41. Returning to training and matches during COVID 19

APFL clubs are required to adhere to all laws and regulations made by governing bodies regarding COVID 19. These may include government, AFL, SANFL/Community Football or the APFL. Clubs found to not be compliant with return to training or return to play protocols may face suspension of training/matches, fines, and loss of Premiership Points.

42. Inclusion of Bute Football Club for season 2020

Following the cancellation of the Yorke Peninsula League football season, Bute FC have requested, and are approved, to participate in the APFL for season 2020. Bute FC will participate in the season as a participating club, not an affiliated club, removing the requirement for payment of significant costs required by section 3 of the APFL Constitution.

Bute FC will be required to pay the equivalent of the APFL member club's annual affiliation fee to be a participating club in 2020, and will become subject to all APFL rules, regulations and by-laws for the participating season.

In any match where Bute FC is playing Two Wells, Bute FC will be required to wear on-field attire that is distinctively different from Two Wells, and acceptable to both TWFNC and the APFL.

For the purposes of this by-law, players from Bute FC will not be required to play for APFL association matches, but are permitted to represent YPFL.
