to engage students from a multicultural background.

With an increase in the number of female football participants lacing up the boots in 2016, this season is expected to be another huge year of football, with the return of the Herald Sun Shield.

Hundreds of schools from across Victoria will take part in the much loved competition, which has grown to involve eight School Sport Associations competing in each of the boys and girls divisions.

Geelong's St Joseph's College will be seeking its second consecutive Herald Sun Shield title this season after a one-point win over St Patrick's College last year, while Ballarat Grammar will be looking to defend its crown in the Division One Girls Shield.

In addition, the launch also welcomed the introduction of the latest school football competition in the AFL Victoria SuperKick.

Designed to get students learning the basics of football, AFL Victoria's SuperKick invites secondary schools to conduct a longest kicking competition for students during Terms 2 and 3.

Open to secondary students of all ages, the top five male and top five female kicks in the State will be invited to attend the State Final of the AFL Victoria SuperKick to be held at the VFL Grand Final on September 24.

Club Notes

BOX HILL HAWKS

Round 3 saw the Hawks travel to Burbank Oval to take on Williamstown. It was a hard-fought contest for most of the day with several lead changes. It wasn't until mid-way through the second half that we managed to skip away with the game, as an 8 goal to 1 second half secured a 28-point victory as we go 3-0 to start 2017. Captain David Mirra was yet again instrumental in the win, whilst Jack Fitzpatrick & Will Hams continued their recent run of strong form. The development team started the day off strongly with a 6 goal to 3 first quarter, before a fast finishing Williamstown took control of the game to close out 18 point winners. Whilst the result didn't go our way, it was great to see recent TAC cup graduates Harrison Burt & Tom Maloney both hit the scoreboard with 2 goals each, whilst Joe Fisher was our best player on the day. It has been an exciting build up for the club this week as our inaugural VFL Women's team play their first game today against Geelong. After a solid pre-season, the club is looking forward to seeing the girls run out in the brown and gold for the first time! The Box Hill Hawks encourage all Hawks supporters to get behind the girls as they embark on their journey in 2017. Make sure you follow all the play by play action today at our double header against Geelong live on our

Following today's game, the Western Bulldogs will play the Richmond Tigers at Etihad Stadium from 7:25pm. Come support the Bulldogs next Saturday 13 May at North Port Oval as we take on Port Melbourne, at 2:10pm. Footscray Bulldogs' next home game will take place on Saturday 20 May, against Geelong at Victoria University Whitten Oval. First bounce to occur at 2:10pm. COLLINGWOOD

Last week saw a much improved effort from the VFL Magpies who unfortunately didn't get reward for effort in front of goal kicking 12.21 in the 20 point loss to Sandringham. Congratulations to Kye Beveridge who made his VFL debut and certainly showed he is more than capable of performing at a high standard at VFL level. Today marks a special day in the Club's history with the 125th year anniversary. We welcome everyone to our home ground Victoria Park for our first home game of the year. You'll notice plenty happening around the ground celebrating this momentous occasion so please enjoy the day. Celebrating 125 years, 125 Champions and 125 stories. NORTH BALLARAT

Once again, despite a good start on Friday night at Whitten Oval, the boys were unable to sustain their starting pace and intensity, fading to a 100 point plus loss. It is a disappointing result but time to turn the page and focus on the next week and a new game. This week versus Sandringham is also going to be a hard game with Sandringham well positioned with 2 wins under their belt. We have had a hard run with injuries at the start of the season so hopefully some of these boys will be returning in the next couple of weeks to help out our younger players. Next week we host our first home game for the season V Williamstown at Eureka and though our new grandstands are not yet ready, it will be a great game for the players to experience surrounded by the new construction. Good luck to all competing today and Go Roosters.

PORT MELBOURNE

It was another successful day for the Borough back at North Port

Oval last Saturday, as we overcame Richmond and Werribee to maintain our undefeated record in both the Seniors and Development League, respectively. In addition, we were delighted to officially announce that we had achieved the remarkable milestone of 1.000 members for season 2017! The wave of publicity and support that the club has received in recent times has been nothing short of overwhelming and this achievement solidifies all the goals we are kicking at the moment - both on and off the field! Today, we'll experience the rare and unique situation of both sides being split at different venues as our Development side play Sandringham at Trevor Barker Oval and our Seniors travel to Frankston to take on Essendon. It'll be particularly exciting to play a game at Frankston Park and show our support for both the Dolphins and the wonderful people of the wider Frankston community. Bookings for next week's President's Luncheon before the Footscray game will close this coming Wednesday. Be sure to make your reservation via the club's office. Best of luck to both sides once again today - go Borough!

