
ROUND 6 PREVIEW

All teams are back on field after the Interleague break. Moe went into the break on top of the ladder with four wins and one loss which they suffered in round five to Bairnsdale. The Lions have been the pick of the sides early in the season but now come into a tough stretch of games against Sale, Maffra and Leongatha coming up. Round six has the Lions at home against Sale who are sitting second on the table also with four wins and a sole loss against Maffra in round three. The top of the table clash is vital for both teams with Maffra and Leongatha waiting for them in round 7, to go into those matches at five wins and one loss is a prize well worth playing for. Bernie Vince was missing last week however could return this week for the home clash that would give the Lions a huge boost. Sale have the midfield to go with Moe with the likes of Martin, Dessent, Hams and Allison although the last two are under an injury cloud after missing Interleague due to injury. Moe have a great record against Sale at home although Sale have won two of the last three games and narrowly losing the other by only two points. Moe will go in as slight favourites but it is a tough match to call, fitting of a top of the table clash.

The Red Legs knocked off the top of the table Lions in round five and they went into the bye with two wins and three losses. They haven't been far away in the matches they have lost which is shown by their percentage still sitting above 100. Traralgon managed to get their first win over Wonthaggi at home in round five. The Maroons still sit in ninth position and must continue to put wins on the board. They have winnable matches against Warragul and Morwell coming up but can't afford to slip to one win and five losses.

They have dominated Bairnsdale over the past five years with the Red Legs sole win coming against Traralgon at home by a point in 2017. 2019 is a completely different scenario for both sides and Bairnsdale will be looking to get their record squared up for the season. Russell Cowan was best on field at Interleague last week and goes into the match in top form. Brayden McCarrey and Keenan Hynes have also been a shining lights for Bairnsdale in the first part of the season. For Traralgon Mark Collison is struggling with injury leaving the midfield vulnerable. The Red Legs will be going into the match confident but must put in a good performance to topple the Maroons.

Maffra had two big wins over Wonthaggi last year and have won their last five against the Power. The two sides are getting closer together this year with the Power improving on field and making ground in 2019. The Eagles will still fancy themselves with a star-studded midfield all rested up after the Interleague break where none of their midfield featured. Aiden Lindsay represented the Power at Interleague and battled hard in the middle. The Power will look to him and Mitch Hayes to get their hands on the football. Maffra sit third on the table with the best percentage in the League while the Power sit eight on percentage despite sitting with two wins for the season. The Eagles should win but the Power have already knocked off the reigning premier this year so expect anything come Saturday afternoon.

Warragul and Morwell produced the two biggest surprises of the season in Round four where they defeated last years Grand Finalists respectively. The Tigers have been the more impressive of the sides this season and some of their younger players were rewarded with interleague debuts last week including Anthony Rosato and Kuyi Jiath. The Tigers lost both matches last year to Warragul but over the past five years the honours have been split at five a piece. Warragul still have a few stars running around but are lacking the depth to compete with the top sides consistently. Matt Rennie has been solid this year and Kim Drew has toiled hard in the games he has been available. The Tigers will like their chances despite being on the road. With a game plan that has troubled the top sides for large chunks of games, they will be hoping their pressure is too much against the last placed Gulls.

The final match of the round has two sides that both sit in the five at the break. Drouin produced the surprise of 2018 when they beat the Parrots at Leongatha. Leongatha had claimed all the other matches between the two since 2013 including their massive 36.14.230 to 2.6.18 result in 2017. Leongatha will be hoping to get their best midfielders back on the park soon with Marriott and Browne missing the first part of the 2019 season. Cameron Olden has been a breath of fresh air for the Parrots with the highly regarded junior among the Parrots best in their round 5 win. Drouin have been relying on their stars to get the job done but with Bailey Beck potentially missing with injury more of the workload will go onto Eddie Morris. Leongatha will go in expecting to win as will Drouin but the four points are crucial for the Parrots finals aspirations.

TRFM Gippsland League's senior interleague team has fallen to a disappointing defeat at yesterday's Worksafe Community Championships. The squad made the long trek to Cohuna to take on Central Murray Football League in a battle between 11th and 12th on the AFL Victoria rankings, but came home empty handed after coming up short 12.4 (76) to 11.19 (85). The Gippsland team started brightly with goals to Bairnsdale's Brayden McCarrey and Traralgon's Dylan Loprese giving the visitors an early lead. The home side gradually worked its way into the contest and briefly pinched the lead, before classy goals from Chris Dunne, either side of a clever snap from McCarrey ensured Gippsland went into the first break ahead. Buoyed by a late opening quarter goal, Central Murray seized the initiative in the second term and only some wayward goalkicking from those in blue and gold combined with two goals against run of play to Dunne and Dylan Farrell kept Gippsland in touch at the main change. Coach Steven Kidd called for patience and renewed pressure during his half-time talk but it was Central Murray that lifted their intensity in the third and three unanswered goals ballooned the margin beyond 30 points. Bairnsdale's Russell Cowan ducked and weaved his way past a trio of would-be tacklers and kicked a crucial goal to stem the tide and give his side a glimmer of hope heading into the final term.

