ROUND 9 INTRODUCTION

There does not seem to be a week in this season when there is not something which is a feature adding to what the league is offering to its members and supporters.

This weekend the big attraction is the annual junior interleague fixture against the Colac & DFNL down at Colac. The matches will be played at the Western Oval, Sinclair St Colac.

Each of these leagues have shown over the history of these junior matches that they are very evenly matched, and the standard of football is always excellent.

The under 18 match gives a great indication of the next level of senior football coming through the league, with generally a number of players who are already playing in the senior side of their club and then others who quickly become established over the subsequent twelve months.

Check on the Brandt Central Highlands Football League website home page and Facebook site for full details of match times and venue for the junior matches.

At the halfway point of the senior season the Brandt Central Highlands FL is the closest it has been in at least the past decade, with an average winning margin of just over six goals, which means that in most games clubs are probably close enough at three quarter time that whoever wins the last quarter is likely to win the match.

With many really enticing matches to come in coming weeks it should mean that all clubs continue to get great support from their supporters with currently eleven clubs within one game of a spot in the top eight and others starting to close in.

Carngham Linton after a disappointing start to the season had their biggest win of the season last round when they defeated Bungaree by 16 points, just their second win of the year, but it is two in a row.

This was a major win for the Saints and potentially added some confidence and could lead towards an improved second half to the season, however it is almost impossible to see that the Saints have an avenue to play in their third successive finals series.

This week they have a chance to see if the effort against Bungaree was a sign of what might be ahead of Carngham Linton for the second half of the season, when they host second placed Daylesford.

After a couple of defeats the Bulldogs bounced back last round against Springbank when they demolished them by 90 points and stalled what had been a good run by the Tigers over the previous month.

Carngham Linton are going to be hard pressed to find a way to win this crucial match as Daylesford have too many strong, experienced senior players who will control the match long enough to kick a winning score.

Christopher Molivas was a key midfielder for Daylesford last year but had not been showing the same form this year until last round. He is an important link to provide additional run through the middle of the ground for Daylesford, and this will be needed again this week on the large Linton oval.

In each of Daylesford's matches where they have succeeded it has been clear that they have been able to shut down the oppositions prime movers and there may not be a team who relies as heavily on their top few as Carngham Linton.

If Daylesford can contain Tyson Scoble, Nick and Dean O'Brien and Tom Clark they will be well on the way to their seventh win.

It is well known that Bungaree have been decimated by a spate of injuries and after round four they have not been able to achieve a victory.

In the first month of the season they would have been strong favourites heading into the match against this week's opponent Creswick but based upon the past couple of rounds this now shapes as a close match with Creswick having a good chance of a second victory for the season.

The Wickers were able to get within seven points of Carngham Linton before last week's bye so the Saints victory over Bungaree will not have gone unnoticed by Creswick coach Paul Borchers and he will be planning on making use of the home ground advantage to push Bungaree further down the ladder.

Meanwhile Ryan Waight is needing to build confidence in those who are playing seniors for Bungaree so that they can break this cycle of losses.

Springbank vs Buninyong is an important clash for both clubs to try to keep in contact with the group of clubs who are sitting above them on five or more wins.

Buninyong like Bungaree have not tasted victory since round 4 after an excellent start to the season, so they must get a turn around or they could slip behind the eight if they lose again.

Springbank will be in the same position if they don't get a win, which makes it a vital match for each team.

Conversely whoever does win has a strong chance to be on equal points with clubs in seventh and eighth position.

With the Tigers coming off a major defeat against Daylesford and Buninyong going without a win for a month neither team is going to enter the match with a great deal of confidence.

ROUND 9 INTRODUCTION

Whoever gets away to a strong start might be able to get a decisive break which will be hard to run down.

Six of the current top eight are playing games against each other which has the potential to either secure their position in the eight or drop them back into the group who are chasing hard.

Dunnstown were untroubled last round against Waubra and are the only club clear of the pack on top at present, but they have a tougher opponent this week against Skipton.

