Provided that any such payment shall not exceed the amount ordinarily payable between ordinary commercial parties dealing at arms length in a similar transaction.

6. ASSOCIATION NOTICE BOARD

6.1 The Association Notice Board shall consists of the following

(a) A designated Notice Board in the Association Premises during the playing season if a club house and facilities are available; and

(b) At all times, a section on the association website, as designated from time to time by the Committee under the heading, 'Notice Board' or per electronic mail for proper distribution of information

7. APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

7.1 Applications for membership must be in writing in the form decided by the Management Committee.

8. CLASSES OF MEMBERS

8.1 The membership of the Association consists of Ordinary Members, Affiliate Members and Life Members.

8.2 The number of members is unlimited.

8.3 A Lacrosse Club (or as otherwise described) in Queensland may be admitted as an Ordinary Member provided it has met any criteria for membership which may from time to time be set by the Management Committee.

(i) Two representatives of an Ordinary Member are entitled to attend, debate and vote at all General Meetings.

(ii) In the event that there is no longer sufficient i.e. less than two Ordinary Members of the Association then affiliate members (see clause 8.4) will gain voting rights. This clause is intended so that the Association can continue under circumstances where there is only one Lacrosse Club / Association remaining in Queensland and will only operate on an interim basis until such time that more than one Lacrosse Club / Association are again Ordinary Members.

8.4 An Affiliated Member is a natural person who has been accepted as a member of a Lacrosse Club in Queensland and that club (or described in any other manner) has been accepted as an Ordinary Member of QLA.

8.5 A Life Member is any person who has been granted life membership if the Association. A life member has no voting powers.

8.6 The Management Committee shall have the right to refuse to admit any person (natural, corporate or other) to membership without assigning any reason for doing so.

8.7 The Committee shall have the right to refuse to admit any person to membership without assigning any reason for doing so

8.8 A copy of this Constitution shall be made available for perusal by all applicants for membership. All persons whose applications for membership are approved shall be deemed to have subscribed to this constitution as from the date of acceptance

8.9 On payment of their dues to become a member of the Association, members will become entitled to the privileges and be bound by its rules and by all consequences resulting from breach or non-performance there off, and shall thereby absolve every person concerned in carrying out enforcing rules from all personal responsibility or legal liability on such account.

8.10 An applicant whose application for membership of the Association is rejected under sub rule (8.6) must, if he or she wishes to appeal against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of his or her intention to do so within a period of fourteen (14) days from the date he or she is advised of the rejection.

9. MEMBERSHIP FEES

9.1 The membership fees are:

(a) such fees as determined by Queensland Lacrosse from time to time and

- (b) such additional amounts decided at the Annual General Meeting of this Association and
- (c) payable when, and in the manner, as provided from time to time.

9.2 Membership fees are determined as per clause 9.1.

10. MEMBER'S RIGHTS

10.1 Only Ordinary Members (see clause 8.3 and definition clause i.e. definition of representative) are voting members and their vote (for clarity purposes two votes) will be executed by their representatives.

10.2 The rights and privileges of every affiliated member shall be personal and shall not be in any manner transferable by their own act or through any other person on their behalf or by operation of law, and on any member ceasing be death (or otherwise) to be a member all their interest shall go to the estate.

11. ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

11.1 The Management Committee must consider an application for membership at the next meeting of the committee held after it receives:

- (a) the application and
- (b) the appropriate membership fee for the application has been paid.

11.2 The Management Committee must ensure that, as soon as possible after the person applies to become a member of the Association, and before the Management Committee considers the person's application, the person is advised

- (a) whether or not the Association has public liability insurance; and
- (b) if the Association has public liability insurance – the amount of the insurance.
- (c) The Management Committee must decide at the meeting whether to accept or reject the application.
- (d) If a majority of the Management Committee members present at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member.
- (e) The Secretary of the Association must, as soon as practicable after the Management Committee decides to reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

12. WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

12.1 A member may resign from the Association by giving a written notice of resignation to the Secretary.

12.2 The resignation takes effect on:

- (a) the day and at the time the notice is received by the Secretary or
- (b) if a later day is stated in the notice, the later day.

12.3 The Management Committee may terminate a member's membership if the member:

- (a) is convicted of an indictable offence or
- (b) does not comply with any of the provisions of this Constitution or
- (c) has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months or
- (d) conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the Association.
- (e) When an Ordinary Member ceases to operate as a Lacrosse Club in Queensland – this will be when that association / club in the sole discretion of Queensland Lacrosse is no longer viable to support and enhance the objectives of this Constitution.
- (f) Before the Management Committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
- (g) If, after considering all representations made by the member, the Management Committee decides to terminate the membership, the Secretary of the Committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.
- (h) A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the Secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
- (i) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the Secretary within one month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
- (j) If the Secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the Secretary must, within 30 days after the day of receipt, call a General Meeting to decide the appeal.