WERRIBEE

Welcome to Avalon Airport Oval @ Hogans Road Reserve, Hoppers

Crossing. Thanks to everyone at the Hoppers Crossing Football Club for their help and support in putting on our games today. We are committed to having good relationships with all local clubs in the City of Wyndham, and that is why today is very important. We will be presenting a cheque today in the pre-game lunch to Werribee Mercy Hospital. This is the result of Nathan Laracy (our longest-serving player) shaving his beard off to raise funds for the critical care unit. Nathan said goodbye to his growth thanks to $10,000 in donations. Today is our Welcome to Wyndham Day, showcasing many of the great things about our city, which Mayor Henry Barlow will speak about at our pre-game function. For all the latest news, go to werribeefc.com.au or follow us on Facebook or Twitter. Go Tigers.

NORTHERN BLUES

Round 4 sees the Northern Blues up against Collingwood

at Victoria Park. Coming off our biggest win in two years against Coburg last week, the Northern Blues will be looking to notch up a third victory in a row against a rival side. The Development side has a bye this week and will be looking to come back strong after the break. Our next President's luncheon will be held on May 14th in the Grandstand Function Centre at Preston City Oval from 12pm to 2pm, tickets are $50pp. For any additional content on upcoming functions please refer to our events page via northernbluesfc.com.au.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Today we host fellow VFL standalone club Coburg at Burbank Oval, as we look to get back onto the winner's list and put on a show for our loyal supporters. Today is also our Past Players & Officials day from 1pm upstairs in the Seaview Williamstown Events Centre, so if you have had a previous connection with the club, please come upstairs to reunite and reminisce with fellow players and officials of the past. If you are yet to join as a member in 2017, head to williamstownfc.com.au or to our membership stall at today's game to get yourself sorted for what will no doubt be an exciting year ahead for the club! Still need to deck yourself out in blue and gold gear for this season? Stop by our merchandise stall on the Morris St side of the ground today to check out our great range! Our next President's Luncheon will be on Sunday May 21 where we host Richmond. Tickets are $60 and can be booked by calling the club on 9391 0309. Our Supporters Bus will also be running to Ballarat for our Round 5 clash with North Ballarat next Saturday, please call the club on 9391 0309 during the week for more information or to book. return back to RAMS Arena to play the Murray Bushrangers at 2pm. The Calder boys will be ready for redemption this week in search of the first win for the season. The Cannons would like to thank the 56 player sponsors from our recently finished U16 Barry Davis Squad and U18 TAC Cup Girls Squad. GEELONG FALCONS

Week 5 of the TAC Cup season saw us travel to Warrawee Park to play the Oakleigh Chargers. In what was a tough battle for most of the day, we were able to come away with a 31-point win. Whilst missing players through school football and injuries, Oakleigh provided a strong challenge all day, and played well to their structures. As our coach, Danny O'Keefe, told krockfootball.com.au following the match, "they had some good structures around the ball and they hurt us badly in the first half on the outside. We changed a couple of things at the main break and, like the last four weeks, our second half was really good." Mitch Chafer was outstanding for us in his role at half-forward, whilst Harry Benson and Cassidy Parish were strong again in the engine-room. Ethan Floyd and Matt Ling also provided great run off half-back, along with bottom-ager Cooper Cartledge deep in defence. Gryan Miers kicked three goals as a small forward, whilst Cassidy Parish and Adam Garner chipped in with two goals each. During the last week, Sam Walsh was also announced as the recipient of the 2017 Cameron Ling Medal for the NAB AFL Academy Level 1. This is a prestigious award to win, and we congratulate Sam for this significant achievement. This Saturday 6 May, we are again on the road, this time to Burbank Oval to take on the Western Jets. For all updates, please visit the Geelong Falcons Facebook page, our Instagram account (@geelongfalcons) or our twitter account (@ geelongfalcons).

EASTERN RANGES

The Ranges host the Gippsland Power in a home game in Healesville today, where the team will be looking to secure an elusive second win of the season. The club would like to welcome new sponsor, M8 Finance, on board for the season! GWV REBELS

Well done to the team last week against the Eastern Ranges. It was a great reward for effort. This week we again hit the road down to the big smoke to tackle the Oakleigh Chargers who are in good form. Our games against the Chargers are always tough games and we would expect another big contested game this week. From our last club notes we have seen the Rebels / Cannons Annual ANZAC Cup return to the Rebels trophy cabinet for another 12 months. Last week we farewell a great Staff member from our program, our Development Coach / Runner Peter Rizzoli has decided to give up the pink runners gear for the remainder of the year to spend more time with his family. Thanks Pete for your hard work over the past year. The annual GWV Rebels Sponsors / Parents /Charity Day has been postponed until Round 13 16th July V Chargers game. This change has been made due to Eureka Stadium still being under construction presently and difficult to hold this successful day. A more formal invite will be made available over the coming weeks. A reminder to our Parent group to please bring a plate of Food to our game next week (V Jets @ Eureka Stadium) for our After Match Function. A great way for our families / Staff and Players to mix socially with each other as well as our opposition. Go Rebels.

