

Zac goes to the GWS Giants game.

Today, I am going to watch GWS play the Western Bulldogs in an elimination final. First, I get dressed in my Giants Jersey. Dad is wearing his, too.

We are on our way.

Today, Dad is driving, but sometimes we go by train.

Dad is driving to Olympic Park.
Yay, we are almost there!

Dad has parked the car.
We are walking to the stadium.
I can hear the crowd from here.
I am very excited.
I love AFL!

Nearly there!
It is only a 5 minute walk to the stadium.

There it is.
Giants Stadium, my favourite place to be.
It looks like they are fixing something over there.

First, the security guards check our bags.
We are not allowed to take cans or glass into the stadium.

The security guards sometimes check people with a special wand. This is to make sure no-one takes anything inside that is not allowed.

The lady scans my ticket so I can go inside.

There are lots of games we can play inside the stadium gates.

Sometimes, I will win a football.

Mum says I do not need any more footballs, but I do not agree.

Here we are. The game is just about to start.
I love AFL.
It is my favourite sport, and I love watching the Giants win.

Yes! My team won!

Hope to see them in the Grand Final.

FULL TIME

GIANTS		BULLDOGS

Next season, I hope to see you, my friends, at the games. It is a lot of fun.
