Plenty of pathway options

Managing the many different elements of the talent pathway is one of AFL Victoria's most important objectives.

On the surface the pathway might appear simple, with so many stars of the game beginning their journey at NAB Auskick, then making their mark with a junior football club before taking the final step in the TAC Cup and our Vic Country and Vic Metro Academies.

But through this pathway there are a number of systems in place to ensure young players receive the right development both on and off-field, and that boys and girls can find different avenues to reach their potential, regardless of what age they are when introduced to Australian football.

Our programs must also provide an environment that allows junior footballers to prosper regardless of their background, while understanding that not all players develop at the same stage of the pathway.

Our ultimate aim is to see Victoria's most talented footballers reach the highest level of football they can, whether that be the AFL, the Peter Jackson VFL or metropolitan or country community competitions.

The 19-year-old player provision in the TAC Cup and the 23rd player rule in the VFL are examples of how AFL Victoria ensures the pathway is adaptable to different circumstances.

Collingwood rising star Tom Langdon was a product of the 19-year-old rule which allows TAC Cup regions to retain a player who would normally be too old for the U18 competition.

Players may benefit from an extra year of development for various reasons, such as a serious injury or the fact they may be a latecomer to the sport.

The 23rd player rule in the VFL gives clubs another tool to help players develop, with sides able to include an extra player and allow them to test themselves at that level without the pressure that may be associated with being picked in the 22-man team.

Often we see players who remain in the TAC Cup as a 19-year-old also enjoy a chance to play as a 23rd player in the VFL through the alignment between TAC Cup regions and VFL clubs.

This allows recruiters to get a good gauge on the level of the player's development and also gives the player a chance to get a taste of senior football.

Last year Murray Bushrangers pair Nathan Drummond and Dan Howe both spent time with Richmond in the VFL, providing these players with an opportunity to experience training and playing at the next level against VFL and AFL-listed players. Both found themselves on AFL lists later in the year with Richmond and Hawthorn respectively.

The alignment between the VFL clubs and TAC Cup regions also encourages all players who miss out on being selected in the NAB AFL Draft to continue to play at the highest level of football possible.

Often this is at state league level alongside former teammates who are further developing their game in the VFL while on AFL lists.

Young Dogs, plenty of tricks

First-year Footscray coach Ashley Hansen has taken the reins of a dynamic, young premiership-winning team that continues to roll quality AFL and VFL-listed talent off its development line.

So what's in the water down at VU Whitten Oval?

"There's no secret – and if there was, I probably wouldn't be telling," Hansen laughs.

"I think we've brought in some really good kids with a really good attitude to learning and working hard, which is a fundamental of becoming a better player.

"It's certainly been exciting to work with the current crop we've got."

AFL observers would be familiar with young Bulldogs such as Mitch Honeychurch, Lin Jong, Jason Johannisen, Ayce Cordy, Jack Redpath and Michael Talia, who have gone on to play regular football at the elite level in 2015 after featuring in Footscray's Grand Final triumph over the Box Hill Hawks last September.

But as those players begin to cement themselves in the Western Bulldogs line-up, lesser-known VFL-listed players are emerging to take their place.

One of those Bulldog pups defied his own expectations to earn a spot in that 2014 flag-winning team in just his first season of senior football.

Will Hayes has continued his rapid rise this season, playing every match except one and being named Footscray's best player in wins against the Northern Blues in Round 12 and Geelong in Round 14.

Hansen – an ex-West Coast premiership forward – was glowing in his praise of the 20-year-old's development since graduating from the Sandringham Dragons TAC Cup program in 2013.

"Will's just a great young man," Hansen said.

"His application to his training, diligence to want to learn and appetite to do everything he can to be the best player he can has just been fantastic.

"I love working with him – he's certainly enjoyable to coach and he's getting the best out of himself at the moment."

The former Melbourne Grammar boy booted important bags of four and three goals to help sink Northern and Geelong respectively, as Hansen continues to develop 180cm Hayes as a dangerous forward.

"His game in regards to the defensive side and contested side is really starting to complement his offensive ability, which is probably his natural tendency,” Hansen said.

“He’s an exciting young player and one we’ve got high hopes for.”

Hayes himself said he was reaping the rewards of developing his craft with Footscray forwards coach Chad Jones.

“One of the big things I’ve been working on over the past month is my contested ground balls, which have significantly improved,” Hayes said.

“I’ve been working with Chad after training most nights, just doing a few extra ground balls and working on my cleanness below my knees.

“It gives you more confidence to back yourself in when you’re cleaner and gives you more time on the field; I’ve been lucky in that respect (recently).”

Hayes said he was also physically bigger this season compared to 2014 and “more mentally prepared for the contest”.

