ROUND 3 INTRODUCTION

Following Clunes achieving its biggest win for many years in round 2 when they travelled to Skipton and defeated last year's preliminary finalist by nine points the Magpies have a further week to wait before they can build upon their sensational start of the season under new coach Tim Shearer, as they have the bye this week.

However, how reflective the Magpies win is of their improvement might be able to be considered this week when Skipton heads to Newlyn with the aim of getting a win to get their first points for 2025.

It is a good test for the Emus because Newlyn with a close-run defeat against Buninyong in round 1 and a win over Waubra most recently has indicated that the Cats are still a good team who are probably as strong as the group which made the top eight last season.

Skipton of last year would be strongly favoured even playing away against Newlyn but the result of the Clunes clash means there is now some doubt over Skipton who lost quite a few of their top team from 2024.

Due to the round 1 bye Skipton may have a reason to a slow start compared to Clunes who had a win under the belts already, but it might also have been taking their opponent too easy and paying the price of overconfidence. The Emus lead by 19 points at quarter time but then lost the next three quarters.

Newlyn meanwhile have added a strong performer into its mid-field through Nedd Bennett and his inclusion into an already very capable group along with the return of renowned goal kicker Marcus Darmody at full forward and the addition of Rhys Perry as a key defender should mean that they have improved on just making finals last year.

At home Newlyn should be approaching this match with a great deal of enthusiasm and an expectation that they could get a second win.

Last season when Waubra and Beaufort faced off it was a similar scenario when neither team had notched up a win and Waubra had a big win.

After a very poor start in round 1 the Kangaroos put in a much great fight in their last match against Newlyn.

Beaufort meanwhile also showed an improved performance against Buninyong compared to how they performed in round 1 against Daylesford. So it would be expected that both clubs are going to be coming into this week with more confidence that they would have after their initial defeats.

Beaufort have added some good players into their squad which has improved them.

Waubra might be a bit further back in their development with a number of younger players trying to blend in with experienced teammates such as Dean Robertson, Alex McPherson and Nic Moran.

It may be the impact of Jack Wotherspoon, Harrison Newitt and Hamish Francis versus Mitchell Thar, Bailey Colligan and Darcy Jenkins which determines a winner here.

Gordon will be looking to inflict Springbank's third defeat to start the season and get their own record to a win and a loss after sitting out round 2 with the bye.

The Eagles were able to hold their own against Dunnstown in round 1 after quarter time when the game had virtually been decided.

Springbank on the other hand have not won a quarter since the initial quarter of the season.

Both clubs have some quality midfielders who will get plenty of opportunities to give their team an advantage at Gordon where a dominant mid field seem to create deep entries into their forward line and good chances to kick a big score.

The Tigers have had many of the mids featuring in their initial two matches, but they have been forced to be gaining possessions closer to half back than half forward and their scoring impact has been blunted.

Gordon meanwhile was still able to get good value out of their primary forwards against Dunnstown with seven goals from Adam Toohey and Jaydon Stiles.

If these two can keep this form, then Springbank's defence lead by Justin Simpson may find itself under continual pressure. Gordon at home to be too strong.

Carngham Linton could also be under a lot of pressure also if they don't get a win this week when they host Dunnstown.

Whereas the Towners has the opportunity to a perfect three-win start to the season, as compared to having to wait until round 7 last season to get to the same point. So, a win will set their season up nicely.

Carngham Linton found the much improved Rokewood Corindhap form too strong last week and following the round 1 loss to Learmonth they could be under real pressure to after just three matches.

The nature of the competition has shown over recent years that if a club gets away to a slow start to the season it is very hard to make it into the top four and it is always very difficult to have a major impact on the finals from the bottom of the eight.

Not all of Learmonth, Rokewood Corindhap and Dunnstown are expected to be top four teams so it means that the Saints still have a lot of strong opposition to come, and more than four losses generally means that a club will miss the top four. In fact if Carngham Linton don't start winning they may find it a struggle to even play finals after two really promising seasons.

Brody Benson has started the season well for the Saints with four goals last week and he might prove to be a difficult match up for Dunnstown normal full back Pat Britt. He may be a better match up for recruit Chris Carson who had a good game against Springbank.

ROUND 3 INTRODUCTION

Dunnstown were without a couple of key players last week in captain Will Henderson and Mitchell Tuddenham who will make the Townners stronger if they return, but overall they appear to be a more settled and experienced team that should be able to get a win.