Before the win over Waubra the Towners had notched up three important wins over clubs in the eight at the time of their match, so their form to get two games clear on top of the ladder has been very solid and they will be looking forward to this next challenge against the Emus.

Skipton are continuing to improve and following their comfortable win over Rokewood Corindhap last match they will be keen to assess where their team is currently against the top of the ladder Dunnstown.

During the initial weeks of the season Skipton were terribly weakened by injury and unavailability and looked as though they may not be as strong as last season but following wins over Learmonth and Rokewood Corindhap all other clubs are going to be watching the outcome of this Dunnstown vs Skipton match with interest to make some judgements on what impact Skipton could have during the second half of the season.

Learmonth has fallen short by just 2 and 4 points in the past two games but because it has been Skipton and Clunes they have stagnated at the bottom of the eight on percentage, ahead of three others on four wins.

With achieving spots in the finals appearing to be a close race between quite a few, these losses could be vital by round 17. The only way back for Learmonth is to take some comfort from running two teams going very well so close and then use this build belief to defeat others in the top eight.

Evidence of whether they can take this approach will show through quickly when they host Newlyn this week.

The Cats sit in the top four on five wins and are entering into a sequence of four matches against other clubs currently in the top eight.

So, just as Learmonth needs a win against a team above them on the ladder to get clear of others currently on four wins, Newlyn will want to make the most of getting as many wins as they can during this next month.

Three wins from the four matches would put Newlyn in a strong position entering the final month of the home and away season when they have a few games which they should win.

Newlyn has been going better than Learmonth and it might be another frustrating loss for the Lakies and the season is starting to slip away on them.

Rokewood Corindhap and Clunes are both in fresh territory, being well placed in the eight halfway through the season and each will know that winning against others close to them on the ladder means that they get an advantage on any behind who may steal an unexpected win.

Clunes with just one loss compared to Rokewood Corindhap's three might mean that the Magpies are the stronger of the two.

However, the Grasshoppers have had to face more clubs who are in the race for the top eight.

Whilst Clunes have had the easier draw to start, the win over Learmonth has shown that they are a determined group who have an ability to find a way to win.

This should be a close clash between clubs desperate to play finals again.

Ballan are going well following a win over Clunes in round 7 and pushing Newlyn to one-point last match and will start favourite against Beaufort.

The Blues cannot afford to relax after these good efforts, or the Crows could cause their own upset.

Beaufort had good matches against Skipton and Clunes but then put in a poor effort against Newlyn. So last round's win over Hepburn will be a confidence boost and they will believe that despite not having their power forward this week they can still push Ballan, with a good chance of a win.

Gordon were able to fight back after a slow start against Buninyong last match for a comfortable win by the end of the match and they will be too strong for Waubra who are currently in a run of matches against top teams that are proving to be more skilled and experienced than the Kangaroos.

SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR CODE

1. Encourage children to participate if they are interested. However, if a child is not willing do not force them.
2. Focus upon the child's efforts and performance rather than the overall outcome of the event. This assists the child in setting realistic goals related to their ability by reducing the emphasis on winning.
3. Teach your child that honest effort is as important a victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
4. Encourage your child always to play by the rules.
5. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
6. Remember your child should be involved in football for their enjoyment, not yours.
7. Remember your child learns best by example. Applaud good play by both your team and by members of the opposing team.
8. If you disagree with an official or umpire raise the issue through the appropriate channels
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abus from junior sporting activities.
10. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your child and deserve your support.
11. Support your club officials in maintaining the highest standard of behaviour both on and off the field for the betterment of the league and your family. Offer your assistance to the team that your child is playing in so that every opportunity is being provided for the very best supervision and support. Your involvement will give both yourself and your child far more satisfaction.
12. Avoid use of derogatory language based on gender or race.

A photograph of a woman and two young children sitting together at what appears to be a sports event. They are all wearing dark blue jackets with fur-lined hoods and black beanie hats with 'CLUNES' written on them in white. The woman is in the center, smiling, and holding the hands of the two children on either side of her. The children are also smiling and holding small lollipops. In the background, other people and a fence are visible, suggesting an outdoor sports ground.
