ROUND 4 INTRODUCTION

Two matches in particular appeal this week as the competition starts to settle into a few weeks of regular games and new clubs are trying to stamp their impression on the senior grade ladder.

Clunes and Rokewood Corindhap have each started very strongly in their matches so far and this week gives them the chance to show if there is some substance to their improvement or are they still not quite good enough to be a finals contender.

Rokewood Corindhap have not made it into a senior final series since joining the league in 2011 and it will be a few weeks before they have convinced followers as they have started strongly in recent years before falling off the top eight pace, often due to injuries to key players who had been brought into the club.

However this year there looks to be something different about the Grasshoppers which gives added hope.

Additions of Grady Snowden, Tim McLennan and Jayden Symes have been vital in building the tall player stocks who can fill in a number of roles. So far they have been effective at centre half back, ruck and full forward respectively, although Snowden was missing last week and it will be hoped that he is back this week.

Their addition into the line up has made Rokewood Corindhap far more flexible, but possibly the most important position change on previous years has been the ability to get co-coach Edward Denouden into centre half forward where he has set the whole attack up.

This week in their clash against the also undefeated Bungaree the role which Denouden is playing will be vital.

Ben Simpson has played in the centre half back role at times for the Demons but it might not be a match up which will work against Denouden as Simpson will be giving away quite a bit of size.

Simpson provides a lot of the creative drive out of the Bungaree backline and if the mid field can make the delivery for Rokewood Corindhap into the forward line rushed then Simpson's mobility could create more problems for the Grasshoppers than the benefits which Denouden may bring to the high forward role.

It will also be an excellent battle through the middle of the ground with the recent recruitment of former Waubra player Thomas Ford to Rokewood Corindhap adding to their mobile and ball winning brigade.

Matthew Aikman has started the season off in top form as has his brother Ryan, Mack Rivett and Michael Lockyer.

They will be against a seasoned and very skilled Bungaree midfield lead by Ben Dodd and Dalton Murphy supported by Nathan Ling, Thomas Elliott and Joel Mahar.

This should be the match of the round with potentially two evenly matched teams taking each other on. It will be a particularly important test for Rokewood Corindhap to see how much they have improved.

Another really interesting game is Clunes hosting Newlyn.

Similar to the Grasshoppers the Magpies are in a long finals drought, last playing finals in 2005, but unfortunately not being in serious contention since.

Tim Shearer may be bringing a different approach to how Clunes is playing which caused an upset in round 2 when they defeated an understrength Skipton. It will be interesting to see if they can take this a step further when they clash against Newlyn who have started with two wins out of their three matches, including Skipton last week.

Marshall Murray has started solidly for Clunes featuring as one of its better players in their initial two games, building upon being a regular contributor to the Magpies in his first year at the club last year.

Reigning CHFL Rookie of the Year Matthew Ryan, Joel Radloff and Callum Newton have also featured, providing a strong defensive unit for Clunes.

It might be in their forward line though where they are most challenged with few goal kickers. Shaun Finlayson, former Bungaree champion, showed his strength in round 2 with his three goals proving to be a most important contribution for Clunes.

The Clunes defence will need to be playing to their best this week as they are coming up against two dangerous forwards in Kieran Collins and Mitch Phelps who are creative options for the Cats and who will have a strong mid field expected to provide plenty of supply.

Newlyn is going to miss its star recruit Nedd Bennett who is likely to be out for a few weeks after injuring a shoulder but Sean Willmott, Jedd Labbett, Jack Cleary and Tom Nash will still send the ball deep into the forward line plenty of times.

ROUND 4 INTRODUCTION

It is going to be an important opportunity for Clunes to show how much they have improved on last season.

Skipton have started the season slowly after being a strong opponent for the past few seasons and they will know that they need to get their season up and running, three defeats in a row would put them under pressure to even make finals.

Beaufort may not start favourite against the Emus but they are showing signs that the players they have added to their club this season is going to bring about some improvements on their last two seasons.

Hamish Francis, Harrison Newitt, Jack Wotherspoon, James O'Sullivan and Solomon Murray are all new additions to the Crows this year and showing up in their better players. The challenge for this group this week is can they build upon what they produced last match and get a win against Skipton.