It has seen him flourish alongside fellow VFL-listed talents such as 24-year-old Michael Fogarty and 20-year-old Mitch Jensen, who have also gone on to play regular senior football after featuring in Footscray’s premiership team last year.

To those names, you can add impressive youngsters Nick Jamieson, Meyrick Buchanan, Tom Sharp, Darcy Fort and Liam Nash, who have all made an impact at the Kennel this season.

Clearly the guiding voices of Hansen and Development Coach Stewart Edge, as well as senior players such as Jordan Russell, Mark Austin and Brent Prismall, are doing something right.

Hayes said their influence provided the right environment to help him chase his dream of eventually making an AFL list.

“They all seek to develop you as full players – to develop every aspect of your game defensively and offensively – and they put a lot of time into each individual player on the list,” Hayes said.

“(Ash Hansen) is really easy to approach and always gives you positive and constructive feedback, and always leaves you in a good mental space.

“He always encourages the boys to seek out how to get better and to always be looking to improve ourselves.”

Hansen, who appears to have made a seamless transition from Development Coach to taking over from Chris Maple as Head Coach, said the club’s focus on development was a key to its success.

“We have a new coach at AFL level, Luke Beveridge, who’s come out of a successful development program himself (at Hawthorn) and seen how Box Hill have had success, so he’s been really supportive of our VFL team,” Hansen said.

“It might sound clichéd, but when you work with players on a day-to-day basis, you see what they’re capable of – sometimes that’s not consistent (with what you see on-field), but you know you’ve seen growth during the week.

“When you start to see that, you know it’s probably going to come out in games on a more regular basis and when they start to string contests, quarters and matches together, we’re looking at a very good side.”

With the club’s AFL and VFL teams both in the thick of finals conversations, that development line out west will only be picking up speed.

Skinner gets creative

Suffering a serious knee injury in your draft year is certainly not ideal, but Gippsland Power key-position player Sam Skinner is finding several ways to keep himself positive during his recovery.

The 18-year-old has been nurturing his creative side as he shifts his focus away from the ACL he ruptured at the end of May while playing for Vic Country at the NAB AFL U18 Championships.

Skinner thought the weird feeling in his leg “couldn’t be too bad” when he went down in the Round 2 match against WA in Perth, initially getting back up and jogging around on it.

But the news soon came that the AFL Academy member was to miss the rest of the season and would have a lot more time to pursue his interests in music and art.

“I like to belt out a tune here and there,” Skinner said.

“I just sit around at home and play a bit of guitar and sing a little bit; I do a bit of drawing as well – I think it helps with how my recovery’s going.

“Obviously now I don’t have football, you’ve got to have something else; you’ve got to have that thing to help keep you positive off the football field.

“That’s why I’m lucky I can do the music and a bit of drawing.”

There are tentative plans for an acoustic trio to begin playing small gigs in the Gippsland area, but any potential music career would happily be put on hold to have a chance of playing football at the elite level.

Skinner hopes to be jogging on the knee in a few weeks’ time, but won’t be able to complete the physical testing at October’s AFL Draft Combine, for which he was announced as an invitee this week.

However, his knowledge of the game is sure to improve despite his absence from the field, with Skinner spending time in the Gippsland coaches’ box on game days.

“Up there, it’s a lot different,” he said.

“I enjoy it; I like getting up there, helping (head coach Leigh Brown) out and looking at the vision.

“Now I understand why there are so many coaches, because it’s too hard for the one coach to watch everything... Leigh handles that really well, so it’s good just watching how he goes about it.”

On the field, Skinner – a self-confessed tough judge of himself – said his form was “between average and good” before being injured.

At 197cm, he’s been played down back, up forward and in the ruck at times over the past three seasons, but thinks he feels most comfortable in a key defensive post.

It’s the position in which he won Vic Country’s MVP award at the 2013 U16 Championships, in a team that featured likely high picks at the 2015 AFL Draft Jacob Weitering, Josh Schache, Darcy Parish, Rhys Mathieson and Darcy Tucker.

Dandenong Stingray Weitering said if anyone in this year’s Vic Country crop could handle an ACL injury in the most positive manner possible, it was Skinner.

“For the first two rounds (of the U18 Championships), he was the life of the party, really,” Weitering said.

“It was a big loss, him going down with his ACL in WA.

“If there’s anyone who can deal with that sort of injury in the team, it’s Sammy Skinner – he has a lot of resilience and confidence in himself.”

Wilkinson's work continues

Northern Blues vice-captain Joel Wilkinson may have left the Peter Jackson VFL playing arena, but he isn't leaving the football industry entirely.

As the football world prepares to celebrate Multicultural Round next weekend, the recently retired 23-year-old is continuing to work with AFL Victoria on the development of its Community Club Cultural Education program in his role as a VFL Multicultural Ambassador.