Untidy disposal by hand and foot plagued Gippsland all game, particularly coming out of defence, but their forwards looked dangerous throughout and when the men in the red, white and blue jumpers finally found a way to get the ball into the attack, the likes of Dunne and McCarrey went to work. Central Murray continued to spurn chances and when they began to tire and their meticulous ball use – underlined by short, sharp kicks to pick their way through the Gippsland press – and relentless pressure slipped, Gippsland pounced. McCarrey kicked things off with his fourth of the game, before a goal to Cowan from the ensuing centre bounce slashed the lead to 20 points and when Dunne twice found space in behind the Central Murray defence, Gippsland was within eight points. However, it was too little, too late and the unlikely comeback fell short. Cowan was outstanding on the ball, racking up contested possessions, driving his side forward at every opportunity and contributing two goals and was deservedly awarded the AFL Victoria Medal as Gippsland's best player. Skipper Jordan Dessent battled gamely alongside Cowan at the stoppages and Ash Dugan proved a good outlet across half-forward. Deeper forwards McCarrey and Dunne made the most of their opportunities to finish with four goals each, while Matt Rennie was the pick of the defenders under a mountain of pressure, with his intercept marking a feature. Coach Kidd admitted his young side was outplayed. "They were winning the ball inside and getting it out into space and it took us a while to adapt with so many new guys in the team that hadn't played together," Kidd said.

"We finished the game off really well and came hard at the end but it just wasn't enough. "We really appreciate the guys putting their hands up [to play]. There was a lot of young guys in the team this year so they'll get a lot of experience out of playing at this level of footy.

"Moving forward they need to stay together and the more we have putting their hand up to play the more options we've got."

5 YEARS AGO ... 17TH MAY, 2014

Bairnsdale broke a 13 game losing sequence it had against Sale when they brought about Sale's first defeat of the 2014 season. Under lights at Bairnsdale's City Oval, the Redlegs trailed at the first three breaks by 8, 12 and then 3 points before kicking three goals to one in the final quarter to claim a seven point victory. Wes Russell starred for Bairnsdale, the goals being shared. Wonthaggi's third win in a row kept them in the top bracket, however they had to fight harder against Moe than many might have expected. Leading by 22 points at the half way mark, the Power looked in control, however the Lions hit back hard with six goals in the third quarter to trail by one straight kick at the final break. A torrid final term saw Wonthaggi kick 2.3 to 1.3 to take the points. Aiden Lindsay was a standout for Wonthaggi in the midfield in a great battle with Moe's James Blaser. The other three games were very one-sided, Leongatha and Morwell having huge wins over Drouin and Warragul. Maffra jumped Traralgon in a big way, kicking 11.2 to 3.1 in the opening term on their way to a 112 point win. Darren Sheen (8 goals) and Daniel Bedgood (7) led the Eagles to their biggest ever score against the Maroons.

10 YEARS AGO ... 23RD MAY, 2009

With Maffra and Leongatha being beaten, all teams now had had a win and a loss. Morwell jumped Maffra in the opening term with five goals to one, the Tigers going on to win by 32 points. Lachlan Dowling kicked eight goals for the Tigers and was named as their best. Drouin (6th) knocked off the ladder leaders in Leongatha mainly due to the third quarter in which the Hawks kicked seven goals to one after trailing narrowly at half time. Malcolm Dow was best for Drouin, while defender Paul Fawcett was best for the Parrots. Despite their loss, Maffra rose from second to first on the ladder due to percentage. Traralgon had a comprehensive win over Sale, inaccuracy (they were 9.16 at half time) costing them some valuable percentage. Tom McQualter (5 goals) led the scoring for the Maroons with Michael Geary their best. After trailing early, Moe fought their way to a narrow three quarter time lead against Warragul. The Gulls rallied in the final quarter with six goals to three, Tom Johnson and Nathan Lieshout (4 goals each) named as the Gulls best two. Garfield had the bye.

20 YEARS AGO ... 29TH MAY, 1999

Rain throughout the Gippsland region affected games in Round 6, 1999. Maffra was kept to just four goals by Traralgon, who maintained their unblemished record for the season. Simon Bennett was best for the Maroons with Paul McCulloch kicking four goals. Conditions were very slippery at Wonthaggi, to the extent that in the final quarter just one goal each was scored, the Blues getting home by eight points. The first quarter between Moe and Morwell was tight with two goals apiece, but the Lions won the remaining three quarters, with six goals in the last, to win by ten goals. Sale also had a big win, at Warragul's expense, the Magpies getting the jump on the Gulls and then powering away to win by 101 points.

