

Brad Wardlaw has enjoyed a long career with Avoca and first played in the Under 16's in 1986 and won the Best 1st year player award.

He went on to play 342 games for the club.

He had an eight year hiatus after the 1999 season and returned to play in 2007 and was Runner Up in the Club Best & Fairest in that season.

He has played in five premierships and has been the recipient of a number of individual awards along the way. Including the 2012 MCDL Reserves grade Best & Fairest and the club equivalent.

He also had a successful stint as a coach when in 1998 he was the joint Reserves Grade premiership coach with his cousin David Wardlaw.

Brad played his 300th club game in 2011 and but for a leg injury in 2014 he could have played more than his 342 club games.

Brad Wardlaw Record Can be viewed at this link
https://websites.sportstg.com/get\_file.cgi?id=36751850

