	That the Minutes of the League Meeting held on 10 June 2020, as tabled, be accepted. Moved: Seconded:
General Business
SGL	COVID-19 L Promnitz welcomed all present and discussed the purpose of the meeting and asked for any discussion on today's State Government announcements regarding restrictions. L Promnitz asked for a motion to be moved regarding Season 2020 MOTION: That to play SGL Football in Season 2020 Moved: Central Augusta Seconded: West Augusta

M Foote then queried the voting process and discussion ensued. Consensus was a normal full vote of the SGL Board delegates/members.

The motion was defeated five (5) votes to four (4)

Another motion was tabled:

MOTION: SGL Season 2020 is not played and season is abandoned.

Moved: Solomontown Seconded: PropRisdon

Motion Passed five (5) votes to four (4) votes

S Kuerschner queried will the SGL implement a program for juniors. Discussion ensued regarding U15 and U18 competitions and if it would be between both towns. A short break was held for discussions to occur between local clubs.

Meeting reconvened and Port Pirie clubs advised that competitions should remain within each town if they wish to continue to pursue a competition, with the support of the SGL.

M Foote raised discussion about the potential to loose players to other leagues. L Promnitz provided clarification regarding the proposed permit process and travel rules.

D Johnson thanked the Executive for their efforts to get the Board to this point.

M Giles advised that the latest information from SANFL has been forwarded earlier this evening.

N Heron stated it was a solemn moment, but everyone's best interests were at the forefront.

M Foote also thanks L Promnitz and M Giles for their hardwork.

S Kuerschner was hopeful a junior competition underway.