Wilkinson has Nigerian heritage through his father and European heritage through his mother, and is hoping to promote and increase awareness of different cultural identities within Australian football by sharing his experiences with clubs at all levels.

The former Gold Coast Suns player experienced racial vilification during his three-year, 26-game AFL career and is utilising his ambassadorship to educate others in the game on the importance of accepting diversity.

"It's just been about continually promoting cultural identity within the sport when the opportunities have arrived," Wilkinson said.

"It's an opportunity to promote experiences I've had in the AFL to then open up awareness and really challenge the current conditions, and work on areas that need improvement."

Wilkinson challenged the line of thought that multicultural players with a relatively small amount of football experience behind them made it to the elite level because of their inherent athletic gifts.

In an entry to the sport Wilkinson described as "unorthodox", the Gold Coast native didn't start playing Australian football until he was 17, quickly rising through the elite underage ranks in Queensland to be taken by the Suns with a zone selection in 2010.

He acknowledged his natural attributes helped him to initially pick up the new game, just like he'll be hoping they help him now as he turns his focus to playing American football.

Indeed, athleticism is in his genes – his parents were also talented athletes in sports as diverse as soccer, rugby union, athletics and surf lifesaving.

But Wilkinson said like anyone striving to make it to the elite level of their sport, simple hard work was the key for him when he set out to reach the AFL.

"I believe I worked very hard in those early times to try and fast-track my progression," Wilkinson said.

"Have I been blessed with certain athleticism? Sure, but to get to the AFL, I felt I worked my way into earning that spot – I remember a lot of extra training I was doing.

"I'm sure that to start playing (Australian football), it was my athleticism (that helped), but to get drafted, I felt I showed more than just athleticism."

An appetite for hard work is a trait Wilkinson said was central to all multicultural players trying to crack the AFL.

It's a necessary quality for the increasing numbers of people from diverse cultural backgrounds who come to the game late and are behind the eight-ball in terms of experience from the start.

Wilkinson is still learning about his own cultural background – something that makes him unique in the current football environment.

But in his role as a VFL Multicultural Ambassador, he's also aiming to raise awareness about what makes the people who play football the same.

Will Port Melbourne miss out on celebrating another finals berth in 2015?

News

Top eight settled?

With five rounds to play in the Peter Jackson VFL home-and-away season, have the eight teams bound for finals action already been settled?

After an upset 13-point victory over the Box Hill Hawks on Sunday, eighth-placed Werribee moved two wins clear of Port Melbourne in ninth, with the injury-plagued Borough soundly beaten by Williamstown.

The Tigers still have a bye to come in Round 18, but Port is well behind them on percentage and has big games against current top-eight teams Sandringham, Footscray and Collingwood to come, as well as a meeting this week with the giant-killing Coburg outfit which defeated Footscray on Saturday.

Werribee's win against Box Hill was vital, as the club must still negotiate tough encounters with the Casey Scorpions, Essendon, Williamstown and Footscray in its final four matches.

In an even year, Footscray and the Casey Scorpions are other eight-win teams potentially in danger of falling out of the top eight, but Werribee and Port Melbourne might just be the ones fighting the defining battle in the race to make it to September.

Potential season-definers

Matches in Round 16 could have a huge bearing on positioning within the Peter Jackson VFL top four and top eight ahead of September's Legendary finals series.

Three games on a blockbuster Sunday will pit current top-eight teams against one another.

At VU Whitten Oval in the Channel 7 match of the round, Footscray (8-5) takes on Essendon (9-4) for a spot in the top four.

The Bulldogs have a strong percentage, but a loss to the Bombers combined with a Port Melbourne win over Coburg will see the reigning premiers only one game ahead of ninth position. Channel 7's live broadcast will begin at 11.30am on Sunday.

The Casey Scorpions (8-5) and Werribee (8-6) will face off in an equally important encounter at Casey Fields with both clubs anchored in the bottom half of the top eight, while Collingwood (9-4) will test itself against ladder-leading Williamstown (10-3) at Burbank Oval.

Blue Bransgrove out for season

A serious hamstring injury has ended the season of Northern Blues captain Brent Bransgrove.

The 27-year-old suffered the blow early in Northern's 47-point loss to the Casey Scorpions at Ikon Park in Round 14.

Bransgrove had played every match of the season until that point after niggling injuries restricted him to just 22 senior games across 2013 and 2014.

The 170cm midfielder out of Whittlesea and the Northern Knights has captained the Blues for four seasons now (two as co-captain with Andre Gianfagna in 2012 and 2013) and played 95 senior games with the club.

