SPALDING AND BASKETBALL VICTORIA JOIN FORCES

Basketball Victoria and Spalding are pleased to announce the first-time partnership between the two organisations.

This partnership sees Spalding become the Official Ball for Basketball Victoria, as well as Basketball Victoria representative leagues including: the Melbourne United Victorian Junior Basketball League and Big V in 2020- providing more Victorians with the opportunity to play more basketball, more often.

WELCOME TO GAME DAY AT THE DEN

We are very excited to be welcoming you all to the DEN that Keysborough Cougars call home, and to the 2021 Big V Season.

We would like to thank all our Volunteers and Duty Teams this afternoon, and for the whole 2019 season as sadly 2020 season did not go ahead, without the support of our volunteers we wouldn't be able to put on these days.

So a massive heartfelt Thank You to you all!

The Ode

*"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them."*

The Ode is taken from the elegy For The Fallen, by English poet and writer Laurence Binyon and was published in London in The Wincing Fan; Poems of the Great War in 1914. The fourth verse, which became the League Ode, was already used in association with commemoration services in Australia in 1921 and not only adorns War Memorials throughout the British Commonwealth but is at the heart of all rites of the RSL.

For The Fallen

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn in drums thrill: Death august and royal
Signs sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again:
They sit no more at familiar tables at home;
They have no lot in our labor of the daytime;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
felt as a wellspring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars that are known to the Night.

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
to the end, to the end, they remain.

ORIGINS OF OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM

The original composition of the song 'Advance Australia Fair', written by Peter Dodds McCormick in 1878, had four verses.

Between 1973 and 1984, a competition and several national polls were held to determine the Australian public's opinion of their desired national anthem.

Several of the polls indicated that 'Advance Australia Fair' was favoured, followed by 'Waltzing Matilda'.

In 1981, the National Australia Day Council recommended the Australian National Anthem consist of the first and second verses of 'Advance Australia Fair', with some modifications.

In April 1984, then Governor-General, the Rt Hon Sir Ninian M Stephen KG AK GCMG GCVO KBE QC, proclaimed 'Advance Australia Fair' as the Australian National Anthem, using the verses drafted by the National Australia Day Council.

On 1 January 2021, the words of the second line of the Australian National Anthem were amended from 'For we are young and free' to 'For we are one and free', by proclamation made by the Governor-General, His Excellency General the Honourable David Hurley AC DSC (Retd), on the Australian Government's advice.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL ANTHEM

Australians all let us rejoice,
For we are one and free;
We've golden soil and wealth for toil;
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history's page, let every stage
Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia Fair.

Beneath our radiant Southern Cross
We'll toil with hearts and hands;
To make this Commonwealth of ours
Renowned of all the lands;
For those who've come across the seas
We've boundless plains to share;
With courage let us all combine
To Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia Fair.

Scentsy offer a massive range of Wickless Candles.

What are wickless candles you may ask? Wickless candles are highly fragrant wax bars that are warmed to release the fragrance. As the wax is warmed gently rather than burned it will hold more fragrance than a traditional candle. Because there is no flame, there is no smoke or soot either. Scentsy wickless candles are a much safer alternative to traditional candles.

How they work: Scentsy has the most beautiful warmers that use low-watt light bulbs that slowly melts the Scentsy Candle Bars.