Warragul sat alone on top of the ladder after a heart-stopping match against Morwell. The Tigers led at each of the first three breaks by 11, 5 and 9 points, which set things up for a big final term. The Gulls prevailed with five goals to Morwell's three, John Caddy kicking four goals for Warragul and Col Metcalf five for Morwell. Leongatha had a battle on its hands against Moe, but kicked away in the final term with six goals. Peter Lynch and Brendan Laube were named as best for Leongatha. Yallourn/Yallourn North beat Traralgon after a closely fought tussle. The Blues edged away to a three goal lead at half time and built upon it after the main break to run out 30 point winners. Duncan McEwan and Wayne MacInnes were best for the Blues, with Tom Beveridge standing out for Traralgon. Newborough gave Sale an early scare with five first quarter goals, but the Magpies snapped into action, kicking eight goals in each of the middle quarters. Richard Coulthard kicked seven of Sale's goals to be named as their best, while Steve Sutton's five goals earned him the honours for the Bulldogs. Maffra kicked eight goals to start their game against Bairnsdale, but the Redlegs had the lead by half time and went on to win by 19 points. Ray Christie kicked six goals for the Redlegs, who were best served by Murray Frew. Trevor Zeltner kicked five goals for Sale.

30 YEARS AGO ... 27TH MAY, 1989

Maffra unleashed a goal blitz on Morwell in the final term to overrun the Tigers in sensational fashion. Morwell led at three quarter time by 38 points and seemed to be heading for a big win, having kicked seven third quarter goals to set themselves up. Maffra, led by Anthony Gravener and Shane Allman's five goals, slammed on nine goals in twenty minutes to beat the shell-shocked Tigers by 13 points. Traralgon led Churchill by 42 points at half time, then put the game out of any possibility when they added a further 11 goals in the third quarter. Pat Gribble kicked 9 of Traralgon's 30 goals. Warragul trounced Moe, their first three terms producing 5, 9 and 8 goals, while Leongatha did it in similar fashion against Bairnsdale, Luke Alexander kicking 8 goals for the Parrots. Sale had the bye.

Notes: Moe begins a season defining period today when they are at home to Sale. Following today's match are games against Maffra and Leongatha – wins in these three weeks will confirm their status as a top side. The last 8 games between Moe and Sale have seen the home side the winner, although the Magpies have come mighty close on their last two visits to the Summerton Oval, losing by just nine and two points respectively. Returning from the interleague bye it will be interesting to see if certain injured players have been able to recuperate and take their places. This will be a game worthy of a final with intense pressure from start to finish.

P.McCulloch (1993)

Notes: Traralgon has been dominant in recent years in their matches against Bairnsdale. The Maroons have won 1 of the last 13 games that they have played against the Redlegs. Bairnsdale's only victory over Traralgon since late 2012 was a one point home ground win in 2017. Bairnsdale has been impressive at home this season with a strong win over Morwell and a huge confidence boosting win over the previously unbeaten Moe side. With a little luck they could easily be sitting on a 4-1 record at the top of the ladder. Traralgon finally broke the ice against Wonthaggi in their last outing and will be keen to get the ball rolling with another win today. This game will have a bit of everything and should be closely fought to the final siren.

Greatest winning margin: Wonthaggi 70 (2000, 2001 & 2011),
Maffra 147 (2002)

Most goals (match): Wonthaggi 7 D.McCarthy (1997),
D.Wheildon (1998)
Maffra 9 A.Burgiel (2010)

Notes: The journey to Wonthaggi hasn't been one of Maffra's favourite away trips. Although they had a good win there last year, the previous three trips saw the Eagles squeak in by under a goal on two occasions and lose by 21 points in 2016, with the Power winning the four home ground matches preceding these. Like Bairnsdale, Wonthaggi's home form this year has been far better than when they've played away. They had a good first up win over Warragul and then made everyone sit up and take notice when they beat Leongatha at Easter. Maffra will be made to work hard for every score this afternoon and, in a season where "upsets" are becoming the norm, expect the unexpected.

Most goals (match): Warragul 12 A.Singine (1976)
Morwell 13 D.Preston (1999)

Notes: Warragul won both matches they played against Morwell last year with margins of 60 and 22 points in their favour. It's the first time that the Gulls have beaten the Tigers in both home and away clashes in the one year since 2008. Morwell's young group has continued to impress. Although well beaten in their last game, against Leongatha, they showed true fighting Tiger spirit to reduce the margin after getting jumped by the Parrots. Warragul was also jumped early, trailing Maffra by 39 points to nil at quarter time; they also fought back late in the game. Both teams will be aware that their tardy starts are costing them dearly and this game is vitally important to the direction that they take in 2019.

Greatest winning margin: Drouin 62 (2010), Leongatha 212 (2017)
Most goals (match): Drouin 5 T.Kneebone (2010)
Leongatha 17 J.Fraser (1935)

Notes: The result that sent shockwaves through the competition was the last meeting of Drouin and Leongatha. The match, at Leongatha, looked set for a predictable end as the Parrots headed into the final quarter 13 points up, having just kept the Hawks scoreless through the third quarter. History tells us that Drouin got up in the final minutes to win by two points. Drouin has shown great improvement this year to be currently sitting in the top Five, and today presents them with the golden opportunity to cement that, for the time being at least. Leongatha's first quarters have been one of their strengths this year, setting themselves in the driver's seat. The key for the Hawks will be to restrict the Parrots early and then come home strong. TRFM Gippsland League fans will be keeping tabs closely on this game.