Another experienced Blue, Kieran McGuinness, is also out of the team at the moment due to a shoulder injury sustained in Northern's Round 13 loss to Richmond.

Round 14 Highlights

The Geelong Falcons must be getting sick of that hollow feeling when the final siren sounds but there's no winner.

The draw is usually a rare occurrence in Australian football, but the TAC Cup has seen four of them already in 2015, with the Falcons unbelievably involved in three draws in the last five rounds.

After ties with Tasmania in Round 10 and Sandringham in Round 12, Geelong split the points with the Eastern Ranges at Box Hill City Oval on Saturday.

The Falcons had to rally from 21 points down at three-quarter time to draw level at game's end in a clash that kept both teams even on premiership points, with the Ranges only in fourth position on percentage.

The Oakleigh Chargers had a chance to take that spot in the top four outright against the Calder Cannons at Warrawee Park, but fell short by 20 points.

It was a crucial win for the Cannons, who moved one game clear of their only rival for a place in the top eight, the Sandringham Dragons.

The ninth-placed Dragons gave up a six-point lead at the final change to go down to the NSW/ACT Rams by 12 points at Trevor Barker Beach Oval and have some work to do to make the finals, with matches against top-eight teams Dandenong, Gippsland and Eastern to come.

The Rams farewelled the TAC Cup in 2015 with their fifth win from seven matches, while Queensland also said goodbye for the year with a record of 2-3 after losing to the North Ballarat Rebels by 47 points at Eureka Stadium.

In Round 14's other matches:

- The Murray Bushrangers overcame a four-point three-quarter-time deficit to defeat an inaccurate Gippsland Power by 10 points at Norm Minns Oval and maintain third place on the ladder;
- The Bendigo Pioneers notched their second win of the season by five points in a tight struggle with fellow one-win team the Western Jets at Epsom Huntly Reserve; and
- The Dandenong Stingrays held second spot with an 18-point victory over the Northern Knights at Preston City Oval.

The Sandringham Dragons couldn't escape the clutches of the NSW/ACT Rams in Round 14

The aerial prowess of a couple of Murray towers at each end of the ground proved a big difference in the Bushrangers' defeat of the Gippsland Power. Nick Coughlan took the most marks of any TAC Cup player in Round 14 with 12 grabs down back, while Josh Schache took nine up forward to help him record a five-goal haul.

20

In a battle between two teams desperate to move off one win for the season, Bendigo Pioneer Thomas Cole showed plenty of individual desperation against the Western Jets on Saturday. Cole had a massive 20 contested possessions in the tight struggle, while Western's Jaycob Hickey wasn't to be outdone in a losing cause, also racking up 20.

44

Oakleigh Charger Tom Phillips may have scorched the stats sheet with 44 disposals, but it wasn't enough to get his team over the line against the Calder Cannons. Phillips' 32 kicks was a round-high, but victorious Calder midfielder Nick O'Kearney's tally of 24 wasn't far behind.

Drawn conclusions

The Geelong Falcons had played 455 games in club history for only two drawn results before Round 10 of the 2015 TAC Cup season.

But in the last five rounds, Geelong has unbelievably added another three draws to that tally, tying with Tasmania in Round 10, the Sandringham Dragons in Round 12 and the Eastern Ranges on Saturday in Round 14.

In fact, the Falcons have almost added another couple of draws this year to their all-time tally of five, just getting over the line with a two-point win against the North Ballarat Rebels in Round 2 and a one-point triumph over the Gippsland Power in Round 4.

Incidentally, the weekend's tie was the first in Eastern's history, which stretches back to the TAC Cup's inaugural year in 1992.

So, which team has been involved in the most draws since the competition's inception?

Well, that dubious honour goes to the Calder Cannons and Northern Knights, which have both been involved in six draws.

Northern's tally includes three draws with Sandringham, one of only two sets of clubs to have split the points on more than one occasion in the competition's history, with the other set being Gippsland and the Oakleigh Chargers on two occasions.

Draft Combine invitees

44 TAC Cup players have been invited to the NAB AFL Draft Combine this October.

The majority of the invitees come from Victoria's Country (22) and Metro (19) Academies along with North Ballarat pair Jacob Hopper (NSW/ACT) and Daniel Rioli (Northern Territory), plus Murray Bushranger Lachlan Tiziani (NSW/ACT).

In terms of invitees, Victoria's 41 led the way from South Australia with 12, followed by Western Australia and NSW/ACT with seven each, Queensland with five and Tasmania and Northern Territory with two.

The Dandenong Stingrays boasted the most Combine invitees with eight – headlined by defensive duo Jacob Weitering and Kieran Collins – while the Oakleigh Chargers have six potential draftees invited to take part in the October 8-11 Combine.