12.4 At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.

12.5 An appeal must be decided by a vote of the voting members present at the meeting.

12.6 The Management Committee and the committee members who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given an opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.

12.7 If a person whose application has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within one month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the application fee paid by the person.

13. DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS

13.1 The Management Committee may refer the following matters for investigation or determination in its sole discretion to such person or persons as may be constituted as a disciplinary tribunal which may make such finding of fact and impose such punishment, including reprimand, fine, disqualification, suspension or expulsion, as appears appropriate

(a) breach of Constitution: an allegation or grievance (not being vexatious, trifling or frivolous) by a complainant (who may be, but need not be, a member) that a member has breached, failed, refused or neglected to comply with a provision of this Constitution, the By-Laws or any other resolution or determination of the Management Committee or duly authorized committee or

(b) breach of discipline: an allegation (not being vexatious trifling or frivolous) by a complainant that a member

(i) acted in a manner unbecoming of a member or prejudicial to the objects and interests of the Association, Lacrosse Australia and/or lacrosse or

(ii) brought the Association, Lacrosse Australia and/or lacrosse into disrepute or

(iii) acted contrary to any standard or code of conduct [howsoever called] approved by the Association or Lacrosse Australia.

13.2 This clause is applicable to a member not with standing any action taken under the constitutions of Lacrosse Australia or relevant Affiliated Region in relation to that member.

13.3 For the purposes of this Clause the term "member" includes any person participating in any capacity in any lacrosse meet or other activity held under the auspices of the Association or ALA.

13.4 For the purpose of this clause, the member will be subject to and agrees to submit unreservedly to the jurisdiction, procedures, penalties and appeal mechanisms of the Association as set out in its By-Laws or as provided in the By-Laws of Lacrosse Australia or relevant Affiliated Region.

14. NOTIFICATION OF DISCIPLINE

14.1 When a person has been suspended, disqualified or expelled as a result of disciplinary proceedings, notice shall be given by the Association to Lacrosse Australia and all affiliated bodies.

14.2 A member, on being suspended, disqualified or expelled as a result of disciplinary proceedings, shall forfeit any fee paid or trophies won in any contest in relation to which the disciplinary proceedings have taken place.

14.3 The Affiliated Association or other body conducting the contest in relation to which the suspension, disqualification or expulsion occurs shall confiscate all trophies or other awards, as are appropriate, and may distribute them in such manner as it thinks fit.

15. APPEALS AGAINST DISCIPLINE

15.1 Any person, the subject of an adverse finding in proceedings in accordance with Clause 13 may appeal in relation to that adverse finding.

(a) initially to QLA in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution;

(b) if dissatisfied with the appeal decision of QLA, to ALA.

15.2 Such appeal shall be dealt with in accordance with such policies and procedures as QLA and ALA may from time to time determine.

16. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

16.1 The Management Committee must keep a register of members.

16.2 The register of members must include the following particulars for each member-

- (a) the full name and residential address and contact details of the member
- (b) the date of admission as a member
- (c) the date of death or resignation of the member
- (d) details about the termination or reinstatement of membership
- (e) any other particulars the Management Committee or the members at a General Meeting decide.

16.3 The register must be open for inspection at all reasonable times. However, before a member may inspect the register, the member must apply to the Secretary to inspect it.

16.4 The Management Committee may provide to the relevant Affiliated Region and Lacrosse Australia, at such time and in such form as Lacrosse Australia may specify in writing, a copy of the register of members.

16.5 However, the Management Committee may, on the application of a member of the Association, withhold information about the member (other than the member's name) from the register available for inspection if the Management Committee has reasonable grounds for believing the disclosure of the information would put the member at risk of harm.

17. PROHIBITION ON USE OF INFORMATION ON REGISTER OF MEMBERS

17.1 A member of the Association must not:

- (a) use information obtained from the register of members of the Association to contact, or send material to, another member of the Association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes; or
- (b) disclose information obtained from the register to someone else, knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact, or send material to, another member of the Association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes.

17.2 Sub Clause (1) does not apply if the use or disclosure of the information is approved by the Association.

18. SUBSCRIPTIONS and FEES

18.1 The application fee, annual membership fee for an Ordinary member and affiliated member of the Association shall be set by majority vote of the committee prior to the commencement of playing season

18.2 Notice of the fees and subscriptions shall be notified to the members, via the Association Notice Board or by electronic means.