BAIRNSDALE

A welcome weekend off for most involved with The Redlegs see us refreshed and ready to welcome our visitors from Traralgon for Round 6. It's Pink Sports Day in support of Breast Cancer Awareness too, so let's all get behind it.

Things couldn't be going much better for the footballers at the moment, as they go into a home fixture buoyed by some excellent performances against Moe last time out. Performance of the round came from the Seniors who caused a major upset defeating previously unbeaten Moe to post notice of intent as the season takes shape.

With two single figure defeats in earlier rounds, it's fair to say we hadn't have full value from some promising team efforts, but this time the small margin went our way downing the visitors by 8 points to put the season firmly back on track, Keiran Vickery, Keenan Hynes, Tommy Brayn Callen McKeown and Eathan East figuring strongly with Brayden McCarry adding three majors to take him to 20 for the season.

A somewhat dour contest between the reserves cemented Redlegs near the top of the ladder thanks to a thrilling last ditch Nick George goal. Tim Daniel was solid along with Matt Corbett in his first outing for the season. The 18's were seldom troubled by the Lions as Best afield Blake Fulton and three goals from Harry Kellow inspired them to an 80-41 victory, whilst the 16's battled it out with their opponents. There was very little to choose between the two sides throughout, and so it proved in the end with an enthralling 54-54 draw the outcome.

Great to see that Moe stuck around for quite a while after the game in the social rooms, even after a loss. Good sportsmanship and respect. Always something to aim for.

In netball, Sally Deller was absent and Isla Pearson struggled with illness, so a big test for our A grade girls became even harder. Try as they might, Moe were way too strong. The swing against us in goals conceded this season has been worse than election support for the Labor party, and that needs addressing. Best on Mik O'Connor did her best to repel the invasion, but the girls will need to really focus on slowing down opposition transitions, and applying defensive pressure all over the court if they are to continue last season's progress.

Tyler Dykes and Vicky Stuckey were stand outs for B grade who worked hard but were well beaten, as were C Grade who were again inconsistent having put themselves into an unwinnable position before rallying to compete well in the second half. Rachel Brooker and Lauren Bills featured strongly for us.

17's continue to confuse, beaten heavily in a winnable game due to an error strewn performance. A bad day at the office with Charli Young the strongest performer.

Our youngest girls continue to show their older club mates how it should be done. 15's glided past Moe, with Ruby Timms and Abbey Bills prominent. They should have a finals berth very much in mind as they put the slow season start behind them, and the baby redlegs continue to delight, with Olivia Rees and Ally Healey shining in team effort that takes them to a 4-1 record so far.

Thanks to our major sponsor The Grand Terminus, for hosting us after the R5 game. This week as well as Pink Sports Day we have the Netball girls hosting a Mexican Night with some great raffle prizes. Hope to see you there as we continue to work towards making this one club on both sides of the white line.

GO REDLEGS !!!

Drouin Football Club Notes

We had a tough contest against second placed Sale last round playing at Sale. Like us the Magpies were looking to consolidate a spot in the top 5. Sale proved too strong in a good contest. The good news was the reserves had their first win of the season.

The seniors got off to a good start and straight kicking helped. The wind was difficult to read but we took a narrow lead into quarter time. Sale did a lot of the attacking in the second quarter but didn't kick well so they only lead by 2 points at the long break. The Magpies again had more scoring opportunities in the third quarter but our staright kicking kept us right in the contest. Sale held on to win by 24 points – we can learn a lot from this game. Best players in another good contest were: Barry Plant Award – Liam Anderson, Middel's Award- Clayton Kingi, Family Hotel Award – Chris Robinson, Kim's Kitchen Award – Eddie Morris and Drouin Hawks Award – David Olsen.

The reserves had a great tussle and ended up winning by 8 points. Like us Sale were looking for their first win and even though they had more scoring shots the work of our defence kept them under pressure. A Hawks surge in the third quarter gave us the lead and we held on to a good victory despite the Magpies fighting it out to the end. The boys sung the club song very loudly and enjoyed the taste of a win. Our experienced players lead by example once again. Best players were: Select Office Award – reliable Will Bryce, Warragul Bank Bar – Sam Rippon, Middel's Award – Will Collins, Drouin Gourmet Café – Owen Walsh and Family Hotel Award – Regan Hodge.

The under 16's faced fourth placed Sale in windy conditions. Our young Hawks were really positive from the outset and were right in the contest for the whole game. Our ball use was not as sharp as the previous week but our attack on the ball was excellent. We missed some easy shots that hurt us – Sale on the other hand were very effective up forward. This was another good contest but this one got away from us. Clearly our boys are very competitive and continue their improvement each week. We need to take it

This week's absence of critical leaders gave Butch the licence to shake the final team up and spread the cream of the crop throughout. While the Gulls won the week before in the slog of the heavy ground, we ran on top of the ground denying them their strength advantage. Roadrunners Tom Jolly, Kade Renooy, Daniel O'Brien, Hudson Holmes, the powerhouse Carr brothers, Danny Butcher and, in avenging last week's result, key forwards Andrew Petrou and Daniel Bedgood were paramount.

