PRIDE AND INCLUSION DAY

CHARLES BEATON

We are all very excited about the upcoming Pride game. Hamilton Kangaroos FNC are teaming up with VFL Women's clubs Melbourne University WFC and Darebin Falcons to support inclusion and equality. Hamilton Kangaroos FNC senior team are wearing specially designed rainbow jumpers for the clash against South Warrnambool. Melbourne University and Darebin will play the first VFL Women's match at Melville Oval, in what is a re-match of last year's Grand Final. With up to 40 AFLW representatives between them, MUWFC and Darebin will both also wear specially designed rainbow jumpers to support this initiative

The Rainbow jumpers are being worn to promote inclusion and equality in sport and life. By wearing the "Gay That's OK" rainbow jumpers, all four Clubs are coming together to support equality and inclusion. We believe that everyone should be treated the same, regardless of sexuality and gender. Football clubs have a big role to play in promoting inclusion and equality and providing positive role models for the LGBTI community. All football clubs stand together as inclusive clubs. No matter your sexuality or gender these clubs are safe places for the LGBTI community.

THE VFL WOMENS GAME

This is the rematch of the 2016 VFL Grand Final, with the two teams arguably the best two womens teams in Australia. While Melbourne University (16) have more AFLW players on their lists than the 14 AFLW players registered to the Falcons, it's the quality of the reigning premier's list that sets it apart.

Darebin have four 2017 AFLW marquee players on their list — Demons Daisy Pearce and Mel Hickey, Bulldog Katie Brennan and Carlton's Darcy Vescio.

On top of this, the Falcons have three priority selections in Karen Paxman (Melbourne), Lauren Arnell (Carlton) and Jess Dal Pos (GWS Giants), while Elise O'Dea (Melbourne) was a top-10 draft pick. The stars for Darebin include Nicole Callinan, Meg McDonald, Brooke Patterson, Lauren Pearce and Aasta O'Connor.

Melbourne University's list features Western Bulldogs marquee player Ellie Blackburn, priority picks (and Hamilton's very own) Emma Kearney (Western Bulldogs), Kaitlyn Ashmore (Brisbane Lions) and Louise Stephenson (GWS Giants) — plus top-10 draft picks Nicola Stevens (Collingwood) and Deanna Berry (Melbourne). Other AFLW stars for Melbourne University include Madeline Keryk, Brooke Lochland, Bailey Hunt, Alexandra Saundry, Alicia Eva, Gabriella Pound, Cecilia McIntosh, Kate Shierlaw, Catherine Phillips and Lauren Spark.

PLAYER PROFILE: OUR VERY OWN EMMA KEARNEY

- VFL Women's Football

Nickname - Kearney, Kearnz

Occupation - Teacher

Three words to describe yourself - Dead set legend

Past clubs you have played for - St. Mary's PS

What is your greatest Football achievement?

Playing for the Western Bulldogs

Do you have a ritual/routine before game day?

Don't have any, just like to keep relaxed before a game

Who is the team joker and why? Ellie Blackburn would probably rate herself as the funny one, but she'd be the only one to think that. Gab Pound is a rare unit so probably her.

Who in the AFL best represents your style of play and why?

Jack Steven because he has great hair and is explosive from stoppages

If you were stranded on an island, what 3 things would you take?

Food, warm blanket and probably more food

Any advice for very own Kangaroo rising stars?

Keep doing things you love. Control the things that you can control and always work hard away from the group where no one else is watching. That'll make the biggest difference to your skills and fitness.
