LET'S GET THE PARKLEA 2023 SEASON UNDERWAY

I can barely wait for the Parklea EDFNL season to start. It was terrific to get through the 2022 season without any interruptions and provides me with comfort the Covid disruptions are well behind us. It was great to see the premiership cup held aloft across all grades of football & netball last year and for the first time since 2019.

This year we will again field an 11 team competition and have a 20 round season with two byes. Our final series again be a top five starting on 26 August with the grand final is on 16th September.

It now looks like we will field nine football teams at U16 level and eight at U18 level. Not perfect but our junior arm is still strong and in a far better state than many other country leagues. Really pleased that Nilma-Darnum will field at U/16 team this year. Congratulations to all at Darnum who helped get this team up. To give our juniors every opportunity to play as many matches as possible we will again produce a 'make up game timetable'. Thanks to our Junior Development Officer Steve Pratt for the time put in with this challenging task.

I'd like to welcome the newcomers to the league, firstly our EDFNL Sub & General Committee members Tim Cosstick (Play HQ) and Tanya Helliar (IT, Social Media and Play HQ back up). Tim will help clubs navigate the Play HQ requirements and later this year Tanya will be tasked with our social media and to get our new EDFNL website up and running. They come to the league with vast experience in their fields and confident both will be a real asset. Also it would be remiss of me if I did not bid farewell to my EDFNL Vice President Ken White. Ken has stepped aside after 25 years on the football Board. For those who may not be aware Ken also received an Australia day OAM honour for service to the Cardinia Shire, due to 50+ years with Longwarry Football Club and 25+ years as a vice-president of the Ellinbank and District Football League. Good luck Ken in your future endeavours and retirement.

Around the footy clubs, six clubs have new Presidents, Grant Williams (Catani), Kristian Bingham (Ellinbank), Dean Turner & Stuart Casey (Lang Lang), Steve Tuite (Longwarry), Jassy Batrouney (Nyora) & Dave Snelling (Neerim Neerim South) while three clubs have new Secretaries Tracy McIntosh (Lang Lang), Annie Van Der Heyden (Longwarry) and Bryce Grimshaw (Trafalgar). We also welcome five new coaches Luke Young (Catani), Jake Harper (Ellinbank), Daniel Fry (Lang Lang), Rod Gundrill (Poowong) and Jordan Wyatt (Yarragon). Good luck to all and enjoy the season!

Around the netball courts we'll see live scoring with the new Netball Connect platform in full use at club level after its testing during finals last year. This is a great advance, decreasing the time score secretaries and volunteers will need to input scores and information post-match.

Development of umpires and coaches is high on the agenda this year and we look forward to our clubs supporting these initiatives. As we know, we can't run netball or sport for that matter without them and we are keen to ensure all players get the best experience both on and off the court, especially after a few disrupted seasons. Players experience often comes from their interaction with coaches and umpires, so hopefully we see development across the board keeping more people engaged in netball.

Encouragingly we are getting far more transfers coming in than going out and while not good at crystal ball gazing last years football grand finalists Neerim South and Buln Buln must surely be hard to beat and hearing positive reports that Catani and Nilma Darnum should improve.

In the netball, no doubt everyone will be chasing Neerim South who have maintained their undefeated premiership year team. Nilma Darnum, Trafalgar and regulars Ellinbank will be keen to lift their performance to challenge the Cats, while the likes of Lang Lang, Catani and Buln Buln will be vying for a spot and will need to knock off some of the strong competition to keep their seasons alive towards the back end of the year.

Pleased to report the preparations are well underway for the Netball Association Championships to be held at Moe on 4 June this year. A big thank you all the officials who have volunteered their time, however we still need more! Good luck to all players seeking league selection – we know you will represent us with distinction.

We understand there will be no AFL Vic Football Championships in 2023 so no senior Interleague.

On a positive note we will field an U18 team at the proposed Gippsland Junior Carnival but it appears for the second successive year there will be no U16 carnival. To give our U16s every chance to develop we are currently looking at another East v West Intra-league match after last year's match was a big success and in talks with the West Gippsland Football Netball Competition to arrange an U16 Interleague match.

Very pleased to notify the EDFNL – the merger between EDFL and EDNA is now complete having received our certificate of incorporation from Consumer Affairs Victoria in February. I wish my inaugural board members Karen Porter (Netball Director), Meaghan Newitt (Netball Operations Manager), Chris Behrendorff (Football Director) & Ken Moore (Football Operations Manager) all the best in their new roles.

We are also delighted to announce that our league naming rights sponsor Parklea is back on board again. Parklea is an Australian owned company leading the way in property development in Victoria.

We are also happy to announce we have renewed our partnership with radio station SEN 91.9FM who will again broadcast an EDFNL match every week. Big thanks to our other sponsors John Duff & Co, Quality Site Welding, Physioworks Health Group, the Warragul Gazette, Warragul Downtowner, Hip Pocket, Body Fit Training Warragul, Robin Hotel Inn & AG Warehouse. We have three new sponsors; C&R Strength & Conditioning, Relink Consulting and Intersport Warragul whose logo will be on the league footballs this season.