GIPPSLAND POWER

Gippsland Power is coming off their best performance of the year with a big win over the Sandringham

Dragons, where the boys capped off a great team effort with an eight goal last quarter. Hopefully we can take that momentum into our rd. 6 clash against the Eastern Ranges in Healesville, which will be our 5th away game in a row, before coming back to Morwell. We would like to thank our sponsors for their continued support; ENGIE, Gippsland Motor Group, Warragul Linen Service, Morwell RSL, Office National Warragul and Traralgon, Manny's Market, South East Podiatry, Medico and Patties Pies. Please check our website (gippslandpower@aflvic.com.au) for information throughout the season, Facebook page (Gippsland Power Football Club), Instagram (@gippslandpowerfc) and Twitter page (@Gippsland_Power) for photos, results and score updates.

SANDRINGHAM DRAGONS

Round 5 saw us suffer our first defeat for the year, going down to Gippsland by 69 points. After a tight 3 quarters, Gippsland were able to run away in the last quarter to kick 8 unanswered goals. Congratulations to James Mangoni who took out the Sportsmart Coaches Award while Quintin Montanaro was an obvious choice for the Fin-Fitne$$ Best on Ground award. We are pleased to announce we have also just launched our new website, go to http://sandringhamdragons.com.au to check it out. A huge thanks to Media Officer Kavisha di Pietro who's done a great job supplying it with content! A reminder that if any players are still yet to purchase a mouthguard to contact Sheli at Melbourne Smiles Denture Clinic – info@ melbournesmilesdentureclinic.com.au

NORTHERN KNIGHTS

Today the Northern Knights take on the Dandenong Stingrays at Preston City Oval.

Today is a great opportunity to build on last weeks win down at Queen Elizabeth Oval against the Bendigo Pioneers. We look forward to a great contest between the two teams. Congratulations to our four debutants who played their first game for the club on Sunday. Lincoln Zhang, Curtis Taplin, Oliver Wilson and Joel Randell, they played a great role in the clubs win last week. We would also like to congratulate our first ever Northern Knights Girls Best and Fairest winner Maddy Guerin who had an outstanding season for our girls team that went 4-1 in their first season. We are also proud to announce that five of our U16 boys have been named in the initial U/16 Vic Metro squad, Adam Carafa Xavier Naish, Lucas Perry, Lachlan Potter and Charlie Simonsen. The Knights would like to thank Technika, a leading producer of high quality kitchen & laundry appliances, for their 6th year as Major Sponsor of the Club. We thank them for their generous ongoing support of the talent pathway in the Northern Metropolitan Region.

WESTERN JETS

The Western Jets return to our home ground at Burbank Oval this weekend and welcome the Geelong Falcons. The Jets will be looking to get back on the winners list after last week's loss to Murray but it will be a tough task as we go up against the undefeated Falcons. Each year the Western Jets have wonderful support from our player sponsors of the TAC Cup Squad. Thank-you to the following sponsors for their support in 2017: Silvercomm (Jake Hazik), Waterlife Aquarium (Lucas Andrew), Closter Property Group (Matthew Young), Grant Smith & Tony Walshe (Lachlan Fogarty), Railway Hotel (Jacob Smith), D&D Radiator Service (Nick Stuhldreier), Pennisi Real Estate (Toby Kopa), Dominion Freight Logistics (Stefan Radovanovic), DG Group Australia (Hamish Murphy), Jim's Self Storage (Jack Noonan), Northwest Lift Truck Services (Ben Smokrovic), Simon Dundon (Judah Dundon), Innovative Electrical Services (Mitchell Hearne), Boccaccio Supa IGA (David Fruscalzo & Matthew Volkanovski), Fort Building Solutions (Brock McGregor & Deng Maguang), Biggie Smalls Collingwood (Mal Maguang), Nobody Denim (Jack Papachatzakis) and Integrators Australia (Bailey Siwek). Quiz

Test your knowledge of former Peter Jackson VFL and TAC Cup players who have debuted in the AFL so far this year in this week's AFL Victoria Record quiz.

- 1. Which two members of Footscray's 2016 VFL premiership team have made their AFL debuts this year?
- 2. Which 2016 TAC Cup draftee is the only one to have earned an AFL Rising Star nomination in 2017?
- 3. Which two former VFL players both made their debuts for Sydney in Round 2?
- 4. Who is the only player to have debuted this year from the TAC Cup team that produced the most draftees in 2016, the Murray Bushrangers?

Zero is the only acceptable number

Towards Zero is a vision for a future free of deaths and serious injuries on our roads.

It acknowledges that as humans, we make mistakes.

But when those mistakes happen on our roads we come off second best, because our bodies aren't designed to absorb forces from impacts at high speeds.

They never have been and never will be.

That's why we need to ensure we have a safe road system in place. Road safety has come a long way and together we are building a system that protects us from our own mistakes and those of others.

A system that will change road safety for good.
