Bosl Players Code of Conduct

- Play by the rules
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree with a decision, have your captain, coach, or manager approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- Treat all participants in your sport as you would like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- Cooperate with your coach, team-mates, officials, and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches.
- Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Bosl Coaches Code of Conduct

- Remember that young people participate for pleasure and winning is only part of the fun.
- Never ridicule or yell at a young player for making a mistake or not coming first.
- Be reasonable in your demands on players’ time, energy, and enthusiasm.
- Operate within the rules and spirits of your sport and teach your players to do the same.
- Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience. All young people are deserving of equal attention and opportunities.
- Avoid overplaying the talented players; the just-average need and deserve equal time.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport. This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents, and spectators. Encourage your players to do the same.
- Show concern and caution toward sick and injured players. Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person.
BOSL PARENTS AND SPECTATORS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Applaud good performance and efforts from each team.
- Congratulate all participants upon their performance regardless of the game’s outcome.
- Respect officials’ decisions.
- Never ridicule or scold a child for making a mistake.
- Positive comments are motivational.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form be it by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Encourage players to follow the rules and the officials’ decisions.
- Do not use foul language or harass players, coaches or officials.