18.3 All subscriptions, including new members, are due from the first day of April in each year and are payable in advance

18.4 The Management Committee shall not declare a member un-financial if at least half of the subscription is paid by the first day of April and the remainder of the fee by end of May in the current year.

19. LIABILITY FOR SUBSCRIPTION and FEES

19.1 Any affiliated member who does not notify the secretary, of the member's relevant association, in writing of the member's non intention to be affiliated to QLA before playing (1) one match in any grade of the member's withdrawal from the Association shall be liable for the subscription for the current year

19.2 The committee shall have the power by resolution to remove from the roll of members the name of any new members who fails to pay his/her subscription or fee by 31 May of the year current.

19.3 Any member whose fee is in arrears at any time shall cease to be a member or in the case of new members' application, shall be refused membership unless the Committee upon receiving an explanation in writing from that member shall otherwise decide.

19.4 Provided that any member, who through force of circumstances is unable to pay, may submit an application to the Treasurer to have his/her case considered by the Committee, who may make such allowances and arrangement they deem fit.

20. MEMBERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

20.1 The Management Committee of the Association consists of a President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary.

20.2 A member of the Management Committee, other than a Secretary appointed by the Management Committee under Sub-Clause 22.1 must be a member of an Ordinary Member of the Association and must be the appointed representative of that Ordinary Member.

20.3 At each Annual General Meeting of the Association, the members of the Management Committee must 30.3 retire from office, but are eligible, on nomination, for re-election.

20.4 A member of the Association may be appointed to a casual vacancy on the Management Committee under Clause 20.

21. ELECTING THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

21.1 A member of the Management Committee may only be elected as follows:

(a) any Ordinary member of the Association may nominate a representative of that or another Ordinary member (the "candidate") to serve as a member of the Management Committee

(b) the nomination must be in writing, signed by the candidate and the representative of the Ordinary member(s) who nominated him or her and given to the Secretary at least 5 days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to be held

(c) each Ordinary member present at the Annual General Meeting may vote for any number of candidates not more than the number of vacancies

(d) if, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.

21.2 A person may be a candidate only if the person:

(a) is an adult and a representative of an affiliated Lacrosse association; and

(b) is not ineligible to be elected as a member under Section 61A of the Act.

21.3 A list of the candidates' names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate, must be posted electronically at least seven (7) days immediately preceding the Annual General Meeting.

21.4 The Management Committee must ensure that, before a candidate is elected as a member of the Management Committee, the candidate is advised:

(a) whether or not the Association has public liability insurance; and

(b) if the Association has public liability insurance – the amount of the insurance.

22. APPOINTMENT OR ELECTION OF SECRETARY

22.1 The Secretary must be an individual residing in Queensland, or in another State, but not more than 65km from the Queensland border, who is:

(a) a member of a Ordinary Member of the Association elected by the Association as Secretary; or

(b) any of the following persons appointed by the Management Committee as Secretary:

(i) a member of the Association's Management Committee;

(ii) an affiliated member of the Association;

(iii) another person.

22.2 If the Association has not elected an interim officer as Secretary for the Association before its incorporation, the members of the Management Committee must ensure a Secretary is appointed or elected for the Association within 1 month after incorporation.

22.3 If a vacancy happens in the office of Secretary, the members of the Management Committee must ensure a Secretary is appointed or elected for the Association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.

22.4 If the Management Committee appoints a person mentioned in Sub-Clause 22.1 (b) (ii) or (iii) as Secretary, other than to fill a casual vacancy on the Management Committee, the person does not become a member of the Management Committee.

22.5 Under this rule: - casual vacancy, on a Management Committee, means a vacancy that happens when an elected member of the Management Committee resigns, dies or otherwise stops holding office.

23. REMOVAL OF SECRETARY

23.1 The Management Committee of the Association may at any time remove a person appointed by the Committee as the Secretary.

23.2 If the Management Committee removes a Secretary who is a person mentioned in Clause 22.1 (a), the person remains a member of the Management Committee.

24. FUNCTIONS OF SECRETARY

24.1 The Secretary's functions include, but are not limited to:

- (a) calling meetings of the Association, including preparing notices of a meeting and of the business to be conducted at the meeting in consultation with the President of the Association; and
- (b) keeping Minutes of each meeting; and
- (c) keeping copies of all correspondence and other documents relating to the Association; and
- (d) maintaining the Register of members of the Association.

25. RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL FROM OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

25.1 A Management Committee member may resign from the committee by giving written notice of resignation to the Secretary.

