Basketball Australia Club Coaching Accreditation

Who can do it?

Anyone from the age of 14 years and older.

You must be registered to an affiliated SA Country Basketball Association

You must have completed the Basketball Australia Community Coaching accreditation (online and free).

You must have coached in domestic or district competition for 1 year.

If you have completed a previous course?

If you have completed a previous Level 1 course in the past in SA, but the course was more than 2 years ago, then you must do the course again.

Can I receive RPL?

Recognition of Prior Learning can grant you a Club Coach accreditation if:

You head coach at NBL1 Level

You have received a BA Club Coach Accreditation from another state within the last two years

You have coached in Division 1 district for more than 3 years

If none of these apply to you, but you feel that you should receive RPL for this course, please send an email to coacheducation@bsa.com.au stating your case.

How long does my accreditation last for?

5 years, then you must redo the course, or go for an Association Level Accreditation.

How does an association book a course?

Each course must have a minimum of 10 and maximum of 30 participants

Where can coaches register for a course?

Coaches must wait to hear an announcement via SA Country's Facebook page of scheduled courses or contact your association to notify them of your interest. Head to SA Country Basketball's Facebook page to see all currently scheduled courses.

Association can contact their local Coach Presenter and book in a date and time. Coach Presenter will liaise with BSA or SA Country to send out links, create online forms and start booking in participants.