The resses found themselves three goals down against a confident opposition. Mitch Dignan broke our drought, sneaking a miskick over the outstretched hands of the pack. It was the first of five, his last a monster through at post height, well out of reach. Former player Andrew McKenzie emerged and with brother Brent made the best of being the final line of defenders with multiple possessions. Jesse Ross and Tim Bourke must be imagining a spot in the ones with their desperation.

Our thirds were battling for ladder position with the Gulls and with just cause. The quality of the match was high with our goal to goal players influential. Warragal ran deep, leaving their key forward and Max Van der Zwart to many individual contests. Max was terrific, his team work with CHB Harry Conway exciting. Key tall Floyd Fulton and ball carriers Max Gravener, Declan Scriven and Mitch Harrigan leave us grateful to local clubs for their nurturing of their talents.

Trent's fourths were unable to match their undefeated opponents, they still had a crack and look forward to the rest of the year. Core players Cohen Wade, Ethan Aurisch, Harry Gravener, Jonti Schuback, Lachie Allman and Brodie Johnson were again in the frame for awards.

Over on the courts, after our juniors got away to a belter, our seniors couldn't back up and had a shocker of a run.

After keeping up for the first half of the game, our A graders fell apart in the last half of their match to lose 30-47 – a credit to the Gulls' impenetrable defence. Our best on went to skipper Emma Allman, for applying defensive pressure down the court.

In B grade, we were a bit closer, but still suffered at the hands of the Gulls – 37-42, despite the best efforts of experienced Eagle Meg Cromb – filling in, it was great to have Meg back to teach her young team a thing or two about defence. Joining her on the awards list was Abbie Ross.

In C grade, we shortened the gap to two goals but were still on the wrong side of the scoreboard. A surprising result from our previously undefeated C grade side, but the loss highlighted the importance of attending training each week. Powerhouse shooter Rachael Edey and defender Ella Schacht were in the best.

Much happier results in the juniors – our under 17s managed a 37-32 win, and Abbie Ross managed her second best-on-court for the day, joined by Jana Hennig. Our 15s had an absolute screamer – a testament to their hardwork, they beat the Gulls 41-12. Best-ons went to Phoebe Regan and Bec Bourke. In the under 13s, we had another whopping percentage booster, 38-13, and it was Bridie who got the job done.

A quick save the date for everyone - MFNC Ball will be on June 22.

LEONGATHA

The game at Morwell was a cold wet blustery affair. This was in complete contrast to the weekend we just had off. I trust everyone enjoyed the sunshine and made the most of it before we head into what is that tough stretch of footy through the winter months.

The netballers certainly found the going pretty tough against Morwell. A split of the matches saw 3 games going to each club. The 13's, 15's and B's all got the chocolates with the 17's, C's and A's all on the wrong side of the ledger. The competition is certainly strong across all grades this year. If you don't come prepared for stiff competition you will likely find yourself on the losing end of most games.

The footballers had a better time of it this week, taking a clean sweep of the matches played on the day. It was great to see the U18 boys open their account, hopefully the confidence they get from the win will springboard their season. The seniors put together a super first quarter and then struggled for much of the game. Consistency will be the message this week.

The Gippsland League Interleague football team head to Cohuna last week to take on the Central Murray League. The club was extremely proud to have Shaun Westaway, Josh Hopkins and Chris Dunne represent us with such professionalism. You are a credit to yourselves, your families and your club. Great effort lads.

MOE

Last Saturday fortnight eventuated with a few interesting happenings on the trip to the Far East. Unfortunately, it turned out to be a pretty dour affair, as no Moe football teams were able to sing their song.

Controversy ranged across a number of games and Jumbo was mistaken for a local and got roped into restocking the Bairnsdale bar.

Football

Seniors

Suffered their first loss for the year, going down in a close finish by eight points. In front of a parochial home crowd, Bairnsdale controlled the early stages of the match before Moe responded with a strong second quarter. Ultimately the game could have gone either way but on this day it was the Redleg's who came out on top. Looking like a very even and unforgiving competition this season. Best players for Moe were Dylan Farrell who was immense, Jordan Ceppi coming off limited sleep, Scott Van Dyk, Jacob Wood, James Blaser and Jay Murphy.

Reserves

A 19 man Moe Reserves almost pulled through on debut at Bairnsdale, going down by three points in a fiery contest. Some errant kicking by the home side and some strong efforts around the contest by the Lions ensured the match was close throughout. Whilst the result was a hard pill to swallow Moe will take some confidence moving forward. Best players were Peter Yates, whose torp is still in orbit from Thursday training, Ben Morrow, Hockey Dad Matt Pearce, Jayden Van Dyk, Richie Horton who was joined by a fellow knee-brace wearer inside 50, and the truck Chris McIntosh.

