Round 19 Preview - Football

Saturday is round 19 and the penultimate round of the Parklea 2023 home and away season.

Buln Buln is still the flag favourite but is Trafalgar the best team in waiting? The Bloods set tongues wagging last week when it produced a come from behind season defining 14-point victory at Neerim Neerim South. This week it will get the chance to reinforce it is the real deal when it hosts the 2nd placed on the ladder Ellinbank. Tune in to SEN Track 91.9fm for a kick-by-kick description of this blockbuster encounter from 2pm onwards.

Round 19 will also see another crucial encounter between Lang Lang and Neerim South. The Tigers will be out to put the kibosh on the Cats top three aspirations and at the same time consolidate their fifth place on the ladder – which entitles it to an elimination final.

TRAFALGAR v ELLINBANK

After a round 8 loss to Ellinbank and then struggling to brush aside Longwarry, Lang Lang and Yarragon over the next three weeks few keen followers of the league could have envisaged that come round 17 it would thump Poowong by 92 points and put an exclamation mark on its top three ladder chances with a win at Neerim South. Trafalgar's top liners led by Captain Dylan Farrell, Jace Butler and Mitch Virtue never play a bad game. Coach Tom Hallinan has instilled a will to win attitude, and his charges have followed. Ellinbank has also been impressive – even more so. To beat Longwarry last week by 67 points missing Will Jolley, Adam Cook, Ben Wragg, Tom Johnson, Liam Anderson, Jake Harper, Ryan Atherton, Mick Urie and Ash Scott speaks volumes for its depth. Remarkably its reserves still won by 112 points. Mature recruit Mick Ablett has proved to be a good pick up in his three matches since crossing from Warragul Industrials before the transfer window closed. At home Trafalgar should win but it will be no gimme.

LANG LANG v NEERIM NEERIM SOUTH

A helluva lot riding on this game. A must win for both and a real danger match for the visitors.

The Tigers have disappointed and teased supporters all year but after a 52-point win at Poowong last Saturday its fans can start to believe it may be genuine finals material. Ruckman Joe Dagleish has been outstanding over the last month in the absence of fellow tall Mitch Davey while you must admire the week-in-week out efforts of Brad Harding and Josh Brown. Newcomers this season Dylan Gallasch, Daniel Reid and Chaise Jordan have shown to be good additions. Neerim South must win their last two matches to be in contention for a top three ladder finish. Captain and ruck rover Kody Wilson has done his utmost in recent weeks to lift his side. Lang Lang will be fired up and give plenty of cheek but based on its performances against the top four sides this season a win is still wishful thinking.

YARRAGON v POOWONG

The Panthers will be disappointed it could not knock over the 10th team Nyora last Saturday. Put simply it doesn't cut the mustard. Its defence has been solid but it lacks firepower in attack. Aside from some good form from pre-season recruits Trav Davis, Ryan and Lachie Devine and Rob Herman, supporters have little to be enthused about. The Magpies have slipped out of the top five and their percentage is now an issue because it sits 3.5% behind Lang Lang. Fair to say since round 12 it has not been in tip-top shape. Junior Tommy Burgess has kicked a goal in each of his first two senior matches but that aside from that it too has little to be pleased about in recent weeks. Poowong has more to play for and therefore should win.

NILMA DARNUM v NYORA

The Bombers lost by 195 points last week to Buln Buln. Its previous worst loss this year was 80 points back in round 4 and surprisingly to Yarragon. It had the bye last week and one thinks after the hype of the 'Nathan Buckley' match in round 16 it may have just tuned off for the season. The Saints have underperformed this year but after last week's win over Yarragon it still has a pulse. A lot to like about the Philip Island recruits Nick Anderson, Finlay Cousins and Josh Ryan who have lent good support to mainstays Dylan Heylen and Jordan Anderson.

CATANI v BULN BULN

Prior to its bye last week, the Blues made a positive start with six first quarter goals against Yarragon only to fall in with a victory with a goal in the final 30 seconds to chalk up its third win of the season and two more than in 2022. Small forward James Williams has proved lively with three goals in each of his last two outings while in the absence of Captain Dylan Williams co- Vice Captains Tyson Robinson and Brett Williams have stepped up. The Lyrebirds reinforced their hunger with a ruthless thrashing of Nilma Darnum last week. Forward pocket Hayden Baker steered through 8 goals and is now equal Neerim South's Luke Kinder on 49 goals who trail Ellinbanks Shaun Phelan who has 51 goals in the league goal kicking award. Reece Campbell (32 goals) and Riley Rundell (27) have added to Buln's forward potency this season.