We are indebted to all our sponsors and encourage all clubs to show their support for these businesses. If recent years serve as a guide there will be plenty of competitiveness among all our footy and netball grades. Not every team can win on the last Saturday of our season but hope your clubs can achieve their goals. Bring on the 1st of April.

2023 Season Preview - Football

parklea.

The odour of liniment is in the air which signals the football season is upon us. Every year is full of intrigue and the 2023 Parklea EDFNL season is no different. The 2022 premiers Neerim Neerim South and runners up Buln Buln can both lay claim to equal premiership favouritism this year but we all know much can go wrong, plans don't go to script and tipsters are not the best judges which all adds to the mystique of what will transpire.

What we can confirm is round 1 of a 20 round season will kick off on 1 April. Finals commence on the 26th August with the Grand Final on 16th September and five teams have new coaches - Catani (Luke Young), Ellinbank (Jake Harper), Lang Lang (Daniel Fry), Poowong (Rod Gundrill) and Yarragon (Jordan Wyatt).

CLUB by CLUB OUTLOOK IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER

BULN BULN

Coach: -Bob McCallum, In 2022- Runner up 14 wins
Prediction 1st – 3rd

Nothing but a flag with satisfy the Lyrebirds. It was desperately unlucky to lose in last year's grand final. Boasts the best defence in the competition led by Shaun Beecroft, Tom Axford and Jake Herbel. Bob McCallum and Matt Gray despite their age are still by far the best ruck duo in the competition. Trent Baker and Sam Batson are among the elite midfielders and bolstered by the arrival of some quality recruits it will be mighty hard to beat.

In: Dylan Cann, Jack Blakey & Riley Rundell (Bunyip), Kyan Willis (WarrInd), Mitch Nobelius (Warragul – returns).Damian Handley (Ellinbank).

Out: James Fowler (Caloundra), Marco Kulas (Buln Buln).

CATANI

Coach: - Luke Young, In 2022 – 10th 1 Win
Prediction 7st – 9th

Could the Blues be a smokey this year? Last year's performance bore little resemblance to what it has produced over the last two decades. Its list has had a total makeover so their fortunes are difficult to predict. Fans can look towards the opening month with plenty of optimism.

Coach: - Jake Harper, In 2022 – 5th (Prelim final) 11 Wins
Prediction 3rd – 5th

The Eagles experience came to the fore to assist it make a late rush to play in the prelim last year. Leg speed and run is still an issue but the Eagles have enough quality players in Ben Wragg, Dan Risol & Liam Carolan – although getting on in years - to remain in good order and finish in the upper reaches of the ladder.

In: Rylan Smith (Cora Lynn), Keegan Bott (East Malvern).

Out: Lachlan Cove (Cora Lynn), Lucas Maffei (Nilma Darnum), Damian Handley (Buln Buln).

LANG LANG

Coach: -Daniel Fry, In 2022- 6th 9 wins
Prediction 4th -6th

Not out of the reckoning as a top four prospect. This scribe is adamant it underperformed last year. Needs to tighten up its defence and generate more midfield run to support midfield gun Sean Dwyer if it is to play finals. The newcomers should ensure the Tigers are a better outfit which should give supporters a lot of hope.

In: Daniel Reid (Traralgon), Bryce Ridsdale (Pearcedale), Dylan Gallasch (Bunyip), Geordie Wells (Devon Meadows), Chase Jordan (Karingal), Mitch Davey, Riley Dolan, Kalin Parker (Koo Wee Rup).

Out: Luke Collie (Yeppoon), Aaron Rose, Josh Collie (Heatherston), Brad Aldwell (Kilcunda Bass), Liam O'Connor (Upwey Tecoma).

LONGWARRY

Coach: - Dale Serong, In 2022 – 8th 6 Wins
Prediction 8th – 9th

The Crows were found wanting last year after plenty of departures in the summer of 2021.

It blooded many youngsters who all showed a lot and is likely to do the same again. Still too much dependence on midfield dynamo Russell Lehman. Rumours about a few up and coming youngsters may seek to play at a higher level. Think the Crows will be treading water for most of the season.

In: Darren Granger (Stony Creek), Troy Lehman (Bunyip), Jackson Mouser (Garfield)

Out: Bailey Stephens (Drouin), Clancy Pope (Nar Nar Goon), Copper Brown (Gippsland Power)

NEERIM SOUTH

Coach: -Brent Mounsey, In 2022 – 1st 18 Wins
Prediction 1st – 2nd

The reigning premiers are the yardstick. Undefeated in the home and away season in 2022 and has retained almost its entire senior list. Has the most balanced team in the competition. Ruck rover Kody Wilson is a star, veteran Chris Urie still a formidable player and plenty of up scope in Luke Kinder, Lachlan Bainbridge, Isaac Fuller and Lachlan Guy to suggest it has further room to improve. Barring a premiership hangover nothing less than a preliminary final beckons.