Under 18s

Were up against it from the start, but held it together for the first half before, inevitably, players started to get worn down. With a team of only 15 Moe played out the match as best they could. The side will be aided by a foolproof plan up their sleeve for the rest of the season: win enough games to sneak into finals and then hope another team doesn't make it so they can load up. Best players were Jack Walton, Lachlan Rock, born again forward Ben Van Dyk, Matt Heywood, Jess McGrath and Brock Plunkett. Huge thanks to Bairnsdale for helping us out on the day by sending over a few players.

Under 16s

All we'll say is YouTube Usman-Khawaja-2013-Ashes- decision to get an idea of what happened. In a remarkably even match in which scores were level at quarter time and three quarter time, the game ended in a confusing draw. Both teams had chances to ice the game, but decided to do an impersonation of the Gold Coast Suns against Melbourne instead. Best players were Jack Edebohs, Bailey Humprey, Luke Summersgill, Ryan Griggs and Tajh Eden.

To be drawn after the last home and away game.

Girls had a great win by 41 goals. Played really fluently and defensive pressure was terrific. Best players were Georgia Moody, Shannon Freeman and Charliz Bird.

B Grade

Won easily to take second spot on the ladder. An even competition is shaping with three teams all on four wins. Best players were Danielle Davies and Ash Travers.

C Grade

Made it back-to-back wins with a 33 to 49 victory. The side sits in fourth position on the ladder, equal with Morwell on fifth and a game clear of Leongatha in sixth. Best players were Taylah Summersgill and Elise Demszuk.

Juniors (from Jodi Galea)

Under 17s

Had a great game with good defense and intercepts by all that consistently converted into goals. The team is working well and with some tough matches coming up it will be interesting to see how they go in the next few weeks. Best on court was Lily Campbell.

Under 15s

Had a very hard game which will give the girls something to work on in the next two weeks. They fought hard all game but unfortunately couldn't convert intercepts into goals. The break has come at a good time and it will give the team a chance to regroup. Best players were Lacey Pedersen and Olivia Rock.

Under 13s

Had a tough game in which the opposition were too good after an early start to the day. Moe came back in the second half with some great position changes. Best on court was Molly Young.

MORWELL

Round 5 was our Pink Breast Cancer round and saw us tackle Leongatha at home. It was a great day off the field with everyone digging deep in support of a great cause, however on the field were only came away with 3 wins of the 10 games contested in netball and football. A big thankyou to Leongatha for supporting the day.

Football

Our seniors took a strong Leongatha outfit and played very well after a slow start. Unfortunately they couldn't come away with the win going down by 4 goals. Congratulations to Colby Kennedy on his debut in the senior side. The Reserves and Thirds were well undermanned and Leongatha won both encounters. The fourths was a good tight contest but Leongatha prevailed by 11 points.

Best Players in all grades were - (Seniors) – Zach Anderson, Tank Rosato and Isaac Abas. (Reserves) – Nick Wilson, Mitch Marino & Eli Lappin. (Thirds) – Nixon Hall, Jaysen Sharman & Callum Hutchison. (Fourth) - Tristian Waak, Rhys Luxford & Sam Treasure.

Netball

Netball last week saw 3 wins to Leongatha and 3 to our tiger girls. Our U13, U15 and 'B' Grade team were beaten by talented Parrots teams and our U17 group and the Senior 'A' and 'C' Grade teams came away with some great wins.

Round 5 Netball Best: - 'A' Grade – Tanya Budge & Courtney Garth B Grade – Bella Rosato & Caitlin Mareska C Grade – Joanna Watson & Kadia Lardner. U17 – Charlie Leslie & Rahni Styles. U15 – Miki Couling & Emma Darling. U13 – Amelie Owlter & Lucy Riddle.

Congratulations to our A grade player/coach Rachel Tattersson who will be playing in her 250th senior game for the club this weekend. Well done Rachel on all your achievement for the club so far and all the best in the game today.

Upcoming events

Our next function will be Junefest on Sunday the 10th of June. It is coming up fast so be sure to look out for tickets sales details coming up on the Facebook page in the coming week.

Today we are excited to travel to Warragul FNC and we are looking forward to some strongly contested games both on the court and the field - Go Tigers!

TRARALGON

Round 5 saw Wonthaggi visit the "Rec Reserve" on a day that we had our unbeaten A Grade netballers and the Club in general, celebrate Caitlan Ponton's 200th Senior game; and our Senior Footballers give Tim his first victory as coach.

On the courts, our u/13 and u/15 girls were both sitting mid-ladder, so the strong victories by both (37-15 and 34-19) respectively were well needed heading into Round 6 against teams in a similar position. Our u/17's just missed again by 4 points (27-31) but are improving by the week. Our senior ladies have only dropped 2 games between them all season and they continued on their winning ways with A Grade (64-25), B Grade (61-31) and C Grade (46-35) all getting the job done comfortably. Awards went to Lucy Trill, Asha Nightingale, Charlie Hamilton (u/13), Amity Blair, Montana Styles, Allyssa Tangi (u/15), Lauryn King-Church, Isabella Bettridge, Milan Maaka (u/17), Molly Clavarino, Loren Ponton, Annie Little (C Grade), Nicole Jennings, Bree Guttridge, Alyce Murphy (B Grade), and Ramayer Gourley, Caitlan Ponton, Kate French (A Grade).

