ROUND 16 INTRODUCTION

Last week continued the pattern of the previous round with some amazing unexpected results which are going to have an impact at least on the need for extra victories for some over the final two rounds if not on the final ladder positions.

Waubra appear to have suddenly realised that they have enough talent to match any team in the competition, with successive wins and ending Buninyong's finals hopes last weekend.

The Bombers are two wins out of the eight now and it would take an amazing set of circumstances to find a way into the eight.

Skipton have lost two in a row and are now at slight risk of missing a top four position.

Daylesford bounced back from their loss to Waubra in round 14 and have become one of the group of four who are locked together on 10 wins, but despite that they are in sixth at the bottom of the group on percentage. However, there is only 5 percent separating Skipton, Rokewood Corindhap, Newlyn and the Bulldogs from third to sixth on the ladder.

Learmonth's loss to Dunnstown last week has resulted in them dropping out of the top eight for the first time in the season and they have been replaced by Bungaree who reinforced that Clunes are still a distance from finals standard.

Carngham Linton's let down from any chance of making finals potentially resulted in a shock loss to Beaufort who lifted themselves into a third win and joined Ballan and Waubra in this group.

The other fascinating aspect of the senior grade competition was some changes at the top of the Shane Everard Senior Goal Kicking Award which has the top four separated by a single goal.

Gordon's Adam Toohey has taken the lead on 46 goals after another solid performance of six goals against Ballan. A total of 21 goals in the past three rounds.

Whilst the next three all on 45 goals Damon Folkes (Learmonth), Joel Ottavi (Buninyong) and Brad Whittaker (Dunnstown) were all well held with two, two and one goal respectively.

Whittaker has just the one game remaining to create some separation which is going to be tough against Rokewood Corindhap but each of the other three have some good opposition waiting for them over the next fortnight also.

It is going to be an interesting watch on the scoring apps this week.

Dunnstown with the bye in the final round, have just this week against Rokewood Corindhap before finals commencing on the 23rd August, which they know will be when they play as they cannot lose top spot.

The incentive for the Towners to not ease off comes from within as there are a few still trying to come back from injury either in the reserves team or waiting on the sides so there is plenty for those in the team to make sure that they maintain their form.

For the Grasshoppers who had the unusual situation of moving up the ladder despite having the bye last weekend the incentive is to stay in the top four where they currently sit and maintain a double chance in the finals.

This week and next is going to be a great indicator for Rokewood Corindhap to judge just where they are placed as they have the top two Dunnstown and Gordon in the final home and away matches.

To hold onto fourth spot it is expected that they will need to win one of these two matches and hope that the games involving Daylesford and Newlyn go their way also.

Dunnstown does appear to have gradually built a very strong group who are very settled across the various areas of the ground.

There is usually a spread of who feature in their better players from defence, forwards and mid-fielders, which ensures that they are controlling the whole ground.

Flynn Stevenson and Pat Tuddenham are probably taking the lead for the Towners in the mid field and they will keep Mack Rivett and Luke Philp busy this week.

Rokewood Corindhap, however has a broad group of contributors as well who will be looking to challenge themselves against the ladder leaders.

Gordon is going to be another headache for Learmonth, as the Lakies finish the season with four top eight teams in a row.

Unfortunately for Learmonth they have not been able to defeat any of those in the eight that they have encountered so far this season and with the Eagles this week then Springbank to finish they are facing a tough ask to finish the year.

A game and percentage outside the top eight Learmonth will probably need to win both their final matches to have any chance of sneaking back into finals and then still need Bungaree to drop at least one match by a large margin.

Gordon are in very good form at present and will welcome this week and their final game at Rokewood to top themselves up for finals.

They have not been challenged in the past three games against Beaufort, Hepburn and Ballan and will be expecting stronger resistance from Learmonth.

Skipton and Buninyong will both be looking to get back onto the winners list.

Skipton will be shaken following two defeats in succession, including the 16-point loss to Daylesford last week.

Buninyong were not expecting the resistance they faced from Waubra and are now facing a third successive season where they have finished just outside finals action.

Despite the two defeats Skipton will be favourite with what clearly looks to be a stronger list than the Bombers.

Jacob Maddock, Liam Phillips and Ben Lusby provide a stronger group moving through the mid-field than do their Buninyong counterparts, led by Jarrod Rodgers and Derick Micallef.

The clash of the key forwards and backs will also be worth watching. Buninyong's Jack Robertson is probably going to be up against Skipton's mid-season recruit Jesse Palmer whilst Joel Ottavi may find Luke Delahey as his direct opponent.

At home the Emus will be favoured to get back to winning form and start to set up for a big run at a successful finals series.

Daylesford would be pleased with its bounce back in defeating Skipton last week and will also be now looking to start their build into finals over the last two home and away games which they start when they play Clunes.