Lang Lang Club Notes

Last week the club looked to bounce back when we headed to Poowong after a tough week against Buln Buln. In what was a positive outcome, the club managed to come away with three out of four wins, with the U18s going down by a single point in a thrilling last quarter.

This week at home offers another huge challenge as we welcome Neerim South to Lang Lang.

Good luck to all teams playing today.

Coaches Comments:

U16s

When young men take ownership of the outcome there can be no loser. The team accepted the responsibility of performing under the pressure of making or not making finals football. Having previously committed to a no excuses approach to every game the team unpacked the previous loss and used the information as preparation for their next outing. From the first bounce every contest was tackled with intensity and a never give up attitude.

The after-game song represented reward for resilience and care for the team. Every player deserved to sing the victory song.

U18s

After heading into the last quarter with a 29 point lead the boys were unable to hold on for their third victory of the season. We will look to learn from this lost opportunity and continue to work hard on the training track to improve.

Reserves

Today up against Poowong we started a little slower than we'd have liked, to Poowong's credit they threw a lot at us early. The longer the game went the better we played. The boys really finished strongly, with our best performance being in the final quarter.

Best on the day were Buckets, Jesse and Mitch

Seniors

The first quarter against Poowong was one of the best quarters of football played by the team this season, with the boys taking a 38-point lead into the first break. The boys continued to work hard for each other and showed a want for every contest. The lead grew at every break with the side eventually ending the game with a 52-point win.

Neerim-Neerim South Club Notes

As we head off to Lang Lang today, we look forward to the challenges they bring. All our footy teams sit in the top 5 and so do our senior netball teams. Our 13's need to win the next two games to make the top 5 also. An exciting place for our club to be in but we've definitely put in the hard yards to be in this position! A massive thank you to our players, members, coaches and amazing volunteers!

Last week we took on Trafalgar at home and came away with 6 wins for the day. Our 13's started off the day with a 5 goal win and keep their finals hopes alive. Our 15's & 17's both had a loss. Our 16's had a massive comeback to get the win and the 18's had a 4 goal last quarter to get the win by 12 points. C Grade continue to impress with an 11 goal win. B Grade who lost by 30 to Traf last time were up by 2 at half time but couldn't keep up the intensity and lost by 14. Our A grade girls put on a show with a 40 goal win. The Development team had a slow start but continue to impress with an 86 point win and the Senior boys had a tough match with Traf matching every goal we kicked with their own and running away at the end to beat us by 14 points.

Trafalgar Club Notes

ON the home stretch now as finals approach.

Just two rounds remain in the regular season, during which time teams will either be solidifying or surviving what is essentially a glorified game of snakes and ladders.

Welcome Ellinbank players and support staff to Trafalgar. We look forward to some great contests, not just in football and netball today, but indeed all-year round now that Traf will also be playing against Ellinbank in cricket once again.

Those traversing the Traf rooms during cricket season might notice a new paragraph has already been added to the frame dedicated to the club's 130 year history, which now reads: Trafalgar competed in the LVDCL for five seasons, adding two more flags, before opting to move back to the WDCA in 2023-24 as the LVDCL looked to take in even more clubs from Traralgon.

More positive news out of the town has been the announcement that senior coach Tom Hallinan is continuing on next year.

Tom will move into his third season, after leading the Bloods to successive finals series.

The senior team had their best win for the season last round, defeating reigning premier Neerim Neerim South.

Spectators were treated to an arm wrestle, which eventually saw the Bloods victorious by 14 points, 13.6 (84) to 10.10 (70).

Dylan Farrell played a captains game and was best-on-ground. Others to perform well were Mitch Virtue, Hardy Kenny, Jace Butler, Grady McMahon and Curtis Baker.

The win keeps the seniors inside the top three by half-a-game. Not bad for a team that lost 20 players before the season.

The reserves are unfortunately not going to play finals, and will be using the last two weeks to try and see in the post-season festivities with a win. Traf was well beaten by NNS last game, despite the presence of Billy Claridge, who tried to inspire the side to great heights. Honest contributions came from James De Graaf, Jaxen Rowe, Todd Mann, Tai Langan, Brady Heywood and Maclan McInnes.

As fate would have it, the under 18s are in a fight for finals with Yarragon. It just had to be didn't it. The Bloods were defeated by NNS last round, with Bailey Sword, Toby Radford, Dustin Blackshaw, Owen McLeod-Agland, Will Robinson and Juddson Ryan playing well in a losing cause.

