FROM THE OFFICE OF REGULATORY SERVICES WEBSITE

The Working with Vulnerable People \(Background Checking\) Act 2011 (the Act) commenced on 8 November 2012 and aims to reduce the risk of harm or neglect to vulnerable people in the ACT. The introduction of a centralised background checking system in the ACT has benefits for vulnerable people, employees, volunteers, organisations and employers. The system establishes mandatory minimum checking standards that will apply across regulated activities.

The Office of Regulatory Services has developed a comprehensive ACT which provides information about the Act. Alternatively fact sheets providing a general overview and outlining important concepts are also available.