In: Jeremiah Jones (Darwin – returned), Aaron Mitchell (Drouin), Marco Kulas (Buln Buln)

Out: Matt Quigley (Tweed Heads), Luke O'Donoghue (Wattle Park).

NILMA DARNUM

Coach: Paul Alger, In 2022 - 11th No Win
Prediction 9th – 11th.

Will look to climb off the canvas after a miserable 2022. On the plus side its best midfielder Nathan Campbell will be pleased quite a number of its former players have returned. It will improve but will still find the season heavy going.

In: Blake Cann (Bunyip), Lucas Maffei (Ellinbank), Billy Jack Smith, Cody Harrison (Yallourn North), Sage Tapner (Yarragon), Travis

Dyke (Hill End), Luke Galley (Longwarry), Korey Carrison (Yarram), Harrison Moore (Yarram),

Out:

NYORA

Coach: - Dylan Heylen, In 2022 - 10th 1 Win
Prediction 6st – 8th

The positives outweigh the negatives for the Saints who have loaded up with new recruits. Leaked goals far too easily last year. If the newcomers can fix this issue it could produce a few upsets and push for a finals berth. Coach Dylan Heylen, brother Jesse and high leaping 2022 MVP Travis Stewart seldom play a bad game but will need their mates to put in for all four quarters rather than half a match if it is to trouble the top teams.

Out: Nil

POOWONG

Coach:- Rod Gundrill, In 2022 – 4th (Elim Final)
Prediction 7th -9th

Kicking big scores was a problem for the Magpies last year so the loss last years leading goal kicker Patrick Harmes is significant. Furthermore it has lost the versatility of Jayden Sullivan and a lot of midfield run. Last year's Alf Walton medal winner Jack Hazendonk – who has now won three league B&F's will carry a heavy burden. A lot to like about ruck Conor Cunningham, Tom Robertson and Alex Henshall last year but the Magpies look like they will struggle to play finals.

In: Jarvis Brown (Tarwin), Mitch Molloy (Koo Wee Rup), Damon Hansen (Tarrawingee), Joel Norton (Stony Creek), Charlie Koscal, Brock Furness, Ray Pattinson (Korumburra).

Out: Jayden Sullivan, Jed Benham, Patrick Harmes, Josh Harvey (Devon Meadows), Will Lumby (Tooradin), T.J.Loughridge (Korumburra), Cody Loughridge (Stony Creek), James Scott (Inverloch).

TRAFALGAR

Coach: Tom Hallinan, In 2022 – 3rd & 1st Semi Prediction 5nd – 7th

The Bloods have certainly earned respect since it joined the league but hard to imagine it being the force of recent seasons due to many quality departures. Appears it will have a heavy dependence on ruckman & 2021 League B&F Dylan Farrell along with evergreens Klay and Jace Butler. It has shown to have good depth which will make it competitive but will do well if it can make the finals.

In: Cooper Minichiello (Warrind), David Baker, Curtis Barker (Cranbourne), Bailey Webb (Tooradin), Maclan McInnes (Waratahs – NTLF).

Out: Chris Kyriacou, Tyson Leys, Blake Slater (Churchill), Matt Van Schajck (Highett), Damian Mann (Ballina), Hayden & Darcy Brock, Jake Nash (Mirboo North).

YARRAGON

Coach: - Jordan Wyatt, In 2022 8th Wins 7
Prediction 7th – 9th

The Panthers have disappointed since it joined the league and need to take a big scalp to make its rivals sit up and take notice. Lachlan Shaw and Tyler Payroli never fail to deliver but will need a few buddies to step up if it is to threaten the top five.

In: Tom Wyatt (Drouin), Dean Fitzgerald (Bunyip), Ryan & Lachie Devine (Mooroopna).

Out: Tom Delaney (Hallam).

Round 1 Preview - Netball

Round 1 2023 – it's great to be back courtside!

As always, there's plenty of change in the offseason – the EDNA & EDFL amalgamation has given us the EDFNL with executives Karen Porter as Director of Netball and Meaghan Newitt as Netball Operations Manager.

We have moved to Live Scoring utilising the feature on Netball Connect. This will reduce the post-match requirements for our club score secretaries and at league level as well. Hopefully we have a good transition to the iPads across the board, but if we're learnt anything over past few years when adapting, we need to remain flexible.

Although we're now a couple years down the track from lockdowns, it still seems a struggle at times – less volunteers including Coaches and Umpires around, not enough players available, but as a netball community, we rally, and no doubt make that famous call "Here If You Need" to ensure as many people are involved, and players take to the court and play our great game.

Over 50 junior players will hit the courts tomorrow for trials to represent the EDFNL at the Netball Victoria Association Championships in Moe on June 4th. Like above, getting coaches has been difficult, but hopefully we can get five teams on court and not only the players, but umpires get the opportunity to be Talent Identified to start their netball pathway journey.