VWFL stars drafted to the big time

Brianna Davey has become the second VWFL no.1 draft pick, when the Western Bulldogs selected her in the AFL Women's Exhibition Game mini draft last week at AFL House.

The Melbourne Victory goalkeeper joins Darebin Falcon Daisy Pearce as the only players to hold the No.1 mantle.

For Davey though, it has been a quick rise from the St Kilda Sharks to the Bulldogs.

After the disappointment of being overlooked for the Matildas World Cup squad earlier this year, she joined the Sharks where she has played seven games after debuting in Round 5 against Darebin.

She will join St Kilda teammates Brit Bonnici and Jenna Bruton in the August 16 AFL Women's Game rematch, with Bonnici and Bruton to line up for the undefeated Melbourne side.

Melbourne selected four VWFL players with its five selections, also recruiting Diamond Creek tall Tiarna Ernst and Darebin Falcon Jess Dal Pos.

It will be a change of jumpers for the Demons pair of Dal Pos and Bruton after both were selected by Western Bulldogs in the inaugural draft back in 2013.

The five girls will be among a host of VWFL players in the second AFL Women's Exhibition Match at the MCG, with a number of the league stars retained on the lists of the respective clubs and therefore not eligible for the mini-draft.

News

The VWFL produced 50 per cent of the draft pool, with other draft selections coming from Queensland (Tahlia Randall, Nambour-Maroochydore to Western Bulldogs), Western Australia (Sabrina Frederick-Traub, South Fremantle to Melbourne; Caitlyn Edwards, East Fremantle to Western Bulldogs), Tasmania (Emma Humphries, Burnie Dockers to Western Bulldogs) and New South Wales (Maddy Collier, UNSW to Western Bulldogs).

The game will be played as the curtain-raiser to the Round 20 AFL clash between the Western Bulldogs and Melbourne at Etihad Stadium, and will be broadcast live on Channel 7 with Jason Bennett leading the call team.

VWFL selections:

No.1 Brianna Davey - St Kilda Sharks to Western Bulldogs

No.2 Brit Bonnici - St Kilda Sharks to Melbourne

No.6 Tiarna Ernst - Diamond Creek to Melbourne

No.8 Jenna Bruton - St Kilda Sharks to Melbourne

No.10 Jess Dal Pos - Darebin Falcons to Melbourne

BOX HILL HAWKS

After a disappointing loss to Werribee in the seniors last Sunday, we look to bounce back with a strong performance today against Richmond. Werribee outplayed us for the majority of the day and full credit must once again go to them as they broke us down on every line. Joseph Fisher our 23rd man showed some fantastic signs last weekend, putting his hand up for the remainder of the year and showing he isn't out of place at senior level. On a good note though, the development team have continued their form with another impressive win to remain undefeated on top of the ladder. Next week we celebrate Multicultural Round here against Casey Scorpions, the president's lunch will have a Chinese theme to it, and we will also be running activities for the kids around the ground, with Jumping Castles, Hawka, Handball Target, Balloonist and free giveaways for all the kids. So get down next week, support the boys and bring along the kids for a fun-filled day.

COBURG

Congratulations to the Senior side on a wonderful victory last weekend against Footscray!

We were all so proud to see you all perform so brilliantly! ## NORTH BALLARAT

The Selkirk Roosters managed to achieve some reward for their hard work over the past few weeks and came away with a big win over the Frankston Dolphins. This week, the Roosters are at home again at EUREKA STADIUM to take on the Northern Blues. The Roosters will be buoyed by the fact they won the first encounter between these two sides earlier in the year, but will be focused on playing the right brand of football. As we head into the last instalment of the VFL season, make sure you are following the Roosters on social media. We're on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube and you can sign up to receive our weekly e-newsletters over at www.theroosters.com.au. The North Ballarat Football & Sports Club will also be showing the Danny Green fight live in the sports bar August 19th. Food & Beverage specials apply, see Facebook for details.

PORT MELBOURNE

Full credit to Williamstown last week as they completely outplayed us in both the Seniors and Development League to record big victories. Our boys are left with plenty of work to do now to stay in finals contention, and we are faced with another significant challenge this week as we welcome the in-form Coburg Lions to North Port Oval in what will be our second-last home game for the year. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our members and sponsors for their unwavering support in season 2015 - in particular our Platinum Sponsors: South Pacific Health Clubs, Fortburn Aeronautical, Atlas Truck Rentals and Total Oil and Lubricants. Stay up to date with all the latest news and information from the club on all of our social media channels!