The u/16's started the day off well on the football side of things with Troy's team playing their most complete game for the season. In blustery conditions, the boys accurate kicking was a feature as was their team work, to keep their winning run intact. Better players in a fine all around team effort were Kade Ruyters (6 goals), Nick Fox, Flynn Kennedy, Hunter Watson, Jacob Cunico (5 goals) and Harvey Howe.

Our 3rds started off slowly against a smaller "Power" side to be 4 points down at ¼ time, but a 5 goal to nil second term gave them a handy lead at the main break. This form continued after half-time as they extended the margin in each quarter for a solid win. Lewis Noble (12 goals) had a day out and was named best along with Liam Deering, Poshang Akram, Peter Strong, Kaijah Noda and Tom Webster.

Cammo has the Reserves team playing a good solid brand of footy at the moment as they continued on their winning run. We pulled away further at each break against a never give up Wonthaggi. Best players were named as Ben Johnson, Zac Gray, Jake Sishop, Luke Johnson, Rob Wilkie and Trent Morrow.

With both Conor Ambler and Mitch Mustoe late "outs" to the selected Senior team, our boys knew it would be a tough day against a bigger sized "Power" outfit. Losing "Collo" early didn't help matters, and with drizzly rain at times, the game turned into a slog with both sides hard at the ball and goals were like gold. We inched that little bit further ahead at each break to lead by 3 goals at ¾ time and Wonthaggi (as expected) came hard in the final term. Our guys held firm using Tim's instructions to get the elusive first victory and put smiles on the faces of the Coaching Staff and Players alike. Some of our first year Seniors (12 debuts in the first 4 rounds) getting the chance to sing the Club song. In a very even team effort, better players were Hayden Hector, Conor Little, Cam Whiteoak, Michael Jacobsen, Chrus Thuring and Jackson Hall.

Today we travel up the highway to "Redleg" land, a known "hoodoo" ground for many a visiting team. We will need to bring our "A" game to each match over the day in both Netball and Footy, as none will be easy! Good luck to all competing today.

Go Maroons.

SALE

After a week off for interleague our teams are feeling well rested and ready to take on Moe today.

No game for our thirds last round but our fourths in a slightly later time slot struggled to shake off a persistent Drouin but managed to get the win, best were Mason Benson who kicked three goals, Ostin Waugh, Angus Tilley, Harry Swarski and Hunter Pearce.

The reserves with help from a few thirds boys, kicked poorly early thus letting the result slip, a disappointing game for all involved. Joel Wegener's perseverance is paying off, Joey Ziino & Jonty McGuinness were good whilst Charlie Morrison was dependable down back.

The seniors went to and fro with Drouin before a big last quarter saw the boys beat the third placed Hawks by four goals. Brad Dessent got a bag of 5 whilst Jack McLaren, Jack Lipman, Jordan Dessent & Kane Martin were all terrific. Wil Leslie was welcomed back, with him and Zac Hurley controlling the back half gave us the dash we required. It was fantastic to give bottom ages thirds player Dainel Byron his first taste of senior football! The seniors sit second going into a top of the table clash with Moe.

Strong defence from the 13s kept their opposition to 1 goal and at the offensive end we saw everything from training come into play. It was a great team great exhibition of the girls' skills.

Awards:A.Beale,S.Williams.

The Sale 15s kept their opposition to 3 goals with super strong defence, using blocking and zone defensive techniques. In a fantastic team awards went to G.Tauschke, I.McCarthy, and L.Stobie 17s had another great win over a very physical side in Drouin, our girls held strong leading at every quarter change.

Awards:J.Wrigglesworth, K.Jackson, and C.Fox

C grade had a strong first half leading by 1 at half time showing great signs for future games. Awards:A Gull, L.Simmons, and S.Anderson

B grade - An amazing display of a team coming together as one. The girls dominated the match from the first centre to the final whistle with strong attacking skills and intense defensive pressure. It was a terrific team effort. Awards:E. Ronchi, K.Jackson, and K.Craft.

A grade were super competitive against Drouin. They displayed fantastic passages of play and strong full court defense but need to play out four quarters of netball to try get those wins on the board. Awards:T.Dessent, J.Wrigglesworth, R.Phillips

Goodluck to all our teams today.
GO MAGPIES!!

WARRAGUL

First off it was a gallant GL interleague side that fell short in the interleague game last weekend but they did a great job. Well done to Steven Kidd, his players and support staff.

We headed down the highway to Maffra last round and meeting them on the rebound is a big task. They blew us off the park early on and for us there was no coming back when the Eagles are in that sort of mood. Our lads kicked 5 goals late but the damage was done. Kim Drew took out the Railway Hotel award with a solid 4 quarter effort with Sam Whibley continuing to impress. Shaun Beecroft has done well in his first season with us and GL rep player Nick Stevenson was great in a difficult day down back.