25.2 The resignation takes effect on:

- (a) the day and at the time the notice is received by the Secretary or
- (b) if a later day is stated in the notice the later day.
- (c) A person may be removed from office at a Special General Meeting of the Association if 75% of the members present and entitled to vote at the meeting vote in favor of removing the person.
- (d) Before a vote of members is taken about removing the person from office, the person must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- (e) A person has no right of appeal against the removal from office under this section.
- (f) A member immediately vacates the office of member of the Management Committee in the circumstances mentioned in Section 64(2) of the Act.

(g) If a casual vacancy happens on the Management Committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another person, who is an appointed representative of an Ordinary Member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the next Annual General Meeting.

(h) The continuing members of the Management Committee may act despite a casual vacancy on the Management Committee.

25.3 However, if the number of committee members is less than the number fixed under these rules as a quorum of the Management Committee, the continuing members may act to:

- (a) increase the number of Management Committee members to the number required for a quorum or
- (b) call a General Meeting of the Association.

26. Functions of Management Committee

26.1 Subject to this Constitution or a resolution of the Association carried at a General Meeting, the Management Committee has—:

- (a) the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the Association and
- (b) authority to interpret the meaning of this Constitution and any matter relating to the Association on which the Constitution is silent.

26.2 The Management Committee may exercise the powers of the Association—:

- (a) to borrow, raise or secure the payment of amounts in a way the members decide
- (b) to secure the amounts mentioned in paragraph (a) or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the Association in any way, including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) charged upon the whole or part of the Association's property, both present and future
- (c) to purchase, redeem or pay off any securities issued
- (d) to borrow amounts from members and pay interest on the amounts borrowed
- (e) to mortgage or charge the whole or part of its property
- (f) to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Association
- (g) to provide and pay off any securities issued
- (h) to invest in a way the members of the Association may from time to time decide.

26.3 For subsection (2)(d), the rate of interest must not be more than the current rate being charged for overdrawn accounts on money lent (regardless of the term of the loan) by-:

- (a) the financial institution for the Association or
- (b) if there is more than one financial institution for the Association the financial institution nominated by the Association.

27. Meetings of Management Committee

27.1 Subject to subsections (2) to (16), the Management Committee may meet and conduct its proceedings as it considers appropriate.

27.2 The Management Committee must meet at least once a month in each calendar year to exercise its functions.

27.3 The Management Committee must decide how a meeting is to be called.

27.4 Notice of a meeting is to be given in the way decided by the Management Committee.

(a) The Management Committee may hold meetings, or permit a committee member to take part in its meetings, by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.

(b) A committee member who participates in the meeting as mentioned

(c) in Sub-Clause 27.4 (a) is taken to be present at the meeting.

27.5 If the Secretary receives a written request signed by at least 33% of the Management Committee members, the Secretary must call a special meeting of the Management Committee.

27.6 A request for a special meeting must state:

- (a) why the special meeting is called and
- (b) the business to be conducted at the meeting.

27.7 At a Management Committee meeting, more than 75% of the members elected or appointed to the Management Committee at the last Annual General Meeting of the members form a quorum.

27.8 A question arising at a Management Committee meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of Committee members present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the President or the chairman of the specific meeting will cast a deciding vote.

27.9 A Management Committee member must not vote on a question about a contract or proposed contract with the Association if the member has an interest in the contract or proposed contract, and if the member does vote, the member's vote must not be counted.

27.10 The Secretary must give each Management Committee member at least 2 days written notice of a special meeting of the Committee.

27.11 A notice of a special meeting must state-:

- (a) the day, time and place of the meeting and
- (b) the business to be conducted at the meeting.

27.12 The President or, if there is no President or if the President is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a Management Committee meeting, the Vice-President is to preside at the meeting.

27.13 If the President and the Vice-President are absent from a Management Committee meeting, the members may choose one of their number to preside at the meeting.

27.14 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a Management Committee meeting called other than on the request of committee members, the meeting is to be adjourned to-:

- (a) the same day, time and place in the next week or
- (b) a day, time and place decided by the Committee.

27.15 If, at an adjourned meeting mentioned in subsection (14), a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting lapses.

28. MINUTES OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEETINGS

28.1 The Secretary must ensure full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of each Management Committee meeting are entered in a minute book.

28.2 To ensure the accuracy of the minutes, the minutes of each Management Committee meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting, or the chairperson of the next Management Committee meeting, verifying their accuracy.

29. Delegation of Management Committee powers

29.1 The Management Committee may delegate the whole or part of its powers to a subcommittee constituted by persons considered appropriate by the Management Committee.