WERRIBEE

A very important away game today against the Casey Scorpions who sit above us on the ladder in 7th position. Good luck to both teams. We only have one more game at Avalon Airport Oval for the home-and-away season but it is a biggie. We will play the Footscray Bulldogs in the Channel 7 match of the round on Sunday August 30th from 11.40am (please note the early starting time). That is also our Past Players and Officials Day and our annual Multicultural Day. This means a range of activities going on, including half time entertainment on the ground, as well as the usual Auskick grid games. On Saturday August 29th we will also be holding our '50 Greats for 50 Years' night upstairs in Chirnside's by the River. You can book through the club on 9741 6688 with all the details on werribee.fc.com.au.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Fantastic to be sitting on top of the ladder again after our big ten-goal win over old rivals Port Melbourne last weekend! Today we host Collingwood as we look to make it five wins in a row. Upcoming Events: On Sunday 9th August we have our Asian Community Day during our match vs Footscray. There will be plenty of activities on offer so make sure you get down to Burbank Oval for a great day of entertainment! On Saturday 22nd August for our Round 19 clash with Werribee, we will hold our final President's Luncheon of the year. This will be a celebration of the 25th anniversary of our 1990 VFA Premiership. ## BENDIGO PIONEERS

The Pioneers would like to welcome Calder Cannons to Epsom Huntly for our game this weekend. After coming off a great win last week at home our boys will be looking for back-to-back victories. It was great to see our school boys squads attend our game last week and we wish them all the best at the carnival to be held in Gippsland during AFL Grand Final week. For all the latest Pioneers news, please follow us on Twitter @bendigopioneers and Facebook!!

CALDER CANNONS

After a good win last weekend, the Cannons look forward to today taking on the Bendigo Pioneers at Epsom Huntly Reserve, and hope to continue the consistent effort and team work that has seen a great few weeks. Congratulations to Nick O'Kearney, Callum Moore & Hisham Kerbatieh on their invitations to the AFL Draft Combine to be held in October, we wish the boys the best of luck with this opportunity. The Cannons 2015 Auction Night is quickly approaching! Friday 7th August at the RAMS Arena Function Room. Tickets are now available if you would like to come along or if any supporters may be able to assist us in sourcing items, experiences or vouchers to use on the night, it would be greatly appreciated! ## DANDENONG STINGRAYS

Today the Dandenong Southern Stingrays host the Sandringham Dragons, with the support of our VFL-aligned partners the Frankston Dolphins at Frankston Oval as a home game as a curtain-raiser to the Senior VFL game. We thank Simon Green and Patrick Hill for their support off the field in making this happen, as well as making spots available each week so current Stingrays players gain further opportunity to test themselves at the higher level. Last week we travelled to the "fortress" at Preston where the Northern Knights showed how close the TAC Cup competition really is by nearly causing a huge upset. Our players were challenged in trying conditions a few times, but settled in the last term to walk away with a very lucky win. We thank Peter Kennedy and his team for a great game and the hospitality shown with the after-match. In closing, the Stingrays would also like to acknowledge and congratulate the 22 Under 18 Vic Country players who received an AFL Draft Combine invite, including our players: Kieran Collins, Thomas Glen, Thomas Jok, Kurt Mutimer, Gach Nyuon, Bailey Rice, Brandon White and Jacob Weitering. Like all other Regions, we believe some other players were unlucky, we challenge all players in the TAC Cup to keep playing strong consistent football and the result will take care of itself. Good luck to all the TAC Cup regions for the remainder of the season and a special thank you to our VFL partner the Frankston Dolphins.

EASTERN RANGES

This week the club travels away to North Ballarat in what shapes as an exciting challenge to take on the ladder leaders.

The Ranges will be hoping to get over the line in order to cement their position in the top 4 of the TAC Cup Ladder. Last week saw us draw with Geelong in an exciting game that went right down to the wire. Only percentage separates us from the Falcons, making the next few games crucial in the run to the finals. In other news, five Eastern Ranges players have been invited to the NAB AFL Draft Combine that will take place this October. Congratulations to Ryan Clarke, Blake Hardwick, Liam Jeffs, James Parsons and Sam Weideman. Don't forget, you can follow us and keep up to date with all things Ranges on our website and social media platforms! ## MURRAY BUSHRANGERS