Our reserves were up against the ladder leaders and were impressive from the start getting some early goals. We were only 8 points shy at the main break but it went astray for us in the second half with the home side slamming on 9 goals to 2. Our lads are still in the five and have a good list but coach Jamie Somers would be disappointed with the second half. Aaron Baxter took out the top award with Jake Orlicki impressive as well getting the Frankies award. Harley Nobelius gets the Waterwise award with Kyle Cant off to Maloneys Pizza.

The thirds are only a game off top spot despite the loss against Maffra. It was really only the third quarter that brought about our demise after some good wins up until then. Patrick Mulqueen was in good touch again with Liam Giliam and the consistent Eddie McGillivray among the awards again. Tully Loomes and Lachlan Bambridge rounded out the awards.

The youngest of the Gulls kicked the day off well with a solid win to keep their record intact and share top spot. It was another good team performance which is their trademark so far. Neither side managed a goal in the final quarter but the Gulls had set up a good 25 point win by then.

The Jamie Somers award went to Matthew Pecoraro with Kai McLean off for a trim at Sharkeys. Maloneys Pizza to Brody Tutton and the Maccas award to Jye Nooy. Rhys Galvin snagged 3 goals and Vinnie Caia 2.

Our netballers are flying so far and again chalked up some good wins at Maffra.

A grade won by 17 goals with Myah Healey our best.

B grade won by 5 goals in a top game. Bec O'Halloran our best.

C grade had a cracking game against the unbeaten Maffra and came out winners by 2 goals.

Our 17s missed by 5, our 15s by 29 and our 13s by 25.

Many of the girls in our junior section are finding their feet but work so hard and will reap the rewards for that.

Congratulations to our GL rep players in Kim Drew, Nick Stevenson and Matt Rennie who all acquitted themselves well.

A warm welcome to Morwell this week and we look forward to some more great footy and netball action. Drive safely and Go Gulls.

TRFM Gippsland League's current crop of stars will draw inspiration from their illustrious predecessors, when they take the field in tomorrow's Worksafe Community Championships.

The clash marks 40 years since the then-Latrobe Valley Football League first secured the state's number one ranking, with victory over Bendigo Football League in the championship series grand final at Bendigo in 1979.

League life member Neil Meredith was part of that side, which blazed the trail and firmly stamped Gippsland's reputation as a football powerhouse that claimed four titles in 17 years.

The tenacious rover admitted the historic game, which was the culmination of a series of game played throughout the season, was a "dirty day" for him personally as he "barely got a kick" but it remained a source of unforgettable memories.

"I played in all five of those games and it was the greatest honour because I never classed myself as a great footballer," Meredith said.

"I've still got my footy jumper from the '79 game and the '80 one I did a stupid thing and gave it away to a friend... I haven't seen it since.

"We were a tight knit bunch the 22 that were up there. Everyone got along really well and it was the start of the whole league becoming close knit.

"My mum and dad used to travel to all the games to watch me play and would always be talking to the locals. It was a really good time for footy and everyone wanted to be a part of it."

The present-day adaptation of the championships is a far cry from the celebrated occasion it once was.

Players jumped at the opportunity to pull on the league jumper and footy fans flocked to venues around the state, often travelling great distances to watch their team play.

In 1979, the cheer squad from VFL club Footscray, which was zoned to the area east of Traralgon at the time, jumped on the train carrying the players to Bendigo, ensuring the crowd had its fair share of red, white and blue on the day.

For Meredith, the train trips were among the highlights of every campaign.

"The old train trips were a bit of fun and games. Our phys-ed man was Laurie Payne and when they stopped the train at one point all the players had to go into a caboose and do some warmups," Meredith recalled.

"It was Payne by name, pain by nature, but he had us at our peak."

Meredith, who played the majority of his club footy for Yallourn, said the likes of Jack Huxtable and Joe Hutchison - league president and secretary at the time - were pioneers when it came to interleague football and their passion and drive were the catalysts to Gippsland's success and subsequent reputation.

They were aided by host of talented players, many with genuine superstar pedigree.

Captained by imposing ruckman Len Petch, with a young Jeff Gieschen as vice-captain, the household names were littered throughout the 1979 lineup.

"You never used to lead to Petchy because he couldn't kick over a jam tin but he was a great ruckman and a great fella," Meredith said.

"Dale Foster had just come back from Hawthorn... he played at centre half back and I remember he had a slashing game in the grand final.

"Bingle [Rob Ballingall] played in the centre mainly and he was a terrific footballer but our strength was probably our big guys. We had Ian Salmon and Johnny 'Jack' Gallus who was probably the best reader of the ball I ever played footy against."

This year's side, which sits 11th on the modern rankings system, will tread a similar path, staying in Bendigo tonight before continuing onto Cohuna where it will meet Central Murray Football League in the annual one-off game tomorrow.

The league will pay homage to the 1979 championship team, by wearing replica jumpers featuring white collars and the LVFL logo, with the years of previous title victories inscribed on the back.