The Magpies were able to hang around against Bungaree last week for the first quarter and a half but when the Demons got moving they quickly built a 40 point lead by half time, which kept building from that point on.

Not being able to wrestle back momentum has been a significant problem for Clunes across the second half of the season when they have been competitive for periods of time against top eight sides but lose momentum and the game is quickly out of reach.

Daylesford should be able to set up a similar pattern this week with more players likely to win in their position than their Clunes opponent.

What will be pleasing for Bulldogs supporters is the gradual introduction into the senior team of a group of the club's juniors who are probably going to make up a lot of the back bone of the future of the team.

Matthew Hunt particularly handled the step up in standard last week and he was joined by Adam Leonard and Scout Kinnear. All of them will assist in adding a bit of extra mobility around the ground.

Clunes on the other hand looked to be struggling to find players who could break the lines with their speed against Bungaree.

Despite this being a home game for the Magpies they are going to struggle to add to their six wins for the season.

Newlyn vs Bungaree is a fixture of real importance with Newlyn having the opportunity to stay amongst the group with a chance of top four finish and Bungaree could secure their spot in the finals.

The Cats started amazingly against Creswick last week with their first goal of the match only taking 17 seconds. They attacked often in the first quarter and could have sealed the game in the first quarter but some wasteful use of the football in the forward line and determined efforts from Creswick kept the game alive at the first break.

However, Nelwyn again showed that they are a deceptively good side, who are going to be a real factor in the finals series. Are they good enough to make it through to a grand final, maybe not, but they could be still alive in preliminary final weekend.

Kieran Collins is in excellent form at present and his leadership and experience is proving to be valuable.

On top of this Newlyn have got a good mix of proven experienced ex-major league senior players and some real youthful enthusiasm with the likes of Nedd Bennett and Mitchell McGrath which is giving them a forward line which is difficult to contain.

Bungaree have also been able to re-set their structure over the past couple of weeks with the return of players, and their ability to free up Ben Simpson as a loose defender is causing opposition forward lines plenty of headaches.

Geordie Lukich is in good form in the ruck for the Demons and it will be an enticing clash with Newlyn's Tom Carey and an interesting watch of two very different styles. Carey can smother his opponent's opportunity to jump which will create problems for Lukich who likes to use his athleticism to advantage.

The ruck contest could be a crucial contest on who ends up the winner in this match.

Creswick should be too strong for Beaufort based upon the form of the past month, but the Crows had a good return to form against Carngham Linton and do have a strong small midfield group to go up against Patrick Taranto and Caleb Hepworth.

Jack Wotherspoon and Hamish Francis have shown this season that they can match it with most of opposition but lack support.

Last week despite the win over the Saints the Crows were lacking in height with both Josh McDermott and Cormac Mahony out and if they are not back this week it may provide an opportunity for Creswick.

Both clubs have plenty of pride to play for and it should be a good tussle.

Hepburn may be two games behind on the bottom of the ladder with just the one win but they are no easy beats. For the bottom team in a competition to have a percentage of 65 percent it shows that they have made opposition work for their wins.

Bottom teams will usually be below 40 percent.

This game will be an indicator of whether Carngham Linton have lost heart after losing all hope of making the finals and the Burras can follow up Beaufort's lead from last week and add a win to their tally.

It will not be an easy game for the Saints to win.

Springbank have lost some matches which means that they are going to finish in the bottom half of the eight but they are going to be too strong to Ballan who appear to have run out of ideas with three weeks against top eight sides and it is difficult to see how they can turn it around this week.

Brant Haintz has worked into top form over the past month and will along with James Thompson and Joel Maher control the football at ground level and set up a solid win for Springbank.

SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR CODE

1. Encourage children to participate if they are interested. However, if a child is not willing do not force them.
2. Focus upon the child's efforts and performance rather than the overall outcome of the event. This assists the child in setting realistic goals related to their ability by reducing the emphasis on winning.
3. Teach your child that honest effort is as important a victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
4. Encourage your child always to play by the rules.
5. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
6. Remember your child should be involved in football for their enjoyment, not yours.
7. Remember your child learns best by example. Applaud good play by both your team and by members of the opposing team.
8. If you disagree with an official or umpire raise the issue through the appropriate channels
- rather than questioning the official's judgement and honesty in public. Remember, most officials give their time and effort for your child's involvement.
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abus from junior sporting activities.
10. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your child and deserve your support.
11. Support your club officials in maintaining the highest standard of behaviour both on and off the field for the betterment of the league and your family. Offer your assistance to the team that your child is playing in so that every opportunity is being provided for the very best supervision and support. Your involvement will give both yourself and your child far more satisfaction.
12. Avoid use of derogatory language based on gender or race.

Helping you stay safe at work, so you can enjoy what you love.

Proudly supporting country footy and netball since 2002.