It is great to play our first game at Deakin Reserve in Shepparton this weekend, whilst cricket finals prevented our traditional season opener from being played we are thrilled to be playing in front of the Shepparton community. Special thanks to the Shepparton United Football Club and Shepparton Football Club for hosting us today and special mention to the City Of Greater Shepparton who continue to provide a fantastic football facility at Deakin Reserve. Today we welcome the Western Jets to our region for what will be a tough contest between two committed and talented sides. The Bushrangers battled superbly in our 10-point win over Gippsland last week, however we need to continue to chalk up the victories to secure the valued TOP 4 position on the TAC Cup ladder. Congratulations to Lachlan Tiziani (Albury), Josh Schache (Seymour) and Clayton Oliver (Mooroopna) on their nomination to attend the National Combine later in the year. A reminder to others that State Nominations will be announced over the next few weeks and as per previous seasons there will be always be opportunities for those who perform within a team environment at the business end of the Season. The Murray Bushrangers would like to take this opportunity to thank the club's 2015 Sponsors which include major partner HUME BANK, Michael Caruso at AFL Sportsready, Rod Walker & Tony McKay at Action Aluminium, Gary March at LOCO SPORTSWEAR, Laurie Hammond at THALES, CEO Richard Hogg and the Directors at YARRAWONGA MULWALA BORDER GOLF CLUB, Ian Dunstan at DUNSTAN'S CONSTRUCTION, Roy Dyson at DYSONS BUS COMPANY and Tim Clarke at RELIANCE PARTNERS. A reminder that the Club's Annual Trivia & Silent Auction Function will be held on Sunday 16th August at the Wangaratta Magpies Social Rooms directly after our clash with the Calder Cannons. Tickets are $25 per person and include food and entertainment in what promises to be a relaxing afternoon with players, families, staff & sponsors. To reserve your ticket, please contact Talent Manager Lee Fraser.

GIPPSLAND POWER

After a tough and close encounter against the Murray Bushrangers at Wangaratta last Saturday, we went down by 10 points when the hosts kicked 4 straight last-quarter goals to wrest the lead and win the match. The endeavour of our players was outstanding throughout and we will be back on the winning list very soon on the strength of that effort. We thank 'bushies Talent Manager Lee Fraser and his staff for their after-match hospitality and refreshments. We are also appreciative of being similarly well treated by the management and staff at Bendigo's Parkview Motel. Today we meet Geelong Falcons at IKON Park in what is a vital encounter for us. The Falcons beat us by a point at Bendigo on April 11 and a close game is promised again. Gippsland Power F.C. is most grateful for the outstanding support afforded by our major sponsors GDF SUEZ-MITSUI & Co. Loy Yang; Colin Watson Holden Traralgon; Bendigo Bank the community bank with branches throughout Gippsland; and the Warragul Linen Service. We urge all Club officials, players and followers to support these and all our other sponsors whenever the opportunity arises. A summary of all our associate sponsors is set out for perusal next to our team list in each week's edition of the AFL Victoria Record. Parents of our TAC Cup players are reminded that you are most welcome into the Centre of Excellence on training nights where tea, coffee and seating in warm surrounds are available throughout training sessions.

OAKLEIGH CHARGERS

We head to Preston City Oval this weekend to take on the Northern Knights, in what promises to be a tough assignment on their home deck. The Chargers group are certainly keen to get back on the winners list after a disappointing result last week against the Calder Cannons at home. Congratulations to the following Chargers players invited to attend the AFL Draft Combine in early October – Ben Crocker, David Cuningham, Jack Firms, Dan Houston, Alex Morgan and Jack Silvagni, a great reward for your efforts so far this year. A reminder about the 2015 Chargers Ball set down for August 22nd at Lincoln of Toorak. Promises to be a great night with the Chargers crew, where players, families, staff and sponsors can catch up in a relaxed setting. The night will also include the first of our club Reverse Raffle Draws for the year. Numbers filling up fast, make sure you don't miss out! Please give Maddy a call in the office if you require any further information. A big thankyou once again to our tremendous sponsors for the 2015 season: Bendigo Bank – Murrumbena, Mulgrave Country Club, Camberwell Toyota, Camp Australia, Box Hill Senior Secondary College, Telstra Business Centre South Melbourne, Diadora, Musashi, Tile Importer, Genuine Print and Subway.

NORTHERN KNIGHTS

Today, we welcome the Oakleigh Chargers to Preston City Oval for our Round 15 clash in the TAC Cup. We invite all players, parents & staff of both teams to attend our Aftermatch in 'The Grandstand' Function Room, 30 minutes after the game. Congratulations to Jade Gresham, Brayden Fiorini, Tyrone Leonardis & Darcy Macpherson on being nominated to attend the NAB AFL National Draft Combine in October. We wish these four boys all the best for the remainder of the season and at the combine. We also hope to see more of our players elevated to attend the National Combine or invited to attend the Victorian State Combine. Again, we acknowledge our Major Sponsor Technika, a leading producer of high quality kitchen & laundry appliances, for their 5th year as Major Sponsor of the Club. We also thank our other Club Sponsors for their support and generosity in season 2015: Silver Sponsor: X Staff Electrical (Darren Miles); Pasta Night Sponsor: 7 Chefs (Pino Pulcino); Bronze Sponsors: Caydon Property (Elvia Russo), Craig McKay Plumbing (Craig McKay), Erco Works (Aldo & Desy Ercolano), The Salvation Army Crossroads Network (Karen Hagan); Club Supporter Sponsors: Sportsgrass (Jim Marchbank), Epping Chiropractic Center (Michael El Moussalli), Nest Build & Construct (Shannon Malone), Manhattan Plumbing & Drainage (Ewan Smith), Elite Interior Solutions (Sam Zaffino), Slushie Guru's (Koray Barkut), All Day Distribution (Sam Fiorini), and Syndicate Property Group (Kevin Perry). Finally a big thank you to all our Player Sponsors across our U/18 TAC Cup Squad, U/16 Max Richardson Squad & U/15 Keith Burns Squad. We appreciate the support and financial contribution all these Sponsors & Donors have provided to the Northern Knights Talented Player Pathway.