The under 16s are outright third on the ladder, and proved their worth in a good game against the undefeated NNS. The Bloods were ahead at three quarter time, but faded badly in the last, not troubling the scorers. Juddson Ryan was good, as was Memphis McQualter, Isaac Caroleo, Archie Fraser, Oliver McQualter and Toby McCabe.

On the netball court, A Grade went down to a very strong opposition. Nonetheless, Piper Albert did a good job for Traf.

B Grade enjoyed better success, winning 60 to 46. Cass Wass was again busy under the ring, shooting a number of goals.

C Grade lost a competitive game, but Elly Heywood played well.

In juniors, it was two from three, with wins to the 17s and 15s. Piper Albert set a good tone for her day on a personal level with a best-on-court display.

Ella Cosgriff got the votes in the 15s, while Aylah Collins did likewise in the 13s.

Yarragon Club Notes

The gates of Downton Park Reserve are open and our trusty, reliable and committed gate men are ready to greet you for one last time of the 2023 home and away season. We welcome all of our players, coaching staff, club officials, members, sponsors and last but not least the Poowong Football Netball Club to the home of the panther's territory for today's Round 19 battle.

There has been some heartbreak and devastating blows over the last couple of weeks for our footballers, that unfortunately has resulted in their finals hopes to gradually slip away underneath their fingertips and last weekend was one of them days that was sadly added to the list with Nyora staying in front and our boys just not being able to hold on in the end.

Over to our netballers and did they turn the heat up out at Nyora last weekend or what? Leaving nothing behind once that final siren went. Wins from all grades boosts the confidence of the girls coming into today's matches against the magpies and if today is anything like last time we met, then we are in for a BIG day so you would want to make sure you get across to the courts to check the girls out.

Although we are just two weeks off from wrapping things up for the year ahead of finals, there is still work to be done for some of our junior teams (Football & Netball) who have finals in sight.

A big final series awaits here at Yarragon this year, with our club to host not only the 1st Semi Final but also the Grand Final. Days like these are just like any other Saturday throughout the year, BUT bigger and it takes a village of people like our amazing committee who go above and beyond to prepare for these sorts of days in order to have everything run smoothly.

GOODLUCK & GO P.A.N.T.H.E.R.S!!

Reserves:

Firstly, congratulations to Shorty (Luke Tagliaferro) on playing his 200th senior game. A true clubman who always gives his best.

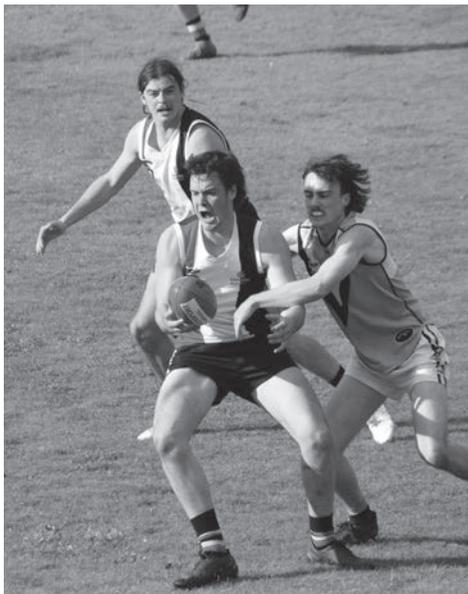

In total contrast to their previous game the reserves came out to help celebrate Shorty's milestone game and had winners all over the ground. Stand outs were the ever reliable Shaun Lamb, Brad Welsh, Trent Breen (2 goals), Andrew Dike, Brad Drews, Lucas Lee and Jake Prosser with 4 goals.

Amazing what can be achieved if all players have a red hot go.

Seniors:

Fresh after last week's bye and confident after beating Yarragon earlier in the year we had a slow start allowing them the first 2 goals but then dominated the second half of the first quarter to go into quarter time level.

The second quarter starter with Nick Anderson taking a great one handed mark resulting in the first of his 4 goals for the afternoon and it was followed shortly after with a pin point pass from Dyl Heylen to Scotty Pugh to give us some breathing space. Dyl was in the thick of everything and dominating but Yarragon were able to get a few goals in junk time to end the first half even.

We had all the play in the third quarter but didn't capitalise until Nick Anderson snapped a few more great goals and Scotty Pugh put his third thru at the end of the quarter giving us a slim lead going into the last.

