HILL TOP SOCCER CLUB APRIL EDITION 2018

www.hilltopkookaburras.sportingpulse.net

Welcome to the first edition of the Kookaburra Squawk newsletter for season 2018, and trust all players recovered well after a very hot opening round of games on 7th April. Our club proudly has a team representing the club in every age/grade category in the current season (one of only 2 clubs to do so, along with Moss Vale) with a total of 148 players taking the field in 2018. In this edition of the squawk we pay tribute to the 'magnificent eleven' new kit/jersey sponsors who have come onboard in 2018, as well as find out a bit more about Under 7's player Ned McMahon in our first player profile for the year. Members can put a 'name to the face' for our fourteen 2018 coaches, as well as doing the same for our six primary HTSC committee members, who do their best in making sure the club runs like a well oiled machine on most days! Go Kookaburras !!!

HILL TOP HARRY CATCHES UP WITH THE PRESIDENT

Hey Harry have you been living under a rock? Why are you still wearing last season's jersey? Put that back in the shed and get yourself into one of these bad boys quick smart!

"Sorry Mick, my bad! I've been wearing this jersey ever since last years presentation night. Time for both a shower and an upgrade!"

DEFIBRILLATOR ON-HAND AT ALL HTSC GAMES

Hill Top Soccer Club will have a defibrillator ready to go at all home games played at Boronia Park in 2018, thanks largely to the generosity of Harry Packer, Managing Director of Schiller Australia Pty Ltd, who kindly donated a machine to be stationed in the HTSC club canteen. The FRED PA-1 defibrillator is one of the most modern defibrillators in the market, and will be available for use by a select group of club officials who have been trained in the use of a defibrillator. Whilst HTSC hopes it never has to use the defibrillator, club members can take comfort in the fact the FRED PA-1 will be available should it be needed

A new look for Hill Top Soccer Club

READY FOR 2018: Club president and first grade captain Michael Murray is joined by David Napper (under 15s) Ned McMahon (Under 6s) and Ally Gardner (Under 10s).

The 2018 HSA season will see Hill Top Soccer Club wearing a new jersey and playing strip thanks to its sponsors. Club Secretary, Craig Napper, was full of praise for 11 sponsors.

"Anyone involved in grassroots sport knows how challenging it can be attracting sponsorship dollars in the current climate."

Jersey sponsors include Highscape Fencing, Empire Cinemas Bowral, Ray White Mittagong, Horizon Coatings, The Box Concrete Company, NuEra Homes, The Kinder Garden Hill Top, Coates Hire, Century 21 Mittagong, Banjans IT and AirX Teamwear.

The jerseys will see their first on-field action when the HSA competition kicks off on April 7.