So, we turn our attention to what our A Grade competition has in store for us this year. No surprises we start with Neerim South after their historic Premiers Champions season last year. Coach Christie Urie lead her team superbly all season, adding another League B&F to her tally. Neerim are now become the hunted, and there will be plenty of teams out to take the four points from the Cats that they were all unable to do last year.

Big ask for the competition when the sisters – Christie, Kim and Tarli remain along with club stalwart Hayley Stringer.

Last year's Runners up Nilma Darnum will again have Rachael Chandler as coach and retain a majority of their squad that got them all the way to the Grand Final. The combination of Mel Cook and Gabrielle Paynter in goals is a dangerous combination as is Stacey Lawry and Nikki Mirams down back. The Darno's had a good 2022 for the whole club and will be hungry to take it a step or two further this year.

Ellinbank will no doubt feature heavily throughout the season with Taylah Wallace at the helm. Rhiannon Haines returns to the Club, last years League B Grade B&F Lauren Johnson will step into A Grade as will juniors including Reagan Joyce and Chloe Johnstone. Write Ellinbank off at your own peril.

Trafalgar also pose a threat come the busy end of the season and the likes of Ella McDonald, Megan Hancock and Ellie Farmer will be their consistent selves. Dani Davies is new to the role of A Grade coach but has been around long enough to know she has a quality team on her hands.

Lang Lang will be looking to back up their finals appearance last year with another go at it under the guidance of Letetia Herbert. The combination of evergreen Renelle Casey and rising star Steph Geyer will provide headaches for opposition defence as will a midcourt who work well together lead by the likes of Gabby Dalgleish.

Outside of last years top five some clubs will be aiming to knock off those above them, however in such a tight competition, it's going to be tough.

Catani finished 6th but were three wins out of finals, so it's a lot of ground to make up. Jessica Hammond will lead the Blues as they welcome back Premiership defender Dani Hanley creating a tall defensive circle with Cara Moody. It will be a young brigade under Hammond with the likes of Kayla Interlandi, Antonia McFarlane and Lauren Birkett on the court.

Buln Buln will be coached this year by Cheryl Kos and on their day are capable of anything. The young players coming through the ranks in Madison Mullen, Paige Baker along with Taylah Thomas will definitely have their moments, but will need to find some more consistency if they're going to trouble the ladder leaders.

Jess Ayres remains at the helm of the Saints at Nyora and will be doing all she can to keep them competitive throughout the season. Tiana Heylen can be a key playmaker for them, but it's whether she has enough support that will be question. Hopefully Nyora can encourage the young players in their 13s who made last years Grand Final to stick around for another 3-4 years to see some benefits to the Club.

Longwarry welcomes back Shelly Brown as A Grade coach along with the Holly Stephens as a playing assistant. Stephens is making an impact at VNL 19s level with Casey Demons and will be looking to lead the young bunch of players the club has coming through thanks to a 15s Premiership last year. If the Crows can get senior games into these talented kids, who knows what Longwarry will have in 2-3 years for their A Grade team!

Abbey Kelson remains in the A Grade coaching role for Poowong. It's some familiar surnames coming through from what is strangely 17 & Under back-to-back Premierships in 2019 and 2022! Makenzie Fort and Mia Blackwood are at the heart of this as the Pies will want to hang on to some home-grown talent.

Yarragon have stuck with Sonya King as A Grade coach as she oversees a program that has talent coming through their juniors, although is still a couple of years off – but it's definitely coming! Courtney Green returns from Bunyip with some new players into the club will hopefully see a more competitive Yarragon unit.

Plenty going on around the netball courts this year, with this just being for the A Grade squads. Our competition runs deep with both B&C Grades very competitive and three junior grades that have an abundance of talent across the competition.

Can't wait to hear the coaches instructions, the umpires whistles and the crowd get behind their teams as we take to the court for season 2023.

Round 1 Preview - Football

The 2023 Parklea EDFNL home and away season begins this Saturday 1st April. Opening round is always chockful of intrigue and a tipster's nightmare as fitness levels are unknown and new recruits and teams often take time to settle. The showpiece match this week is the 2022 grand final reply between last season's premiers Neerim South & Buln Buln. History says the Cats cannot rest of their laurels for since the league reverted back to a 10 team competition (now 11) in 2017 no team has gone back by back flag winners.

NEERIM NEERIM SOUTH v BULN BULN

Neerim will unfurl its premiership flag this week and it can head into the match with confidence. Its premiership team remains intact and based on last season boasts the most potent attack in league with Chris Urie (66 goals), Lachlan Bambridge (63) and Luke Kinder (60) - the top three goal kickers in the competition last year while star ruck rover Kody Wilson chipped in with 32. Buln Buln were left to ponder what might have been after a heartbreaking one point loss in the granny. The Lyrebirds will be out for some degree of revenge and with the addition of midfielders Dylan Cann & Riley Rundell and forward Jack Blakey - all familiar faces to EDFNL fans - it looks to have improved its run and forward potency to complement its stingy defence and can upset the reigning premiers.