The last quarter started goal for goal with Jono Hewitt getting amongst them and when Sam Dixon sent one thru the big sticks with about 5 minutes to go it opened the floodgates and goals followed with Josh Ryan, Jack Keating and Nick Ando. Trav Stewart bagged one right on the final siren and we ran out winners by around 4 goals

Better players on the day were Dylan Heylen, Finlay Cousins, Jack Rosenow, Jordy Anderson, Trav Stewart just to name a few in a great team effort.

Well done boys and let's finish off the season with 2 more wins.

Carn the Saints

Netball

Welcome to Round 19 and to Buln Buln for our last home game of 2023 and our penultimate for the season... yes, that reads correctly, the season is fast approaching its end.

Not sure if the bye is a good thing, sometimes it's nice to have a week off, but knowing we have only today and next week for some of us, it's just less time we get to spend together in the Navy Blue.

Our last match gave us five W's on the netball and two at footy – almost the perfect day. However, Yarragon are fast improving on the netball court – which is great to see for the competition, but just another reality check that we must continually look for ways to improve both on and off the court.

This weekend we face the might of Buln Buln and there is a lot riding on the outcome of the results, and it all starts from the 13s! Buln are undefeated in the youngest crew, and we sit a close 2nd on the ladder with our only defeat at the hands of Buln back in Round 8. A win for us probably won't change ladder positions, however it will be good for confidence just weeks away from the finals series.

Buln sit on top of the ladder in the 15s as well, so our girls will be up against it but have an opportunity to spoil things should they bring their best. Our 17s are just 0.01% from 2nd spot, while Buln is out of the top 5 by percentage, so the game will have a lot riding on it for both teams.

Huge stakes for C Grade – with Buln 2 points behind us on the ladder as we sit in 5th spot. Essentially a finals game for us before they actually start in a few weeks. While mathematically possible, B Grade will need all the stars aligned along with everyone's lucky underpants on to stay in finals contention, which starts with a win over Buln Buln and some crazy results going our way.

A Grade will be playing for pride, however Buln must win if they want the 5th spot on the ladder should results go their way in the final two games. There's not much separating the teams on their day, but Buln will be up and about that's for sure.

Socially we have the FULL MOON PARTY tonight and then VOTE COUNT next weekend after our Nyora match. Will be great to pack the rooms on both nights before heading into the finals.

Remember to keep up to date with all the on goings of the club including the next function via the socials. Make sure you're connected to us: @catanifootytenball on the 'Gram or on the Facey page and groups – Catani Football Netball Club.

See you at the courts!

The Other President Ange.

Football

Round 19 we welcome Buln Buln and we're back home after a week off to freshen up. A fortnight back was a great round of football and netball for the club on a fantastic day celebrating our 100 years of Catani! Well done to all involved, it was great to see so many familiar faces back at the club and to top it off, two wins for football!

The Reserves played well as a team and came home strong winners, locking in a finals berth, what an achievement for the team after the last few years. Best on ground was our favorite import, Jayden Lay Boy, who won plenty of ball through the middle. Riley Miller and Caleb Allport played blinders off the wing and backline, as did young gun Zac Lengyl and older gun Nic Cullen. Mitch Hovenbitzer made good return kicking a couple of goals and providing well up forward.

The Seniors was a tense affair with the boys coming home in a famous 5 point win. Ex-Skipper Brett Williams was in and under everything the clear standout for the day. He was well supported by the reliable Michael Ralph and younger brother Jim Williams. Speedster Josh Masset won plenty of ball as did the midfield brigade in Ryan Cunningham and Tyson Robinson. Another fantastic team effort from the boys showing we are on the improve and building toward better things.

Big games this week against the top of the table side, we look forward to the challenge. Everyone welcome to stick around for our last function for the year, Jayden Lay's FULL MOON PARTY! Good luck to all our netballers, up the Blue Baggers!

Trivia

Last weeks Question & Answer:

Which club? It joined the league in 1937. It was very successful in the EDFL in the late 1950's to early 1970's winning the flag in 1958, 1959, 1969 & 1971.

Answer: Hallora – Strzelecki. Wikipedia says they wore green & gold colours and sometime within the period 1953-58, Hallora merged with Strzelecki to form the Hallora-Strzelecki FC.

This week's question?

Life members are the lifeblood of clubs and leagues.

Under the EDFNL By Laws players will be considered for life membership when they have achieved playing 300 senior games and have also demonstrated a commitment to the league and /or club such as participation in representative games, club coaching or committee involvement, other contributions to the league or club.

How many EDFL / EDFNL life members can you name since the year 2010?

There have been twelve?

Answer next week.

- If needed game times can be changed to accommodate for U16 players who also play at U18 level