Rokewood Corindhap are still waiting to have their new clubroom construction to be completed so they will be travelling to Creswick.

Based upon the way in which the Grasshoppers have started the large Doug Lindsay Reserve may even suit them re than their home ground.

They are getting a great deal of drive from their mobile mid-field lead by Ryan and Matthew Aikman, Michael Lockyer and Mack Rivett.

This is complimenting their tall posts up the middle of the ground with Riley Fisher, Grady Snowden, Edward Denouden and Jayden Symes all having an impact at stages across the first two weeks.

Creswick has had a good return already from recruits Michael Brennan and Lachie Grigg, to add to the emerging group of Dane-Francis Whitfield, Marcus Hottes and Ben Dolan who are in their second and third seasons at the Wickers.

They are a club who are improving and will put pressure on Rokewood Corindhap for a long period of the match, but the class of the Emus will show through and they will get a third win and get the season underway with a perfect start.

Learmonth have started the season with what seems to have become their traditional two wins but the challenge is to build upon this start and this week is going to be a major test.

Bungaree have continued to build upon their start of last season when they were undefeated for most of the season and will be ready to see if the Lakies have progressed under new coach Ricky Andrews or are they going to be just off the pace of those who are expected to be serious premierhip contenders.

Dalton Murphy and Joel Mahar have been very prominent with their early season form for the Demons and are both important at creating opportunities for the key forward targets of John Butler, Joel Richardson and James Lukich.

On top of this Bungaree's defence featuring Noah and Alex Browning and Max Lawless confidently cut off most opposition attacks.

This defensive group will cause problems for Learmonth's main forwards of Damon Folkes and potentially Max Rowe as a deep smaller forward as they rarely let the football to get deep enough for the opposition to get easy shots at goal.

It might mean that Learmonth's prominent mid field group of Will Green, Cameron Kimber and James Laidlaw need to create an extra line of run to get the football very deep into the forward line where Folkes becomes an extremely dangerous target.

Bungaree to have too many winners across the ground for Learmonth and stay undefeated.

Ballan get back home this week, but after finding the overall strength of Bungaree too much in round 2 after a promising first quarter the Blues, they have another major task against Daylesford who may be even better than last year. The Bulldogs looked extremely good when they had a massive 92 point win over Hepburn.

Daylesford are an even team which has height across all lines on the ground and many who can play in a range of positions to go along with the strong bodied inside ball winners who were crucial in last year's grand final win. Ballan would appear to still be a few players short against the competition's leader.

They are gradually bringing together a good group of returning juniors, to go with others who have been coming through over recent seasons.

Tom Cox, James Mullane and Jack Jarvis are having an impact at senior level, to add to their other leaders Lachlan Conlan, Daniel Nielsen and Ryan Bongart.

Ballan will be looking to keep pressure on Daylesford for most of the game but it is unlikely that they will be able to cause an upset.

The final match of the round sees Hepburn get back home against Buninyong and they will definitely rebound after last week's significant defeat, and it will be a great test for both clubs.

The Bombers were on a high last week as they celebrated 150 years of the club, but they will need to keep improving on their first two wins to beat Hepburn, who rarely lose at home.

Buninyong have added some good marking targets around the ground to compliment Joel Ottavi and they may set up to stretch the Hepburn defence which relies heavily on Thomas Brown at present.

Aiden Domic and Dominic Sliwa have both started the season well and create good opportunities for forward targets. Which should make for a good contest through the mid-field against Brad McKay, Trent Rafferty and Mitch McKay.

Expect Hepburn to bounce back with their home ground influence and get their first win of the season.

SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR CODE

1. Encourage children to participate if they are interested. However, if a child is not willing do not force them.
2. Focus upon the child's efforts and performance rather than the overall outcome of the event. This assists the child in setting realistic goals related to their ability by reducing the emphasis on winning.
3. Teach your child that honest effort is as important a victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
4. Encourage your child always to play by the rules.
5. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
6. Remember your child should be involved in football for their enjoyment, not yours.
7. Remember your child learns best by example. Applaud good play by both your team and by members of the opposing team.
8. If you disagree with an official or umpire raise the issue through the appropriate channels
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abus from junior sporting activities.
10. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your child and deserve your support.
11. Support your club officials in maintaining the highest standard of behaviour both on and off the field for the betterment of the league and your family. Offer your assistance to the team that your child is playing in so that every opportunity is being provided for the very best supervision and support. Your involvement will give both yourself and your child far more satisfaction.
12. Avoid use of derogatory language based on gender or race.