TRAFALGAR v YARRAGON

This pair up always arouses strong emotion. Trafalgar could be in for a bumpy ride this season with the loss of a number of quality and seasoned players. The Bloods will have a heavy reliance on ruckman Dylan Farrell and mids Klay Butler and Blake Radford who were first and second respectively in the best & fairest in 2022. The Panthers started to find its feet in the league last year whereby it put in far less sub-par efforts which gives new coach Tom Wyatt a platform to build on. Lachlan Shaw, Taylor Rainey, Tyler Payroli and ruckman Damian Allison always have a crack. Yarragon improved the defensive side of it game in 2022 so I'll tip the visitors to produce an upset.

POOWONG v NYORA

The Magpies square off with the Saints in another derby. With the loss of James Harmes and Jayden Sullivan who kicked 60 goals between them last year Poowong may have worries in attack and aside from Jack Hazendonk - now a three time league B&F after winning the 2022 Alf Walton medal - it has more workers than stars. Nyora's stocks are on rise in terms of the numbers on their senior list due to plenty of newcomers to support a blue collar midfield led by Coach Dylan Heylen. I'll go with my gut feeling and choose Nyora.

ELLINBANK v CATANI

The Eagles contend with a new look Blues outfit. It looks like Ellinbank will again field a team similar to last year which means plenty of experience campaigners. Catani launched a rescue mission over summer in an effort to restore self-esteem after it was on the wrong end of quite a few hidings in 2022. Under new Coach Luke Young doubt the Blues defence will be prised open as easy as it was last year but knocking over the Bankers looks a bridge too far until they settle their line-up.

LONGWARRY v NILMA DARNUM

Very hard to get a read on the Crows. Its second half of the 2022 season does not inspire confidence apart from the rapid development of many of its youngsters but unfortunately the likes of Bailey Stephens, Lachlan Spinks and Clancy Pope have all departed. One thinks veteran Russell Lehman and forwards Jedd Serong and Brayden McHugh will carry an inordinate load. The Bombers have a huge mountain to climb. On the plus side it has lured half a dozen of its former players back and will relish the chance to test themselves and put last year's nightmare season behind it. Uppermost in Coach Paul Alger's mind will be to earn respect from all rivals this year.

Trafalgar Club Notes

WELCOME to all families, players, sponsors and supporters of the Trafalgar Football-Netball Club for another season.

The wait is almost over to get the playing side of things underway as the season begins today.

Some final preparations have taken place this week to make sure everything is in order, for what we hope will be a successful season.

The off season carried with it the usual comings-and-goings of players, as well as appointments to coaching and key off field roles.

Footballers got into the throws of preseason virtually straight after last year's abrupt end, with some clearly eager to avoid a repeat.

Fortunately, a number of preseason sessions were able to be held on the Traf soccer pitches adjacent to the football oval.

Speaking from personal experience and without over exaggerating, the grass surface on the Traf soccer pitch is better than Ted Summerton in Moe, a venue usually rated the premier sporting facility in the region.

There was certainly plenty of traffic at times during preseason, as footballers and netballers operated at the same time as cricketers and soccer players.

We may well see a drastic improvement in our netballers' evasive skills this season, such as the number of cricket balls hit in their direction over the last few months.

Our netballers were treated to a clinic and talk by Australian captain Liz Watson recently, who came down to Traf to share her knowledge of the game. The club also had Barry Hall visit last week for a great night of recollections from his playing days.

Traf's preseason was highlighted by A Grade and B Grade competing in the Voyage Preseason Cup in readiness for the season proper.

Leading the netball in season 2023 will be Dani Davies as A Grade coach, working alongside Cass Wass and Alesha Hallinan (B Grade), Wayne Farrell (C Grade), Ellie Farmer (17s), Calli Koch (15s) and Imogen Smith (13s).

In football, Tom Hallian returns for his second season as senior coach, while Mitch Smart is doing likewise with the reserves.

Pleasingly, we have been able to field both junior football sides for the upcoming season. Coaches Blake Radford and Matt Devon, two great young men, have been doing a power of work behind the scenes to see us return to having a full complement of sides.

Getting back to facilities, it would be remiss not to mention the Commonwealth Games, which are heading this way in 2026

Surely those athletes are going to need a state-of-the-art oval to train on...

Best wishes to all for the season ahead. We look forward to what 2023 will bring

Yarragon Club Notes

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT – BAZ!

G'day and welcome to all Yarragon players, families, supporters and sponsors.

Today we travel down the highway to the home of arch rivals Trafalgar for Round 1 of season 2023.

The club is excited to bring in yet another new season of competitive Football & Netball.

It has been another busy and hardworking pre-season for both our footballers and netballers and our club is looking forward to showcasing the talent of our players and seeing what each team can bring throughout this season.

Yarragon set a foundation last year to improve on the field and court and this year is no different as we continue this foundation moving forward into this upcoming season.

We are still on the lookout for helpers to become involved and lend a hand where you can. If you think you are the fit for this and wanting to help out or know of someone that would love to be involved with our club, we would love to hear from you.

Goodluck to all teams and coaches today for the first hit out of the season. GO PANTHERS!