SANDRINGHAM DRAGONS

The Dragons would like to thank all of the players and parents who made it down to our major fundraising event during the last development weekend. We would also like to thank Simon Madden who hosted the night and 2011 premiership coach Dale Tapping for making his way down to the event to talk to the boys about the next step up to either AFL or VFL level. Congratulations to Michael Rogers who took out first prize in the raffle as well as other prize winners Cam Polson and Callum Heath. Congratulations to Harley Balic, invited to the National Combine at the end of the year, and U15 Dragon Joel Crocker named in the School Sport Australia Championships All-Australian squad. Also a big congratulations to all our Brighton Grammar boys (Nick Pavlou, Kyle Parsons, Blake Hayes, Alex Mastromanno & Andrew McGrath) who took out the 2015 APS Premiership making it back-to-back premierships.

WESTERN JETS

The Western Jets would like to thank the Murray Bushrangers for hosting us in Shepparton today and for all of our parents and staff for making the journey out to the game. During the week the Western Jets conducted start-up meetings for the U/15 and U/16 Winter Squads. These two squads will have a month of training before two games against Northern and Calder in late August and early September. The Western Jets have set a date for the 2015 Barry Round Medal, it will again be held at the Yarraville Club on Tuesday, September 15th from 6:30pm. ## Draft Watch

We follow TAC Cup and VFL players on their AFL football journey as they attempt to make it in the big league.

Lever launches

Former Vic Metro captain Jake Lever has been nominated for the NAB Rising Star award after a stellar performance in defence for Adelaide against the Gold Coast Suns at Adelaide Oval on Saturday.

The 19-year-old had 24 disposals at 92 per cent efficiency, took 10 marks and proved a constant thorn in Gold Coast's side as it took the ball forward, recording seven rebound-50s in the Crows' 45-point win.

An ex-Calder Cannon, Lever was selected with pick no.14 at the 2014 NAB AFL Draft and has played seven senior matches for Adelaide since making his debut in Round 6.

He is averaging 16.1 disposals and 6.3 marks per game at AFL level, and is ranked first among players eligible for the Rising Star in rebound-50s per game.

The Romsey junior captained Vic Metro in the 2013 NAB AFL U18 Championships before injuring his ACL the following pre-season and subsequently missing the 2014 football year.

VFL graduates take centre stage

Several former Peter Jackson VFL players featured in one of the most anticipated AFL matches between Victorian clubs this season, the blockbuster between Richmond and Hawthorn at the MCG on Friday night.

The most recent graduate is ex-Northern Blues and Williamstown player Kane Lambert, who had played five consecutive matches for Richmond prior to this round, starring most recently in the Tigers' four-point loss to Fremantle last Saturday with 22 disposals, eight clearances, six tackles and four inside-50s.

The 23-year-old was taken by the Tigers with pick no.46 at last year's AFL Rookie Draft and after injuring his shoulder on debut in Round 2, Lambert has set about establishing himself in the fifth-placed Richmond outfit in recent weeks.

Based on the previous round's teams, Lambert was likely to be joined in Friday's blockbuster by four other VFL graduates: Richmond teammate Sam Lloyd (ex-Frankston) and Hawthorn stars Sam Mitchell (Box Hill Hawks), Josh Gibson (Port Melbourne) and Isaac Smith (North Ballarat).

Waite over for game 200

Former Murray Bushranger Jarrad Waite will play his 200th AFL game when his new team North Melbourne meets his original club Carlton at Etihad Stadium on Saturday night.

The 32-year-old was taken with pick no.46 in the 2001 AFL Draft as a father-son selection, with his father Vin Waite a dual Blues premiership player in the 1970s.

The 194cm Benalla product was used as both a key forward and key defender during his time with Carlton and has played as a marking target inside 50 for the Kangaroos since crossing to Arden Street for the 2015 season.

He has booted 275 career goals, often demonstrating his ability to turn matches through his impact on the scoreboard.