Patrick Graham was in better form in the ruck last week and his leadership in the middle will be a key element of whether Skipton can take control of the flow of the game.

Josh McDermott is always a competitor in the ruck for Beaufort and his ability to at least break even with Graham will have a major impact on how the game plays out.

Josh Sargent, Seth Wall and James Read will each have a key role in matching it with the promising Beaufort mid-field.

Carngham Linton and Gordon are both coming off successive defeats which is an unusual situation on the past few years where they have both been in the leading senior teams in the league and neither can boast any points on the ladder as yet.

Dunnstown have inflicted a defeat on both the Saints and Eagles with each of these matches showing that they can match it with one of the competitions early leaders in Dunnstown, but not be able to match it for a full four quarters.

Carngham Linton at home might have an advantage over Gordon but it doesn't appear that there will be much between the two, with each having an array of players who could take control of the match for periods of time and set up a win.

Whoever loses will have a big task in front of them to make finals action.

Learmonth have had two early season wins and at three quarter time were well and truly in the match against Bungaree last week, but then were held goalless in the last quarter. It highlighted the difference between the current top teams and those in the middle of the ladder.

The Lakies are going to be quickly given the opportunity to show if they have learnt from this last quarter fade out when they travel to reigning premier Daylesford.

Daylesford appear to have added extra strength to their premiership team and have been able to start the season with three easy wins.

At home the Bulldogs will start as favourites.

Creswick is going to find Dunnstown a difficult ask as has occurred with each of the Towners opponents so far.

The Wickers had a good start in round 1 defeating Ballan but have not been able to match Learmonth or Rokewood Corindhap since.

Dunnstown in their initial three rounds have defeated two finalists from last year and Springbank who upset Gordon last week so appear to be travelling much better than Creswick at this stage of the season and should be able to keep their perfect start to the season going.

Buninyong are the other undefeated team on three wins, which is a promising start after a couple of seasons of finishing outside finals action.

The Bombers though may have had an easier fixture to start with, although the round 1 win over Newlyn is stacking up quite well.

This week is another match which Buninyong will start as strong favourites based up on their performances so far when they host Ballan who are yet to record their first win for 2025.

Ballan have been able to match all three of their opponents for a quarter or half of the match but then they find that they lose contact and are out of reach of a victory.

This will be a risk again against Buninyong and the Bombers will be favourites at home.

Neither Waubra or Hepburn have enjoyed a victory this season but in a similar situation to a few others Hepburn has had the tougher fixture to start the season and should be able to get their initial win of the season over the Kangaroos.

SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR CODE

1. Encourage children to participate if they are interested. However, if a child is not willing do not force them.
2. Focus upon the child's efforts and performance rather than the overall outcome of the event. This assists the child in setting realistic goals related to their ability by reducing the emphasis on winning.
3. Teach your child that honest effort is as important a victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
4. Encourage your child always to play by the rules.
5. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
6. Remember your child should be involved in football for their enjoyment, not yours.
7. Remember your child learns best by example. Applaud good play by both your team and by members of the opposing team.
8. If you disagree with an official or umpire raise the issue through the appropriate channels
- rather than questioning the official's judgement and honesty in public. Remember, most officials give their time and effort for your child's involvement.
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abus from junior sporting activities.
10. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your child and deserve your support.
11. Support your club officials in maintaining the highest standard of behaviour both on and off the field for the betterment of the league and your family. Offer your assistance to the team that your child is playing in so that every opportunity is being provided for the very best supervision and support. Your involvement will give both yourself and your child far more satisfaction.
12. Avoid use of derogatory language based on gender or race.

Helping you stay safe at work, so you can enjoy what you love.

Proudly supporting country footy and netball since 2002.

A photograph of a woman and two young children sitting together at what appears to be a sports event. They are all wearing dark blue jackets with white fur-lined hoods and black knit hats with white pom-poms. The hats have 'CLUNES' written in white on the front, along with a circular logo. The woman is smiling and holding a lollipop. The children are also smiling and holding lollipops. In the background, other spectators and a fence are visible.