AROUND THE GROUND - FOOTBALL PRE-SEASON RECAP

A lot has been happening around the ground in the off season at Downton Park Reserve.

With our under 16's just falling short in the decider last year, the Yarragon Under 16's have returned with an eagerness to go one step further in 2023. The boys have been working hard during the summer months to get themselves ready for a big season ahead. It was a challenging 2022 for our Under 18 boys, but they have returned bigger and better for the 2023 season. After falling short in the elimination final by two points in a brave showing out at Nyora, our boys are more determined than ever to show what they can do coming off a hard working pre-season.

As for our senior playing group, our pre-season kicked off in November doing two nights a week all the way through until now. Numbers have been steady, getting plenty of different boys hitting the field across the two nights. We have had two practice match hit outs, winning one, losing one and we thank both Thorpdale and South Mornington for giving us a hit out before the opening round of 2023 today against Trafalgar. We've recruited well in the off season, Trav Davis, Blair Clymo, Andrew Chadwick, Lachie Devine, Ryan Devine and Jack Griffiths have all joined the club. We feel as though we are in a good place going into this season. I thank Tyler Payroli and Sam van der Zalm for their ongoing support as assistants especially.

AROUND THE COURT – NETBALL PRE-SEASON RECAP

Here at Yarragon we have been working hard in the off season to build a supportive, all-inclusive foundation for 2023 across all grades. Through these efforts we are proud to be putting on the court all grades from A through to Under 13's in the EDFNL competition, and Under 15's and Under 11's in the WDNA competition. With five junior teams this year we are excited to have such a great base for our juniors. We have been running group training sessions for all players twice a week through pre-season and will continue to run a group training night on Thursdays throughout the year. We love seeing our juniors and seniors all training together to improve their fitness and game skills. This year we are welcoming back some past Yarragon players into our senior teams and we're excited to see these girls back into their netball and wearing the Yarragon colours. Our club has also gained interest from outside our area this year, and this season we have welcomed players to our club from Drouin, Warragul, and even NSW. The all-inclusive culture is building at Yarragon and we are excited for some great netball to be played over the coming years.

Longwarry Club Notes

Welcome everyone back for the 2023 season.

Football has had an interesting off season with a few players returning and a few players leaving for other opportunities and we wish them all the best. This has created further opportunities for our group of young guns and I look forward to seeing them develop their exciting talent this year. Welcome to Darren Granger and his family to the club this year. Darren has come on board as Assistant coach bringing with him a wealth of experience and on field leadership to our young group. Best of luck to Dale, Pete, Foxy and Jake in leading our teams this year.

Netball has had an exciting preseason with Mia McGarrity taking the teams through their paces in a fitness based preseason. Numbers on the training court have been fantastic and exceeded all expectations so we are excited to see what the 2023 season may bring. 3 practice games have showed that we are ready to go and have some exciting talent on our lists ready to perform on 2023. Best of Luck to Shelly, Holly, Darcy, Renee, Rach, Trace, Amity and Jodie in guiding our teams through 2023.

Today we will be celebrating some milestones within our senior netball so we would like to congratulate Lisa Hadkiss on 250 games and Sophie Green on 100 games. Amazing effort ladies!

Good luck to all teams today.

Regards

Chewy

Nilma-Darnum Club Notes

Gday Everyone,

Another preseason down and another season of football and netball is set to start. It was a busy off season in both football and netball with try outs held and cuts made over at the courts as girls try and go one better in 2023 after falling just short 2022.

The boys have been hitting the track hard in the preseason and have picked up a few players which are always handy. We have had good numbers at training which has been great. Paul Alger coaching the seniors, Corey Wright & Brett Cameron coaching the Reserves we are in good hands and we hoping to improve on last year. I would like to welcome Ben Egan as our under 16's coach and all the new families to the club. It's really exciting to have the boys running around this year after not filling Under 16's for 5 years. This is the future of the club and we wish you all the best for the year.

Over at the courts they will be searching for more club success this season. 2022 proved amazing results across their senior teams, however they will be hungry for that icing on the cake they missed out on last year. This year's goal will be to radiate the success of finals right through from juniors to seniors and really put the club in a great position moving forward.

Our 13 & Under team is a brand new bunch of girls. All looking and striving to play the best netball they can. They will learn a lot along the journey this year from gun netballer Stacey Lawry.

15 & Under will once again be coached by Bec Tweddle. The team will have a strong chance this year with some quality talent in each third. The girls who played together last year welcomed a few girls from 13 & Under to an already talented bunch.

D grade will be co-coached by Rachael Chandler and Nikki Mirams. We welcome a handful of new players to the club. These girls, with the inclusion of some of our girls from last year will be a force to be reckoned with. This group have some amazing talent and we are excited to see how the future of the club will go this year.

C grade led by Caitlyn Frecklington for her second year at the club, have a lot of potential once again. Just missing out on the grand final last year, these ladies have the determination to make it all the way this season. We have some new young inclusions in the team and are excited to welcome back an old face to the club.

