Collings goes back to back

Jack Collings was the proud winner of the Keith Beavis Trophy for the second year in a row. Seen here with Life Member and Club Patron Graham Walters at the Mayne Tigers Awards Presentation last night.

Club Captain Jack Collings retained his Mayne Tigers Club Champion status last night taking out the Keith Beavis Trophy for Best and Fairest for the second successive year in reward for another stellar season. Collings was justly proud of his achievement leading the Tigers into a finals series with an unprecedented number of young debutants in his team and will go down as one of the few Tigers in the club's 94 year history to win two Best and Fairest awards.

The Runner Up to Collings was Triple Premiership backman Dean Hartley who polled just five votes less finishing on 175 capping off another terrific season for the Tigers adding to his impressive record at the club.

Jack Collings also took out the Mick Nolan Player's Player Award judged by his peers to be the best player for the 2018 season in the senior team.

It was a very big night of awards for the Mayne Tigers where six milestone awards were given out along with

New Life Members

Luke Ferguson, Corey Massingham, Luke Faulkner, Caleb Brown and Tom Ditchburn received their Life Membership last night.

The Mayne Tigers recognised seven individuals last night at the Annual Awards Night held at the Victoria Park Golf Course.

Caleb Brown, Corey Massingham, Luke Faulkner, Luke Ferguson and Tom Ditchburn were there to receive their awards while Guy Gardner and Ian Hawke were out of town but were all very thrilled to be recognised by the club they have served for so many years.

Luke Ferguson stole the show last night with his moving speech in response to this award giving credit to his older brother Mitch and his very supportive parents as wonderful role models. He also credited the club and the many individuals involved as playing a dominant role in his personal development.

Ian Hawke has been recognised for his life long support of the Mayne Tigers and Queensland Football.

The following records provide an insight into why these individuals have been worthy recipients of Life Membership.