B grade will be headed by Mel Cook for the second year running. These guys are out for redemption after losing the grand final last year. The line up looks slightly different, however some powerful forces again in each third will prove to be a handful for teams this year.

A grade will be led by Rachael Chandler for another year running. There is no doubt these girls will be working twice as hard and looking to take the Darnos that one step further this year.

We had huge success in all our senior grades last year, making either a prelim or grand final which is amazing for our club. However, the girls now have a newfound hunger to taste success in 2023.

Lastly to our sponsors and volunteers thank you for your ongoing support and efforts. It doesn't go unnoticed.

Go Darnos in 2023 !!

We would like to again thank all of our sponsors for their continued support. Please support the companies that support us.

China's Chirps

Welcome to the 2023 home and away season. We hope everyone had an enjoyable break.

Today we welcome Catani to our home ground and are looking forward to the days matches across football and netball to start the season. We wish all teams the best of luck.

At the beginning of C Grade, B Grade and Reserves games, we will be unfurling the premierships flags from 2022. An outstanding achievement for the club last year, congratulations to all involved.

Over the past couple of months, we have sadly lost some members of our community. Our heartfelt condolences go to Caleb Kriesl, Faye Pratt and Kevin Pratt's families. Black armbands will be worn across the club today in memory and respect of these wonderful people.

At Ellinbank there have been some changes and additions across the committee, football and netball coaching and playing groups. We are excited about the direction and future of the club. We wish all the best of luck for the season.

Our first function is tonight at the social rooms. Come along for a great night!

Catani Club Notes

Football

Welcome, Nihao, Kamusta, Bom dia, it's Season 2023! We're off to Ellinbank today after a big preseason for the Blues and looking forward to cracking in for another year.

Some changes of the guard during the off season, first our new President, Grant 'Cowboy' Williams, takes the reigns to steer the club in the right direction, let's all get behind him with plenty of support and help throughout the year. We also welcome new coaches in both Seniors and Reserves.

Luke 'Youngy' Young takes over as head coach and has already had big impact, his vision for the future of the club is as exciting as the visor he wears at training, good luck Youngy we're right behind you. For every Batman there's a Robin and Graham Atkins fits the description well as off-field assistant, birdwatchers might dispute his voice is like a songbird but his warm-ups have become music to the ears as we all hit the deck. Three playing assistants to introduce, first new-comer Matt 'Suey canal' Soutter, his passion for footy and seeing the team improve has been second to none, we welcome him on board. Likewise we welcome Adam 'not temporary' Splatt, his routine pre-season guest appearance has become permanent fixture as he takes on the role as forward coach. Lastly down the backline, Dylan 'no longer monotone' Williams re-commits as an assistant, Humdrum no longer, his voice variance lessons have paid off as he brings leadership and direction to the team.

In the Reserves, we have co-coaches leading the boys, we welcome Tony 'Senior Doogs' Miller who brings a new voice and leadership for the team, and returning coach Shaun 'Casper' Donnelly, who did a fantastic job last year to keep the boys on the park each week. We wish both coaches plenty of good luck this year. Lots of other new players to welcome this season which will all get a mention in Follower's to come.

Off the field we congratulate Ray Jones as our number 1 ticket holder and look forward to seeing Ray and his family at many of our home games. For our loyal supporters, footy is back and it's an exciting year ahead, with fresh energy, new recruits and old faces returning, it's fantastic to be back and we look forward to plenty more wins in the navy blue this year.

Viceroy, Tanny

Netball

We're back!! It's Round 1, 2023 and finally we're out of the preseason and into the season proper!

There's been a bit of change going on around the place at Catani, both at the courts and oval, but after at least 10 weeks, we're finally here at Ellinbank and ready for the season opener.

From the top, we are excited to have our Premiership goaler Jessica Hammond coaching A Grade.

Jess has been outstanding since getting the gig and we look forward to watching her grow into the role. Ange Banbury is back up to B Grade – would be lovely to return to the heights of 2019, but there's plenty of work to be done to get there.

Leanne Smith returns after a "so called year away" to take the reigns of C Grade and the 17s. We all know Leanne has a deep passion for netball and Catani and we hope more success both for the junior and senior contingent comes her way.

Georgia Tymensen and Bec Redley will oversee the 15s. A talented bunch with an influx of some new players to the club, will hopefully see some rewards come their way. And finally, Ange & Antonia McFarlane are sticking with the 13s with plenty on the list to rotate their way through the season.

As mentioned, and featured on the socials, there has been plenty of players returning and coming to the club for 2023 and we can't wait to see everyone in the Navy Blue and part of the #cataniarmy this year.

There will be plenty to update everyone with throughout the season in the Follower including social functions, fund raisers and other opportunities to get involved with the club – so make sure you get a copy or hopefully download it as you drive in. And of course, if you're on the socials but not connected to us, then get on the gram... @catanifootynetball or on the Face page and groups – Catani Football Netball Club.

See you at the courts!

The Other President,
Ange

Football Report

Preseason 2023 has been very exciting for the saints.

We have recruited well, assigned 3x new coaching positions and secured a preseason fitness coach who led a solid preseason program ensuring we are fit and ready to go.

The boys have brought in and gave their best through every session.

The rest of the coaching staff and I are excited to see what the new members can bring but also excited to see what our existing players can do with a big preseason under their belt.

We hope to play an exciting brand of footy led by our young talented group. We aim to continue to improve every year.

Rd 1 vs Poowong is a massive game for our confidence heading into the rest of the year. Hopefully, we can start the year firing!

Netball Report

Seniors - Going into 2023, we have had probably the biggest influx of new senior players in quite a few years. We are looking forward to building new, strong connections on court and setting the foundations for the years to come.

Our A grade side has changed a little. The return of our dynamic duo, the definition of loyalty, the Heylen sisters is always a combination to watch. Milaylah Howes has joined our club leader, Jassy Batrouney, in defence, and Howes is one to keep an eye on!

We've used our B grade side well over the years to develop players, prepping them for A grade. Our B grade side has some OGs and fresh faces.

C grade has 10 of its 12 players new to the club (some that have never played netball before). This made us keen to utilise some of our homegrown talent with Shannon Heylen coming on board as coach, with the help from our club roots, the experienced Sheryl Walters who returns as assistant.

We are so excited to see the growth each team makes over the year and so proud of how hard they have been working in the lead up to the season.

Juniors - Our juniors also boast plenty of new faces. Whilst we haven't fielded 17 and under this year, we do have 13 and under and 15 and under, we were unable to field 15 and under last year. Some of our seniors are excited to take on the coaching roles with our juniors and share their extensive knowledge! Ash Ferguson & Mikaylah Howes heading the U15s and Brooke Beecroft & Hailey Schreurs bringing up our little fresh faces in U13s.

GUA Report

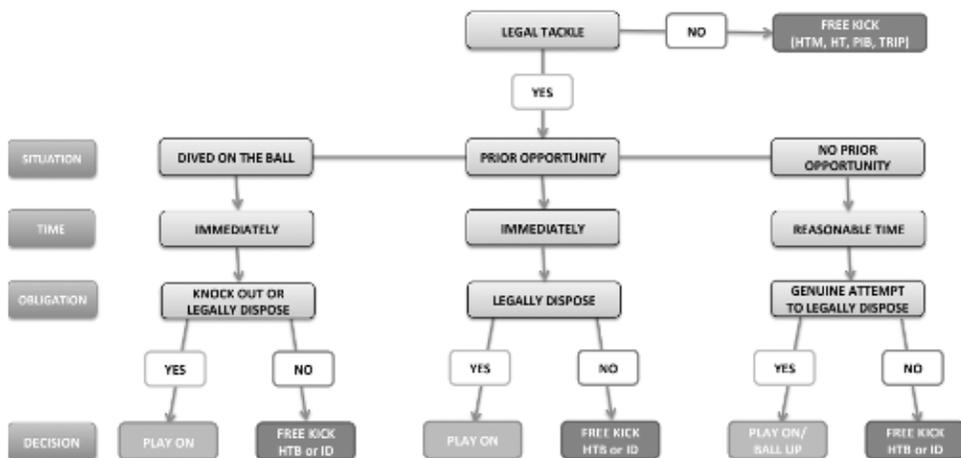

BAAAALLLLLLLLLLL!

Probably one of the most common calls from the boundary and one of those rules which frustrates most of those spectating our great game.

No-one understands it completely, regardless of how many scenarios you go through. Why one minute the umpire pays it against the ball carrier and the next minute against the tackler, even though it looks to be the same thing from the side-line.

Not just that, we all watch the weekend of AFL on the big screen where we scrutinise and watch multiple slow-motion replays of the same incident and most likely become the armchair expert on the rule. Therefore, we know how it should be paid for the next time we are watching the game.

So here it is! In all its glory! And in the second that it happens and the umpire processes this, interprets the process and calls "Play On", you can hopefully appreciate that it is not as easy as it seems.

So, the next time you yell "BAAAALLL" in the dying seconds of the game, you can understand why possibly the umpire has a grin on their face. Its not the first time today that they have heard the call from the crowd and defiantly not the first time 50% of the crowd disagree with the call.

Trivia

Once again our trivia questions this year will continue to have a Gippsland theme – for the first half of the season anyway – before we unveil some very interesting AFL posers?

Round 1 - Trivia Question

I moved to Victoria at the age of 17 to better my chance of an AFL career and was adopted by Jane McDonald of Longwarry and took on her name as recognition of her contribution to my journey. Attended school at Chairo Christian School in Drouin and spent six years playing for the Gippsland Power in the TAC Cup and Essendon's reserves team in the VFL before realising my dream when rookie listed by Essendon at the end of 2015. Finished in the top 10 for the Crichton Medal, Essendon's best-and-fairest award, each season of my career. I announced my retirement on 20 May 2022, however later revoked this and kicked a goal in the opening round of the 2023 season.
